The County Agriculturist's office is a busy place these days. With the arrival of Miss Marie Anthony to take charge of the Household Economics work in the county, a series of meetings is being arranged to be held in the different communities...

Along agricultural lines there is much that can be accomplished in the way of control of pests and weeds, the betterment of the soil, and improvement of livestock and seed. Miss Anthony has a program which covers community health, sanitation, household economics, and conservation.

The campaign will open at Concord school house Thursday evening, February 20. Invitations have been sent to the residents of Oak Grove and Jennings Lodge to attend. On Friday a similar meeting will be held at Carus, under the auspices of the Loyalty League...

NEAR EAST DRIVE STARTS IN COUNTY MONDAY WITH VIM

Rev. C. H. L. Chandler and Dr. Roy Prudden went to the Brown school house on Friday and presented the Near East cause at a social and Monday Fred Chinn, the chairman brought in $70 as a result.

Saturday evening William Cook took Dr. and Mrs. Roy Prudden and Mrs. J. E. Chinn and Marie Holmes to Hasella where the Near East cause was presented. Miss Holmes sang and Dr. Prudden told them of the starving Armenians. Now Hasella has reported over the top with a quota of 446.

On the first day of the drive several country districts reported over the top and several city precincts have been solicited and the reports are in with good results.

J. J. Handsaker, state director for the Near East drive, called Dr. Prudden into Portland Monday, February 17, for a council at the Multnomah

Hotel with ex-Ambassador Henry Morganthau, where the plans for the state drive were to be discussed. One of the most appealing statements Mr. Morganthau made was that with our best efforts it will be impossible to save many of the people from starving. It will be impossible for us to get the necessary relief to them in time and during the winter they are sure to perish. But the drive is necessary to save the others and our work must be immediate.

Deputy Assessor Bill Is Very Popular Man On Valentine's Day

Valentine day was observed in Oregon City, and never before in the history of this city has the day been more interesting to the young people. The merchants having the valentines for sale did a rushing business, and many of the windows that had most attractive displays were "shot to pieces" by afternoon, as all of the prettiest and attractive ones were selected early in the morning.

A number of bachelors of this city were well remembered, and one especially, was Deputy County Assessor William (Bill) Cook. The mail man had a hand full of valentines for him when making his two deliveries, and he sure was the most popular man in Oregon City on that day. He is blaming some of the young women of the court house in "putting up a job" on him, but of course all are denying the accusation. The verses were the sweetest that the stores had, and one read as follows:

"I'm crazy to be captured, For love I simply yearn, But though I found no maiden yet Has asked me to be her'n."

Bill says the worst of it is the "durn" girls haven't signed their names to these, for if they did he could show them he wasn't behind the times, and wasn't out of practice either.

A. KNIGHT RECEIVES HANDSOME GIFT FROM FORMER ASSOCIATES

Adam Knight, who recently retired from his active duties as county commissioner, and who had made many friends at the court house, happened to be in Oregon City Monday, and while here was taken by a complete and pleasant surprise. He was summoned to the county court room by Judge Anderson, and trembling with fear, wondering what was in store for him, was ordered to sit down. Mr. Knight immediately "sat" at the command of the county judge, as he knew well he had better. Here in the court room had gathered all officials and the employees of the court house when the clock struck 12, an hour that Adam will never forget, for when the judge commenced to preside over this little gathering of smiling faces, and Adam looking in wonderment, soon found why he was thus summoned. In a very pleasing manner Judge Anderson took from beneath a covering a handsome library electric lamp, this being a gift from the officials and employees of the court house to the retiring county commissioner, as an appreciation of the work that Mr. Knight has performed and Mr. Knight was simply dumbfounded, but found enough breath to thank the donors and expressed his appreciation of being thus remembered by the high-hearted officials and employees of the court house.

Mr. Knight was here as a witness in a case, and as the gift was purchased several weeks ago, a way in surprising the ex-county official was planned when he appeared at the court house Monday. An S. O. S. call was immediately sent to each office and all slipped into the court room where the surprise was made complete.

