

LOCALS

Mrs. Emma Thomas received a telegram Saturday from her son, First Class Sergeant H. L. (Hub) Thomas, from Brooks Field, San Antonio, Texas, saying that he was to leave for home Tuesday morning, and would pass through Oregon City about next Sunday on his way to Camp Lewis, where he is to be mustered out of the service. "Hub", as he is known by his many friends in Oregon City, has been in the aviation service, and has been stationed in Texas for 14 months. He will resume his position with the Star theatre in Portland as an operator. Many of Hub's friends here are planning to greet him when the train pulls in upon his arrival from Texas.

Sergeant H. Kabat, who has been with the 58th Spruce Division, recently stationed at Vancouver Barracks, was in Oregon City Wednesday, coming to visit his uncle, Charles Ladd, whom he had never seen. Sergeant Kabat enlisted in the army at Reese, Michigan, on September 17, 1917, with the intention of going overseas, but instead was transferred to the western coast, and placed in the spruce division. So impressed with Oregon, Sergeant Kabat has decided to remain in the Northwest, and has already accepted a position with the Standtler Steel Corporation at Vancouver.

Wallace Mass, who has been in France, arrived safely in Hoboken, N. J., according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mass, Sr., of this city. Wallace has been in the hospital for some time. He is expected to arrive in Oregon City soon. His brother, Ernest Mass, has received his honorable discharge from the service, having been in the navy, is also expected to arrive here soon. He is for the present visiting his sister, Miss Ada Mass, who is engaged in teaching at Grand Island, Nebraska.

Mrs. Elva Peterson, nee Elva Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Blanchard of Twelfth and Monroe streets, who underwent a critical operation on her knee at Good Samaritan hospital two weeks ago, is improving. The parents of Mrs. Peterson received word from their daughter Monday saying that she was improving from the effects of the operation, and that the cast was removed from the knee. Mrs. Peterson has been suffering from this injury for a number of years.

Z. Elligen, one of the prominent farmers of Clackamas county, whose home is in the Sherwood country, was in Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Elligen says many families in his district are suffering from influenza, and that his family has not escaped. Two of his children are ill with the disease, also a Miss Davis, teacher of the school near his home, who is making her headquarters at the Elligen home, is also ill. Miss Davis' home is in Oregon City.

Lieutenant Albert J. Scotho, who has been with the First company, Prov. Battalion, I. C. O. T. S., Camp Pike, Arkansas, where he had been stationed for the past five months, has returned to Oregon City. He has received his honorable discharge from the service. Lieutenant Scotho is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Scotho of Mountain View addition, where he will visit with friends at the Oregon Agricultural college.

Steve Hungate and his brother, Major Hungate of Molalla, were in Oregon City Monday. Their brother, Graham Hungate, prominent resident of Molalla, died in that place about two weeks ago, a few weeks following the death of his wife and little six-year-old son, all three of whom were victims of the influenza. The only one escaping in the family was a four-year-old son, who is with relatives at Molalla.

Lieutenant John Matheson, who has been stationed at Berkeley, Cal., and has been assistant to the adjutant general at that place, returned to Oregon City a few days ago, and has gone to Powell River. Lieutenant Matheson has received his honorable discharge from the service, and after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Matheson of that place, will resume his studies at the University of Oregon.

Edward Beach, who has been in the army, and for some time stationed at Camp Kearney, Cal., after being at Camp Lewis, returned to Oregon City Wednesday evening. He has been a member of a Motor Transport Company, and was recently sent to Camp Lewis, Wash., to receive his honorable discharge. He will resume his duties with the Busch store.

Mrs. Gus Croissant, nee Mable Lowery of Canby, but now of Tacoma, Wash., while her husband is at Camp Lewis, has returned to Tacoma, after being summoned here by the illness of her mother, Mrs. William Cantwell. Mrs. Cantwell is making her home for the winter with her sister, Mrs. William Dann of Gladstone.

A. H. Finnegan of Canemah, one of the well-known strawberry propagators, shipped to California markets Wednesday 18,000 berry plants. These were of the New Oregon variety. Mr. Finnegan will ship 150,000 plants to San Francisco, and the Wednesday shipment was among the first to be sent out this season.

Jake Risley, who is in the navy, and still stationed at Mare Island, Cal., has arrived here on a brief furlough, and is visiting his mother, Mrs. C. A. Risley of Risley station. Mr. Risley is accompanied by his wife, and she is making her home in San Francisco while her husband is in the service.

