TEACHERS SUPPLIED VARIOUS SCHOOLS IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY

County School Superintendent J. E. Calavan has been busy engaged in supplying schools of the county with a number of teachers. Some of the former instructors have resigned owing to securing other positions, while others have resigned owing to poor health.

Among the schools that have been supplied during the past ten days were as follows:

Harmony—Miss Bertha Wohrns resigning on account of her health, and her place to be filled by Miss Fern Zaelke, of Portland.

Colton—Four higher grades—Miss Styles takes the position made vacant by the resignation of Alta Ramsby, who has resigned on account of her mother's illness.

Douglas Ridge—Miss Anna Flynn takes the position vacated by the resignation of Miss Kathryn Dark.

Stafford—Miss Norma Monnick takes the position vacated by Miss Maud Davis, of Oregon City.

Curtisville—Mrs. Page resigns and her place is taken by Mrs. Alethea Davis.

EXTRAVAGANCE AND INHUMAN TREATMENT GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

Loren Clapp filed suit Tuesday against Bertha Clapp for divorce on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

Plaintiff alleges defendant would leave home and be gone for two and three weeks at a time and told him that she did not care to live with him and intended to leave him. He says she packed her belongings and prepared to leave on March 1, 1920, but remained until March 15. She left and was away until March 15.

He alleges that when they were married he deposited his money in the bank in such a manner that either one could draw it and that she spent it as fast as he made it. He claims that he purchased a home in Colton and was paying for it on the installment plan but that she spent the money so fast that he could not make the $15 per month payment and had to give up the home.

TWO GIRL 'NURSES' ARRESTED FOR THEFT

Mrs. Virginia Shindle and Miss Gwendolyn Sherwood, claiming San Francisco their home, appeared at the Oregon City hospital about ten days ago and applied for positions as nurses. Nurses were in demand at that time and they were given employment temporarily. Wednesday evening they decided to give up their positions with the institution and left for Portland, and their departure did not cause any suspicion until the clothing of Miss Ruth Elliott, who is studying for a nurse and who has been confined in the institution suffering from an attack of appendicitis, was called for by her father, as she has been removed to her home. The clothing was gone, and the two nurses were at once suspected.

Further investigation at the hospital proved that there were other articles besides those owned by Miss Elliott missing, including a gold watch, an heirloom of one of the nurses, and a cameo ring, the victims being Miss McIntosh, and Miss Jackson.

Complaint was immediately made to Sheriff Wilson, and District Attorney Gilbert L. Hedges made a complaint and search was made for the missing "nurses." Office Meads went to Portland, and found they had registered at the Angelo hotel, and they were placed under arrest and brought to Oregon City, and turned over to Ed Fortune, constable. The women confessed and said they had pawned the watch at a pawn shop for $7.50, but they had not decided just what to do with the clothing. The ring also is thought to be in a pawn shop in Portland.

PROBATE COURT.

H. L. Plotts has filed petition for appointment as guardian of Rutherford Bevens, a minor. The petitioner is an uncle of the child, and the father and mother are dead. The estate is valued at about $300.

Ernest Mass has filed a petition for the probate of the will of the late Carantha K. Bevens. The estate consists of real property valued at $400 and land at Willamette and Buena Vista, Oregon, valued at $2000.

H. W. Hoesly filed for letters of administration of the estate of the late Easias Hoesly. The petitioner

Rape And The Initiative

The wide publicity that Oregon City obtained during the recent divorce trial has been followed by the story by a Portland newspaper of the conspiracy between O. W. Eastham, formerly a local attorney, and John F. Albright, of unsavory reputation, to "shake down" the bankers on the 4 per cent interest measure initiated by the latter. It appears that both men have been talking rather freely, and that Eastham unblushingly admits his part in the transaction, and that he expected to relieve the big financial institutions to the extent of $20,000 and to "take care of Albright," who has proposed a bill for submission to the people at the November election fixing the legal rate of interest at 4 per cent. Eastham says, according to published reports, that Albright induced fishing interests to pay him $6,000 to bury the fishing measure.

Residents of Oregon City who know these men are not at all surprised. It is unfortunate that a man possessing Eastham's facilities should not be able to distinguish the difference between right and wrong. He has brains but has not used them in the right direction. He comes from a good family, has an excellent education, is a lawyer of some ability but has a perverted sense of honor. From his associate we expect nothing else. His record locally is too well known for comment, and, after illuminating experiences, he reached the end of his rope in Oregon City on March 9, 1917, when the council, by an unanimous vote expelled him from membership in that body for disgraceful conduct, unbecoming in an official and a citizen.

COMMITTEE UNABLE TO SECURE LOCATION FOR NEW CITY HALL

Plans for a new city hall for Oregon City are still up in the air on account of the inability of the joint committee of the council and the Commercial Club to secure an option on a suitable site.