CLACKAMAS BOYS IN 18TH ENGINEERS IN FRANCE COMING HOME

The boys of the 18th Engineers, Railway Company, the first to go to France, are to return soon, according to orders having recently been received. They are to leave Bordeaux, France, March 1, and probably will be mustered out of service in California. Many California young men are with the 18th Engineers, and an effort is to be made by California to have her boys mustered out at the Presidio. Oregon City claims a large number of the 18th Engineers as well. Among these are Earl Hutchinson, son of Mrs. Ida Hutchinson, of this city; Alfred Bigger, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bigger; Lee Shannon, son of Mrs. Kate Shannon; Blake Bowland, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bowland; Lieutenant Harold Swafford, son of Mrs. J. L. Swafford. Elbert Charman, who was with the 18th Engineers, Railway, and transferred to the Stars and Stripes, will probably be with the 18th Engineers when they return. William Folger, Wallace McCord, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. W. McCord of Twilight; Stephen Albert Mead and George Edwin Mead, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Mead of Twilight; are among the boys, who are to be given a welcome home with the engineers. All the boys are anxiously awaiting their return to Oregon City.

DRIVE LAUNCHED BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

A Membership Drive for the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce has been launched by John L. Etheridge of Portland, State Chairman of the Membership Committee.

During the past month an office force, working overtime, has been perfecting the Committee Organization for securing new members for the new chamber. A large room has been set aside specially for this purpose by Mr. Etheridge, Manager and Vice President, Morris Bros., Inc., Bond House, in the Morris Building, 309 Stark street, Portland.

The aim is to secure individual memberships from the representative citizens of every town, community and rural district of Oregon, and organization memberships from every local, commercial or development body. L. Adams of Oregon City, has been appointed chairman of the Membership Committee for Clackamas county. Also the following of Clackamas county have been appointed chairmen of the Membership Committee for their respective cities:

- W. H. Bair Canby Geo. Brown New Era Judge W. A. Beck Molalla H. C. Stephens Estacada W. A. Proctor Sandy E. E. Brodie Oregon City Joe J. Thornton Wilsonville Phillip Strieb Milwaukie W. W. Thompson Oak Grove Thos. A. Burke Gladstone

"Every citizen who has anything at stake in the State of Oregon or who has an interest in the progress and development of his own section, or of the State as a whole, will be interested in the State Chamber of Commerce," said Chairman Etheridge. "Every organization whose purpose it is to advance the development of its local community or of the entire state would be affiliated."

"The State Chamber of Commerce is laid out on the broadest lines. Its organization plan is so safeguarded that no one section of Oregon, not even the metropolis, can control it. Portland has a representation of only two members on the board of fifteen directors, the other thirteen members of the board residing out in the state."

"Eastern Oregon is represented by six directors, residing in different sections of that great region, the development of which contributes so heavily to the taxable wealth and commercial prosperity of the state. Seven directors reside in different parts of Western Oregon, including representation from the Rogue River Valley, the Coos Bay country, the port region at the mouth of the Columbia River and the East and West sides, as well as the Northern and Southern ends of the Willamette Valley."

"Such a representation precludes the possibility of the state organization being used selfishly to promote the interests of the metropolis or of any other one section as against the interests of any other section or of the state as a whole."

"Industrially, the diversified interests of the state are also represented. Livestock, agriculture, fruit, timber, manufacturing, merchandising and foreign commerce are all represented on the board."

"There are three classes of memberships: First, 'Commercial,' comprising local Chambers of Commerce and Commercial Clubs; second, 'Association,' being associations organized for promoting any industrial agricultural or other industries and not organized for private purposes; and finally, the 'Individual,' non-voting memberships. The annual fee for the 'Commercial' Membership is $10.00 for each one hundred members and $10.00 additional for each additional fraction thereof. The fee for 'Association' Memberships is $20.00 per year. An annual minimum fee of $5.00 is to be paid by the 'Individual' non-voting members."

