Delbert Boylan, receiving severe injuries in an automobile accident several months ago, and who has been receiving medical attention at the Oregon City hospital, has recovered so that he has been able to be removed to his home on Molalla avenue. Mr. Boylan was driving an automobile up the Singer hill road, when the machine got out of order and in attempting to bring the machine down the hill to have it repaired at a nearby garage, the brake broke, causing the automobile to descend the steep incline at terrific speed until it collided with a boulder at the side of the road. Boylan was thrown from the machine as it toppled over, and received a broken leg, the bone protruding through the flesh.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wade, prominent residents of Clackamas county, who are engaged in the poultry industry at Carus, were in Oregon City Wednesday. They came here to close a deal to sell 65 acres of their farm, which has been purchased by Albert Berquist. Mr. and Mrs. Wade have retained 41 acres of their land, and will continue their poultry business. They are engaged in raising Rhode Island reds, and have some of the finest birds of that breed in the county.

Mrs. Viola Tate and daughter, Miss Lucy, arrived in Oregon City from Wheeler, Oregon, Wednesday evening, and will remain here for about a week, where they are visiting the former's daughter, Miss Clara, and also with friends. Mrs. Tate and family formerly resided in Canemah, and moved to Wheeler during the past summer.

Mrs. N. M. Alldredge will go to Hubbard today, where she will inspect the Relief Corps of that place. Mrs. Alldredge, who is an active member of the Relief Corps of this city, is past president of the local organization and also past department secretary.

George Anderson, prominent fruit-grower, and specialist on apple growing, whose farm is at Redland, was in Oregon City on business Wednesday. While here Mr. Anderson visited the Red Cross rooms as he is one of the active workers in the present campaign of the Red Cross.

They own some of the best Guernseys in the northwest, and expect to come home with some of the prizes offered in their class. It is also their intention to place a number of these animals in the auction ring on November 20, at the show. There will also be a number of other Guernsey breeders from Clackamas county entering at this sale.

Ex-Kaiser's Yacht, Now Used in South American Passenger Service

This photograph of the Meteor, the ex-kaiser's yacht, was taken on her arrival at Buenos Ayres from England with 170 passengers. The yacht was turned over to the English government after the armistice and delivered to the Royal Mail line, which has been using it for regular passenger service between England and Buenos Ayres. Passage in the ex-kaiser's personal suite was sold for $350, or five times the first class rate.

FIRST APPLES, NOW BERRIES, BLOOM

Ripe Raspberries from West Linn Are Brought to City.

With apple trees in blossom in this city, now comes the raspberry bushes trying to see what they can do in bearing late fruit. In the yard of the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. McBain at West Linn are many ripe raspberries, and are of luscious flavor. There are berries that are commencing to ripen, although there have been several heavy frosts during the last three weeks.

The gardener of the home owned by the Crown Willamette Paper company and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. McBain and family, whose name is James Nixon, has taken special pride in the late berries and brought a sample of these to the Enterprise office Friday morning. These have been placed in the window of Burmeister & Andresen, where they are attracting much attention.

ANOTHER MOOSE DANCE

The Moose lodge will give one of its regular dances at the Moose hall Saturday evening, at which time the Lil' Jazz trio, one of the popular orchestras of the city will furnish the music. The card rooms are to be opened to those desiring to spend the evening in cards.

The committee having charge of the affair is composed of D. E. Frost, Edward Lavier, Al Cox and Earl Smith. A large number are planning to attend the affair.

RUSHING WORK PREPARING FOR SPECIAL ELECTION

Clerk Miller Has Big Force Preparing Supplies for Road Bond Election.

County Clerk Miller is working a large force of deputies just now in getting ready for the special election, on November 24 on which date the people of Clackamas county will vote on the question of issuing $1,700,000 for hard surfaced roads in this county. There are 81 precincts in the county, each precinct requires two poll books, tally sheets and much other material in the way of supplies. In the general elections the state furnishes all these supplies but in the special elections the county must supply them and it is the duty of the county clerk to see that they are procured and ready to be sent by the sheriff to each precinct. On Thursday night Clerk Miller had seven deputies at work on the preparation of the poll books and on Friday night he increased his crew to ten.

MRS. COX SUES FOR DIVORCE AND WANTS CHILDREN

Complaint Says Husband Refused Medicine When Wife Was Ill Two Years Ago

Ruth I. Cox, through her attorneys, Brownell and Siever, filed suit in the circuit court to secure a divorce from her husband, Standiford Cox. They were married on December 24, 1914, at Dodge in this county. There are two children as a result of the union, Norman, a son four years of age and a girl, Hazel, twenty months of age. The complaint alleges that the defendant refused to give her medicine and medical attention when her daughter was born and that on November 9, he locked her out of the family home. She asks for $50 alimony, her attorneys fees and custody of the children. Eveline Whitman, after visiting with her cousin, Norma Marrs, at Woodburn, has returned to her home in this city.

