WAR GUILT OF TEUTONS FORCES OUT HUN ENVOY

PARIS, Feb. 4.—Baron Kurt von Lersner, head of the German delegation here, refused today to transmit to Berlin the alleged list of persons guilty of war crimes and the accompanying covering note.

He returned the list and the note to the French foreign office and notified it of his resignation as president of the German peace delegation.

Following Von Lersner's action, the French foreign office stated it regarded his procedure as purely a personal affair and expressed the belief that it was not the result of instructions from Berlin.

It was further stated at the foreign office that the allies have other means of transmitting the list and the note to Berlin, other than through Von Lersner.
