

LOCALS

Mr and Mrs. Frank Cross have received a cablegram from their son, Truman Cross, telling of his safety in France. The young man believing that his parents would be anxious about him, as he has been in action since arriving there, thoughtfully sent word. He also wished his parents and their family a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. He was one of the young men of Oregon City engaging in the big fight shortly before the signing of the armistice. He is a member of the 157th Military Police, and of Company H. Ernest Cross, a brother, is in France, but expects to be home by New Years according to letters having been received here.

Charles Nelson, of this city, salesman for the Brunswick machines whose territory is in Oregon and Washington, underwent a critical operation at Good Samaritan hospital on December 23, for removal of abscess of the stomach. Mr. Nelson was at the bedside of her husband, but returned to Oregon City Saturday. Mr. Nelson is improving, and will be able to return to his home in Oregon City within a few weeks. It was while on the street of Portland that Mr. Nelson was stricken, and it was necessary to remove him immediately to the hospital to be operated upon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Anderson, who have been in the confectionery business in Oregon City for twelve years, and disposed of their place of business to Julius Goldsmith, have purchased an 1100-acre ranch in Eastern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson and son, Lloyd, are to take up their residence on their newly acquired property shortly after New Year's day. Central Oregon. This is a stock farm, and with the farm goes 141 head of beef cattle. There are 260 acres of the land planted to alfalfa, and the remainder is in pasture and fruit trees.

Frank Champion, Jr., known among his friends as "Champ", is spending his twelve-days furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Champion, of Canemah. He was one of the first to answer his country's call, enlisting in the navy April 21, 1917. He is a member of the naval band, stationed at Balboa Park Naval Training Camp, San Diego, Calif. He was selected as yell leader of the Balboa Park Football team, the champions of Southern California. "Champ" says navy life is great, but there is no place like home in Oregon City.

Mr and Mrs. R. E. Cherrico and family arrived in Oregon City, and have taken up their residence at Maple Lane, at the former home of the late Douglas Thorne. Mr. Cherrico and E. W. Smith, of this city, who is connected with the Brady Mercantile Company, were in the government service at the Standing Rock Reservation in South Dakota. Mr. Cherrico and family have just come from Montana, and are much impressed with the mild climate of Oregon, and especially of Clackamas county.

Gerald Warner, who has been with the Shipping Board, stationed at San Francisco, received his honorable discharge from service, and returned to his home in this city. Gerald was in the navy and stationed at Mare Island for some time, but received an honorable discharge at Bremerton, Wash., March 25. He later entered the service, and has for the past six months been stationed at San Francisco. He arrived here in time to spend Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Augusta Warner.

Frank Ackerman, stationed at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., who has been spending Christmas week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Badger, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Friday on his way to Vancouver. Private Ackerman expects to be mustered out of service within a few weeks. He is a member of the 17th Spruce Squadron, of the Second Provisional Regiment, and during the summer was an engineer at the large spruce mills at Vancouver. His home is at Bay City, Wash.

Ensign Lyle Kellogg, who has been on the U. S. S. Rhode Island, has arrived at Seattle, but was disappointed in not being able to visit his home in this city on Christmas. It has been almost four years since Ensign Kellogg has visited his home. He is the son of Mrs. Ina M. Kellogg. He was recently ordered to the University of Washington at Seattle, and is at the present time marshal of the training camps. His brother, from last reports, is still in France.

Mrs. Julius Spagle and family, who have been at the Presidio, San Francisco, where Lieutenant Spagle is stationed, have returned to Oregon City. They have been visiting for several weeks at Barlow, where they have as guests of Mrs. Spagle's mother, Lieutenant Spagle expects to receive his honorable discharge from the army soon, and he then will resume his position as mailing clerk at the local postoffice.

Albertus B. Baker, of Pullman, Wash., was in Oregon Saturday, having been at Highland, where he was looking after property interests. He made a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck, of Thirteenth and Main streets. Mr. Woodbeck and Mr. Baker were friends in the East 37 years ago, and this is the first time they have met in ten years.