About the Bridge

Next Monday Clackamas county will demonstrate to the people of Oregon whether the farmers are going to continue to travel in the mud or whether they are going to indorse a proposal to issue bonds to the amount of $1,700,000 for the construction of 145 miles of pavement in nearly every section of the county.

The plan before the voters for their approval or rejection was inspired by the progressive farmers themselves, who have become tired of plodding over inferior roads and of following a program that at best will not give the county to exceed four or five miles of pavement each year.

Oregon City and West Linn are not so directly interested in the construction of hard-surfaced roads into the interior of the county, but they should not forget that the bond issue sets aside $105,000 for the building of a modern bridge across the Willamette and connecting these two cities. While the taxpayers of the twin towns pay about one-sixth of the cost of the roads to be improved under the bond issue and receive on the bridge only one-seventeenth of the money appropriated, they should look upon the proposal in a broad way and recognize the necessity of a new bridge and vote for the bonds solidly.

If the bonds fail to pass, Oregon City, West Linn Gladstone and surrounding towns will be compelled to establish a bridge district and issue bonds, as the bridge will have to be built. The state highway commission has agreed to pay $150,000 of the cost of a $300,000 bridge, which is not a local structure in any sense. If the voters of the cities primarily interested have not awakened to the importance of good roads for the farmers, they certainly must know that their votes are needed next Monday for the bridge.

OREGON CITY IS SCENE OF BRUTAL MURDER

Robin Read Breast is Victim of Vicious Attack of Old Time Enemy

A large chicken hawk which has been making its headquarters between the Barclay school house and Twelfth and Main streets, on Friday afternoon swooped down on a robin in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Smallwood at Twelfth and Center streets, and within a few minutes had killed the helpless bird. A man passing by attempted to kill the hawk, which was of unusual size, but failed, and after a gun had been secured the bird flew away.

An effort will be made to "get" the bird yet, for there are many in that section of the city owning chickens. Several valuable canaries were lost in that locality last fall by being killed by the hawks that nest in the fir trees of the Barclay school yard.

A few weeks ago D. E. Frost was busily engaged with his work at the Moose building, his attention was drawn to a large bird striking a window pane in the room. On investigation he found a hawk had flown after a small bird, and struck the window, breaking the glass. Both birds were in the building, and the hawk was killed by Mr. Frost. The small bird had been killed by the hawk just as the latter struck the glass.

Divorce Cuts Bonds For Two Couples

Judge J. U. Anderson, judge of the circuit court for Clackamas county, Monday handed down two divorce decrees. In the first the bonds of matrimony were dissolved between Pearl Brubaker, who brought suit against David Brubaker. She was given the right to resume her maiden name of Pearl Parker in the decree. Harry E. Murphy was given a divorce from Jessie Murphy. The case was heard before R. B. Runyon as referee. The couple were married in Sheridan, Wyo., in 1909 and the wife deserted the home at that place on June 4, 1917. The decree gives her the custody of the nine year old child.

THE FORUM

Oregon City, Nov. 13.—(Editor of The Enterprise).—For the first time in the history of Clackamas county G. B. Dimick, Geo. C. Brownell, C. Schuebel, O. D. Eby, G. L. Hedges, L. L. Porter and many other prominent men and politicians got into the band wagon on one proposition. And all the newspapers of the county except the one has declared themselves in favor of the bonds.

The above facts alone would convince me that the bonds should be voted, and I am going to vote for the bonds and get everyone else to do so if within my power.

The only people trying to beat the bonds are Tom Roots, Brenton Vedder, Ed. Dedman and Harvey Starkweather, and a few other selfish people. Wonder what prompts them and I wonder who prompts them. I am sure it is not the people of their road district, as I have friends there and know them to be broad minded and good enough to assist their brothers on the south.

M. G. CHRISTENSEN.

Oregon City, Nov. 13.—(Editor of The Enterprise).—Will you kindly ask your readers why Harvey Starkweather supported the $6,000,000 state bond issue and canvassed the state where Clackamas county would get very little benefits, and why he is now trying to bust the $1,700,000 Clackamas county bond issue where all of the money will be kept in Clackamas county and the farmers thereof will get great and everlasting benefits? Kindly ask Harvey who paid his expenses on the $6,000,000 state road campaign. The people in our district are interested.

D. F. SKENE.

MEDFORD PARENTS WRITE HERE TO STOP THEIR SON'S MARRIAGE

Clerk Miller Receives Letter Saying Son Ran Away

County Clerk Miller received a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Harvey of Medford, Ore., informing him that their son had run away from home with a young lady and that they would probably apply to him for a marriage license. The letter asked him to withhold the license as the parents would not give their consent to the marriage. The letter was as follows: Medford, Ore., Nov. 7, 1919. County Clerk, Oregon City, Oregon. Dear Sir: My 18 year old boy Milton Milburn Harvey has run away from home and probably will apply for a marriage license. He is six feet tall, weighs 175 lbs, and has wavy brown hair and blue eyes. The girl is Ella Olive DuJarnatt. She is small and has dark eyes and olive complexion. Refuse to give the license as we will not give our consent. Respectfully, HOMER H. HARVEY LILLIAN E. HARVEY Up to the closing of the county clerk's office Tuesday night, no one answering to these descriptions had applied for a license to marry.

