

LOCALS

Adolph Aschoff, one of the prominent residents of Clackamas county, whose home is at Marmot, was in Oregon City Thursday, where he visited among friends.

Hert Lagewon, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lagewon, who is at Mare Island, California, and Neal Sullivan, son of J. Sullivan of this city, also at Mare Island, where they have been in service for over a year, have been transferred to the Short Circuit, a magazine published by the young men of the island.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip J. Sinnott of Portland, were in Oregon City Sunday, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sinnott of Eleventh and Washington streets, parents of Phillip Sinnott.

Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Milliken have received word from their son, Frank Milliken, who is with the 69th Coast Artillery, and has been in France, saying that he had arrived safely from overseas and was in the best of health.

Robert Lee Wyrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Wyrick of this city, arrived here from the naval service with an honorable discharge this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hultenborg have received word from their son, Sergeant Carl E. Hultenborg, saying he had arrived safely in New York from overseas service.

Guy Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Elliott of this city, who has been in the aviation service, stationed at Dayton, Ohio, left that place last Saturday for California, and will be mustered out of the service at the Presidio.

Carol Linkins, son of the late Charles Linkins, former resident of Oregon City, has written his aunt, Mrs. Charles Catta that he has arrived at his home in California.

Leon Thomas Draper, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Draper of Bolton, arrived from overseas service in France Tuesday evening.

Lila Daitley, a former young man of this city, but now of Portland who has been overseas, and is now suffering from wounds received in action when he lost a leg, was in Oregon City Wednesday, where he visited friends.

A. G. Porter of Barlow, was in Oregon City Thursday, where he was arranging for a sale of livestock on his farm he has recently sold to R. E. Cherrick, who arrived in Clackamas county a few weeks ago.

Mrs. Jennie Niles of Mount Pleasant, received a telegram Friday from her sons, Ralph and Royal, who have been in France, and for a number of weeks stationed in Kentucky.

Corporal Harry Lemler, who accompanied the remains of the late Walter Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Kelly, to Oregon City from Baltimore, has returned, leaving here the following day after his arrival with the body.

Lieutenant Albert Scotho, who has received his honorable discharge from the United States service, and after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Scotho of Mountain View Addition, went to Hillsboro, where he has accepted a position in the high school as an instructor.

Louis Conklin, who is with the Coast Artillery, stationed at Fort Stevens, spent Saturday and Sunday in Oregon City visiting his mother, Mrs. Barris, and sister, Miss Anna Conklin.

Sergeant Robert Green, who has been in France, and recently was mustered out of the service at Camp Lewis, Wash., visited friends and relatives in Oregon City Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schoenborn and sons, Richard and Arthur, who have been residing in Oregon City, have taken up their residence on a farm near Carus.

Thomas Gregory, who has been in the naval service for over a year, stationed at Mare Island, will arrive at his home at Greenwood, about four miles from Oregon City, today.

Wilbur Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of 122 Center street, who has been stationed at Seattle for the past six months and was transferred to the 36th Convoy service, has arrived safely in New York.

Misses Hazel and Myrtle Larkins of Mulino, were in Oregon City Thursday. They were accompanied to Oregon City by their brother, Glen Larkins, and Edgar Horner, who went to Portland, where they spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bargfeld of Portland, were in Oregon City Sunday where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Surtus. Mr. and Mrs. Bargfeld are former residents of Kellogg, Idaho, also the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Surtus. They have recently moved to Portland.

Among the young men of Clackamas county, who have arrived in New York from France, where they have been for over a year, are John Dambach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dambach of this city, and David C. Moore, who formerly was connected with the county clerk's office.

Thomas Anderson, of the Industrial Carver Association, of Carver, was in Oregon City Saturday. Mr. Anderson has for many years been connected with the Clear Creek Creamery company, and is one of the boosters for the eastern part of Clackamas county.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sutherland and son, Harvey, left Saturday for Clairmont, where they are to make their home on their farm. They have been spending the winter in Oregon City, having had apartments at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Surtus.

Mrs. M. Range, special representative of the Butterick Publishing Company, is in Oregon City and will be at the Price Brothers Clothing store for several days, where she is interesting the patrons in these patterns.

Born, February 22, to the wife of Delber W. Conway of St. Johns, a daughter. The little girl was born at the Oregon City hospital on Washington's birthday, and she has been given the name of Georgianna.

Private Ernest Cross, recently arriving from overseas service, is now at Camp Lewis, Wash., where he is waiting to be mustered out of service.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bullard, who have been residing in Mountain View Addition, are moving their household goods to Redland, where they are to make their home.