Chester Carothers, who was one of the first young men from this city to respond to his country's call, received his honorable discharge, and has returned to Oregon City from Camp Lewis. Mr. Carothers will resume his position with the Portland Railway, Light & Power company.

Sergeant W. A. Matheson, who has been stationed at Hoquiam and Aberdeen, Washington, since 1917, has been transferred to Vancouver Barracks. He is making the daily trips to this city, his home city, and reports for duty at the barracks each morning.

Miss Tiny Liest of Portland, teacher of the North Logan school, and Miss Beatrice Crowther of Portland, teacher of the Deep Creek school, attended the teachers' meeting at the Gladstone school Saturday and were week-end guests of Miss Erma Calavan.

John F. Erickson, who has been in the service, and was mustered out, has returned to Oregon City. Mr. Erickson, after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Erickson of Eighth and Jackson streets, will resume his position with the J. I. Case company.

Ivan Frost, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Frost of this city, and who is employed by the Western Union Telegraph company, is very ill at Vancouver, suffering from influenza. He is in the hospital at that place, and the father is at his bedside.

Mrs. Jennie Niles of Lawton Heights, near Canemah, received a telegram Saturday evening from her sons, Ralph and Royal, telling of their safe return from France. They landed at New York and are now at Camp Mills.

Mrs. L. D. Williams, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Forbes Barclay Pratt, returned to Mount Pleasant, where she is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King, during her husband's absence in France.

C. H. Rider of Greenwood, visited his wife at the Oregon City hospital Tuesday. Mrs. Rider underwent an operation last week and is rapidly recovering and expects to return to her home the last of the week.

Albert Schiewe, who has been in the naval service, received his honorable discharge and returned to his home at Clarkes. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schiewe of Clarkes, prominent residents of that place.

Dr. Frank Friedrichs, of Astoria, arrived here where he was called to the bedside of his father, Gustave Friedrichs, who is critically ill, suffering from a stroke of paralysis. His condition is unchanged.

W. A. Barnum, who was called to his home at Mount Pleasant by the illness of his family suffering from influenza, has returned to Wanna, where he is connected with a large lumbering plant.

Henry Kruse, who has been visiting his father, O. A. Kruse of Mount Pleasant, left Sunday evening for Berkeley, Cal., where he will resume his studies in the University of California.

Carl DeWitt Douglas, son of Mrs. Viola Douglas, of Barton, was accidentally shot and instantly killed Monday morning, according to word from Fort Stevens, where the accident occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. King of Portland, accompanied by Miss Robinson of that city, were at Mount Pleasant Sunday, where they visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King.

Mrs. M. Schultz, who is mail carrier on Oregon City Route 1, is seriously ill at her home suffering from influenza. Postmaster J. J. Cooke is now acting in the capacity of mailcarrier.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cherrick who recently arrived in Oregon City from Montana, and have taken up their residence at Maple Lane, were in Oregon City Friday.

J. B. Michler and daughters, Ruby and Opal, of Elliott's Prairie, were in Oregon City Tuesday. Mr. Michler is one of the prominent farmers of Clackamas county.

Mrs. Viola Tate and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Darioles were in Lents Wednesday morning to attend the funeral services of the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Amy Kellogg.

John F. Mason, who has been among those mustered out of service at Camp Lewis, has gone to Eugene, where he has accepted a position as a teacher in the schools.

W. A. Carlson, one of the prominent residents and breeders of Guernsey cattle, whose stock farm is located at Redland, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. Elmer Graves of Clarkes, was among those to visit Oregon City Tuesday. Her husband is in the Marine Corps, stationed at San Francisco.

Born, Thursday, Route 5, Oregon City, a daughter, to Mrs. Rudolph Schroeder. Mr. Schroeder died about two weeks ago from influenza.

George Gregory of Molalla, who has been in Oregon City and in Portland on business, returned to his home Thursday afternoon.

G. V. Adams of Molalla, who is serving on the grand jury, has taken up his duties. He returns to his home each evening.

John Beatie of Beaver Creek, who was recently mustered out of the naval service, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Eugene Cummings of Boardman,

Umatilla county, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Tuesday.

E. A. Shaver of Molalla, has arrived in Oregon City, and has taken up his duties with the grand jury.

E. O. Leek, well known farmer of the Redland district, was among the Oregon City visitors Saturday.

Mrs. W. P. Kirchem and daughter, of Logan, were among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

Michael Gaffney of Milwaukie, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Monday.

