

LOCALS

A party composed of Babe Elliott, Sidney Smith, John Montgomery, Leonard Lageson and William Priebe left Oregon City Saturday for the celebrated Bee ranch in the wilds of the Molalla country.

Mrs. A. C. Warner was a charming hostess of a pretty social affair at her home, The Lilacs, her guests being members of the King's Daughters of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, and a few friends of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mulvey and son, Charles, the latter an ensign during the war, have arrived in Oregon City, where they are spending ten days.

Captain Harry Montgomery, who recently returned from France, and who is still in the regular army and stationed at Camp Funston, Kansas, with the 34th U. S. Infantry, was in Oregon City with his wife, formerly Miss Helen Taylor, daughter of the late Judge Taylor, of Astoria.

A. J. Lewis, one of the prominent fruitgrowers and farmers of Clackamas county, whose home is at Maple Lane, was in Oregon City on Tuesday, where he transacted business.

Mrs. H. C. Myers, who accompanied her husband to Spokane early in July, returned to Oregon City this week. Mr. Myers, having returned about a week ago. While in Spokane Mr. and Mrs. Myers were guests of Rev. and Mrs. John Ovall, the former having been in charge of a church of Clackamas county.

Mrs. Charles Parker, wife of Captain Charles Parker, left Sunday for Billings, Montana, where she will meet her husband, who has recently returned from overseas duty in France, and they will enjoy a trip through Yellowstone Park.

Mrs. William Robinson and granddaughter, Ruth Pressy, daughter of Arthur Pressy, will leave this morning for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will join Mr. Robinson, who left several months ago for the South for the benefit of his health.

L. Ferguson, of New Era, was in Oregon City Wednesday. Mr. Ferguson recently heard from his son, Oliver Ferguson, who has been in France, where he was wounded and gassed.

Mrs. M. E. Walker, of Glen Echo, who is camping at the Chautauqua, entertained in a delightful manner a number of friends of her little son, Billy Miller, during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mulvey and son, Charles, the latter an ensign during the war, have arrived in Oregon City, where they are spending ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Adamosky, of Mount Pleasant, have sold their home at Mount Pleasant to Frank and Etta M. Schull, who have been residing at Gladstone.

Mrs. J. G. Noe left Monday evening for Woodburn, where she is to visit for a month with her parents, and will also act in the capacity of postmistress for two weeks, giving Postmaster Gules a two weeks' vacation.

The marriage of Miss Leita May Cromere, of Portland, and Mr. Edward Howett, who has recently returned from Paris, France, was solemnized at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Milliken, July 14.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Scott and three children, who have been on an outing spent on Wild Cat Mountain, have returned. They made the trip as far as the mountain in their automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Pace and daughter, Pauline, left Tuesday evening for Wilhoit, where they are to enjoy camp life. Mr. Pace will spend about two weeks at the resort, and his wife and daughter will remain for a month.

Mrs. Starr Wilson and sister, Miss Anna Boden, of Kellogg, Iowa, who have been in this city settling the estate of their brother, the late Frank Boden, whose death occurred in Oregon City June 18, will return to their home early next week.

Judge Thomas F. Ryan, who has been at Newport, where he has been looking after his summer home, has returned to Oregon City.

Nick Story, who recently returned from Oakland, Calif., where he had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. John Bosovich, nee Lena Story, and formerly of this city, left Tuesday morning for St. Martin's Hot Springs.

Mrs. Mary Badger, wife of R. L. Badger, and former Clackamas county resident, and a well known writer, who recently left with her husband for a visit in Iowa, will contribute one of her stories to a publication, "Uncle Sam's Boy," published in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Captain Lowell Blanchard, who left Oregon City in 1917 for overseas duty, has arrived in New York. Captain Blanchard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Blanchard of this city, and during his absence his family have been residing at Oak Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Koehler, formerly of Portland, but who have resided at Mount Angel for the past six months, have come to Oregon City to make their future home.

Sergeant Ward Hammond, recently returned from France, where he was a motor instructor during the past few months, and who has been visiting his brothers, Attorneys William and Phillip Hammond, has gone to his home in Ashland.

Charles Bollinger, after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Alldredge, of this city, parents of Mrs. Bollinger, has returned to Astoria. Mr. Bollinger, who has been connected with the Farr drug and book store, having charge of the latter department, has entered business for himself.

The two children of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Huil, of Colton, underwent a surgical operation at the Oregon City hospital Saturday morning, when ade-

Huntley Drug Co. Reconstruction Sale

The carpenters, painters, electricians and concrete men are all having a whack at us now with the work of improving and enlarging our quarters and increasing our floor space. While this is going on we find we must dispose of a lot of surplus stock and rather than move it from pillar to post we are going to offer it to you at a price that you cannot resist buying.

TOILET REQUISITES. Get your favorite medical soap of us at a discount of about 33 1-3 per cent.

