Lillie and Cora TenEyck of Portland, spent the week-end with their sister Rose, at the Fred Homer home. Chas. Albright and family who recently moved to Molalla from Portland attended the basket social Saturday evening and spent Sunday at the Chas. Holman farm. R. L. Orem and family, of Union Mills visited at A. L. Larkins Sunday. There was quite a crowd out to the basket social Saturday evening, something over $50 was made from the sale of the baskets, cake and sandwiches. The debate was very interesting, the question being "Should the Government Retain the Ownership of Rail-

ARTHUR ORTLEIBK DIES IN PORTLAND

REDLAND, Feb. 17.—Redland has the second installment of smallpox. George Gill and sons, Lester, Arnold and Allen, and daughter, Grace Court-right and Mr. Armstrong are all ill with smallpox. Arthur Ortleibk, 19-year-old son of Mrs. Chriss, died of pneumonia as a result of flu. He was attending school in Portland. The family, have the sympathy of all their neighbors and friends. The young man was buried at Redland cemetery. Funeral services were held at Methodist church Monday, February 9. Lloyd Allen transferred to a rural route in Portland and begins work there March 1. They are breaking rock for the road, on the Polehn's place. Hope nothing interferes with the work and we will soon see those old planks being removed, or what is left of them, and a hard surface in the place. D. R. Allen and family, spent Sunday at A. L. Allen's. A. L. Allen has a new wood saw.

SANDY MOONSHINER OUTFIT IS RAIDED

SANDY, Feb. 19.—One of the biggest hauls in the way of a moonshiner outfit was made last week when Sheriff Wilson raided the Mather Ranch on Westby Ridge a few miles from this place. The still was owned and operated by Mr. Mather who, recently, has been working in Portland and presumably has been disposing of the stuff there. Several barrels of mash and some liquor was captured. Otto Meinig will open his moving store Saturday evening with two good reels. At one time this was a well patronized business here but, hanging conditions forced Mr. Meinig to close the house. We hope the patronage and interest will be sufficient to keep it open now. Most of the school children have complied with the compulsory vaccination law and are in school again. Carl Aschoff and family are released from the quarantine as is also Mr. Hubbard, of the "Backbone." The family of Casper Junker is still in quarantine. Little Eileen Wolf was brought home from a Portland hospital Sunday, where she was operated on for adenoids and tonsils. She also had a badly broken arm treated. Arietha Proctor is on the sick list, also Ruth and Ronald Jr. Esson. Percy F. Shepley returned to Hood River Tuesday after a brief visit with his family. Miss Edith Folsom was an Estacada visitor Sunday. The Sandy Rebekah Lodge initiated eight new members at the regular meeting last Thursday evening. The Gresham team came up and put on the work which was much enjoyed by all. After the business of the Lodge, the members adjourned to the Sandy Hotel where a banquet awaited them. The dining room was tastefully decorated with Valentine symbols.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Woodie were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie. Miss Kathryn Dark was a week-end guest of Vancouver friends.

NEWSY BRIEFS FROM VALLEY VALE GARDENS

VALLEY DALE, Feb. 19.—My name is Valley Vale Gardens. I am very young only a few months old. Was planted in five and ten acre tracts, which are all sold now to actual settlers, whose aim in life is to raise loganberries and chickens for the markets. The topography might be of interest to you. We are near Canby just south of Goods bridge, a turn to the west and you are in a valley about half a mile wide and three-quarters long, bordered on the north by Molalla river, on the south and west by Valley Creek. The soil is a rich black silt, a large part is timbered. As the individual happenings of the community will be of interest to the public will inform you that: John Toftrey and nephew, Marshall Tournay, were Portland visitors Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. Mary Evans is in Mulino caring for a sick relative. Mr. Dix is building chicken houses and yards. He intends breeding the White Leghorns. Mr. Adams has his new house nearly finished his family will move down from Portland Thursday. Joe Gagner has about one and one-half acres cleared and ready to plant loganberries this spring. Mr. Cox has his house finished and moved in last week. Mr. Riggs is building a new barn. Mrs. Hartle and Mrs. Riggs were Canby visitors Monday. Oscar Dahlin and family are occupying the Cummins cottage. They came from Lake Nebagamon, Wis., and are delighted with the country. Mr. and Mrs. Hartle, pioneer residents of the Valley are improving and beautifying their place. Mrs. Ella Mallet and children are living in the Watkins cottage, will build on her own lot this spring. Elsworth Mallet visited his mother Sunday. He is working at Mulino.