The second meeting of the joint committee was held at the Commercial Club Tuesday afternoon and several sites were discussed but owing to the extremely high prices asked for these no option was taken. Several good sites were considered in the downtown section but the price ranges as high as $20,000 and as the council estimated that the total price for the new building and site would be in the neighborhood of $50,000 it was considered out of reason to make any move to secure one of the lots. The meeting was postponed until a later date and in the mean time the committee will make an effort to locate a suitable lot.

When the council estimated the cost of the new building at $50,000 they intended to use the McLoughlin Park as a site, but on account of the objection to this by citizens of the town an effort was made to secure a different site. It is the intention of the council to erect a building suitable for a city hall and the fire department and room for the city officers.

FORDYCE FAMILY ARE WEARY OF THE SOUTH RETURNING TO OREGON

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fordyce, the latter formerly Miss Lena Nelson, daughter of Mrs. A. Nelson, of this city, who left here last August in company with their accomplished little daughter, Virginia, who made a record as a little "movie" actress, for Mississippi, are homeseekers for Oregon, according to word received by Mrs. Nelson a few days ago.

The family has decided to return to the West next fall. Mr. Fordyce was called to Mississippi to look after the interests of his sister, Mrs. Bennett, who owns a number of extensive plantations, and Mr. Fordyce is engaged in looking after cotton plantation and other property interests of his sister, but since the Western fever has struck him, says he cannot resist the temptation of returning to Oregon, and says there is no state like it. His wife, being a native Oregonian, has the same opinion of her home state.

The Fordyce family are located at Dundee, about 50 miles from Memphis, and do not favor the climate of the South.

DIVORCE ACTION FILED AGAINST HENRY F. PUSEY

PORTLAND, March 11.—Henry F. Pusey, whose name was mentioned frequently in the sensational divorce suit between Marjorie and Willard Hawley a few weeks ago, is himself named as defendant in a suit for divorce filed today in the circuit court by Julia Pusey.

The complaint charges cruelty and inability of the couple to live amicably together. The wife also charges Mr. Pusey with excessive drinking and personal indignities of such a nature as to make further married life with him unbearable.

The Puseys were married in 1886. The wife demands $250 in permanent alimony and demands that a lump sum of settlement of $15,000 be awarded to her for the first five years, in lieu of the monthly alimony payments. She says her husband has stock valued at $50,000 in the paper company and that he receives a large salary as an executive officer of the

Tickle King Salmon Shocking Food Fish Juice For the Falls

PORTLAND, March 11.—State Game Warden Shoemaker left Tuesday night for Yakima to witness a demonstration of the Burkey Electric Fish stop, which if proven successful will probably be installed at the Oregon City falls. The contrivance consists of two electric poles set on opposite banks of a stream, in order that the current will pass through the water. As the fish come up to this dead line they are tickled by the current and turn back.

Mr. Shoemaker believes if this can be worked out it will be a great aid in fish preservation where irrigation and power ditches must be screened. If a fish stop is put in at Willamette falls it will be used as the culdesac formed by the mill races.

I WILL NOT LET ME DOUBT

There is no hope, cold reason says to me.
That when a man lies down in final sleep,
His ego (sometimes called the soul) will keep
Its consciousness and be forever free
From sin's reacting curse; or find the key
That Omar mislaid, or rend the veil and peep
Into the great beyond where all is deep
Dark mystery; a vast uncharted sea.
And yet, I'll force myself to drown'd distrust.
I will believe that when my flesh to earth
Has been consigned, to moulder back to dust,
I'll find a life of vastly greater worth;
To this blind faith I'll cling, in spite of fears,
And the mad rush of sorrow's agonising tears.
For science says to me, when man is dead,
There's not the slightest proof that he still lives.
Dead as the lifeless rock or fallen leaves,
Or bird or beast that dies, man finds his bed
Among the clouds, of which it has been said.
He is a part; that naught in nature gives
A hope, that men will rise from out their graves
After the worms upon their flesh has fed.
But still, I will believe that death is naught
But passing into fuller larger life; A plan ordained of God, by which is wrought
And perfected the sure rewards of strife.
And if this earthly life shall burn dead out,
Of life beyond, I WILL NOT LET ME DOUBT.

HOUSING PLANS FOR OREGON CITY TAKING SHAPE

The Oregon City housing program has arrived at a place where the Commercial Club committee made the announcement at the Live Wires luncheon Tuesday that early construction of homes might be expected. The committee has not covered the ground fully but will do this within a week, when some additional statement of more comprehensive character will be issued.

The Live Wires Tuesday abandoned the material for the spiritual and accepted an invitation extended by Rev. H. G. Edgar, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, to attend divine service on Sunday evening, March 28, at 7:30 o'clock.