John Carlson of Oak Grove, was among those to transact business in this city Thursday.

J. J. Mills of Ingram Station, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Saturday.

Franz Kraxberger of Macksburg, was among those to transact business here Monday.

Born, January 16, to the wife of G. R. Hobbs of Clackamas, Route 1, a daughter.

P. M. Graves of Macksburg, was among those to visit Oregon City Tuesday.

W. A. Yeoman of Oregon City Route 4, was among the visitors here Monday.

Charles G. Johnson of Oswego, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday.

C. C. Borland and son, Arthur of Hazella, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

Born, January 16, to the wife of Cornelius Marr of Gladstone, a son.

Hugo M. Kroll and Myrtle Kroll were married at Montesano, Wash., May 14, 1914, and in his divorce suit entered Friday he alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and that she did not do her housework.

There are two children of the couple and he claims that she will not take care of these, leaving them hungry and dirty. He is a railroad engineer and he says he had to do the housework and take care of the children when he came home from work. His complaint alleges that she does nothing but read and he had tried to get her to do her work but could not. He asks a decree and the custody of the children.

William Swartgout entered suit against Susie Swartgout on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Falls River, Wisconsin, March 29, 1890, and there is one son of the couple, 24 years of age. He alleges that she deserted him at Minneapolis, January, 1917.

Albert Hunter and Victoria Hunter were married at Lake Creek, Idaho, August 20, 1912, and in his divorce suit entered Friday he alleges that she spent the most of her time in the company of other men and when he made objections she told him it was none of his business and that she liked the other men better than she did him. He alleges that she was away so much that he had to do most of the housework and that she deserted him in November, 1918, and has since refused to live with him. There is one child of the couple of which he asks the custody.

Emma M. Bennett entered suit against Claude A. Bennett on the grounds of desertion. They were married April 16, 1913, at South Bend, Wash., and she alleges that he deserted her in June, 1917, and has since refused to live with her. There are two children of the couple and she asks the custody of one of these.

It seems that Mrs. Hunter and Albert Bennett knew each other and also both knew that the divorce proceedings were started and they came to the court house together for the papers.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hendry have purchased the slightly lot owned by George C. Brownell on Ninth and Washington streets, and are to build a modern bungalow in the near future.

By the disposing of this lot this makes the third property transaction on this block during the past two weeks. Wallace Caulfield a few weeks ago purchased the Patterson lot and cottage adjoining that purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Hendry, and opposite Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Osmond have purchased the lot formerly owned by F. H. Cooper.

This is one of the most desirable locations in the city.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to May Ellen Grace of Oregon City, aged 22, and DeLyal J. Davis, 24, of Portland.

Miss Grace recently resigned her position as a teacher in the Clarkes schools and Mr. Davis was recently honorably discharged from the service.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grace, formerly of this city.

A HAPPY SOLDIER
Corporal Goldwin P. Wilson, a local boy, recently discharged from the service was very much downhearted one day but the next was very happy.
Soon after arriving here he had the misfortune to lose his honorable discharge papers and the first thing he did was to place a classified ad in the Enterprise.
As usual the results were speedy.
This ad ran one issue—the papers were found and the soldier informed of the fact.
This is just one more proof of the success of the ads in the Enterprise.
They are sure to bring results. Try them yourself and be convinced.

CALLER WIFE NAMES; TREATED HER CRUEL; DIVORCE IS ASKED
Annie F. Chambers and C. F. Chambers were married at Yakima, Wash., December 16, 1915, and in her divorce suit she alleges cruel and inhuman treatment. She says he was fault-finding and called her names such as "nut" and "nigger."

Effie E. Hanna alleges desertion in her suit for divorce against Aaron A. Hanna. They were married at Anacortes, Wash., June 20, 1907, and there are two children of the couple. The alleged desertion occurred at Portland April, 1915. She asks the custody of the children.

P. E. Gottschalk and Mamie Gottschalk were married at Janesville, Minn., September 26, 1901, and his complaint is that they cannot live harmoniously together. He said that at one time in Salem she had him arrested without cause.

Desertion is the charge of Leo Keller in a divorce suit against Mary E. Keller. They were married in Seattle, May 1, 1909, and have two children. He alleges the desertion occurred in November, 1917, and he has been keeping the children but is willing she should have them as long as she remains in the state. He will pay $35 a month for their support.