Several Parties Held at Carus

CARUS, Feb. 19.—Last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Casto were the recipient of a very enjoyable surprise party. The evening was spent in singing and playing games. At a late hour refreshments were served. All of those present reported a pleasant evening. Mrs. London of Oregon City is visiting with Mrs. Charles Stewart. Mrs. De Bohr has returned from St. Helens and has as her guest her daughter. Donald Brown is in Carus again having returned from Portland. The ladies of Carus called upon Mrs. Beach's mother, Mrs. Alex, last Saturday. It was a unique affair in that all of the ladies present presented Mrs. Alex with a chicken. Mr. and Mrs. Casto inform us that they intend to move from Carus about March 1. They have decided to locate a few miles from Clackamas. Janet Gwillim entertained delightfully a number of her school friends last Saturday. A dainty luncheon was served. The table was artistically arranged with hearts and cupid and the favors were interesting little valentines. Those who helped Janet celebrate her birthday were Florence Weisner, Mildred Achilles, Gertrude Miller, Elizabeth Schockley, Virginia Spangle, Wilma Bliss, Ila Jones, Myrtle Bonnier and Grace Ingram. Opal McKenzie spent a day last week with her sister, Mrs. J. J. Mills.

WOMANS CLUB OF MACKSBURG PLAN TO GIVE BAZAAR

MACKSBURG, Feb. 19.—The Women's Club of the Lutheran Church is preparing for a bazaar to be held before the winter's end, the proceeds to be used in repairing and improving the church. The Mother's Club held its regular fortnightly session on Thursday last at the home of Mrs. Henry Welch. Beside the members the following visitors were present, and helped materially with the work: Mrs. Roberts, Miss Louise Henz, Miss Helen Fritzsche and a sister of Mrs. Petraz who is here on a visit from Idaho. The president and vice-president of the club were both absent on account of sickness. The next meeting will be on the afternoon of Feb. 26th at the home of Mrs. Dreier, Jr. Miss Pearl Miller who is employed in Portland is at home for the present on account of the illness of her mother. The families of Frank Schutz and of Chris Christner are ill with flu. A little daughter was born early in the last month to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Eshur. Mrs. Jno. Heplu, with two of her children is recovering from influenza. The Avallinistry spring—differing from the regular vernal season only in the highly cold—is being improved the utmost in preparing the soil for seed. On nearly all of the ranches the plows are going and from every quarter the winds bring the scent of newly plowed earth. All fruit trees and bushes show the effect of unusual cold and have retreated through pruning, but the untroubled branches look well and we know that there still is life. Current withheld from premature flow must soon be brought upward by the same magic power, just as the present penury, spread over our land by equally high prices of nearly every-

Henry Mosher Is Buried Tuesday

The funeral services over the remains of Henry Mosher, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Shobe, Saturday evening, were held at the Holman & pace funeral parlors Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Pethbone, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated. The pallbearers were H. J. Bigger, Elmer Walstrom, E. J. King, Thomas Merrick. The interment was in the Mountain View cemetery.

A Rugged Speedy Saw

Men are Sawing from 15 to 20 Cords of Wood Per Day With the Mitchell Portable Drag Saw

You will like the Mitchell Portable Drag Saw. You will like the way it is built. It has a substantial, well braced wood frame which insures the proper alignment of moving parts and prevents the machine from racking to pieces in a short time. The engine is as carefully built for its work as is an automobile engine. An ignition system that is troubleproof. An engine that is easy to start and is not only powerful when you buy the machine BUT STAYS THAT WAY. Furnished with a metal to metal engine clutch, when desired, that is a real clutch.

Come in and Let Us Show You the Main Features of the Mitchell Saw

Clackamas Play Makes Big Hit

CLACKAMAS, Feb. 19.—The home talent play "Untangling Tony," given by the Clackamas Community club, Saturday night in the I. O. O. F. hall was a complete success in every respect, there being many surprising and humorous acts by the amateurs. All the casts were appropriate and well chosen for the parts they portrayed and make ups were good. They have had several invitations to present the play elsewhere and it is to be hoped that we will see them before the foot lights again soon in Clackamas. They have kindly donated the money raised to finish paying for the school piano.

Road Work Starts At Bakers Bridge

LOGAN, Feb. 19.—Farmers are very busy these fine days plowing and seeding. A Valentine social was held at the school hall in Lower Logan, Saturday evening and a very pleasant evening enjoyed by those attending. The rock crusher is in operation at Bakers Bridge again and perhaps some of the bad chuck holes will be for the time, eliminated, at least we hope so. People who are in the new Carver voting precinct must not forget to register before the election in May. This is only a reminder, for procrastination is a part of human nature. Funeral services for Miss Iva Mumpower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Mumpower of Bakers Bridge, who died of appendicitis, were held Wednesday at the church at 2 o'clock. Interment in Pleasant View cemetery, Lower Logan. The smallpox cases are getting along fine except the two-months-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Russmusen, which is quite ill yet. Those in the family who had been vaccinated have not taken it. LICENSE TO MARRY. A marriage license was issued Tuesday to Helen Hartke, 23, and Wm. C. McKilligan, 25, both of Oregon City.

Grand Jury Will Convene Feb. 24

At the request of District Attorney Gilbert L. Hedges, Circuit Judge Campbell has designated Tuesday, February 24, as the next session of the Clackamas county grand jury. There are several important cases to come up at this session among those being for Orth, held for burglary, and William Karjala, who is held for forgery.
