There must have been a slight difference in volume when Mr. Ellison stopped singing but it was not noticeable for the voice which came from the cabinet was round and lucious with all of the vibrant, pulsating quality of that which came directly from Mr. Ellison's throat.

REASONS FOR VOTING ON ROADS BOND GIVEN

SALEM, Feb. 23.—(Special)—With the $10,000,000 road bond issue bill admittedly one of the greatest, if not the greatest in standpoint of importance of any pieces of legislation ever passing an Oregon Legislature, and realizing also the intense interest manifested in Clackamas county in the road question, the Enterprise correspondent at the Capitol has secured authorized statements from the members of the incandescent delegation giving an explanation of the stand taken by each when voting on the final passage of the bill.

Representative Dedman was the only member of the delegation casting his vote in favor of the measure. He presses his reason for the stand which he took, while the others give various reasons for their negative stand.

These reasons are as follows: Senator Dimick: "I voted against the Ten Million Dollar Road Bill for the following reasons:

"That there is nothing provided within the Act which insures real competition between the paving companies bidding for contract work in the construction of roads.

"That actual competition is not provided for in the Act and that the measures that did provide for actual competition were sidetracked in the House and that the proper safeguards are not thrown around the expenditure of this money.

"I voted against it for the further reason that in the expenditure of a sum of money of that amount, I think that the Legislature has no right to put an emergency clause on the Act when no emergency exists and not giving the people a chance to voice their approval or disapproval of the measure.

"In the expenditure of this amount of money I take it that the Legislature has no right to directly slap the people in the face and shut off the people's established right to pass upon it.

"If a real emergency existed it might be otherwise but no emergency exists as the State Highway Commission has over three million dollars in its hands which it can spend before inclement weather starts in at the fall of the year."

Representative Dedman: "I am in favor of the ten million dollar road bonds for the development and building up of the state for the most good to the greatest number of people, and as a part of the reconstruction plan, and also for the purpose of helping to take care of the unemployed."

"We are expecting to receive our share in the completion of the Pacific Highway in our county, and also assistance in the building of a new suspension bridge at Oregon City."

"Even though the Pacific Highway was already completed in Clackamas county, I would favor the road program as a state-wide improvement."

Representative Schuebel: "A special election is to be called for June, 1919, on account of other measures. I voted against the bond bill because I have confidence in the people and feel that the people should have the right to pass upon any measure in which the State of Oregon is to be bonded for $10,000,000.00. No real emergency existed as we have more funds on hand than can be expended this year."

"Further—the bond issue should have contained the provision making it necessary and not merely optional with the Commission to pay the royalty in laying any patented pavement. In the expenditure of $10,000,000.00 of the people's money the instructions should be clear and definite, leaving nothing to chance."

Representative Cross: "In explanation of my negative vote in the passage of the ten million dollar road bond bill, I stated at the time it was solely on the ground that the bill contained an emergency clause which put the bill, at once, upon the statute book, and in practical effect mortgaged all the property of the State in that tremendous sum and cut the people off from any opportunity of passing upon the measure."

"Personally, I was in favor of it, if properly safeguarded, and I so stated, but in my representative capacity, I hesitated in voting for the measure and voted no, simply to emphasize my strong opposition to cutting off, at one stroke, the right of the people of my county and state to be heard, and to ratify or reject the measure."

"And I do not fail to remember that it is costing the state, on an average, twice as much, per mile, to lay pavement, as it is costing Clackamas county, to lay as good or better pavement. Nor am I overlooking the other plain fact, that the expenditure of this vast sum may lead to great waste and all sorts of scandal; Nor am I oblivious to the further fact, that a great system of highways built at this time, will cost twice as much as in normal times, while the mortgage remains the same."

SUIT ON NOTE J. S. Edwards entered suit Monday against Stephen Lewask et al to collect a $100 note, made by the defendant April 6, 1915, at four per cent. A mortgage was given on property in Clackamas county to secure the note. Plaintiff alleges the note has not been paid and he asks the property be sold to settle his claim and also for $60 attorney's fees.

SUIT ON NOTE Sarah C. Knodell entered suit against Minnie A. Kane et al to collect on a note for $1500, given April 1, 1915, with 8 per cent interest. A mortgage was given on property in Clackamas county to secure the note and she asks the property be sold to satisfy the claim.
