IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

The marriage of Miss Lila Mae Elizabeth Miller and Francis Ray Logue, both of this city, was solemnized at Vancouver, Wash., July 2, with Rev. F. E. Dark, pastor of the Vancouver Baptist church, officiating.

The bride was prettily attired in gray satin, and wore a becoming satin picture hat.

Miss Hulda M. Paperies, of this city, was bridesmaid. The bridegroom was unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Logue took a brief honeymoon, returning to Oregon City the latter part of the week.

The young couple surprised their relatives and friends by going to Vancouver to be married, and the affair was kept a secret until their return to this city.

They will be at home to their friends after July 6th.

The bride is an attractive young woman, and the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Miller, of Ninth and Division streets. She came to Oregon City a year ago with her parents from Springfield, Oregon, where she made her home for five years.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Saddle Scripture, of Eleventh and Madison streets, Oregon City. He will leave soon for the harvest fields, where he will be employed, but his wife will remain here for the present.

A welcome party was given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Niels Christensen for their son Edward, who has been with the 63rd Infantry, Co. A, Camp Meade, Maryland, after one year's service. He received his discharge at Camp Lewis June 18.

The evening was spent in outside games until dark, then inside games were played. A midnight lunch and ice cream were served.

After the lunch the young folks danced and John Robinson and Louis Koellmeier gave the music for the dance.

There were 64 friends and relatives present and all reported a good time.

PLENTY, THANK YOU After the few weeks of cool weather the people of Clackamas county are now experiencing tropical days. Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock the thermometer registered 80 degrees at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Babcock, considered one of the coolest places in the city. The thermometer is hung on the north side of the house, and Wednesday evening this thermometer at 4 o'clock registered 80 degrees. At Canby the thermometer registered Tuesday evening 92 degrees, and about the same Wednesday.

MOUNTAIN ROAD MAN GETS HIGH PRICES FOR FARM PRODUCTS

E. E. Knickrahm, a well known farmer of Mountain Road district, was in Oregon City Wednesday on his way home from Portland, where he marketed some of his fine Lambert cherries, for which he received 15 cents per pound. Forty-two pounds of these cherries, which were purchased by one of the fruitstands, brought this farmer $6.30.

Mr. Knickrahm also marketed some American Wonder potatoes in this city, for which he was paid 4 cents per pound, 558 pounds being brought here. From one of the hills potatoes averaged a weight of eight pounds. These were planted about March 7th and are of exceptional quality. These potatoes have been placed in the display window of the Commercial Club publicity department, and are attracting unusual attention.

Knickrahm has one and three-fourths acres of land in potatoes. His farm consists of 67 1/2 acres of land, 35 acres of which are under cultivation.

Mr. Knickrahm made his home in Wisconsin until eight years ago, and is one of the best boosters for Oregon, and says he will continue to reside in this state. He lived in Portland for eight years, and four years ago came to Clackamas county, where he purchased his farm.

WOODWARD FAMILIES HOME FROM TRIP IN WASHINGTON STATE

Mrs. R. E. Woodward and son, Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. George Woodward and son, Gilbert, who have been visiting Mrs. R. E. Woodward's daughter, Mrs. Thomas Jones, and family, of Fort Worden, Wash., and visiting Fort Casey and Port Townsend, have returned to Oregon City. The party made the trip by automobile, and on the return trip made the entire distance of 256 miles in one day.

The trip to Washington and back to their home in Oregon City was made without puncture, or without trouble on the machine. One of the most picturesque roads was through the mountains. One of the mountains was Mt. Constance, which appeared but two blocks away, and was entirely covered with snow.

The members of the party say that Washington has nothing on Oregon for good roads.

Some rainy and disagreeable weather was experienced by the party shortly after leaving Oregon City. July 4 it commenced raining and continued for several days, preventing a number of trips they intended to make before leaving for their home in this city, and Chief of Police Woodward says he never saw it rain as hard in Olympia as on Sunday while they were visiting there. As soon as the Oregon border was reached the sun was shining, and the party enjoyed being back on the soil of old Oregon.

Kenneth Lee was born in Oregon City and resided for some time with his parents in this city and later at Clarks. He recently graduated from a high school in Portland. He was taken ill a few days ago with paralysis.

Boden Funeral Held in Iowa

The remains of the late Frank O. Boden, who died in this city June 15, reached his old home, according to word sent by relatives of the young man to friends of Mr. Boden of this city. The interment was in the family lot at Kellogg, Iowa. Friends of the young man in this city had placed a number of beautiful floral tributes on the casket after arriving at the old home at Kellogg, and where the funeral services were held at the Lutheran church June 26, the interment being in the Lutheran cemetery.

After completing his studies in the Kellogg high school, he entered the State College at Ames, Iowa, and in 1912 completed a course in engineering and soon after left for Washington and Oregon, where he is followed by his profession.

Mrs. Boden is survived by his mother, Mrs. Charlotte Boden, of Kellogg, Iowa; Mr. Starr G. Wilson, of Odessa, Iowa; a brother, Oscar Boden, of Torrington, Wyoming.

Mrs. Reed Dies at Springfield

Mrs. Jennie Reed, wife of R. H. Reed, of Springfield, and sister of O. D. Eby and F. G. Eby, of this city, died at the family home Saturday morning after a brief illness.

Mrs. Reed comes from one of the early and well known Oregon pioneer families. Her parents, the late David and Elizabeth Eby, crossed the plains in 1852, settling in Clackamas county, the father dying in 1915, and the mother in 1900.

