

Newsy Briefs From All Over the County

Redland Locals

REDLAND, Nov. 14.—Mrs. Frank Sprague and daughter Mildred and son Albert were Oregon City visitors this week.

Mrs. Hamilton is on the sick list.

On Friday night there was a good meeting held at the Upper Redland school.

Melford Hinkle is confined at his home with sickness.

Misses Margaret Strong and Della Hulse spent the week-end in Portland.

On Sunday services were held at the Redland Methodist church.

The Red Cross will meet with Mrs. Joe Hinkle Thursday, November 20.

H. G. Nevill spent the week-end with Portland friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fischer gave an informal dancing party at their home Saturday night. Everyone reported a fine time.

On Monday several of the young men decided they would do a good turn, so they got busy and fixed up the plank roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hinkle and Mrs. Willie Hinkle spent Sunday at Corbett.

Salmon fishing is pretty good at Clear Creek after the heavy rains.

The Red Cross was busy last week making their annual drive.

W. J. Bonney is busy hauling lumber to Parkplace. He expects to ship two cars this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fischer transacted business in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mr. Jensen and daughter Lula visited Miss Alice at the Oregon City hospital Sunday.

Gus Leach was an Oregon City visitor Thursday.

Eagle Creek

EAGLE CREEK, Nov. 20.—(Special)—H. H. Hoffmeister was a Portland visitor recently.

School District No. 50 has a new organ which they were much in need of.

Eagle Creek grange held a short business meeting last Saturday. Only eight members and six children were present. We hope that at our December meeting there will be a much larger attendance for it will be election day.

H. S. Gibson and Carl Clark were Estacada visitors on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duns and Herman Duns and wife at dinner Saturday.

Mrs. Kabie Douglass made a pleasant call on Mrs. Hoffmeister Sunday.

Mrs. R. B. Gibson and Miss Kathryn Dark walked to Eagle Creek falls on Sunday and called on Mrs. Domm.

Macksburg

MACKSBURG, Nov. 20.—The Red Cross drive was most successful here. Even those who had not been noted for loyalty through the war, gave cheerfully this time. The contributions of one hard working family, including the children's subscription to the Junior Red Cross, was $9.75.

Preparations for Thanksgiving reminds us that once again seed time and harvest are over and that winter is at our door.

The Mothers' club will meet in the present week at the home of Mrs. Simon Miller.

Mrs. V. Buchanan of Hood River, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Baldwin, leaves today for Seaside, where she is to spend the winter with two of her children.

Mrs. Ben Drein, who has been ill in Portland for some time, has returned to her home.

The Little Girls' Sewing circle will meet on the afternoon of November 23, at the home of Mrs. G. M. Baldwin. These children are working earnestly to complete some useful presents for an orphanage in Portland at Christmas time.

A very pleasing program is being prepared for the day before Thanksgiving in the Eby school.

The apple pickers and packers are still busy in the orchards, but are expected home for Thanksgiving day.

The few sunshiny days with a strong south wind have put the ground into admirable shape for fall plowing and planting, which is being done with all possible speed to be ahead of the rain.

News Notes From Redland District

REDLAND, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Joseph Speed and children spent the week-end at Portland.

Miss Gladys Allen of Sherwood, spent the week-end with home folks.

Mrs. G. Armstrong who has been ill is greatly improved.

Miss Alice Jensen returned from the Oregon City hospital Sunday.

The Red Cross meets every two weeks now.

Mr. Fullman transacted business in Oregon City Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fischer visited their daughter, Miss Minnie, at Oregon City Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen and little daughter Gertrude, of Mulino, spent Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. J. Hinkle and Mrs. G. Gill were Oregon City visitors Friday.

Vote for better roads next Monday.

Miss Pearl Hinkle is spending a few days with relatives and friends.

Miss Jessie Bonney and Jack Hindle attended the show at Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Polehn were Portland visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bonney and little daughter Edna, spent Tuesday at Hubbard at Mr. Bonney's home.

Mrs. Critser is enjoying a visit from her parents. They arrived here from California.

Mrs. Sprague was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Many attended the stock show at Portland.

Auction Sale

I will hold a public auction at Bargfield's Place, 1/2 mile west of Fisher's Mill, Logan, on Tuesday, Nov. 25

at 11 o'clock a. m., of the following property:

- 1 new wagon and disc, 3 work horses, 2 cows, sow, boar, farm machinery all new, double disc plow, walking plow, section harrows, mower, cream separator, 10 ton baled oat hay, gray seed oats, seed potatoes. Many other articles too numerous to mention.

