When eggs are high, chopped suet can be sprinkled on top of puddings containing milk and they will be rich and creamy.

Delicious flavoring can be made by soaking the grated rind of an orange for a few hours in a few teaspoonfuls of orange juice.

If a little cold water is added to waffle batter and thoroughly beaten, the waffles will be lighter and will brown more easily.

To remove spots from the handles of ivory knives dip a chamola skin in water and then in powdered pumice and rub the spots vigorously.

To keep napkins in good shape take them by opposite corners when they are wet and twist round and round. You will find that this squares the linen better than all the pulling and coaxing into shape when ironing time arrives.

Crushed eggshells are splendid for scouring purposes. They must be very finely crushed, or they will scratch enameled ware, or anything of that kind. Remove all the white skin from the inside of the shells before crushing and apply their powder on a damp rag. Wash afterward with warm, soapy water, and your pots and pans will look like new again.

Dishes that are hard to wash or are sticky should be turned upside down in the dishpan while the others are being put away. The hot steam is quicker and much more effective than any amount of soaking.

With a small camel's hair brush rub the broken edges of china and glass with a little carriage oil varnish and if neatly put together the fracture will hardly be perceptible and will stand both heat and water.

Water in which two or three onions have been boiled will remove dirt from gilt frames. Clean the frames with a brush instead of a cloth, and do not wet them any more than necessary. Do not attempt to dry them but let them dry by standing in a current of air.

Cabbage—Should be boiled from 1 to 2 hours in plenty of water; salt while boiling.

BOB SLAY

Six wounds and the burden of the Distinguished Service Cross, the Croix de Guerre and a number of citations in army orders cannot keep a smile from the bandaged face of "Bob" Slay, of the Seventy-seventh division. As he put it when he was photographed during a stroll in New York City: "I'm lucky. I'm back home. That's enough, isn't it?"

A coaling chute collapsed and crashed to the bottom of the drydock in which the naval transport Mount Vernon was being coaled. The injured sailors are Robert V. B. Betz of Ashland, Pa.; David Guthrie of Brooksmith, Texas, and Botswin's Mate Roy Kroner of Watseka, Ill.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—An appeal for a special after-war offering of $1,750,000 to be made on Roosevelt Sunday, February 9, was sent out Monday to the ministers and sessions of every Presbyterian church in the United States by the national service commission of that church.

TOKIO, Feb. 4.—Pacific cable service to Tokyo is interrupted by a break in the cable inside Tokyo harbor. The repairs will require five days, it is said.

HUNS TAKE TOWN THE HAGUE, Jan. 28.—German troops in Posen province have recaptured Schoenlaake from the Poles after a furious battle, said a dispatch from a German source.

BIG NAVY RECEIVES FAVOR OF COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The house naval affairs committee this afternoon unanimously voted to appropriate $750,000,000 for the United States navy for the next fiscal year. The action of the committee is seen as a complete victory for Secretary of the Navy Daniels' three-year building program for a bigger American navy.

Included in the appropriation voted for by the committee is $169,000,000 for construction, including the building of 10 capital ships and 10 scout cruisers.

U. S. PLAN TO REMOVE SOLDIERS IN RUSSIA

PARIS, Feb. 1.—The United States, supported by Great Britain, has submitted to France a proposal for immediate withdrawal of all troops from Russia, it was learned from authoritative sources today.

This move was made in conformity with unofficial information obtained by American agents that Premier Lenine and Foreign Minister Tchitcherin will accept the proposal for a joint conference at Prinkipos, providing that the allied forces are first withdrawn.

The British, in fact, are understood to be planning recall of their own troops by March, whether the United States and France take similar action or not.

TEXTILE MILLS THREATENED BY LABOR STRIKE

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 1.—Reports today from various mill centers indicate that between 600,000 and 700,000 men and women workers in the textile industry of the United States on Monday will announce that beginning on that date they will work only 48 hours a week. In response to orders sent out by headquarters of the United Textile Workers of America in New York.

At present their hours range from 54 to 60 a week. Many thousands of workers engaged in trades adjacent to the textile would also be thrown out of work by the walkout.

A general strike of Lawrence textile workers to commence next Monday was called at a meeting of the general committee of workers.
