The Refugee Clothing Drive in our place was a gratifying success as to the quantity and quality of the goods delivered at the Red Cross room in Oregon City by Mrs. John Heplin, Chairman and Mrs. Wells, Treasurer of the Macksburg Red Cross Auxiliary. Certainly the canvassers found the house to house calling a genuine pleasure owing to the cordial civility shown them at all of the homes that they visited, everyone, with very few exceptions, seemed as anxious to contribute as were the solicitors to receive the clothing. Should the Victory Loan Drive meet with as ready and generous response as did this project for clothing the destitute across the sea, we may look at the report of our district with merited pride.

Monday, April 14th, the first day for a week in which both weather and soil have been favorable to planting has been one of the busiest of even this rushing time. Not a ranch is there on which an extra team, another pair of hands and many more sunny hours would not have been hailed as a boon. Many of the ranchers devoting large acreage to the new industry of Loganberry culture, the demand for this fruit having increased almost incredibly in the past year.

Brest, France, Mar. 24, 1919.

Dear Mother: I just arrived from Paris, where I spent 72 hours. It is a beautiful city and has the finest subways.

I also went to the Y. M. C. A. and they accompanied us thru the city.

I saw the statue of Louis the 14th, 15th and 16th; it is a wonderful work of art. I am sending you a picture of Louis the 14th and also a book containing the views of Paris which I have seen and I will explain to you when I get home.

I saw the church which the long range German guns hit and killed 72 people.

I also saw the church built in the 14th century and Napoleon's tomb and new war painting which was some grand. We saw President Wilson's home in Paris, where they are holding peace conference. I saw a book written in the 11th century and a steel structure in the street which is 1000 feet high. One of the most interesting things was a vehicle Napoleon paraded in that cost two hundred thousand dollars and others that cost one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Where I am now we are having a school where we can study land and how to treat it.

The conditions here are fine and I am in a fine camp. I think I will be home in August.

With love.
