

BOYS AND GIRLS ENTHUSIASTIC IN HEALTH CRUSADE

Fifty-five thousand Oregon children, 46,000 of them in the counties of Multnomah, Clackamas, Yamhill, Washington, Columbia and Tillamook are now modern health crusaders of the American Junior Red Cross.

And of those counties, while Multnomah heads the list because of close organization in Portland, Clackamas comes a remarkable second—best with 4136 children, embracing the students of two-thirds of the county schools, taking up the Red Cross health program.

The Junior Red Cross crusaders in the other counties of the Portland chapter are: Columbia 1300, Tillamook 12 (this showing due to many schools closed as a result of influenza but expected shortly to be wonderfully bettered), Washington 1877, Yamhill 2000, Multnomah county outside Portland 1424, and 31,189 in Portland proper.

And now you know the reason, Mr. and Mrs. Parent, why little Willie has been going to bed so religiously, scrubbing his teeth, washing his face and hands, cleaning his finger nails, getting lots of sleep and always smiling. For Willie and 55,000 other school Willies and Marys are determined to be enrolled first as squires (which requires 5 weeks of this regular program), then as knights, which requires 10 weeks, and then as knight bannerets, which requires 15 weeks perfect score.

But who keeps score? you ask. Why the Junior Red Crossers themselves. The whole Crusade idea was based on honor. Just the same with the modern Crusaders. So every little Willie and every little Mary is engaged nightly in keeping count of the number of times faces were washed, the number of baths taken and the number of glasses of water drunk every day. The teachers have helped enthusiastically.

SUITS DISMISSED

The suit of P. O. Holland against R. F. Giesy was ordered dismissed Wednesday on account of the failure of the plaintiff to prosecute the case. Holland had sued Giesy, a physician, for $10,000 for alleged failure to perform his duties properly when plaintiff was injured and called the doctor for aid.

On motion of plaintiff the suit of R. G. Costemann vs. G. M. Williamson was dismissed Wednesday. It was alleged the defendant had purchased beverages from the Weinhart estate amounting to $136.85 and paid only $80.31 on the account.

FORMER RESIDENT OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY DECIDES TO RETURN

C. D. Robeson, a former resident of Clackamas county, who left for The Dalles about a year ago, is in Oregon City for a few days, where he is looking after property interests. Mr. Robeson has decided that there is no place like Clackamas county and he will return to make his home in this county again in a short time.

He and Ferris Mayfield, also a former resident of Clackamas county, when leaving here leased a farm consisting of 1000 acres of land, 650 of which was plowed, and planted to grain, and they have been operating this. This land together with 10,000 acres has been sold by the owner to the Union Stock Yards company, and this company is to operate it. The company also purchased 4000 head of sheep and 200 head of cattle. Mr. Robeson has sold most of his livestock to the company, except the horses, and as soon as he disposes of these he is to return to Clackamas county. He says what he doesn't like about that country is the wind, and a gale blows almost continually, and the sand storms are something he does not admire.

The weather there has been very cold, and after the Columbia river froze over he walked entirely across. The ice was so thick at one point that an automobile made the trip across.

The KITCHEN CABINET

The meat I can do for my friend is simply to be his friend. I have no wealth to bestow upon him. If he knows I am happy in loving him, he will want no other reward. Is not friendship divine in this?—Lavinia.

GOOD THINGS WE ALL ENJOY.

When chicken meat and the bones are left, too small an amount to serve, add a small piece of veal and when all is well-cooked drop in some of these dumplings with a teaspoon and they will be ready to serve in eight minutes.

Dumplings.—Take one cupful of nice fresh buttermilk, sift a cupful of flour with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder, add one egg and some salt, mix well and drop from a teaspoon, cover tightly and cook eight minutes without raising the lid. Flour should be used to make a drop batter, the amount will vary slightly with the consistency of the buttermilk as well as the flour.

Friendship Village Muffins.—Beat two eggs, add four tablespoonfuls of sugar, two of shortening and one cupful of milk, flour to make a stiff batter like of griddle cakes; add one teaspoonful of baking powder to the flour. For corn muffins add half cornmeal and the other half flour.

Oatmeal Bread.—Take one quart of cooked oatmeal, one-half cupful of molasses, cool and add yeast cake dissolved in one-fourth of a cupful of water, one teaspoonful of salt and flour to make a sponge. Let rise one and one-half hours, then make into loaves, giving one kneading in the mixing bowl.

Waffles.—Take one cupful of thick sour milk, three tablespoonfuls of melted fat, two eggs, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of salt, one-half teaspoonful of soda, and one and one-fourth cupfuls of flour. Mix the salt and soda in the flour, beat the yolks and whites separately; add the fat just before folding in the whites. Cook on a hot well-greased waffle iron.

Raised Muffins.—Take three cupfuls of warm water, half a cupful of fat, two eggs, two teaspoonfuls of salt, two-thirds of a cupful of yeast, two-thirds of a cupful of sugar; stir as stiff as possible with flour, then let rise, stir down, cover closely and set in a cool place. Put into muffin pans four hours before they are wanted. Bake in a hot oven.

Judgment Is Given On Realty Deal

In the suit of May Reed against A. C. Hughes and Dillman & Howland in the Circuit Court Saturday, judgment was given ordering the real estate firm to turn over the $100 on deposit to May Reed.