F. M. McKechnie, who has been in the navy, stationed at Mare Island, received his honorable discharge from the service. Mr. McKechnie, formerly night editor of the Enterprise, has been editor of the Short Circuit, a magazine published at Mare Island, and a most creditable publication. Mr. McKechnie has accepted a position with the San Francisco News.

Mrs. Fay Argo, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. R. Gregory, of Greenwood, near Oregon City, and also her sisters, the Misses Shriver, of Portland, will leave Monday for her home in Ohio. She also visited her two little children, who are for the present with their aunts in Portland.

Word has been received from Lieutenant O. A. Welch, telling of his honorable discharge from the service, and is at the present time attending the Mayo clinics at Rochester, Minnesota. He will remain there for about eight weeks, when he will return here to again resume his practice in medicine.

Born, Saturday, December 28, to the wife of Private Crowley, a daughter. Mrs. Crowley was formerly Miss Hattie Irwin, of Barlow. Mr. Crowley is in the service, stationed at Joyce, Wash. Mrs. Irwin, of Barlow, arrived here, and is with her daughter, where she will remain for several weeks.

Congratulations are finding their way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Van Hoy, a daughter having arrived Saturday, December 21. Mrs. Van Hoy, formerly Miss Elsie Chandler, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler. The grandparents are very proud of the new arrival.

John Mason, who has been in the service, connected with the draft board at the court house, has gone to Camp Lewis, Wash., where he is to be mustered out of service. As soon as he receives his honorable discharge he will take up his duties as an instructor in the Eugene high school.

Herbert Harris, who is in the navy, and stationed at Mare Island, received his honorable discharge and is to return to his home within a few days, making the trip home by steamer. Harris was a student of the Oregon Agricultural College when he enlisted.

William Hamilton, who is in the medical corps and stationed at Vancouver Barracks, has returned to his duties at the barracks after a few days' furlough spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, of this city.

Mrs. McCord, and son, Linwood, of Portland, who have been in Oregon City, where they have been guests of Mrs. McCord's mother, Mrs. W. W. H. Samson, left for their home Monday evening. Mrs. McCord was formerly Miss Echo Samson, of this city.

Sergeant Wesley Milliken, who has been stationed at Fort Stevens, has returned to Oregon City and joined his family. He has received his honorable discharge from service. Sergeant Milliken was disappointed in not being able to go to France.

Miss Evangeline Dye, a student of the Oregon Agricultural college, is spending her holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye. Miss Dye will remain in this city until January 6, when she will resume her studies at Corvallis.

Miss Merle Dimick, who is an instructor in the North Bend school, is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Judge and Mrs. Grant B. Dimick. Miss Dimick is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dimick near Hubbard.

S. O. Dillman, while practicing gymnastic exercises on Sunday, had the misfortune of dislocating his knee. It was necessary to secure the services of a physician, and Dillman is now wearing a plaster cast on his knee.

Miss Rose Winkelman has resigned her position as teacher in the Gladstone schools and will accept a similar one with the Portland schools. Mrs. Elizabeth Paddock will fill the vacancy caused by the resignation.

Born, December 24, to the wife of Private Ellis Graves, of Canemah, a daughter. Private Graves is stationed in France with Company C, Eighth Infantry. Mrs. Graves is the daughter of Mrs. John Molzan, of Canby.

Miss Anna Smith, who has been spending the Christmas holidays with her sister, Miss Edith Smith, of Gladstone, has returned to Tacoma, where she will resume her duties as an instructor in the city schools.

J. P. Cook, of Manzanita Beach, Tillamook county, has arrived here, and is visiting his son, Deputy Assessor William Cook. He is also visiting his home place at Hazelia, and looking after property interests.

E. E. Pettit has purchased the home of C. H. Friedrich, on Eighth and Monroe streets. He has taken possession, and Mr. and Mrs. Friedrich have taken up their residence at Eighth and Jackson streets.

Miss Jennie Carr, teacher in the Kerns school, Portland, was in Oregon City Friday. While here she was the guest of Mrs. R. M. C. Brown and the latter's sister, Mrs. Jennie Stillwell, of Molalla Avenue.

Mrs. L. Armstrong and daughter, Mrs. G. Muhl, of St. Johns, and the latter's daughter, Vivian, are in Oregon City, where they are guests of Mrs. Armstrong's sister, Mrs. Clarence Farr.

