High School Notes A Junior Class meeting was held Tuesday, February 10. There were several matters of business brought up for consideration.

The meeting was called to order by Geo. Dambach, president. The resignation of class editor, Louis Vierhus, was accepted and Frieda Hicks was elected to fill the place.

Miss Haley gave a short talk telling what the Juniors were going to give for the Hesperian benefit, which is going to be held the 27th of this month.

The invitation by the Seniors to join the Literary Society was accepted.

The Junior Class is going to have their annual party some time in the first part of March. This is to be an overall and apron party.

Meeting adjourned.

With the opening of the second term came several Freshmen from the local grammar schools. They are given an advantage in time by not having to wait until the regular opening of school next fall. Grotesquely shaved heads carried by some of those unfortunates bespeak the esteem in which they are held by the Sophomores who have forgotten the not far distant day when they were Freshies.

High School Notes HEARST IS DICKERING AGAIN FOR PAPER MILL Negotiations have been resumed for the sale of the Hawley Pulp & Paper Co. mills to the Hearst interests. No statement could be obtained Wednesday from the mill office but it is known that representatives of Mr. Hearst have been here and in Portland for several days and that actual negotiations are under way.

It was announced about two months ago that the mill would probably be sold to a syndicate of Pacific Coast newspapers, and it later was learned that the Hearsts had been dickering for the property. Then came an announcement that the deal had been called off.

RUSSIAN SOVIET TOTTERS NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Overthrow of the Russian soviet government within a few months was predicted yesterday by Major Joseph Lastes, member of the French high commission to the Kolchak government, who is returning from Vladivostok to France to present his report.

CENSUS TAKER PASSES VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 6.—Frank Hodgins, a census enumerator in this city, died recently before his work of taking the census was completed. It is not known where he left off his work, so the whole district will have to be canvassed again.

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE GINTHER PROTESTS OREGON CITY, Feb. 11.—(Editor of the Enterprise.)—We are prompted to raise our voice in protest at this time against the gradual encroachment upon our private rights by the organized lawyers and doctors of this state. I say lawyers first because they, as the great majority of lawmakers, have granted to the organized doctors the absolute power of life or death of us private citizens. Think of it! If the, lets say, five thousand doctors in this state, or any one of them, should say to the six hundred thousand of us, if we should happen to sneeze for instance, "See here, sneezing is a bad habit and catching and apt to endanger the community so you will have to permit me to shoot into you some vile unnatural pus from some sick animal or you stay in your shack until I give you the word to come forth again," you, my dear sir, would have to obey this gentleman to the letter. Great isn't it? And I imagine they laugh up their sleeves at our stupidity. And the guaranteed dollars that roll into their pockets! Fine. No, Mr. Editor, it is high time that the citizens of Oregon were waking up. We need no force to compel us to look after our lives. It is a travesty on our intelligence to permit such imposition by these men. I recognize the value of a good doctor, but I detest the principle that law gives him absolute power over me. It seems that our long cherished American freedom is flickering even in these things. ROBERT GINTHER.