WIFE NEGLECTS WORK; READS ALL THE TIME; HUSBY ASKS DIVORCE
Hugo M. Kroll and Myrtle Kroll were married at Montesano, Wash., May 14, 1914, and in his divorce suit entered Friday he alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and that she did not do her housework.

There are two children of the couple and he claims that she will not take care of these, leaving them hungry and dirty. He is a railroad engineer and he says he had to do the housework and take care of the children when he came home from work. His complaint alleges that she does nothing but read and he had tried to get her to do her work but could not. He asks a decree and the custody of the children.

William Swartgout entered suit against Susie Swartgout on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Falls River, Wisconsin, March 29, 1890, and there is one son of the couple, 24 years of age. He alleges that she deserted him at Minneapolis, January, 1917.

Albert Hunter and Victoria Hunter were married at Lake Creek, Idaho, August 20, 1912, and in his divorce suit entered Friday he alleges that she spent the most of her time in the company of other men and when he made objections she told him it was none of his business and that she liked the other men better than she did him. He alleges that she was away so much that he had to do most of the housework and that she deserted him in November, 1918, and has since refused to live with him. There is one child of the couple of which he asks the custody.

Emma M. Bennett entered suit against Claude A. Bennett on the grounds of desertion. They were married April 16, 1913, at South Bend, Wash., and she alleges that he deserted her in June, 1917, and has since refused to live with her. There are two children of the couple and she asks the custody of one of these.

It seems that Mrs. Hunter and Albert Bennett knew each other and also both knew that the divorce proceedings were started and they came to the court house together for the papers.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hendry have purchased the slightly lot owned by George C. Brownell on Ninth and Washington streets, and are to build a modern bungalow in the near future.

By the disposing of this lot this makes the third property transaction on this block during the past two weeks. Wallace Caulfield a few weeks ago purchased the Patterson lot and cottage adjoining that purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Hendry, and opposite Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Osmond have purchased the lot formerly owned by F. H. Cooper.

This is one of the most desirable locations in the city.

A marriage license was issued Saturday to May Ellen Grace of Oregon City, aged 22, and DeLyal J. Davis, 24, of Portland.

Miss Grace recently resigned her position as a teacher in the Clarkes schools and Mr. Davis was recently honorably discharged from the service.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grace, formerly of this city.

AURORA MAN HELD UP ON SOUTH END ROAD BY LONE HIGHWAYMAN

Hold-up men were more than ordinarily busy in Clackamas county Tuesday as two robberies were reported between eight and twelve o'clock that night.

One hold-up was reported in the New Era district early in the evening when two men held up a resident of that section and later Enrich C. F. Boeche, Aurora, Route 4, who is stopping at the Willamette hotel in this city, reported to Night Officer Cooke that he was held up by one man about 11 o'clock on the South End Road.

Boeche had escorted a young lady home and was returning when the man flashed his light in Boeche's face and demanded him to throw up his hands. The latter refused to do so and the highwayman struck him on the head and knocked him unconscious.

He soon recovered and came to this city and reported the affair to the officer.

The young man had no valuables with him and nothing was taken by the robber. Whatever was used to strike Boeche was a blunt instrument as the flesh was not broken and the man soon regained consciousness.

NEW ERA RESIDENT HELD UP BY MASKED MEN TUESDAY NIGHT

Peter Colan, who lives on the road around the New Era hill, one-half mile from the town, was robbed of $55 Tuesday night by two masked men. They entered the house and held up Mr. Colan with a gun and evidently was well acquainted with the place as they seemed to know that the money was in the house.

One of the men was tall and was dressed in a dark suit of clothes and the other was short and wore a red mackinaw.

Mr. Colan is a bachelor and was alone at the time and as soon as the robbers left he phoned the local officers who will investigate the robbery.

PARKPLACE MAN SERIOUSLY ILL WITH APOPLEXY

Gustave Friedrichs, one of the well known residents of Clackamas county, whose home is near Parkplace, was stricken with a stroke of apoplexy at his home Monday morning and is still in a critical condition, and had not regained consciousness up to Tuesday evening.

Mr. Friedrichs had started to his place of employment in Oregon City, and was found forty minutes later by his daughter, Miss Marie Frederick, a deputy in the office of County Clerk Fred Miller. He was unconscious when found by Miss Frederick. Drs. H. S. and Guy Wood were immediately summoned from this city, and gave medical attention.