Mrs. Agnes Silver, of Vancouver, Wash., but formerly of this city, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Chambers, of West Linn, returned to Vancouver Monday morning.

W. E. Frazier and daughter, Miss Frazier, of Estacada, were in Oregon City Thursday. Mr. Frazier is one of the well known stockmen of Clackamas county, and is specializing on sheep.

Sergeant Walter Moore, stationed at Vancouver Barracks, Wash., was a guest of his aunt, Mrs. Arthur Millin on Christmas Day. Moore has made rapid advance since entering the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph A. Hassel, of Ninth and Division streets, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son at their home. The little fellow made his appearance, December 27.

Herbert Harris arrived from Mare Island, receiving his honorable discharge from the navy. He will resume his studies at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Edward Busch passed through Oregon City Sunday evening from Fort Kearney, Cal., to Camp Lewis, Wash., where he will be mustered out of service.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirchem, of Logan, were in Oregon City Friday. They are among the active workers of the Red Cross Society.

William Schatz, of Stafford, one of the well known farmers of that place, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Ivan Foust and John Edmonds, of Mulino, were in Oregon City Saturday, where they transacted business.

Eugene Niles of Camp Lewis, spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Jennie Niles, of Mount Pleasant.

Born, December 25, to the wife of William Irving Blackstone, of Jennings Lodge, a daughter.

R. W. Zimmerman, of Aurora, who is deputy county roadmaster, was in Oregon City Thursday.

J. C. Hargden, of Stafford, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Tuesday.

George Clark, prominent resident of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City on business Saturday.

Born, December 25, to the wife of Fred L. Freeman, of Canemah, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mooney of Clackamas, were in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. E. L. Sharp and son, Gilbert, of Stafford, were in Oregon City Saturday.

Born, December 25, to the wife of Charles Biekner, of Oswego, a son.

Dan Watta, of Stone, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

P. H. Jarisch, of Oswego, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday.

E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

C. J. Carlson, of Clarkes, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

AUSTRAINS ARRESTED AT MILWAUKIE FOR POSSESSING LIQUOR

Joe Blach and George Protika, Austrians, who were arrested Saturday night at Milwaukie, for bootlegging and brought here by the Milwaukie officers, were released on $200 bail.

Monday morning Marshall Riley of Milwaukie, came here to get the prisoners, as he wanted to try them at Milwaukie in the city court, and the ball was turned over to him.

The men will be given a trial the latter part of the week.

MISS HOFFMAN IS MARRIED AT WEISER, IDAHO

Miss Margaret Hoffman, formerly of this city, where she resided for some time and has many friends, was united in marriage December 24 to J. B. Adrain, of Weiser, Idaho.

In the announcement of this wedding a mistake was made and the name of the bridesmaid, Miss Kathleen Kivett was used in place of that of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrain are to make their home at Weiser, where the former is engaged in business.

SUIT ENTERED ON CONTRACT OF LAND SALE

Harold Dewalde entered suit Friday to annul a contract to buy property made by Edward Shearer in 1911.

The contract was made by C. N. Worracott and the defendant and Worracott later turned this over to the plaintiff and the latter alleges that only a part of the price has been paid and the balance is due, $300 was the amount paid down and judgment is asked for the remainder.

FAIR ASSOCIATION REPORTS

The annual report of the Clackamas County Fair association, held at Canby last September, just made to the county court by G. B. Dimick, president, shows that the sum of $1401.25 was paid in premiums from the fund raised by a levy of one half of a mill and that the expenses for labor and miscellaneous items were paid from the gate receipts, totaling $805.24.

Defendants in the care of Peter Hornig vs Canby were granted additional time to present bill of exceptions by the circuit court Monday.

COMMISSION ON PROPERTY SALE CAUSES SUIT

S. E. Wooster entered suit against Meta Berg to collect a commission on the sale of real estate in this county. He alleges that the defendant agreed to pay him 4 per cent commission provided he sold the property for $1200. The agreement was made December 9, 1918, and the property sold December 24.

He alleges that the plaintiff refused to pay the commission and he asks judgment for the amount and costs of the case.