S. O. Diliman, who accidentally dislocated his knee joint several weeks ago, while he was exercising, and has been confined to his home since that time, is now able to be out with the aid of crutches.

Corporal Gifford L. Osborne, who is with the 162d Infantry band, and who has been in France, has wired to friends in Oregon City, saying that he had arrived safely in New York from overseas duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Calvert, who have been on a two-weeks' visit to Southern Oregon, on a pleasure trip, have returned to Oregon City. They had a most delightful outing since leaving here.

Edgar May, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar May, Sr., of this city, surprised his parents the first of the week, and returned to this city. He received his honorable discharge from the army at Camp Lewis.

William Hamilton, who has been in the service and stationed with the Hospital Corps, has returned to his home in Oregon City, and resumed his position with the Huntley Drug company.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King of Portland, were in Oregon City Sunday, where they were on their way to Mount Pleasant to spend the day with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harvey, who have been spending the past ten days at Seattle, where they have been visiting their son, Clyde Harvey and wife, have returned to their home at Twilight.

W. Bonney and Sergeant Jack Hiddle of Redland, were among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday. Mr. Hiddle recently received his honorable discharge from the United States army.

Mrs. J. M. Wolfer of Portland, a former resident of Oregon City, was here Friday. While here she visited her sister, Mrs. William Weismandel of Eleventh and Center streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burns of Salem, were in Oregon City Sunday, where they came to attend the funeral services of their nephew, the late Walter Kelly.

Wallace R. Telford and two sons of Boring, were in Oregon City Friday. Mr. Telford is the son of Maxwell Telford, Sr., residing in the southern part of the city.

Mrs. Etta Pickett of West Linn, underwent a critical operation at the Oregon City hospital Wednesday morning. She is improving from the effects.

Charles Lander of Estacada, Route 3, was among those to transact business here Tuesday. He is one of the well known farmers of that section.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Bruening of Portland, spent Sunday at Mount Pleasant, where they were guests at the H. J. Bruening home.

The Misses Mosier, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Mosier, prominent residents of this county, were in Oregon City Thursday.

Clarence E. Miller of Needy, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday. Mr. Miller is road foreman of District No. 24.

Amos R. Leek, one of the well-known farmers of Redland, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Friday.

Ernest Cross, who has been in France, has arrived safely in the United States, and is stationed at Camp Dix.

Mrs. Richard Schoenborn has gone to Eldorado, where she will remain for some time and visit her sons at that place.

George Hofstetter of Meadowbrook was among those to come to Oregon City Friday, where he transacted business.

Mr. Eckerson, prominent resident of Canby, accompanied by his son, Lee Eckerson, was in Oregon City Friday.

A. F. Lenhardt of Elliott's Prairie, one of the well-known residents of Clackamas county, was here Thursday.

Born, Tuesday, February 25, to the wife of Steven Chambers, of Fourteenth and Main streets, a daughter.

Miss Eva Moulton, formerly of Fern Ridge, but now of Portland, was in Oregon City on business Friday.

George H. Brown of New Era, the potato king of Clackamas county, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Among those to transact business in Oregon City Thursday was August Willbrod of Macksburg.

Mrs. Ada C. Moehne of Hoff, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Monday.

W. F. Stanton of Monitor, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Thursday.

Mrs. Emma Rayner of Clackamas was among those to transact business in Oregon City Friday.

Peter Julius Hansen of Monitor, was among those to transact business here Thursday.

John Montgomery of West Linn, has been critically ill at his home, but is improving.

W. Piper of Clackamas, well-known resident of that place, was in Oregon City Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spangler of Spangler Station, were in this city Thursday.

M. Gaffney of Milwaukie, Route 1, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

Harrie Morehouse of Beaver Creek was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Dan Kepler and wife of Aurora, transacted business in Oregon City Tuesday.

John Wilkin of Sherwood, was among those to transact business here Tuesday.

James Wilson of Sherwood, was among those to transact business here Tuesday.

Phillip Streib, a banker of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City on business Monday.

E. P. Dedman, ex-county recorder, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday.

A. E. Bradford of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City Monday transacting business.

Mrs. J. R. Sunday of Boring, was among the Oregon City visitors Friday.

Mrs. Clara M. Shay of Boring, was among the Oregon City visitors Friday.

E. F. Wiseman of Canby, was among those to transact business here Friday.

Dee Lenon of Monitor, was among those to visit in Oregon City Thursday.