WED AT COURT HOUSE Nannie L. Campbell, 37, of Oregon City, and James Franklin Bishop, 53, of Portland, were granted a marriage license Saturday and were united in marriage by Judge H. S. Anderson,

Froggies Make Music People Are Happy Springtime Is Near

Caruso of Frog Land made his appearance before a large and an appreciative audience the first of the week, and reminded all that spring has come, even if the groundhog took a sneak on that day and hid himself in a hole never to make his appearance for six weeks. Thousands of frogs joined in on the chorus at the pond near the little settlement of Bolton, and their songs can be heard every evening in Oregon City. From the throats of these frogs comes the good news that spring has at last dawned, after one of the mildest winters Oregon City has experienced.

In the gardens of the homes of Oregon City can be seen crocuses in bloom, while in some of the gardens are blossoming violets. Pussy willows have also the dandelions. Rose bushes of the earliest varieties are budded, and many farmers are commencing to plant early gardens, although the ground is somewhat wet for this.

Although the war is a thing of the past there are many who have been planting war gardens for the past two years, have decided to continue the work, and will find pleasure in preparing the ground, planting the seed and watching the growth and harvesting from the same.

EASTERN PEOPLE ARE PLEASED WITH TRIP ON COLUMBIA DRIVE

W. H. Congdon, accompanied by Mrs. J. A. Pierce of Fargo, North Dakota, and Mrs. Isible and Mrs. Noble of Jackson, Michigan, made the trip to Bonneville by way of the Columbia river highway the latter part of the week. Mrs. Pierce, who has traveled through Italy and other foreign countries, says the highway and the mountains on the Pacific coast excel anything she has ever seen, and that one does not have to leave the coast to see beautiful country.

Mrs. Pierce has come here to accompany her father, Mr. Swart, to California. The latter was visiting Mr. Congdon when he was taken ill, but will be able to start on the trip South Sunday evening. He is one of the old time locomotive engineers for the Northern Pacific railroad since 1879, and for 35 years of that time was on the "head end" of a passenger train. He is also a member of the G. A. R., having served in the Civil War, and although an old soldier and 70 years of age, he is still in the service of the Northern Pacific, but works only in the summer time.

The old railroad man regrets to leave the coast states. Mrs. Pierce is the niece of Mr. Congdon.

A Coated Tongue? What it Means

A bad breath, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, languor and debility, are usually signs that the liver is out of order. PROF. HEMMETER says: "The liver is an organ secondary in importance only to the heart."

We can manufacture poisons within our own bodies which are as deadly as a snake's venom. The liver acts as a guard over our well-being, sifting out the cinders and ashes from the general circulation. A blockade in the intestines piles a heavy burden upon the liver. If the intestines are choked or clogged up, the circulation of the blood becomes poisoned and the system becomes loaded with toxic waste, and we suffer from headache, yellow-coated tongue, bad taste in mouth, nausea, or gas, acid dyspepsia, languor, debility, yellow skin or eyes. At such times one should take a pleasant laxative. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloe, jalap, put into ready-to-use form by Doctor Pierce, nearly fifty years ago, and sold for 25 cents by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

OREGON CITY BOY IN U.S. SERVICE PASSES AWAY IN MARYLAND

Word was received Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kelly that their son, Walter L. Kelly, had passed away at Camp MeHenry, Maryland, Friday evening, at 7:45 of influenza.

Earlier in the day a message was received saying that the young man was critically ill but the news of his death was a shock to the parents and many friends in this city as word was received a few days ago that he was well and expected to be home by July.

Walter L. Kelly was born in Oregon City October 10, 1895, and had resided here all of his life. He was well and favorably known here and had attended the city schools. He entered service May 30, 1918, and was a member of the Sixty-third Infantry at the time of his death. His company was ready to sail for France when the armistice was signed and Walter was very much disappointed, in being too late to go, as it was his ambition to get into the fight.

Besides his father and mother he leaves to mourn his loss two sisters: Mrs. L. O. Lee and Mrs. Lloyd Bernier of this city. Mrs. L. A. Barry, who passed away last November, was also a sister of the young man.

The remains will be shipped to Oregon City for funeral services.

FORMER RESIDENT OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY DIES IN OLD HOME

From Wales comes the sad news of the death of William K. Davis, a pioneer of the Carus district in Clackamas county.

