BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS DEVELOP CHAMPION FARMERS

FARGO, N. D.—Wesley Cooper, 15 years old, of Brampton, Sargent county, is champion corn grower of North Dakota, having raised 119,68 bushels on one acre. He is a member of the Boys and Girls Agricultural and Home Economics Clubs movement, in which 4,500 boys and girls of this state were enrolled last year.

Approximately 2,000 of them entered the state contests at the end of the season with crops, live stock and home economics products to the value of more than $77,000, at a net profit of nearly $45,000, and the work required only a small part of their time.

Twelve projects are covered in the annual program, which is under the direction of Miss Louise Fitzgerald, state leader of the movement. She is a graduate of the North Dakota Agricultural College and a former Red Cross worker. The projects are corn, potatoes, gardening, canning, calves, poultry, pig feeding, sow and litter, sheep, bread, sewing and butter.

Fifty bushels of corn per acre is regarded as excellent in the "corn belt" of the United States. Last year the first six winners in the corn project averaged 109.2 bushels per acre. Clarence Knudson, of Manvel, produced a trifle over 61 bushels of potatoes on one-eighth of an acre, or at the rate of 468 bushels per acre.

Miss Sigurd Overgaard, of Most, raised sixty-one pure bred turkeys from seventy-two eggs set, cleared $179.25 profit, and the turkeys were fed almost exclusively on grasshoppers.

Development of the poultry industry by these boys and girls is paving the way to the elimination of the grasshopper menace, saving thousands of dollars in crop damages, and producing a new and large source of income.

MISS LOUISE FITZGERALD STATE LEADER

WESLEY COOPER 15 YEAR OLD CORN CHAMPION

BANDIT KILLS WELL KNOWN DEPUTY SHERIFF

SEATTLE, Wash., April 5.—Wanted for double murder and hunted by every available policeman, detective and deputy sheriff for more than 30 hours, and unidentified auto bandit had eluded pursuit up to a late hour this morning, presumably being hidden somewhere in the city, where he concealed himself early Sunday to count his loot after a high carnival of crime and blood in Rainier valley.

Caught with a companion in the act of holding up motorists along the valley road, the bandit opened on a party of deputy sheriffs, killing Robert C. Scott, formerly of Portland, whom they robbed. Then speeding toward the city in a commandeered car driven under compulsion by Earl M. Eba, one bandit shot and killed Elmer Cody, his bandit pal, robbing the body and leaving it in the car when he leaped from the machine and disappeared at First avenue and Pike streets.

Robert Carl Scott, the slain deputy was well known in Portland, having been employed during 1917-18 by District Attorney Evans as a special agent to trace down bootleggers. Later in company with W. J. Jefferies, he worked under Governor Withycombe as a state special and investigating liquor cases. Jefferies is at present transient officer of the Portland schools.

Scott, at the time of his death, worked under Sheriff Stringer of Seattle.

Robert C. Scott was well known by local officers, having been a visitor at the local sheriff's office on several occasions and was highly respected and an efficient officer.

SEC. DANIELS IS BLAMED FOR UNREADINESS

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The navy was unprepared for war in 1917 because of the "mental and temperamental characteristics of the man at its head and of the policy he pursued as the result of those characteristics," Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske retired, declared today before the senate committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war.

"To prevent unpreparedness in the future," Admiral Fiske said, "the most important step is for the public to insist that the man at the head of the navy shall be imbued with the spirit of the navy, highly educated, open-minded and acquainted with the principles on which naval preparedness is based and by following which preparedness can be secured."

Admiral Fiske was aide for operations and senior adviser to the secretary of the navy for several years before the United States entered the war, but resigned as aide after differences with the secretary regarding the abolition of wine on warships and over preparedness.

NEW YORK ASSEMBLY EXPELLS SOCIALISTS

ALBANY, N. Y., April 1.—Five Socialists, Louise Waldman, August Claessens, Charles Solomon, Samuel A. Dewitt and Samuel Orr, all of New York City, the entire delegation of their party in the New York assembly, were expelled from the legislature today.

The majority in favor of unseating the men, suspended on the opening day of the legislative session on charges of disloyalty, were substantial.

Voting came after twenty-two hours of oratory, parliamentary wrangling and filibustering.

Owing to the fact that the men were expelled after midnight March 31, there can be no special elections to fill their seats in the assembly under an extraordinary session of the legislature is to be convened.

Voting began at 9:28 a. m. today. Louis Waldman, the first voted on, was expelled, 116 to 28. August Claessens, who was Socialist floor leader, was ousted, 116 to 28.

The vote on Charles Solomon who last week was arrested in Philadelphia for alleged disorderly conduct at a mass meeting called to protest against the ouster proceedings here, was 116 to 28. The vote in Samuel A. Dewitt's case was 104 to 40. Samuel Orr also was expelled.

The chamber was crowded with spectators from the time the assembly convened yesterday until long after midnight. Many of the visitors remained throughout the night and heard the assembly record its verdict. Luncheon and supper were eaten at the desks.

JURY SAYS CASON DEATH WAS ACCIDENT; COP TO BE DISMISSED

PORTLAND, April 7.—That the shooting of Wayne Cason during the course of a struggle the lad was having with the police in the lobby of police headquarters Sunday night, was an accident for which no one could be held accountable, was the verdict of a coroner's jury which concluded its inquest in the case last night.

The jury, however, recommended that Patrolman J. S. Smith be dismissed from the force because he used poor judgment in the case and because his actions proved to the jury that he is not of the right temperament for a peace officer. Mayor Baker accepted the jury's recommendation and announced that Smith would be suspended today. He also announced that he would suspend Patrolman John O'Halloran, who admitted using a club on Cason during the fight.

THE CALL

Oh friend of mine with trenchant pen,
Who faithfully records all men,
Their many moods their thought, their acts,
And wand'ring not from sordid facts,
Your verse is wise, is sad, is bright,
Despite the good the bad the right,
And calls the kindred mind to come
And with you ferret out the sun
Of human joys and woes and needs,
Discover the sinister seeds
That sow unrest: Revive again
The drooping hopes of weary men.

Let's tie ourselves away some day
Like careless children off to play,
And find a pleasant shady nook
Where we can lay our copy-book,
And figure out these things so plain
That we won't have to come again
It certainly is hard on brains
To take the time, expense and pains,
To figure things so they will stay
And Mr. Parker it don't pay
To hang around this pesky town
Where we can never win renown.
SO LET'S GO.