FREE LUNCH AT NOON.

TERMS—Sums under $10 will be cash. Sums over this amount will be good bankable notes.

JOSEPH NUFER, Owner.
AL. COOK, Auctioneer.

Clackamas

CLACKAMAS, Nov. 20.—Mrs. Chas. Roadarmel and Mrs. Fred Cummings of Swiss Home, were visiting Mrs. Jack Young Thursday. They returned to their homes Friday, taking little June and Jeane Young with them.

Earnest Street is remodeling his building, the old grange hall, into a dwelling house, and has purchased four lots of the T. A. Roots estate adjoining his property.

P. Subauer has purchased four lots in block 2, Roots addition.

School closed on Monday for investigation of the cough and colds among the pupils. The county supervisor advised opening again Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Thomas Sterling, of Des Moines, Iowa, arrived Monday morning for an extended visit with her son and family, A. E. Sterling.

Murray Miller, wireless operator on transports, arrived from overseas November 19. He is stopping at the home of M. V. Cavender.

Mrs. J. Butcher, of Hood River, was the guest of Mrs. Otis Welsh on Tuesday.

NEWS FROM ELK PRAIRIE

Ed Litchin of Scotts Mills was up on the Prairie looking for his horses which he failed to locate upon first trial; just as he was leaving after a day's search in the snow, he heard of them, and was rewarded the second day by finding them.

Mrs. Battles spent a pleasant visit with Mrs. Fletcher. The two women are enthused by the witchery of kodakery, so much so that a number of Elk Prairie scenes have been photographed for the first time.

Willard Snyder walked up from Scotts Mills over the Elk Prairie trail, to surprise his father. The surprise consisted of finding a padlock upon the door denoting that that gentleman was probably visiting some of his neighbors.

Willard Snyder is working at Scotts Mills at present but says that he and his wife are growing more anxious daily to return to their claims, which they expect to do next month.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Duke and son and grandson Vernon Tidd were Molalla visitors a short time ago.

Willis Badger fell a tree for a foot crossing of Falls creek.

Mrs. Badger spent several days the past week slashing the brush which was obstructing about a mile of the Elk Prairie trail. The people of the neighborhood plan to build a wagon road very near the trail but will have to use the trail for the coming winter as a short cut to Scotts Mills.

T. A. Hughes and brother of Scotts Mills visited at the home of Mr. Snyder over night.

D. W. Badger spent the week end with his family, returning to his work at Liberal Monday.

W. F. Wilson, formerly of this place, but now of Portland, was a Molalla and Liberal visitor for a few days the past week. Mr. Wilson reported that his wife had been seriously ill in the hospital but was recovering her health slowly.

GEORGE NEWS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harger of Portland visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Marie Klinker and other members of the family at George last Sunday.

Mr. Chaine of Portland visited friends at George Saturday night and Sunday.

Irene Paulson went to Portland last Monday, where she intends to work for a short time.

Samuel Mueller of Portland is helping his son-in-law, Mart Doryland, dig potatoes this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reimer and Edward Scheel motored to Canby to attend the wedding of Mrs. Reimer's brother, Mr. Biesks. They returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Johnson were transacting business in Oregon City last Saturday.

MEADOWBROOK

MEADOWBROCK, Nov. 21.—Miss Ivy Ten Eyck, who is teaching school at Orient, spent the week-end at the Fred Horner home, with her sister Rose.

Ray Sullivan was elected director to fill the vacancy caused by P. O. Schiewe moving to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holman returned home Thursday from Portland, where they have been visiting the last week.

Mrs. Minerva Liggins returned to her home at Clarks Sunday, after spending the last month at A. L. Larkins.

Several from here attended the debate at Molalla Wednesday afternoon

Mountain View

MOUNTAINVIEW, Nov. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shelly of Portland visited at James Shelly's Sunday.

Mrs. Alice Hollenbeck and son of Minneapolis, Minn., are visiting at their aunt's, Mrs. E. D. van Auker.

Dora Sconton, who has been employed in Portland during the summer, is home on her vacation.

Mrs. Fox has been suffering several weeks with blood poison in her hand.

Mrs. J. J. Gorbett is still in very poor health. Mr. Gorbett's son and wife are here from eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Christ Bullard has been quite sick with quincy.