TRUSTEES SUE TO FORECLOSE CONTRACT OF SALE

Trustees for the Estate of John C. Jahn Files Suit in Circuit Court to Foreclose on Property

George Jahn, Harold Jahn and R. A. Schramm, trustees for the estate of John C. Jahn filed suit Friday in circuit court against Mrs. J. A. Kays. The complaint states that Mr. Jahn, before his death, sold a parcel of ground at Oak Grove to Mrs. Kays on a contract in which she was to pay for the land in monthly payments and that the defendant has discontinued her payments and in order to prevent the property going on the delinquent tax list, the trustees have been forced to pay the taxes. The complaint asks that the contract be foreclosed, that they be given possession of the property in the event the amount of $510 is not paid together with interest on that amount at 7 per cent per annum.

NO COMPENSATION FOR PLAINTIFF IN SUIT JURY DECIDES

Railway Company Wins Suit for $15,000 Damages in Well Known Case.

The jury in the case of Mary A. Lazelle vs. The Portland Railway, Light & Power company in which the plaintiff was suing to recover $15,000 damages caused by an accident in which Mrs. Lazelle's husband was killed when a car of the defendant company collided with an auto in which Mr. and Mrs. Lazelle were riding in 1917, decided in favor of the company in circuit court here Friday. On August 5, 1917, Mr. and Mrs. Lazelle were driving up Main street near Fourteenth street when their car met with a collision with a street car. As a result of the accident, Mrs. Lazelle had several bones broken and her husband died from his injuries. The case was decided on the ground that the plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence and the jury refused to allow any damages.

SHUBEL HOLDS BABY CONFERENCE THURSDAY FRIDAY WEST LINN

Baby Week in City Secures Interest and Strong Backing From Business Houses

As this is baby week in Oregon City, a number of the merchants of this city have arranged their display windows accordingly. Among those having attractive displays and representing baby week, are Bannan & Company, Burmeister & Andresen, Huntley Drug company, Jones Drug company and Price Brothers. The baby conference was held at Shubel Thursday, with Mrs. Sophia Hornshuh as chairman, and Friday at West Linn will be the second baby show in the county. It will be in charge of Mrs. R. G. Bittner. On Saturday Sandy will have its conference, with Mrs. Anton Malar in charge. Dr. Frank Mount of this city is to assist. Dr. L. L. Pickens will examine the teeth. These professional men will assist at the baby conference to be held at the Oregon City library on Monday and Tuesday of next week. Children under school age and over six months are eligible for entering into the conference. The object of these conferences is to see that the children receive the proper feeding and if they are underfed then Mrs. Alice McMillan (nee Marie Anthony), and Miss Lassie Lane will visit the homes of the mothers of the children that are not receiving the proper nourishment, and assist in instructing the mothers as to the proper methods to be used and offered by the physicians who have kindly consented to assist in the conference.

Garage Sues to Recover Repair Bill

F. R. Graham and W. A. Graham filed suit in circuit court against R. V. Winder. The complaint alleges that in September R. V. Winder brought to their garage an Overland car to be repaired. Work amounting to $72.80 was done on the car. On November 6 a lien was filed against the car and now suit is brought to recover the repair bill, together with $3.50 filing costs in filing the lien and $25 for attorney fees.

Good Speakers Coming to Library

Dr. Joseph Schaffer, of the University of Oregon, will be in this city Saturday evening, to lecture at the auditorium of the Oregon City library. Dr. Schaffer's subject will be "Historical Background for Reconstruction." Dr. Schaffer has been with the national board for historical service at Washington, D. C. On November 21 Dr. Edmund S. Conklin will talk on "The Psychological Roots and Radicalism and Conservatism." December 5 Dr. J. H. Gilbert will talk on "The Railways in War Times." December 19, Dr. E. C. Robbins will talk on "Labor and Reconstruction."

JAP LOSES GLITTERING SWORDS

TOKIO, Nov. 14.—The unpopularity of militarism has resulted in depriving Japanese railway officials of their glittering shoulder straps and awards. The wearing of gold braid and side arms by the railway officials was introduced about ten years ago. The railway people now look more democratic.

"Don't Cheat Yourself" says the Good Judge

There's nothing saved by chewing ordinary tobacco. A little chew of that good rich-tasting tobacco goes a lot farther, and its good taste lasts all the way through. Little chew—lasting—satisfying. That's why it's a real saving to buy this class of tobacco.