DIVORCE COMPLAINTS ENTERED TUESDAY IN CIRCUIT COURT

Lucile Myers and Edward Myers were married in Portland June 5, 1904, and in the divorce complaint filed Tuesday he alleges that she has treated him cruel and inhuman for a number of years.

He says he had been a dutiful husband and turned his pay over to her and otherwise treated her good.

There are three children of the couple and he agrees that she have the custody of these and he will pay a reasonable sum for their support.

Bertha Brown entered suit Tuesday against Frank P. Brown on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

They were married in Portland August 29, 1910, and she alleges that soon after he met another woman and paid her much attention and on September 20, 1918, he took this woman to Tacoma and married her and she knew nothing of this until called to testify against him on a polygamy charge in Portland, where they had been living. He was found guilty of the charge.

She asks for a decree of divorce and the right to resume her maiden name of Bertha Russell.

COUNCIL WINDS UP BUSINESS AND VOTES THANKS TO MAYOR

The old council wound up their business at a special meeting Monday night when the following were present: Ely, Frederick, Bridges, Buckles and Tobin.

Chief of Police Cooke made his report for the past month when seven were arrested and $15 in fines was collected.

Mayor Hackett gave a short address and Councilman Tobin spoke on the good work of the mayor and of the good relations that existed between the council and mayor. He said that the financial condition of the city was in good order for the new council to start business with.

Councilman Bridges also spoke of the excellent work of the mayor, vote of thanks was taken by the council for their appreciation of Mayor Hackett.

HUSBAND THREATENS LIFE OF WIFE AND SHE ASKS DIVORCE

Mabelle A. Clarke entered suit Wednesday against William G. Clarke for divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

She alleges that soon after marriage he started this treatment and before marriage he threatened to kill her if she did not marry him and she did so through fear.

She claims that he cursed her before her mother and this caused her much embarrassment and humiliation. She says he is a flirt and at one time she found a letter in his pocket from another woman showing his affection for the latter.

She claims that he is extremely jealous of her without just cause and she asks a divorce and the right to resume her maiden name of Mabelle Arnett.

They were married in Portland, September 11, 1918.

Harriett M. Stamos and Peter N. Stamos were married in Butte, Mont., March 20, 1918, and in her divorce suit entered Thursday she alleges that immediately after marriage he began to treat her cruel and inhuman.

The complaint alleges that in the latter part of April he drew a revolver and threatened to kill her and has also threatened her on several occasions.

She further alleges that he refused to provide for her either in food or clothes.

SUIT ON NOTE

John Hammelman entered suit against A. J. E. Vick et al to collect on a note made by G. A. and Maggie Cobb to the plaintiff for $1000. This note was made in 1917 and the defendants claim an interest in the property given to secure the note.

Nothing has been paid on the note and plaintiff asks for a judgment and the foreclosure of the mortgage and payment of the note and costs of the case and $100 attorney's fees.

DECREES GRANTED

Ida Fulford was given a decree of divorce from A. C. Fulford in the circuit court Monday.

Gertrude Ober was granted a decree and the custody of the minor children of the couple Monday.

LICENSE TO WED

Frank M. Easterdahl, 32, of Portland, and Margaret D. Carson, 27, of this county, were granted a license to wed here Tuesday by the county clerk.

OSWEGO SCHOOL OPENS

OSWEGO, Or., Dec. 31.—The Oswego school opened yesterday after an enforced vacation of three weeks, owing to the epidemic of influenza. The attendance was poor, only 50 per cent of the total enrollment being present. Thus far the school faculty has escaped the epidemic, and no deaths have occurred among the school children. All students that cough or sneeze are sent home at once.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Wanda Fessler was granted a divorce from Paul Fessler Thursday in the circuit court and the custody of the minor child.

DIVORCES ARE ASKED IN CIRCUIT COURT BY UNHAPPY PEOPLE

Rose B. Richter and William F. Richter were married in Seattle November 24, 1910, and in her divorce suit entered here Saturday she alleges cruel and inhuman treatment.

She claims that he called her vile names and cursed her and unjustly accused her of being untrue to him. She alleges that he often called her a fool and insinuated she did not have good sense.