We greatly appreciate our Sunday afternoon sermons at church every Sunday at 3 p. m. Sunday school at 2.

John Shannon, who recently moved here from Seattle, is having a serious time with blood poisoning in his hand.

Wilsonville

WILSONVILLE, Nov. 20.—Attorney Brownell, of Oregon City, spoke on the road bond issue, at A. O. U. W. hall on Monday evening.

Dr. Wood, and family, of Portland,

Estacada

ESTACADA, Nov. 20.—Fred Jorg and family spent the week-end at Estacada visiting old friends and neighbors.

Jean Adix was here from Gresham Saturday visiting her young friends.

Superintendent of Schools F. E. Burns, went to Oregon City Saturday to attend the meeting of the principals of schools of Clackamas county.

Last Thursday night a Modern Woodman of America Camp was organized at this place with the following officers: Council, Hugh S. Jones; vice council, James Park; banker, C. S. Allen; clerk, P. S. Stamp; escort, Sam Barr; watchman, Grover Hig-

District Convention Meets

The district convention of the Rebekah lodge was held at Gresham last Friday evening. The president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, Mrs. Jessie Jarvis, was present and gave an interesting talk.

Drill teams from the Boring and the Gresham lodges put on the initiatory work, the prize going to the Gresham team. A quartet from the Boring lodge furnished music.

After the convention closed, delicious refreshments were served by the Gresham lodge. Those attending from Sandy were Mrs. Vera Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Mabel Beers, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dukes. Representatives from the Boring and Estacada lodges were also present.

Baby Meet Well Attended

The eugenics conference held in the city hall last Saturday was a decided success. Twenty-nine children, under six years of age were examined, and according to the examining board, they were above the normal, with few exceptions.

The board consisted of Dr. Waltham, M. D., Dr. Sturey of Sandy, Dentist, Mrs. Bailey of the Congress of Mothers, and Miss Lane, nurse.

Dairymen Hold Meeting

The annual meeting of the local Oregon Dairymen's league was held in the city hall at Sandy Monday afternoon.

Antone Malare was reelected president, and Antone Jerger was elected secretary. Mr. Schrook, secretary of the Oregon Dairymen's league was present and spoke on "The Organization of the Butter Industry," and "The Cooperation and Patronizing of One's Own Plant," as regards the creamery.

All but four members of the local league were present, and several outsiders.

After a Lingering Illness

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Magdalen Abel of Boring, Ore., died Saturday noon and was buried from Sandy parish church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Abel was born at Deutsch Petersdorf, Austria, in 1852. She married Joseph Abel in 1871, emigrated to Oregon and located near Boring, where she has lived ever since, until her death, at the age of 67 years.

secretary, met last Monday night

secretary, met last Monday night and passed resolutions relative to the good roads movement and heartily endorsed the road bond issue.

Carl Kimmel visited home folks here the latter part of last week on account of the illness of his mother, returning to O. A. C. Monday.

E. W. Bartlett and wife attended the "Home Coming" festivities at Eugene last week.

G. O. Hunter and family, of Portland, were week-end guests, at the home of Mr. Hunter's sister, Mrs. J. M. Melton.

The Farrar family, who have been living in the little house belonging to Mrs. Evans, have moved to Mrs. Myrtle Belfis' house and Mrs. Belfis will occupy housekeeping rooms at the Park house.

Miss Loretto Smith of Eagle Creek, who is taking a commercial course in the Estacada high school, assists in the bank when help is needed here.

Another change in a business home of Estacada took place this week when Harry Snyder bought out the J. M. Park drygoods and grocery store, located on Second and Broadway. Mr. Snyder is well known in this section as he was with the Cary Mercantile Co., a few years ago, afterwards buying the store at Cazadero. Later he went onto a ranch up in the Dodge neighborhood for a short time.

There was a very good attendance at the good roads meeting last Sunday night which showed that the people of this vicinity are highly in favor of bonds. A school meeting was held on the same evening and so the road meeting was postponed until the former was ended. H. C. Stephens acted as chairman and gave an excellent explanation of the financial side of the proposed bond issue. Owing to some misunderstanding in dates, the regular speakers were not present and volunteer speakers were called on. It was a good meeting and all present were enthusiastic for the bonds.

Ben Rawlins and Ed Linn went to Portland Tuesday to consult a physician in regard to the health of the former.

