

Wide-Awake Candidates Struggling Vigorously for Supremacy Realizing Final Results Depend On This Week

Winners and Losers To Be Decided Between Now and Saturday Night --Lowest Vote Schedule Goes In Effect On Next Monday.

HOW TO GET 2,000,000 VOTES.
 110,000 votes are allowed on 5-year subscriptions. Just fourteen 5-year subscriptions entitle you to 1,540,000 votes—these fourteen 5-year subscriptions entitle you also to more than eight 100,000 vote "clubs." Add the 1,540,000 votes and the eight 100,000 "club" votes—800,000 votes—and you have a total of 2,340,000 votes.

Or, approximately the equivalent in shorter term subscriptions, with the 100,000 EXTRA FREE VOTES allowed on each $24 "club" would make you over 2,000,000 votes. Haven't you got this many friends who would help you to the extent of giving you their subscriptions to the Enterprise and thus help you secure this fine $2,450.00 Oldsmobile? Surely you have. Try it and see. This is the way to jump in the lead—you can do it THIS WEEK and pile up enough votes so that no one can ever get ahead of you.

Big results are to be expected this week for, after Saturday night, the lowest vote schedule of the Enterprise $5,000 campaign goes into effect. All the wide awake candidates are struggling vigorously for supremacy in the election with the realization that the final results depend almost entirely upon what is done these next few days.

No candidate will admit defeat—all are claiming victory. And, as close as the race stands, anyone in the list of contestants can walk away with the big Oldsmobile.

Race Getting Hotter
 As the last few days of this stupendous campaign come in sight, candidates in the Enterprise $5,000 election are struggling with might and main for the highest honors that are to be had. Not only will this luxurious $2,450.00 Oldsmobile touring car be awarded to the best hustler, but the fortunate winner will also receive the praise and congratulations of all western Oregon for having achieved such a signal victory.

Candidates Determined
 Several contestants have expressed themselves that to suffer defeat would be humiliation to themselves and disappointment to their friends who have helped them. That is the sort of fighting spirit that wins—that is the kind of dogged determination that will mean success in the end.

Every candidate in the list is working with an endless amount of enthusiasm and energy, each with their heart set on getting the Oldsmobile.

See the Car on Display
 Miller-Parker Company are proudly displaying this dandy Oldsmobile seven-passenger touring car. Stop in to see it the next time you are in the neighborhood. Judge for yourself whether or not this handsome prize is worth all of your best efforts for the next few days. Ask yourself this question—"Was there ever a prize given away before in Clackamas county that was so valuable?" (a small fortune in itself and more than most families make in a year's time)? And YOU CAN GET IT.

Get Winning Votes This Week
 Before Saturday night, after which the lowest vote schedule of the campaign goes in effect, you can get the winning number of votes that will make this fine Oldsmobile yours. Start TODAY with that one thought foremost in your mind—work with all your might Thursday, Friday and Saturday up until the closing hour, 11 o'clock. That's the way to make, sure of success while you have got it within your grasp. This is absolutely the last week of the big votes. After Saturday night at 11 o'clock, the vote schedule is very sharply reduced to the extent where a one-year subscription is worth only 5,000 votes—now every one-year subscription entitles you to 8,000 votes.

This is Big Vote Week
 Every 3-year subscription, if secured before Saturday night, gives you 40,000 votes—every 4-year subscription is worth 68,000 votes this week and every 5-year subscription will credit you 110,000 votes if you get them in before the close of the present big vote period. Next week, the vote schedule will be very greatly reduced, putting it to effect the lowest vote offer of the campaign.

100,000 EXTRA FREE VOTES
 With every $24 "club" of subscriptions turned in you get 100,000 EXTRA FREE VOTES in addition to the regular votes allowed on each subscription. This makes every $24 "club" worth over 280,000 votes the rest of the week, up until Saturday night at 11 p. m.

Most Important Tip
 This is the most vitally important part of the race. Whoever is ahead at the end of this period will practically be sure of capturing the big prize. It is impossible to overestimate the importance of these last few days. To some it will mean a glorious victory, to other—the contestants who "lay down" now—it will be a stinging defeat. What are you going to do? You must decide AT ONCE and act accordingly.

Fighting Features German Elections

BERLIN, June 4.—The election campaign in the provinces continues with much violence. There is frequent fighting at the meetings of the various candidates. At Darmstadt independent Socialist supporters dropped chairs from the gallery on the people and turned the hose on those in the hall, ending the meeting.

Linemen Striking For More Money

PENDLETON, Or., June 4.—All linemen of the Pendleton, Freewater, Pasco, Walla Walla, Kennewick, Yakima, Sunnyside and Pasco districts of the Pacific Power and Light company have struck and this city is without linemen. The men, who now receive $6 a day and time and a half for overtime, ask higher pay. The local company states that an increase is impossible at present rates to patrons and no increase has been authorized by the state commerce commission.

Doing Fine.

Mrs. Letha Bentley

Mrs. Letha Bentley, whose picture appears above, has been accomplishing splendid work since the first day she entered the Enterprise campaign.

Mrs. Bentley is the daughter of Mrs. G. Critser, a family which is very well known in every neighborhood of the county. Mrs. Critser is helping Mrs. Bentley in getting subscriptions as is her husband, Mr. Bentley. They are all laying plans to capture one of the big prizes and this attractive young lady will soon be increasing her vote score by leaps and bounds.

She has a lot of enthusiasm and abundant energy that will help her reach the goal she has determined to attain.