O. B. Hanson of Woodburn, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Florence McCarthy of Aurora, Route 4, was in Oregon City Monday.

Z. Elligson of Stafford, was among those visiting in Oregon City Friday.

Among the Oregon City visitors Thursday was R. V. Avner of Mulino.

William M. Anderson of Gresham was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

Judge H. S. Anderson is ill at his home on Eighth and Center streets.

Miss Minnie Fouts of Springwater, is here on her way to Cooks, Wash.

Mrs. E. C. Warren of Oak Grove was an Oregon City visitor Friday.

Casper Gettner of Milwaukie, was among those to visit here Monday.

Fred Morey of Glenmorrie, was in Oregon City on business Monday.

August Machast of Clackamas, was an Oregon City visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Sarah Rivers of Aurora, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

Henry M. Johnson of George, was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

Gust Burns of Clackamas, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Samuel Johnson of Mulino, was in Oregon City Friday.

C. Erickson of Clackamas, was in Oregon City Friday.

John Larson of Molalla, was in Oregon City Monday.

Joel Jarl of Boring, transacted business here Friday.

Fred Dobberful of Sandy, was in Oregon City Friday.

L. Ferguson of New Era, was in Oregon City Friday.

L. H. Wang of Canby, was in Oregon City Monday.

L. Shank of Molalla, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Amos Leek of Redland, was in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. Hart of Redland, was in Oregon City Friday.

T. J. Parris of Hoff, was in Oregon City Friday.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

Mrs. C. Schuebel is home from Salem.

A. F. ZIRBEL OF WEST LINN DIES MONDAY

August Frederick Zirbel of West Linn, passed away Monday evening after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Zirbel was born in Germany December 13, 1856, and had lived in this country several years.

SCHOOL PRINCIPAL HAS EXCITING TIME WITH FIGHTING BOY

Considerable excitement was created Friday, when Willis Criswell, a lad of fifteen, appeared in the room of J. R. Bowland of the Barclay school, demanding to know why a truant officer had been sent after him.

PARKPLACE RESIDENT PASSES AWAY FRIDAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. E. E. Baker, wife of E. E. Baker of Parkplace, died at the family home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after an illness of some time of cancer.

SERVICES FOR MRS. C. WALKER HELD THURSDAY

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Cora Walker, wife of Jesse James Walker, who died at her home on Clackamas Heights Wednesday, after an illness of influenza, were conducted from the Holman & Pace funeral parlors Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

MRS. SARAH E. CLARK LAID TO FINAL REST IN MOUNTAIN VIEW

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah E. Clark, wife of William Clark, who died at the family home near Eleventh and Harrison streets, Oregon City, were held from the Holman & Pace funeral chapel Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

MT. PLEASANT P-T MEETING HELD THURSDAY

The Parent-Teacher Association of Mount Pleasant held a special meeting at the Mount Pleasant school house Thursday afternoon. Among the business transacted was the election of a new president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. L. O. Ledger.

LICENSE TO WED

Lucy Peylaret, legal of this county, and Edmond J. Gonty, legal of Portland, were granted a license to wed Monday.

WALTER KELLY GIVEN MILITARY FUNERAL SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services of the late Walter Kelly were held at the St. John's Catholic church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. Hillebrand, pastor, officiating. Many friends attended the services, and Rev. Hillebrand gave a most impressive patriotic address.

The casket was covered with a handsome American flag, having been placed thereon as the casket was sent to Oregon City from Brooklyn. Among the floral tributes was a handsome piece, the American flag made of red and white carnations, and the stars were represented by blue flowers.

PIONEER RESIDENT DIES VERY SUDDENLY THURSDAY MORNING

Mrs. Margaret Henric, one of the well-known and early Clackamas county residents, died suddenly Thursday morning about 10 o'clock at the home of her son, Frank Henric, of this city, from heart trouble.

MRS. NETTIE G. HOV PASSES AWAY SUNDAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Nettie Garden Hov, wife of E. F. Hov, well-known resident of Canby, died at the family home Sunday, after an illness of several months.

FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD THURSDAY FOR HARRIET BROWN

Many friends of the late Mrs. Harriet Wiley Brown, wife of Edgar C. Brown, who died at the family home near Canby Tuesday evening, attended the funeral services Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Holman & Pace funeral parlors.

STARTS MUCH SICKNESS

A clogging mass of undigested food that remains fermenting in the stomach or intestines sends the poison it develops through the entire human body.