Miss Hester Armstrong, of Oak Grove, Cr., was here this week assisting in the Estacada State bank.

Mrs. Charles Coonrad will open a restaurant soon in the Reed building, just north of Borer's confectionery on Main street.

The Eastern Star order had a pleasant gathering at their regular meeting Tuesday night. A sumptuous luncheon was served at 6:30 and then the regular chapter proceeding followed. There were three candidates for initiation. Mrs. N. S. Lowry of Portland, Mrs. E. D. Allen of Mar- not and J. G. Greenwood of Bull Run, were present, all members of this chapter.

Mrs. W. W. Christensen went to Portland Tuesday to attend a theatre party of the White Shrine of Jerusalem. Mr. Christensen followed the next day to attend a banquet of the Shrine, both returning Friday.

A school meeting was held Monday night for the purpose of voting a special district tax to raise the necessary amount required to meet the school expenses for this fiscal year, was well attended. A 13 mill tax was voted upon and carried.

Misses Helen Wooster and Irene Saling entertained a party of children at the Wooster home Tuesday evening. The party was in honor of little Harry Alan Wooster, nephew of Miss Helen.

Estacada high will play Oregon city high on the home grounds Saturday, November 22.

SANDY DEPARTMENT

MRS. BLANCH SHELLEY, Correspondent.

District Convention Meets

The district convention of the Rebekah lodge was held at Gresham last Friday evening. The president of the Rebekah assembly of Oregon, Mrs. Jessie Jarvis, was present and gave an interesting talk.

Drill teams from the Boring and the Gresham lodges put on the initiatory work, the prize going to the Gresham team. A quartet from the Boring lodge furnished music.

After the convention closed, delicious refreshments were served by the Gresham lodge. Those attending from Sandy were Mrs. Vera Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Mabel Beers, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Dukes. Representatives from the Boring and Estacada lodges were also present.

Baby Meet Well Attended

The eugenics conference held in the city hall last Saturday was a decided success. Twenty-nine children, under six years of age were examined, and according to the examining board, they were above the normal, with few exceptions.

The board consisted of Dr. Waltham, M. D., Dr. Sturey of Sandy, Dentist, Mrs. Bailey of the Congress of Mothers, and Miss Lane, nurse.

Dairymen Hold Meeting

The annual meeting of the local Oregon Dairymen's league was held in the city hall at Sandy Monday afternoon.

Antone Malare was reelected president, and Antone Jerger was elected secretary. Mr. Schrook, secretary of the Oregon Dairymen's league was present and spoke on "The Organization of the Butter Industry," and "The Cooperation and Patronizing of One's Own Plant," as regards the creamery.

All but four members of the local league were present, and several outsiders.

After a Lingering Illness

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Magdalen Abel of Boring, Ore., died Saturday noon and was buried from Sandy parish church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Abel was born at Deutsch Petersdorf, Austria, in 1852. She married Joseph Abel in 1871, emigrated to Oregon and located near Boring, where she has lived ever since, until her death, at the age of 67 years.

secretary, met last Monday night

secretary, met last Monday night and passed resolutions relative to the good roads movement and heartily endorsed the road bond issue.

Carl Kimmel visited home folks here the latter part of last week on account of the illness of his mother, returning to O. A. C. Monday.

E. W. Bartlett and wife attended the "Home Coming" festivities at Eugene last week.

G. O. Hunter and family, of Portland, were week-end guests, at the home of Mr. Hunter's sister, Mrs. J. M. Melton.

The Farrar family, who have been living in the little house belonging to Mrs. Evans, have moved to Mrs. Myrtle Belfis' house and Mrs. Belfis will occupy housekeeping rooms at the Park house.

Miss Loretto Smith of Eagle Creek, who is taking a commercial course in the Estacada high school, assists in the bank when help is needed here.

Another change in a business home of Estacada took place this week when Harry Snyder bought out the J. M. Park drygoods and grocery store, located on Second and Broadway. Mr. Snyder is well known in this section as he was with the Cary Mercantile Co., a few years ago, afterwards buying the store at Cazadero. Later he went onto a ranch up in the Dodge neighborhood for a short time.