- Palmer's Skin Soap, Tyrell's Health Soap, P. D. & Co. Germicidal Herpicide Toilet Soap, Hyomei Toilet Soap, Listerine Toilet Soap, Rickseckers Toilet Soap, Zemo Toilet Soap, Q-Ban Toilet Soap, Spanish Castile Soap, Harifina Toilet Soap.

Choice of these 10c Soaps for 7c

- Rexall Toilet Soap, Creme Oil Soap, Jergens Violet Glycerine, Jergens Scented Rose and Violet.

This week only, very special

- Woodbury's Facial 19c, Pears Unscented, 2 for 25c, Floating Castile (large bars) 29c.

Some Special Bargains

In our Rubber goods dept. One of the best is a two-quart fountain syringe, without box, regular $1.75. This sale price only 98c while they last.

Palm Olive Soap Free

To every customer whose purchase amounts to 25c or more (special sales goods not included in this offer) we will give a full sized cake of Palm Olive Soap free. This is a special birthday feature for Saturday, July 26th.

Twenty-eight years ago in July the Huntley Drug store happened in Oregon and from a very modest beginning we have grown to a big modern drug store employing about twenty-five people.

What progress we have made, after all, is due entirely to the support given us by our friends and customers—We want here and now to extend our sincerest thanks to those of you who have stood by us so loyally.

We are closing out a lot of odds and ends in our paint department that are real bargains—We list only a few here, but see our paint man. Reg. price $3.00 per gal. Bruin Floor Paint. Special $2.00. Reg. price 85c per quart Bruin Floor Paint. Special 55c.

Toilet Goods Department

- Take Advantage Of These Prices. 25c Cold Cream 17c, 50c Germaine Powder 29c, $1.00 Rexall Hair Tonic 89c, 50c Palm Olive Powder 29c.

Buy and 50c Manicure preparation and get a 25c box of satin cream free.

Huntley Drug Co., REXALL DRUGGISTS

FOR THE FARM STOCK FOOD

Closing out our International Stock Foods and some other odds and ends at bargain prices.

- International Stock Food, Reg. $1.30 Special 78c, International Stock Food, Reg. 60c Special 38c, International Stock Food, Reg. 30c Special 17c.

We have an ample supply of sample packages of Hess' Stock Food free for the asking.

Some other sales items.

- $1.00 White Ivory Combs (all course only) 67c, 50c Hair Brushes for 29c, 50c Cloth Brushes for 29c.

ate of their brother, the late Frank Boden, whose death occurred in Oregon City June 18, will return to their home early next week.

Judge Thomas F. Ryan, who has been at Newport, where he has been looking after his summer home, has returned to Oregon City.

Nick Story, who recently returned from Oakland, Calif., where he had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. John Bosovich, nee Lena Story, and formerly of this city, left Tuesday morning for St. Martin's Hot Springs.

Mrs. Mary Badger, wife of R. L. Badger, and former Clackamas county resident, and a well known writer, who recently left with her husband for a visit in Iowa, will contribute one of her stories to a publication, "Uncle Sam's Boy," published in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Captain Lowell Blanchard, who left Oregon City in 1917 for overseas duty, has arrived in New York. Captain Blanchard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Blanchard of this city, and during his absence his family have been residing at Oak Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Koehler, formerly of Portland, but who have resided at Mount Angel for the past six months, have come to Oregon City to make their future home.

Sergeant Ward Hammond, recently returned from France, where he was a motor instructor during the past few months, and who has been visiting his brothers, Attorneys William and Phillip Hammond, has gone to his home in Ashland.

Charles Bollinger, after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Alldredge, of this city, parents of Mrs. Bollinger, has returned to Astoria.

holds and towels were removed. They were accompanied to this city by the mother, who will be able to take them to their home the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harlow, the latter formerly Miss Florence Stromgren, who have been making their temporary home on Tenth and Harrison streets, have taken up their residence in the bungalow on Twelfth and Elm streets, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Swafford.

Mrs. Neumeyer, of Oak Grove, who fell and fractured her knee cap the latter part of the week when she ran to the rescue of one of her children who had fallen into the Clackamas river at Gladstone, underwent an operation on her knee at the Oregon City hospital Sunday morning.

William Sheahan, a former resident of Oregon City and a superintendent in the Crown Willamette Paper Company's plant, was in Oregon City on Saturday, when he visited among his friends. Mr. Sheahan is now connected with the Crown Willamette Paper Mills at Ocean Falls, B. C.

Rheumatism Relief - 25c.

Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets), Are Helping Thousands Who Tried Expensive Things Without Result. It's Guaranteed.

There are three vital processes of human existence—the digestion of food, the extraction of nourishment from it and the elimination of waste.

Think of this. It explains the success of Nature's Remedy (NR Tablets) in so many cases where other medicines have failed. Thousands are using NR Tablets every day and getting relief. Why buy five or ten times as much for uncertain things?