He would get angry at her and become so violent that she feared him and could not live with him she says.

She claims that she had worked for her living for several months and he has not contributed toward her support during that time.

She asks a divorce and the right to resume her maiden name of Rose McFarland.

Suit for divorce was entered here Saturday by Joseph D. Jackson against Anna Laura Jackson on the grounds of desertion. They were married in Whatcom county, Washington, 1898.

He alleges that in 1913 it was to his financial interest to come to Oregon and she refused to come with him and has since refused to do so.

There are four children of the couple and the defendant has two of these and the plaintiff the other two. He asks the custody of those in his care and agrees that the plaintiff keep the others.

Letha May Burton and Bertin Alvin Burton were married at Rogers, Arkansas, April 9, 1916, and in the divorce suit entered Saturday plaintiff alleges he deserted her immediately after marriage ceremony and never came back.

She asks for a divorce and the right to resume her maiden name of Letha May Van Ness.

COUNCIL WINDS UP BUSINESS AND VOTES THANKS TO MAYOR

The old council wound up their business at a special meeting Monday night when the following were present: Ely, Frederick, Bridges, Buckles and Tobin.

Chief of Police Cooke made his report for the past month when seven were arrested and $15 in fines was collected.

Mayor Hackett gave a short address and Councilman Tobin spoke on the good work of the mayor and of the good relations that existed between the council and mayor. He said that the financial condition of the city was in good order for the new council to start business with.

Councilman Bridges also spoke of the excellent work of the mayor, vote of thanks was taken by the council for their appreciation of Mayor Hackett.

COLORED GENTLEMEN ARRESTED FRIDAY BY SHERIFF WILSON

Albert Lucurgus, John Frazier, colored, and D. M. Brown, white, were arrested by Sheriff Wilson Tuesday morning at about 9:30 on the Hill Road near New Era, charged with violation of the prohibition law.

Their car was going at about 60 miles an hour and the occupants evidently did not intend to stop. Sheriff Wilson turned his car across the road and drew a gun and they decided to stop when ordered to do so.

Seven suitcases of liquor were found in the car and the men were brought to Oregon City and when the negroes were taken to jail and the officers were unloading the car, the driver started up and drove to Portland. Deputy Meads went after him and brought him back.

Lucurgus pleaded guilty and was fined $250 and the other two were released on $150 bail each.

With this fine nearly $1500 had been collected through the sheriff's office for the past month.

Lucurgus formerly lived at Canby and was the only colored man from this county in the draft.

LAND COMPANY SUES

The Savon Land Company, a Minnesota concern doing business in Oregon, has entered suit against Isaac Halbacker, John Bofts, John Pesola, Gust Vilnen and John Jokrineta to collect on contracts to buy property.

Each defendant has a separate suit entered against him, as the property consists of several tracts and each is in the name of a defendant.

This property is located in Clackamas county and the defendants have paid in a part of the contract price and some of them have not paid the interest and taxes. Plaintiff asks a settlement in full for the various amounts.

NEW WIRE CHIEF ARRIVES

N. Drake, from the Portland office of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, has arrived in Oregon City to succeed R. F. Woodward as wire chief of the local system of the company, the latter having been promoted to wire chief of the Salem system.

HOME GUARDS GIVE DANCE TUESDAY NIGHT

The most successful social event of the season was the ball given at the Busch hall New Year's Eve, when the Home Guards acted as hosts of the evening. This affair was given under the auspices of Company L, and was attended by many of the lovers of dancing, who thoroughly enjoyed the music furnished by Busch's orchestra.

Many of the latest selections were played, and were full of "pop."

The committee was composed of Bert Staats, Louis Nobel, Jr., and Lloyd Nickerson, and much credit is due these men for the brilliant success of this social event.

MISS KATHLEEN KIVETT MARRIED IN IDAHO DURING XMAS WEEK

The marriage of Miss Kathleen Kivett, formerly of this city, and Mr. J. B. Adrain, a former young stockman of Baker, was solemnized at Weiser, Idaho, during Christmas week. The marriage ceremony was performed by Hon. Robert N. Stanfield.

Following the marriage ceremony the friends of the bride and bridegroom tendered them with a banquet at the Hotel Washington, where they were presented with many handsome gifts.