There was a very good attendance at the good roads meeting last Sunday night which showed that the people of this vicinity are highly in favor of bonds. A school meeting was held on the same evening and so the road meeting was postponed until the former was ended. H. C. Stephens acted as chairman and gave an excellent explanation of the financial side of the proposed bond issue. Owing to some misunderstanding in dates, the regular speakers were not present and volunteer speakers were called on. It was a good meeting and all present were enthusiastic for the bonds.

Ben Rawlins and Ed Linn went to Portland Tuesday to consult a physician in regard to the health of the former.

Miss Hester Armstrong, of Oak Grove, Cr., was here this week assisting in the Estacada State bank.

Mrs. Charles Coonrad will open a restaurant soon in the Reed building, just north of Borer's confectionery on Main street.

The Eastern Star order had a pleasant gathering at their regular meeting Tuesday night. A sumptuous luncheon was served at 6:30 and then the regular chapter proceeding followed. There were three candidates for initiation. Mrs. N. S. Lowry of Portland, Mrs. E. D. Allen of Mar- not and J. G. Greenwood of Bull Run, were present, all members of this chapter.

Mrs. W. W. Christensen went to Portland Tuesday to attend a theatre party of the White Shrine of Jerusalem. Mr. Christensen followed the next day to attend a banquet of the Shrine, both returning Friday.

A school meeting was held Monday night for the purpose of voting a special district tax to raise the necessary amount required to meet the school expenses for this fiscal year, was well attended. A 13 mill tax was voted upon and carried.

Misses Helen Wooster and Irene Saling entertained a party of children at the Wooster home Tuesday evening. The party was in honor of little Harry Alan Wooster, nephew of Miss Helen.

Estacada high will play Oregon city high on the home grounds Saturday, November 22.

LOCALS

Miss Mary Jane Collier, of Portland, was a week-end guest at the Esson home. Miss Collier was the primary teacher in Sandy last year. She has the advanced grades in the Gobel school this year.

Miss Vera Mixer was a Portland visitor last week. While there, she enjoyed the concert by Rudolf Ganz and Sousa's band. Her sister joined her for the week end.

Mrs. Antone Mikkleson and children, and her mother, Mrs. Polson, of Brightwood, were in town Saturday on their way to Estacada for a visit with relatives.

The third Red Cross roll call fell down considerably in Sandy, only $30 being secured. The Cherryville district is the one bright spot in our territory, $62 being turned in by Anton Mikkleson, captain of the district.

The Sandy Rebekah lodge will have its annual Thanksgiving dinner in the I. O. O. F. hall at 1 o'clock Thursday, November 24. This has been a regular occurrence for several years and is for the Rebekahs, their families and any house guests they may have. All members are urged to attend and to make this a real Thanksgiving.

Work was begun this week on the play shed at the Sandy school.

E. D. Hart is in Portland this week attending the stock show.

The Sandy Rebekah lodge met in regular session last Thursday evening. Officers were nominated for the coming year and the regular business of the lodge transacted. After adjournment, the members went to the home of Mrs. Ditter, where delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Alice Scales and Marguerite Ditter motored to Portland Tuesday.

Word from Mr. and Mrs. Purcell says they are well on their way. They will visit in Illinois, Minneapolis and California before returning.

C. Schuebel will speak Saturday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall on the bonding issue to be submitted to the voters of Clackamas county at a special election Monday, November 24.

There will be Thanksgiving services held at the M. E. church Thursday at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Dunlop and U. H. Gibbs will be the speakers.

Miss Ida Wagner was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Friday and Thursday submitted to an operation.

The marriage of Miss Harriet Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Miller, formerly of Oregon City, now of Powell River, B. C., and Mr. McLane, of Powell River, was solemnized at the Catholic church at Powell River, B. C., Sunday, November 3. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The bride was most attractive in her gown of white with large picture hat of corresponding color, and the bridesmaid, Miss Fessie Miller, sister of the bride, wore a gown of yellow and large black picture hat. They carried shower bouquets of white carnations.

Following the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the Miller home, after which the young couple left for their honeymoon. They will make their future home at Powell River.

