 - For Knight, 5 weeks after becoming Spurge, a total of 10 weeks.

LOCAL SONG WRITER CIRCULATED PETITION FOR NEEDY FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rowles, who lost all household furnishings and clothing except that which they had on when their home was entirely destroyed by fire near Parkplace February 17, have been presented with $50. This amount was donated by some of the big-hearted people of this city and of Parkplace, and the petition was circulated by William Lillie.

Mr. Rowles will be unable to work for some time, owing to burned hands received while trying to remove a bureau from his home. Even in his attempt to save this, he was forced to give it up after having moved the piece of furniture as far as the door. He is an assistant on the Nichols place in the northern part of the city, and he and his wife and two children are now making their headquarters with the foreman of the farm.

Mr. Lillie is one of the big-hearted patriotic men of this city, and has been employed in the shipyards in Portland. While there he composed a number of songs, including "Building Ships for Uncle Sam," "Where the Bonnie Clyde is Flowing," and "The Purple Heather Grows." "The Cottage on the Hillside near the Clyde." Mr. Lillie has had published the former song, and the latter will be published this spring. He entertained many ship workers in the state with his Scotch songs, and has sold thousands of these. Much of this money was used in purchasing bonds. The song has been in demand by the shipworkers and others, who have heard it. The music is also by Mr. Lillie.

Mueller Very Honest Finds Sum of Money Donates to County

Hate off to Samuel Mueller! He is an honest man and has proven it.

The following letter was received a few days ago by the county treasurer, which should be proof enough for anyone that Mr. Mueller is very, very honest:

County Treasurer: "Enclosed I return to you the money I found on the county road between Carus and Mulino a short time ago. It belongs to the county."

"Yours respectfully," "SAMUEL MUELLER." This is a very rare incident and Mr. Mueller should be commended on his honesty. The money was thankfully received by the treasurer and no doubt she can make good use of it. Oh, yes, we forgot to mention the sum. It was one red cent.

R. L. Masten, who has just recently received his honorable discharge from the aviation service, has come to Oregon City, and has established the Masten service. This service planned by Mr. Masten is to deliver goods to those residing out of the city as well as in this city. Once a week the delivery car is to make each of the main roads out of Oregon City, and wherever the traffic warrants it more frequent service will be given. It is also planned to purchase produce at the farms thus saving many farmers from coming to this city in the busy season.

Mr. Masten is a nephew of James Brady of the Brady Mercantile company, and he will have his headquarters at that store. He has been in the United States army for over a year, and was first stationed at the ground school of aviation at Berkeley, California, and later to the flying school at Mather Field, Sacramento, California, and previous to receiving his honorable discharge from the army was stationed at Riverside, California. O. L. Olmstead, girls' and boys' club organizer, has during the past week organized the following school districts into clubs: Rural Dell, Bear Creek, Echo Dell, Clairmont, Lone Elder, Macksburg, Marks' Prairie and West Linn. ANOTHER ONE

This last week we added another satisfied customer to our already long list.

How? Why through the classified ad columns of the Enterprise.

George Anderson, of 216 Thirteenth street placed a small ad in the Enterprise when he had some furniture, rugs and a gas range to sell. This ad was to run three times, but Mr. Anderson cancelled the order the second day because he had nothing left to sell, as many people had read the ad and soon purchased the goods. The ad cost him 25 cents. This is just one incident out of many.

Give the Enterprise classified ads a trial the next time you have something to sell.