Last May Mrs. May Reed purchased the Northwesterly half of lot one, block 59, in this city from A. C. Hughes, through the office of Dillman & Howland. On looking over the title she found the title defective on account of there being no deed from the Portland Trust Co. Mr. Hughes deposited $100 with Dillman & Howland to show his good faith in procuring said deed or suing the acquire title to the property within six months. Mr. Hughes was to get the deed and Mrs. Reed brought suit to have the $100 turned over to her, relieving Hughes of getting the deed from the Portland Trust Co. The real estate firm of Dillman & Howland was simply holding the money in escrow to guarantee the title to the property.

VIOLATORS OF TRAFFIC LAWS ARE ARRESTED

Many of the loud wall has been heard in this city the past week from traffic violators arrested by Special Speed Officer Joyner and brought before City Recorder Loder.

At the last meeting of the city council a committee was appointed to employ an officer to prevent reckless driving in the city, as there has been much complaint over this. Joyner was chosen for the position and his salary is fixed by the council and is a stated amount and no commission is allowed from the fines.

The new speed cop got busy the first of the week and a number of prominent citizens have paid the penalty for their carelessness with fines amounting from $1 to $5.

Wednesday S. C. Roake of the Willamette Transfer company, was arrested for driving with his cut-out open and was assessed $5 by Recorder Loder. The same day D. M. Klemson was charged with reckless driving and paid a fine of $5.

Thursday H. F. Tebrigt was charged with driving without any head lights and was fined $5, and E. G. Larkins paid $5 for driving on the wrong side of the street. Anton Klootwyk drove into the city without a tail light and was assessed $5 of his carelessness. Celia Goldsmith failed to turn on the head lights of her car when it got dark and Recorder Loder fined her $5 Friday.

The first of the week H. Maddux rode his motorcycle with the cut-out open and was fined $1 for this. The next night he was again arrested for having no tail light on his machine and was given a fine of $5.

"John Doe", known to be a prominent business of this city, was fined $5 for driving on the wrong side of the street.

"Brick" Barry was given a fine of $1 the first of the week for failure to provide a tail light on his machine. Several accidents have happened in this city from reckless driving and a great many have been narrowly averted and the council has taken this step to prevent these. Officers announce that the traffic laws will be enforced to the letter in order to protect the public.

PROBATE COURT

Petition for the probate of the will of the late F. W. Howard was filed Saturday by Dorothy E. Latourette. Mr. Howard died January 31, 1919, in Ravalle county, Montana, and left an estate of real and personal property in Clackamas county consisting of part of lot 8, block 57, in Oregon City, which had been sold by him on contract, $500 being due on this. There is also $117.85 in cash.

Laura E. Mullan filed for probate of the estate of the late Amelia C. Mullan. This consists of personal and real property in this county valued at $4,000.

OREGON CITY TO THE FRONT Millions of People Will Read of Woolen Mills in the Saturday Evening Post

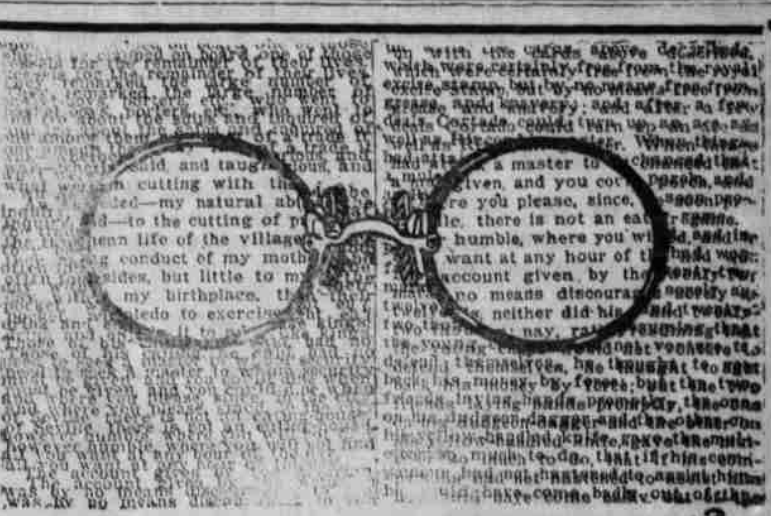

PUTTING US ON THE MAP It means something for a town to be put on the map of the States in a constructive way, and this is what is being done for Oregon City by A. R. Jacobs, president of the Oregon City Woolen Mills. On page 47 of last week's Saturday Evening Post appears an entire page advertisement of the woolen mills, with the words "Oregon City" appearing several times, and with a photograph of the big plant, founded in 1864 by I. and R. Jacobs, and enlarged many times by the succeeding generation.

Coupled with the initial advertisement appears a statement that other advertisements to follow will cover 12,000,000 subscribers of the Saturday Evening Post. It is conservatively estimated by newspaper people that every periodical issued is read by four persons, and using this estimate as a basis it will be seen that Oregon City will be advertised to nearly fifty million people this year.

The people of Oregon City who are interested in its prosperity certainly should entertain a warm feeling for the local concern, which is the only big establishment located here that uses Oregon City in its firm designation. It is good publicity for the mills, but it is also good publicity for this city, though it is obtained without the expenditure of a penny of the money of the people.

It follows with the spending of about $50,000 in national advertising this season by the woolen mills that returns should follow that will mean ultimately that the concern will grow, bringing with it a bigger plant and a larger payroll for the city. Payrolls and prosperity go hand in hand.