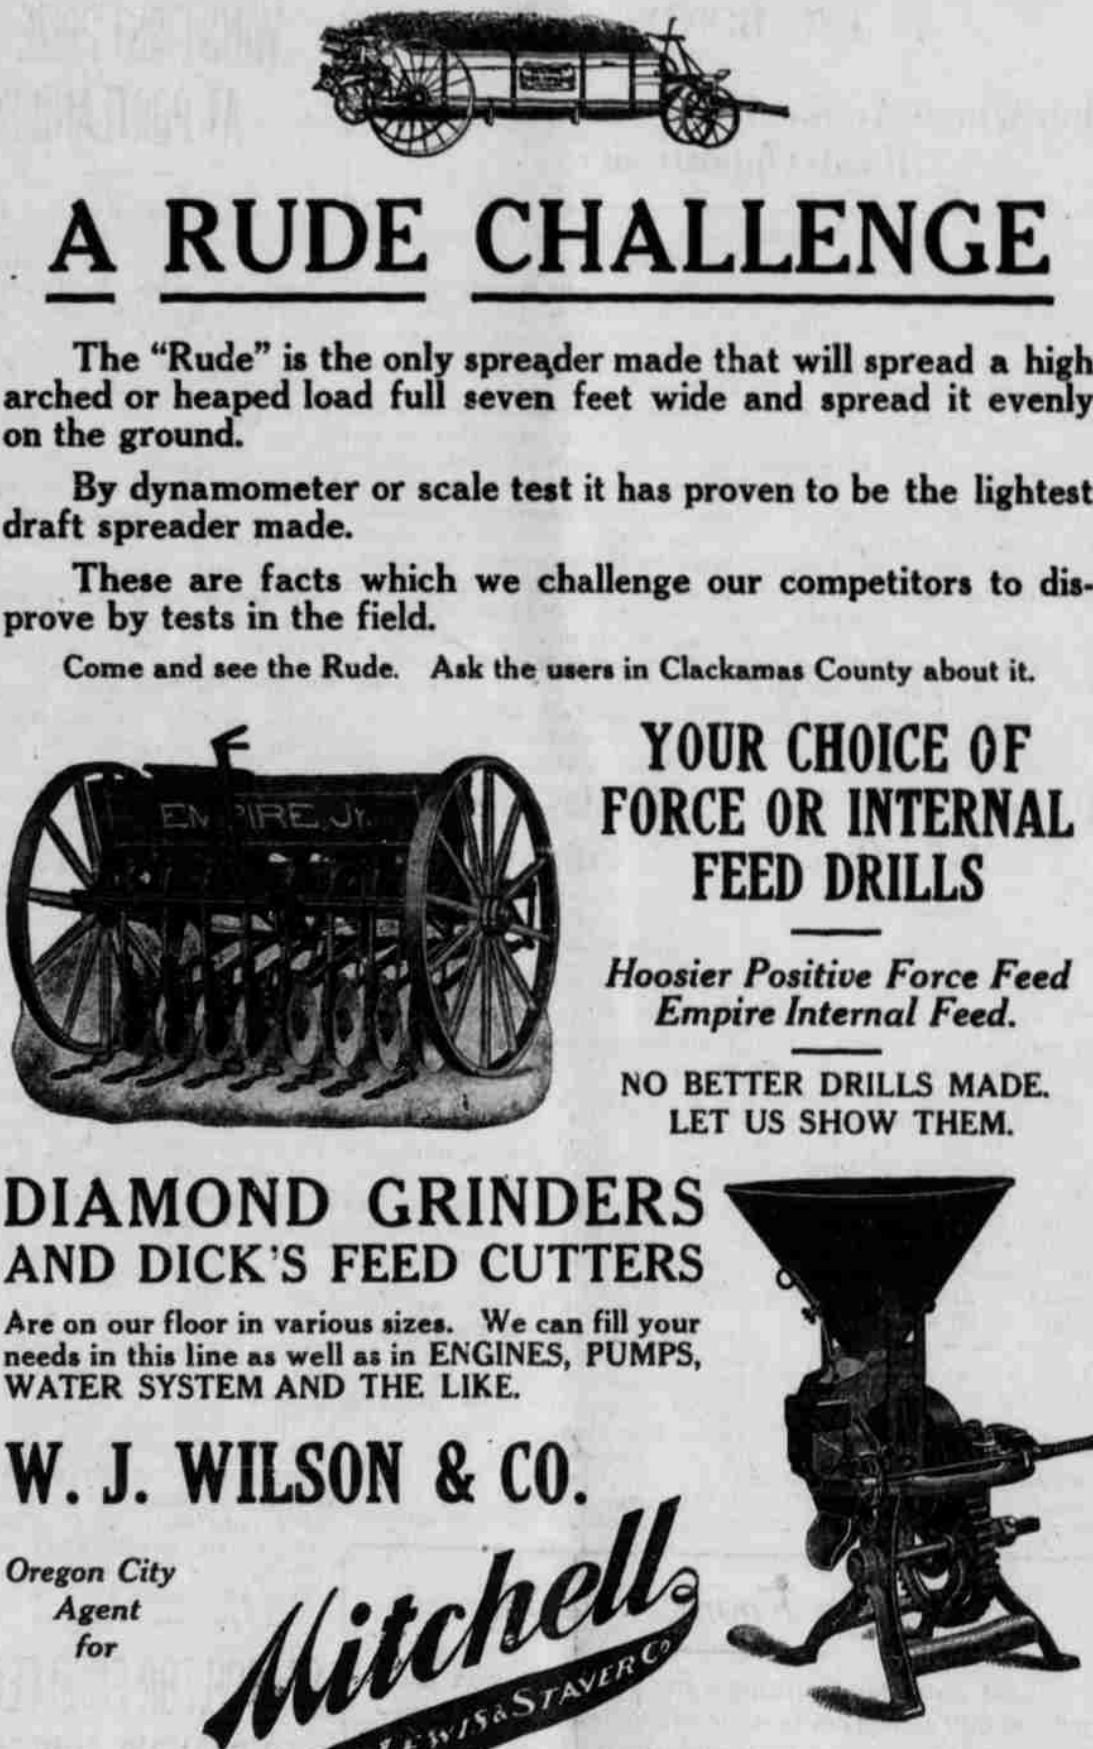

The bride has resided in Oregon City before taking up her residence at Powell River. She is a graduate of a business college in Portland, and has been employed as a stenographer in Powell River. She is a niece of the Misses Rose and Clara Miller and Ferdinand Miller, of this city.

Mr. McLane is connected with the paper mill at Powell River.

MARKET REPORT

As given by the Brady Mercantile company and Farr Brothers.

BUYING
Creamery butter, roll	$1.32
Potatoes	$2.50@2.75
Onions, per 100 lbs.	$3.75
Butter (country pound)	.55c
Eggs, per dozen	.75c
SELLING
Cabbage, per pound	.2c
Potatoes, per 100 lbs.	$3.25
Eggs, per dozen	.85c
Butter, per pound (country)	.65c
Creamery butter, pound	.71c
FEED
Mill run, 80s	$1.85
Oil Meal	$4.50
Salt, 50 lbs. high grade	$1.00
Oats, per 100 lbs.	$3.00
Hay	$25@35
Oat hay	.25
Alfalfa hay	$35.00
Wheat	$4.00
Chick food, per 100 lbs.	$5.00
Scratch food, per 100 lb.	$4.50
Barley-Oats, 80 lbs.	$2.00
Rice Bran, 80 lbs.	$1.75
Bone, per 100 lbs.	$3.85
Beef scraps	$7.00
Berkshire	$3.50
Holstein dairy food 100 lbs.	$3.30