Born at Axton Farm, in Flintshire, Wales, January 7, 1851, Mr. Davis married Catherine Jones of Hafodyr, Anglesea, in 1879. With his wife and two small children he set sail for America in 1886, coming directly to Portland and driving out into the wilderness at Carus where he was one of the first settlers. Building a small log house in a fir grove he hewed out a handsome farm and built a commodious home, one of the best in the country.

Desiring to visit once more the scenes of his youth, in 1916, just at the outbreak of the war with Germany, Mr. Davis returned to his old home and in January of this year went to Liverpool to take a boat home. Boat after boat left but no passage could be secured, until at last, discouraged he returned to Wales and in his brother's house, sitting quietly in his chair, Mr. Davis passed away on January 22, while apparently asleep. Bright's disease and disappointment undermined his rugged constitution, although he kept up his jolly conversation to the last.

Mr. Davis is survived by his widow, now in St. Vincent's hospital, and by three sons, Richard, who is on the old home place, and William and John in the army in France, also a daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Davis, and two grandchildren, Earl and Emma Davis. Two sisters, Mrs. Annie Evans and Mrs. Hannah Evans reside in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Davis has always been a faithful member and for many years was a deacon of the Welsh Congregational church at Beaver Creek. It is supposed that the two sons in France were at their father's funeral, summoned by wire.

RESIDENT OF CARUS PASSES AWAY TUESDAY AT LOCAL HOSPITAL

Mrs. Hattie W. Brown, wife of E. C. Brown of Carus, passed away Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Oregon City hospital after a brief illness.

Mrs. Brown has lived at Carus for about eleven years and is survived by her husband and two children, Lowell and Elizabeth. Two sons lost their lives in the service of their country, Clifford, who was in the Navy, and Burton, in the army.

The remains are at the Holman & Pace funeral parlors and funeral arrangements will be made today.

FREE CONCERT GIVEN FRIDAY AT MOOSE HALL

Glen Ellison, the popular Scotch baritone, will be heard in an unique recital at Moose Hall, 11th and Main streets, on the evening of February 21st, Friday, at 8:15 o'clock.

There are few men who have made such a success both in concert and vaudeville as Glen Ellison. In Europe and Australia he is better known as a singer of baritone opera roles. Whatever he sings, is rendered with a wonderful understanding of the requirements of the selection, deep feeling and in a fondly appealing voice. It is when he sings the lovely old songs of his native Scotland that Mr. Ellison rises to artistic heights. He sings them with rare effect. He has sung leading roles in grand opera in England and Australia. His concerts are generally entirely different from the stilted orthodox kind for he generally includes a few rollicking tunes that appear to everybody.

Admittance to the recital will be by complimentary ticket and they may be had free by calling at Burmeister

MEDAL GIVEN TO WAR HERO RECEIVED HERE

The Croix de Guerre awarded the late Sergeant Waldo Emerson Cauffield, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Cauffield of this city, arrived here a few days ago, having been sent to the parents of the young man. With it came the following letter from the commanding officer, Major Gowenlock, G. S., U. S. A.:

"This medal symbolizes the sterling qualities and gallant actions of Sergeant Cauffield. He felt it his post of duty, serving his country's cause, which is the finest thing any one of us is privileged to do in his life."

Waldo Cauffield was in command of the observation division of the Intelligence Service Division of the United States Army in the Argonne region when he was killed. It was on October 2, 1918, Sergeant Cauffield and two young men of the division went into a dugout to look for a safe place for his men, but a Hun gas shell penetrated the dugout and instantly killed the three men.

Waldo Emerson Cauffield

The medal awarded the late Sergeant Cauffield is handsome, and bears the dates 1914-1918. The silken ribbon to which the medal is attached, is of green and red and ornamented with a silver star, while the cross is of handsome design.

Sergeant Cauffield was born in Oregon City February 26, 1883, and has resided here all of his life, except the time spent in the army. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Cauffield, of Oregon City; two sisters, Mrs. Livy Stipp of Oregon City; Mrs. H. G. Thompson, of Spokane, Wash.; three brothers, Carl Cauffield, of Portland, Oregon; Jack Cauffield, of Portland, Oregon; Lieutenant Lee J. Cauffield, who is with the 318 Engineers and stationed in France.