Mr. Frederick had charge of the furniture factory of Busch Furniture company.

JOE MURPHY IS SENTENCED FOR FIGHTING

Joe Murphy, who was arrested some ago for assault and battery on Marvin Eby was given a trial and found guilty of the charge. He was fined $10 and costs by Justice Sievers Saturday and refused to pay it as he said he was not guilty. He was taken to jail and will be held 17 days in lieu of the money.

Murphy was convicted several days ago and released pending sentence but failed to appear and was brought before the justice on a bench warrant.

DESERTION IS CHARGED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Desertion is the charge of Earl Gilkison against Charles A. Gilkison. They were married at St. Helens, Ore., July 3, 1911, and have two children, of which the mother asks the custody.

She alleges that he deserted her in July, 1916. She also asks $50 attorney's fees and $15 per month for the support of the children.

BOY INJURED
Clifford Junken, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Junken of Willamette, while cutting kindling Tuesday evening, cut his left hand badly, and almost severed the thumb from the hand. The lad was brought to the office of Dr. C. H. Meisner, where medical attention was given. Upon the arrival of the boy at the physician's office he had lost considerable blood, and was suffering much pain.

VANCOUVER MARRIAGE LICENSE
VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 20.—The following received license to wed at Vancouver today:
Byron Jones, 49, of Oregon City, Oregon; and Miss Annie Bernard, legal, of Oregon City, Oregon.

SERVICES FOR WM. FORSYTHE HELD TUESDAY

Funeral services over the remains of the late William Forsythe, who died in St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, Friday morning from erysipelas, were held at the Holman & Pace funeral parlors Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Rev. E. A. Smith, formerly of Oregon City, but now residing near Portland, and an old time friend of the family, officiated. Mrs. W. C. Green and Miss Naomi Armstrong and F. W. Parker sang impressively "Rock of Ages", "Somewhere the Sun is Shining", "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

The pallbearers were members of the Woodmen Lodge, and the interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

Mr. Forsythe was 56 years of age, and had been employed on the steamer Ruth for some time.

L. H. EVANS DIES AT CANEMAH AFTER VERY BRIEF ILLNESS

LeClaire Huston Evans of Portland, formerly of this city, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Spencer of Canemah, Thursday morning at 1:30 o'clock, after a brief illness of influenza.

LeClaire Huston Evans was born November 24, 1855, in Keokuk, Iowa, and was the son of the late Charles W. and Clara B. Evans, former residents of Oregon City. He came to Oregon City with his parents in 1902, and May 21, 1907, married Miss Lottie Louise Lovell of this city.

Shortly after his marriage Mr. Evans moved to Eugene and later to Medford. Two years ago he took up his residence in Portland, where he has since made his home. He was an inspector for the Columbia River shipyard company, and was holding that position at the time of his illness.

Mr. Evans accompanied his wife and little daughter, Maxine, to Oregon City New Year's day, where they spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer, the latter a sister of Mrs. Evans. Mrs. Evans was taken ill with influenza upon her arrival at the Spencer home, and Mr. Evans a few days following was stricken with the influenza.

Mr. Evans is survived by his widow, a daughter, Maxine, aged five years; a sister, Miss Lucile Evans, a student of the Oregon Agricultural college; and a brother, Irwin, of Portland.

The deceased was a member of the Elks lodge, and had many friends in this city as well as in Portland, where the family is well known. The father, Charles W. Evans, was a prominent resident of this city, and was engineer for the Willamette Navigation company for many years.

Mr. Evans, the father, died in Oregon City in January, 1915, and the mother in 1911.

DAVID HENRY MOSER DIES THURSDAY OF SPANISH INFLUENZA

Henry David Moser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Moser of Stafford, died at the family home Thursday morning, after a few days' illness of influenza. The lad was nine years of age. Several other members of the family are also afflicted with the same disease.

Besides the parents, the lad is survived by six sisters and four brothers, two children having previously died.

RAILROAD MAN PASSES AWAY LAST SUNDAY

Asher W. Ransom, who died at the family home on Fifth and Monroe streets, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, was employed by the Southern Pacific company as a baggage man in this city. He arrived in Oregon City two months ago, and has been suffering for about two weeks from influenza and pneumonia.

Asher Ransom was born in Michigan, and his age was 27 years, 3 months and 13 days. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ransom of Salem.

