SUB-COMMITTEE
NAMED TO PROBE
HOUSE SHORTAGE

Judge Thomas F. Ryan, president of the Bank of Commerce and for eight years deputy state treasurer, will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for state senator, according to current political reports that have gained circulation, though he has made no official announcement.

The possibility of a multiplicity of candidates for the Republican nomination has given the Democrats hope and if the Republicans succeed in getting into a wild scrap over the nomination, then the opposing party will make a strong effort to defeat the nominee at the November election.

Mr. Schuebel has at the present time a distinct advantage to the extent that he made his announcement last Spring and has lined up considerable support. His legislative experience is being used as an argument in his favor, as against the other prospective candidates, except Mr. Brownell, who has had many years of service in the legislature to his credit.

Voting By Mail

The land and labor league, which is the official designation of the new political party formed last week at Salem, has, in its peculiar platform, asked for the privilege of voting by mail.

This is only one of the freak proposals of the new party. Only a few weeks ago a Republican legislature enacted a measure providing that any elector desiring to vote a straight party ticket might make a single mark on his ballot.

Voting by mail is a new one to us. It would permit Working Delegate Hofinsky to herd 50 people into a room, tell them how to vote and for whom, see that they followed instructions to the letter and then deposit the ballots in the nearest letter box.

Well, we now know what is proposed, so that the people will have their eyes wide open for the nasty dose they are asked to swallow. We presume the actual machinery will start to grind, that Townley money will be freely circulated among the masses, and that sooner or later we shall be confronted with a ticket, to be voted on by mail, about as follows:

- For Governor—Charles E. Spence.
For Secretary of State—Otto Hartwig.
For State Treasurer—J. D. Brown.
For Attorney-General—W. S. U'Ren.
For School Superintendent—H. W. Hagemann.

We trust we may be pardoned for nominating two Clackamas county gentlemen on this ticket, but they are neighbors of ours and we know more of their qualifications for important positions.

TYPTON'S SAYINGS

I suppose you all know Typton, He's a funny sort of guy; And he must have liked I reckon, In the days long since gone by; When a man could wet his whistle, Without taking any chance; Thus to get a quick dismissal, Or of breaking up the dance.

For he found a happy saying, That inspires lots of grit; And as we must keep on playing, We had best remember it. It will make our load much lighter, Drive the heavy clouds away, That our sky may become brighter, As we near the great pay day.

It's not wise for us to worry, For we did not make the earth; And we can't, by fuss and flurry, Give to life intrinsic worth. If we cannot have our choosing, Let us gladly take the bait; For we often win by losing, "Life is not so bad at that."
