Miss Rachel Miller, who came home on account of the illness of her sister, Elma, returned to Eugene last Thursday.

While grave and perplexing deliberation is going on in our executive council concerning the employment of returning soldiers and marines the question is being quietly and effectively settled in our locality by Mother Nature herself. She is preparing profitable, healthful and enjoyable work for them, at home, where the knowledge, endurance and experience acquired in months of government service may be utilized with profit, not only to their people and themselves but to the entire world.

The waste and devastation of war has been greatly diminished in our country by the nondisturbance of its agricultural interests. Most of the 1918 crops were put in before the men had been called to the colors while those of 1919, are saved from interruption by their unexpected early return. A few weeks of rest will be secured to the home-comers by the rain which is preparing moisture which will be held in reserve for the annual summer drouth.

range soon to be thrust upon the country—a true soldier's call first to close the ranks.

"Nothing could be more characteristic or more clearly illustrative of the breadth of vision, the foresight, the directness in method and the painstaking attention of the man. Nothing, too, probably could have served his purpose better than that these words should have been his last. Difficult as it is to reconcile oneself to the decree of divine Providence that the removal of that great patriot at this crucial moment was not untimely, we cannot but realize, as he would have been the first to acknowledge, that the last vestige of animosities which might have continued to impair his highest aspirations was buried with him, and thereby the perfect union which he so ardently desired against all things un-American was attained.

"Thus we find the Republican party resuming full legislative authority thoroughly united and invigorated by the peculiar confidence which so often carried it to victory in former years."