The deceased is survived by his widow of this city, and his parents of Salem.

The remains were shipped to Salem Monday morning for burial.

SERVICES HELD OVER REMAINS OF BEN BAXTER

The funeral services over the remains of the late Ben Baxter held at the funeral parlors of Holman & Pace Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock were largely attended by friends of the young man. He was well known here where he had resided most of his life until a few months ago when he moved to Sellwood. Rev. William Kraxberger, pastor of the Lutheran church, officiated, and a choir from that church sang several selections.

FORMER RESIDENT OF OREGON CITY PASSES AWAY IN PORTLAND

Mrs. Amy Kellogg, wife of Grant Eugene Kellogg, a former resident of Oregon City, but for the past six years of Lents, Multnomah county, died at the family home Monday morning at 6 o'clock, after a brief illness.

Although Mrs. Kellogg had been in poor health for several months her death came as a shock to her family, as she was taken critically ill while in Portland Saturday afternoon. She was removed to her home, but she rapidly failed until her death, which was caused by acute indigestion.

Mrs. Kellogg was born in Kansas, and was 43 years of age. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. House, formerly of Portland. She was united in marriage to Grant Kellogg in that city almost 23 years ago. After the marriage she accompanied her husband to this city, where they made their home for some time. Mr. Kellogg being connected with the Enterprise office.

Mrs. Kellogg is survived by her husband, Grant Eugene Kellogg of Lents, but in business in Portland; a daughter, Miss Marjorie Kellogg, of Portland; a son, Alfred Eugene Kellogg, with the 14th Coast Artillery, who has been in France, but now is on the ocean on his way home. She is also survived by a half sister, a half brother, and a brother.

Mrs. Kellogg is the sister-in-law of Mrs. Viola Tate of Oregon City, and Mrs. Nellie Spencer of Portland.

The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Kellogg were conducted by Mrs. James Mackenzie, of the Fifth Christian Science church, Portland, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Shortly after his marriage Mr. Evans moved to Eugene and later to Medford. Two years ago he took up his residence in Portland, where he has since made his home. He was an inspector for the Columbia River shipyard company, and was holding that position at the time of his illness.

Mr. Evans accompanied his wife and little daughter, Maxine, to Oregon City New Year's day, where they spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spencer, the latter a sister of Mrs. Evans. Mrs. Evans was taken ill with influenza upon her arrival at the Spencer home, and Mr. Evans a few days following was stricken with the influenza.

Mr. Evans is survived by his widow, a daughter, Maxine, aged five years; a sister, Miss Lucile Evans, a student of the Oregon Agricultural college; and a brother, Irwin, of Portland.

The deceased was a member of the Elks lodge, and had many friends in this city as well as in Portland, where the family is well known. The father, Charles W. Evans, was a prominent resident of this city, and was engineer for the Willamette Navigation company for many years.

Mr. Evans, the father, died in Oregon City in January, 1915, and the mother in 1911.

CLACKAMAS HEIGHTS MAN PASSES AWAY MONDAY MORNING

Joseph Kassler, stepson of Antone Roppe, died at the family home on Clackamas Heights Monday morning, after a brief illness of influenza.

Joseph Kassler was born in Texas, and was 27 years of age, and has resided in Oregon City for fifteen years.

The deceased is survived by his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Antone Roppe, of Clackamas Heights, and a brother, Adolph Kassler of Oregon City.

PNEUMONIA CAUSES DEATH OF RESIDENT OF EAST CLACKAMAS

Lugwig Henrich of East Clackamas, died at the St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, Sunday evening, after a brief illness of influenza and pneumonia.

The young man was born in Portland and was 29 years of age. He has resided for some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Henrich, at East Clackamas. His father, who is aged, is critically ill.

MARGARET ANDERSON OF MOUNTAIN ROAD DIES LAST SATURDAY

Mrs. Margaret Anderson, wife of John Anderson, of Mountain Road, died at the family home Saturday evening, after a brief illness of influenza.

Mrs. Anderson was well and favorably known in the Mountain Road district, where she had many friends, and her death has cast a gloom over that little settlement.

Mrs. Anderson was 42 years of age and is survived by her husband and six children, all of Mountain Road.

EAST CLACKAMAS MAN DIES SATURDAY OF SPANISH INFLUENZA

Alois J. Klinhofer died at the family home at East Clackamas Saturday morning, after a week's illness of influenza.

Mrs. Klinhofer was