Carnation 100 lbs.	$3.20
Whole corn	$4.00
Cracked corn	$4.25
Cocoonut oil meal	$3.00
Ground corn	$4.25
Eastern oyster shell $	$2.00
Western Shell	$1.50
Grut, per 100 lbs.	$1.00
Ground Barley, 100 lbs.	$3.75
Livestock—Buying
Live Hogs	14@15 1/2
Dressed Hogs	20@21c
Hens	25c
Springs	20@22c
Turkeys	30@35c
Ducks	30c
Geese	20c

A RUDE CHALLENGE

The "Rude" is the only spreader made that will spread a high arched or heaped load full seven feet wide and spread it evenly on the ground.

By dynamometer or scale test it has proven to be the lightest draft spreader made.

These are facts which we challenge our competitors to disprove by tests in the field.

Come and see the Rude. Ask the users in Clackamas County about it.

YOUR CHOICE OF FORCE OR INTERNAL FEED DRILLS

Hoosier Positive Force Feed Empire Internal Feed.

NO BETTER DRILLS MADE. LET US SHOW THEM.

DIAMOND GRINDERS AND DICK'S FEED CUTTERS

Are on our floor in various sizes. We can fill your needs in this line as well as in ENGINES, PUMPS, WATER SYSTEM AND THE LIKE.

W. J. WILSON & CO.

Oregon City Agent for Mitchell LEWIS & STAVER CO.

PORTLAND, OREGON