Mrs. Reed was born in Oregon, and was 49 years of age. She is survived by her husband, R. H. Reed, of Springfield, two daughters, Mrs. Grace Swindell, of Coos Bay, and Juanita Reed, of Springfield; two sons, Forrest, who has recently received his discharge from the naval service, and who has been over-seas several times, and Ernest Reed, who has been in the army, recently receiving his discharge. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Morrow, of Cottage Grove, and Mrs. Ida Maton, of San Diego, Calif; and two brothers, O. D. Eby and F. G. Eby.

Motor to Astoria and Back in Day

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Nash and son, and Mrs. Nash's mother, Mrs. J. N. Bennett, were among those enjoying a motoring trip July 4th. They left here at 5:15 for Astoria, and after arriving at St. Helens, were delayed for over three hours, then proceeded on their journey, visiting a number of the smaller towns enroute, and arrived at their destination at 1:15, where they remained until 3:15. The homeward journey was made in excellent time arriving in Portland at 9 o'clock, after having one of the most delightful trips this season.

In some places the roads were rough, as they are undergoing repair, and considerable crushed rock has been placed on them, causing a bad road to travel over. Dr. Nash made the trip without punctured tires, although they were forced to pass over bad thoroughfares.

Mrs. Bennett, a former resident of California, is now a booster for Oregon and Washington.

SON OF MRS. H. LEE WHO WAS BORN HERE, DIES OF PARALYSIS

The funeral services of the late Kenneth Lee, 19-year-old son of Mrs. Harry Lee, of Clarks, were held from the family home of John Gard, uncle of the young man, Saturday afternoon, Rev. Seeman, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the family lot beside those of his father, Harry Lee, who died three years ago.

Kenneth Lee was born in Oregon City and resided for some time with his parents in this city and later at Clarks. He recently graduated from a high school in Portland. He was taken ill a few days ago with paralysis.

The young man is survived by his mother and a sister, of Clarks, and a large number of relatives of that place. He was a nephew of the Gard brothers of Clarks.

Oswego Boy Dies of Scarlet Fever

Charles Starr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Starr, of Oswego, died at the family home July 4 from scarlet fever, and the remains were brought to this city.

The child was 10 years of age, and is survived by his parents and a little sister, who has just recovered from scarlet fever.

The funeral services, which were private, were conducted Saturday afternoon.

HAWLEYS HAVE GUEST FROM MANILA P. I. IN MRS. J. P. HEILBRONN

Mrs. J. P. Heilbronn, of Manila, P. I., was in Oregon City Tuesday, as a guest of Mrs. Willard P. Hawley, Sr., having accompanied Mrs. Hawley by automobile from Portland, and left on the evening train for San Francisco, on her way to New York. In New York Mrs. Heilbronn will visit her father, M. B. Klapp, of Ridgewood, who is very ill, and will also visit her sister and other relatives. Mr. Heilbronn, who is the owner of one of the largest paper houses in Manila, had intended accompanying his wife to the United States, but a short time previous to the sailing of his vessel, he was detained owing to his business interests, but will join Mrs. Heilbronn at a later date in New York, and before returning to their home will make a tour of the world. Mrs. Heilbronn has been on her way to the United States since April 14. She was detained in Peking, China, for some time. Owing to the large number of vessels being used for transferring troops from France, there is a scarcity of steamboats to bring the tourists and others desiring to visit the United States. Mrs. Heilbronn arrived on the Asia, of the Princess Line, and visited a few days in British Columbia. She is a former New York girl, and is looking forward with pleasure to visiting her home state.

Slipping from a ledge into the tailrace of the River Mill power plant of the Portland, Railway, Light & Power company, between Cazadero and Estacada, Friday afternoon, R. B. Wiest, 21 years of age, an employe of the plant, was drowned. The body was recovered after it had been in the water for 20 minutes and though a doctor was present when it was pulled from the water, all efforts at resuscitation failed. Wiest is survived by parents who live at 1144 East Harrison street, Portland. The body was taken in charge by E. L. Johnson, coroner of Clackamas county.

CLACKAMAS HEIGHTS AND GLADSTONE ARE VISITED BY THIEVES

Burglars operating in Gladstone and Clackamas Heights Sunday night broke into the homes of G. F. Nickerson, of Gladstone, and Charles Day, of Clackamas Heights, while families were away from home. From the Nickerson residence a suit of clothes, a $25 suit case, $10 in money and two $50 Liberty Bonds, were taken, and the thieves got away with a $92 cornet and $30 in money from the Day home. Sheriff Wilson is working on the case.

CHRISTIAN M. EISELE, CARETAKER OF PARKS, DIES AT AGE OF 74

Christian M. Eisele died Wednesday evening.

Mr. Eisele was 74 years of age, and resided in Oregon City for a number of years. He was employed as caretaker of the Oregon City parks until he was taken ill. He came to this city twelve years ago from Portland.

Mr. Eisele married Mrs. Irene Gardner, formerly of this city, but later of Portland, who survives him.

Picking Flowers at Crater Lake

Word was received by friends from Mrs. C. G. Miller a few days ago, telling of some of the experiences she was having while accompanying her husband and son, Gordon, to California by automobile. They have been visiting at Bend for several weeks, where they have been guests of Mrs. James Lawrence, sister of Mrs. Miller, and family, and also Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. C. O. T. Williams, who is visiting at Bend.

When writing they were at Crater Lake, and walked three miles through the snow to arrive there. They left their automobile below in the timber. One of the drifts they came in contact with was ten feet deep, and this was in front of the hotel at Crater Lake.

In the message Mrs. Miller says, "This is the grandest place in the world, and beautiful flowers are blooming right beside the snowbanks. We are having a grand time, and from this place will go to Klamath Falls."
