BRYAN IS AT OUTS WITH WILSON OVER TREATY VIEWS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—President Wilson and William Jennings Bryan dropped political bombshells into the twin Jackson day dinners last night, creating such havoc in the ranks of Democracy that only time will reveal the extent of the damage.

In a letter to Democratic leaders from all parts of the country the president condemned the Lodge reservations to the league of nations covenant, reiterated his demand for ratification of the treaty without essential change and called for the reference of the entire issue to the people in the forthcoming presidential election.

Interpretative reservations not changing the provisions of the covenant are all he will accept.

Mr. Bryan took sharp issue with the president, coming out for a compromise on covenant reservations, tantamount to a surrender to Republican insistence on the Lodge reservations, and asserting that the Democratic party cannot afford to go before the people on an appeal for unqualified ratification of the treaty. He distinctly repudiated Wilson's article X and advocated the Republican reservation qualifying American obligations thereunder.