For the past three years Mr. Adrain has been interested in the stock business in Eastern Oregon and Western Idaho. He is vice president and director of the United States National Bank at Vale, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrain are to make their future home at Boise, Idaho.

NEW YEAR PASSES QUIETLY HERE WITH SEVERAL PARTIES

New Years was ushered in very quietly in this city, although several watch parties were held, among these being at the Methodist church, where a large audience attended.

The big ball given by the home guards was well attended and everybody danced the old year out and the New Year in.

As the old year slipped out church bells rang and a fair sized crowd was on the street making merry.

Both theatres gave mid-night matinees and a jolly crowd attended these. Much merriment was manifested by the theatre parties and both shows had exceptional programs.

Most stores were closed for the day, and those that remained open closed early to allow employees to enjoy New Years.

ENTERTAINMENT AT ABERNETHY GRANGE EXCEPTIONALLY GOOD

The meeting of the Abernethy Grange held last Saturday was the first since the influenza epidemic and was one of the most pleasing held for some time.

An exceptionally fine program was given and E. C. Dye, master of ceremonies, gave a brief address which was well received.

The leading entertainment feature on the program was the recitation by Mrs. Bennett, entitled, "Widow O'Flaherty Before the Movie Camera," a piece of her own composition that cast perfectly harmless jibes, by name at her auditors, and which compared well with the sallies of not a few vaudeville stars.

Miss Fern Wirtz, accompanied by Miss Martha McLarty, rendered in an especially pleasing manner, a song, entitled, "The Little Grey Home in the West."

The Misses Maxine Robey, May Tobin and Queneve Aldredge sang, "When Our Boys Come Marching Home," and gave a short aesthetic dance and recited a poem entitled, "Huns, ha, ha, ha." This young trio made their usual hit.

Prof. Kohler rendered a Concert Waltz, and encore, on his Zither, which aroused considerable enthusiasm.

The Christmas Season was brought home by a recitation on "Santa Claus" by little Gladys Johnson.

WEDDING SOLEMNIZED AT CENTRAL POINT ON CHRISTMAS DAY

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized Christmas Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Shinn, of Central Point, when their daughter, Miss Ella Shinn, and Mr. William Gruber, of Pierce county, Wash., were united in marriage. Rev. A. J. Joslyn, of Canby, officiated. Many friends attended the marriage ceremony, also a number of relatives.

Following the marriage ceremony a sumptuous dinner was served.

The rooms of the Shinn home were prettily decorated and appropriate for the holiday season.

CLARENCE P. MALLET DIES ON WEDNESDAY AT MULINO HOME

Clarence Porter Mallett, who died at the family home at Mulino, December 25, 1918, was well known here and at Mulino. He was the fourth child of a family of seven born to Joshua and Lydia Mallett. At the time of his death his age was 37 years, 11 months and 25 days.

In 1885 his parents moved their family to Mulino where they have resided ever since.

On August 19, 1904, he was united in marriage to Ella Frances Evans. To this union were born the following children: Edgworth, Ernest, Viola, Florence, Edgar, Arden and Frances. He is also survived by his father, Joshua Mallett, a sister, Mrs. Fish, of Mulino; three brothers: J. J. Mallett, Jr., of Mulino; Ernest Mallett, of Oregon City; George Mallett, of Eastern Oregon.

OREGON CITY MAN DIES THURSDAY OF SPANISH INFLUENZA

George Eggmann, one of the well known young men of Oregon City, died at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland Thursday morning after a few days' illness of influenza.

The body has been brought to Oregon City for burial and is at the funeral parlors of Holman & Brady.

Mr. Eggmann is well known throughout Clackamas county. He was proprietor of the Red Front Livery barn in this city at the time of his illness.

Mr. Eggmann is survived by his wife, who is also ill with influenza, his mother, Mrs. Mary Eggmann and two brothers, William and Frank Eggmann, of this city.

ARNOLD HARRIS LAID TO REST IN MOUNT VIEW

The funeral services over the remains of Arnold Henry Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Harris, of Portland, were conducted at the Brady funeral parlors Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The young man died from the effects of influenza, this having developed into brain trouble and