CITY IS VISITED BY CLOTHES THIEVES DURING PAST WEEK

Clothes stealing seems to be quite popular in this city from all indications, for a number of families have lost valuable clothing from their clothes lines, and so far there is no clue to the thieves. Those having been visited by the thieves are at the Trembath house, where a number of gowns, corset covers, skirts and other clothing were taken, but bedding and table linen were untouched. A number of the aprons had been removed from the line, but were dropped as if the thief had been in a hurry to make an escape. Others losing garments were Dr. C. A. Stuart, Ralph Eddy, and a residence on Center street, near Third street. The articles were stolen on the same night, so it is probably the same person doing the work.

A few nights ago the home of Mrs. N. McKillean at Bolton was visited, and a handsome corset cover and handkerchiefs were stolen from the line.

The first of last week a beautiful silk umbrella was stolen from the veranda of M. C. Hall at Fourth and Monroe streets.

Move To Repeal War Act Gaining

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Without amendment the senate judiciary committee today reported out the house joint resolution providing for the repeal of all war legislation except the Lever food control and the trading with the enemy act.

CORINNE GRIFFITH

It was particularly appropriate that Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, should have selected Corinne Griffith for the leading role of Clyde Fitch's "The Climbers," for she has been steadily climbing ever since she left her home in the south to become a film player. Now she has reached the top rung of film success. In addition to her imposing personal appearance and histrionic talent, Miss Griffith has the happy faculty of wearing beautiful and unusual gowns with grace and has had a splendid athletic training. Some of her most recent features have been "A Girl at Bay," "The Tower of Jewels," "Human Collaterals" and "Deadline at Eleven."

Wonderful 3-Year-Old That Had Only to Gallop to Break Record in the Withers

Race-goers are asking whether Man o' War, the horse of the day, is not the horse of a generation. This wonderful three-year-old son of Fair Play—Muhub, merely galloped to win the historic Withers at Belmont Park and yet made the sensational time of 1:35 4/5 for the mile around one turn. His mark was only one second behind the world's record established by Roamer two years ago at Saratoga Springs in a test against time with pace-makers. Man o' War did break the record for the mile in competition. He is seen here, as he looked immediately after the race, with Jockey Clarence Kummer up.

WILLIAM DUNCAN

Before he was an actor, William Duncan was an athletic instructor and a writer for physical culture magazines. He first appeared on the stage with Sandow, the strong man, and later toured the country at the head of his own dramatic company playing Hamlet. Today he is known throughout the world as a serial star and director. Upon completing "Smashing Barriers" Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, furnished Mr. Duncan with a serial the production of which will cost $1,000,000.

"The Silent Avenger" is the title of the new serial. It was written by Albert E. Smith and Cleveland Moffett. In this Mr. Duncan is given ample opportunity to show his skill as a fancy shot pool player, expert on the tennis court and clever sleight of hand performer. The thrills provide the serial director with material in which to demonstrate his strength and ability as an all-round athlete. He insists on realism and will assume great risks to stage a thrill as it should be performed. Mr. Duncan insists that it can be performed and he does it regardless of the hazard.

His leading lady, Edith Johnson, is equally courageous and follows William Duncan to the limit. They have been associated in several serials, including "The Man of Might" and "A Fight for Millions."

HARRY T. MOREY

When not at work on a picture Harry T. Morey is to be found in No. 16, a dressing room which dates back to the early days of his career in the Brooklyn studio of Vitagraph. It was 10 years ago that he occupied this room with Earle Williams. The walls resemble a combination of art museum and rogues' gallery. They are hung with pictures of Morey in various roles, ranging from a policeman, his first part; the crook, Joseph Garson of "With the Law," to the high financier in "The Gamblers." Recently, he has added Philip Grey in "The Birth of a Soul" and a detective character in "The Flaming Claw."

Court Rule Favors Jute Bag Dealers

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The supreme court today declared that the federal trade commission had exceeded its authority when it ordered jute bag and steel tie dealers to cease certain trade practices.

The court held the commission's order did not show that unfair competition was practiced by the firm complained against.

The court made plain it was not knocking out the law under which the commission operates.

The decision, government attorneys believe, however, will prevent the trade commission from enforcing many of its orders against unfair trade practices.

Ashland Plant Is To Be Enlarged

ASHLAND, June 7.—The Ashland Fruit and Produce association awarded a contract for a 45x125 concrete addition to its present building. The building and trackage property recently bought will make an investment of $12,000. Manager A. C. Briggs states that the general fruit crop will not average over 65 per cent yield, that peaches probably will fall to a 45 per cent yield, and that pears will bear best. The first gooseberries, 750 pounds, were shipped through the association last Friday.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The internal revenue bureau is preparing to start prosecutions for evasions of the income tax laws, to the number of which officials declared would "run into the thousands," and result in many convictions with fines and jail sentences.

Twenty-five hundred clerks have been checking over the returns made since the higher rates went into effect to defray expenses. Starting with those of the largest taxpayers, they have obtained evidence of fraud and willful deception in numerous instances in which court action will be started.

"It is the bureau's determined policy that the influence of wealth shall not prevent the willful tax dodger from going to jail."

REDS RETREATING IN PANIC BEFORE POLES IN DVINA SECTION

WARSAW, June 8.—Bolsheviks have been driven back in panic along the front between the Dvina and Iliensina rivers, Polish army headquarters reported today.

The wife, Mrs. Grace Richards, and a daughter, Miss Geneva Richards, are at an Oakland hospital, where they are not expected to live.

Richards is being guarded at the receiving hospital in Oakland. For some time he had been brooding because of the illness of his son Marvin. This morning he entered the young man's room and killed him while he lay in bed.