Nature's Remedy NR-TABLETS-NR Better than Pills GET A For Liver Ills 25c BOX

Mrs. A. J. Ware, who has been visiting relatives at Bristow, Iowa, has returned to her home in Oregon City. During Mrs. Ware's stay in Bristow her aunt, Mrs. Sarah DeMoss, of the well known DeMoss musical family, passed away. She is survived by her husband, Nelson DeMoss.

Elbert Charman, son of T. L. Charman, who left in 1917 for France with the 18th Engineers, and later transferred to the staff of the Stars and Stripes in France, arrived in Portland Monday evening on his way to Camp Lewis, where he will receive his discharge from the service.

Frank Mulvey, of Tacoma, Wash., who has been in Oregon City, where he has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Margaret Mulvey, and other relatives, left for his home Friday afternoon. Mr. Mulvey has been a lieutenant on the fire department of Tacoma for the past ten years.

The Ladies' Aid Society (Dorcas) of Twilight was entertained in a delightful manner Friday at the summer home of Mrs. F. J. Meindl. The afternoon was devoted to needlework and followed by refreshments. The rooms of Mrs. Meindl's home were prettily decorated.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kraxberger, of Macksburg, the former a prominent farmer of Clackamas county, were in Oregon City Thursday, where they transacted legal business. Mr. Kraxberger is much encouraged over the prospects of securing a large yield of wheat this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Taylor, of Molalla, were in this city Thursday, and visited the Chautauqua before returning to their home. Mr. Taylor has resumed the management of his newspaper at Molalla, after a year's absence overseas giving his lecture entitled "Dad."

George V. Ely, merchant at Seventh and John Quincy Adams streets, who has been very ill with smallpox, is rapidly recovering. Mr. Ely has been attended by his wife, who escaped the dreaded disease. Eloise, the little daughter, who has also been afflicted, has recovered.

Charles Ladd has gone to Corvallis, where he has accepted a position as manager of the men's furnishing department of the Kline store. Mrs. Ladd and son, Birdsell, will remain in the City until next June, but will leave soon for an outing at Newport.

"If you have any good apples, potatoes, beef or other farm produce for sale see F. T. Barlow at C. W. Inn, West Linn, and he will pay you cash on delivery. Phone Pacific 608."—Adv born at the Oregon City hospital, Wednesday, July 16, to Mrs. G. V. Bolton, nee Ethel Park, formerly of this city, but now of Antelope, Oregon, a daughter. The little girl has been given the name of Betty.

Ferdinand Schudde has purchased two tracts of land from E. Carant, one of which contains 50 acres and the other 45 acres. This land adjoins that of the Fred Henrich place in the Beaver Creek country.

Mrs. Andrew Todd, of Portland, who has been enjoying camp life at the Chautauqua, Gladstone Park, has returned to her home. She also visited with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Jones, of this city.

Mrs. Clyde Mount and two sons will leave this morning for Salem with the former's sister, Miss Lorene Parker, and will be guests of Mrs. Mount's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parker, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Spangler of Spangler station on the Willamette Valley Southern Railway, were among the Oregon City visitors Saturday. They attended the Chautauqua during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Ingalls of 602 John Quincy Adams street are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter, weight six pounds. The little girl arrived Wednesday morning, July 23.

Mrs. Frank Waterhouse, of Portland, who has been a guest of Mrs. E. R. Gregory at their farm at Greenwood near this city, returned to her home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. King of Logan was an Oregon City visitor Saturday, and was on her way to attend the Chautauqua at Gladstone. She was accompanied by Mrs. Smith, of that place.

Born, Friday morning, July 18, to the wife of Neils Meten, of 316 Seventeenth street, a daughter, weight 8 3/4 pounds. Dr. C. H. Meissner attending.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huntley left this week for Alaska, where they will spend about two weeks, and will visit a number of the scenic points.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin O. Cole, of Molalla, are receiving the congratulations over the arrival of a son at their home Sunday, July 20.

Everman Robbins, of Molalla, well known merchant of that place, was among those to transact business here Wednesday.

Otis Ray Daugherty, prominent young farmer of Molalla, was among the Oregon City visitors Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Steiner, of Hoff, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Henrich, were among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

William Thompson, prominent farmer of the Needy section, was a business visitor in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. Josephine Shewman, of Risley Station, formerly of Oregon City, visited in this city Wednesday.

Miss Mary Swope has gone to Molalla, where she will spend a ten days' vacation with her parents.

Mrs. Randall, accompanied by her little daughter, of Central Point, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

W. Bennett, of Oak Grove, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Wednesday.

BE A LEADER. An immense problem in reconstruction confronts the present generation. Are you doing your utmost to prepare to lead in its solution? Oregon Agricultural College. Three regular terms—Fall term begins September 22, 1919.

LIBERTY BONDS BOUGHT SOLD. If you must sell your Bonds or partially paid receipts sell to me. MAIL BONDS to me. I will remit by return mail. A. C. HOWLAND 8TH AND MAIN STS. OREGON CITY, OREGON