LOCALS PERSONALS

C. F. Herzig, who came to Clacks mas county from Bridal Vell, Oregon, about six months ago and purchased transact business in Oregon City Saturday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, mediate relatives of the contracting a 25-acre place about five miles up the Thursday and Friday. Abernethy, and is to raise chickens, was in Oregon City Friday. Mr. Herand expects to devote much of his at gon City on business Thursday, tention next season to day old baby chicks for the market lie has at the gon Agricultural college. Mr. Herzig companied by his daughter. is dividing the poultry farm into parks and it is his intention to have green will turn the chickens into another, mas county. planting more feed in that vacated.

to go to Salem last Saturday, where on business Thursday. they attended the pienic given by the breeders of the Duroc-Jersey swine. breeders of this breed. A feature of lalla, were Oregon City visitors Mon the picate was the big spread day. given the visitors and a motoring trip about the city. Mrs. Ewald and son, also breeders of this stock, and former residents of Clackamas county, were suffering from a severe attack of iritis. sweet peas. She were a handsome among the visitors. They purchased an animal about a year ago that brought a price of $306.

Ray Morris, who graduated from the Oregon Agricultural college last Tuesday, has gone to New Jersey and has taken a position with a chemical company. Mr. Morris took a special course in chemistry at the institution. Before leaving for New Jersey he visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morris, who attended the graduation exercises. His brothers, Gilbert and Alton, alos attended the commence ment exercises. Morris was at the head of the Sigma Chi house while at the college, and saw service in the army during the world war.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freytag and children, Alice and Ernest, accompanted by Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Pace and daughter, Pauline, Miss Fayne Burdon, and Mr. and Mrs. Tim McGetchie, will Marmot Man Slays form three motoring parties to leave here Monday morning, their destination to be White Salmon, Wash., whose they are to enjoy three weeks' camping at the grove of Charles Moore, a relative of the Freytag family. A similar trip was made by several members of the party last summer, and a most enjoyable time was had.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Bowland and daughter, Miss Frances, will leave this morning for a four weeks' outing at Trout Lake, Oregon. Here they are to pitch camp, and will spend much of their time in fishing. Mr. school, is to thoroughly enjoy his outing and has purchased s big supply of fishing tackle and "canned" eggs, and you side to the Sandy. says if they don't come after the eggs, he will go after the fish and is looking forward to keeping the camp well supplied with fresh fish.

sided in the East. Mr. Leger sold his leaves a wife. visit relatives in Portland.

D. C. Latourette and daughter, Dr. the Clackamas cemetery, Ruth Eaton, left the latter part of the week for California, where the former goes on a business and pleasure trip and will spend much of the time in Los Angeles. Dr. Ruth Eaton will attend an osteopathic convention. They resulting in the breaking of the bone will be gone for several weeks.

Mrs. Mary S. Howard, of Mulino, gen City hospital. who has been secretary of the Oregon State Grange for the past 22 years, nong was driving several pet cinckens Mrss J. M. Price and daughter, Bertha, of Sa nFrancisco, have arriv ed, in Oregon City and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Price. They will remain here for several leged to be due on a contract for poweeks, and will be among those to tatoes. take in the Shriners' convention in homesteader of Elks Prairie, and for $50 has been paid. mer colonel in the army during the world war, Mrs. Joplin, wife of a homesteader, and Mr. and Mrs. Swope, of Swope's sawmill.

Mrs. S. A. D. Hungate and daughter, Leona, of Molalla, arrived in Oregon City Thursday from their farm, and are to spend a few days in this city visiting Mrs. Hungate's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, of Sixth street and riage.

Railroad Avenue. E. P. Carter, who has been spending the winter at his Gladstone home, has gone to Bar View, Ore., where he will get his cottages into readiness for the for the past three years, has been aphave been making their temporary death of his father, the late George home at Molalla, where Mr. Caufield Horton. has been connected with the paving plant, are in this city, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Caufield. Miss Lillian Harris and brother, with their mother, Mrs. V. Harris.

daughter at their home Friday morning, June 11

Mrs. Ralph Ellis, prominent resident of Molalla, underwent a critical operation at the Oregon City hospital Friday, and from the latest reports she is improving.

Pani Dunn, prominent resident of Solon Bray, accompanied by B. H. gig has selected the White Leghorn Stuart, well known residents of the marriage to Asel J. Taber, son of Mr. the bridegroom was attended by the as the breed he will engage in raising, Linn's Old Mill section, were in Orc- and Mrs. G. E. Taber, of Glen Echo.

L. A. Russell, of Carus, prominent percent time 600 pullets with 50 odd resident of that place, was in Oregon sang "At Dawning," and was accomhens, and the strain is from the Ore- City Thursday. Mr. Russell was ac- panied by Miss Mildred Ellis. As

A. M. Vinyard, of Canby, was in this feed for his birds. As soon as one city Friday. Mr. Vinyard is one of the the bridal party entered the pariors. park is cleared of the green feed he prominent meion growers of Clacka-

Rev. A. J. Josslyn, of Canby, one of Mr. and Mrs. George DeBok and the promiennt pioneer ministers of beneath a beautiful floral archway daughter, Dorothy, were among those Clackamas county, was in Oregon City.

W. W. Everhart, accompanied by Mr. Dellek is one of the prominent his brother, H. N. Everbart, of Mo-

Mrs. Sewell, who has been visiting groom her daughter, Mrs. Fellows, of Concord, has returned to her home.

Arthur Lidsley, of Beaver Creek was an Oregon City visitor Thursday and Friday.

John Diswoodle of Woodburn was an Oregon City visitor Friday.

Henry Eggers, of Redland, was in this city Thursday afternoon.

Amos Leek, of Redland, was an Or egon City visitor Friday.

A. G. Weiser, of Carus, was an Oregon City visitor Thursday.

John Hix, of Dufur, was in this city

Mammoth Cougar

An enormous cougar, the body of which alone measured 5 feet 11 inches in length, was slain Thursday evening about 5 o'clock on the Sandy river by Ernest Aschoff and E. H. Thomas, at the dam below the Ascouff home at Marmot, seven miles east of Sandy. Aschoff and Thomas were working at the dam when teh animal appeared. This was the first time a cougar had been seen in that region, which has Bowland, principal of the Eastham for a long time. The animal is bebecome more settled in recent years,

FREDERICK W. CHALK

Frederick W. Chalk, of Clackamas, where he purchased a home, has dis-dertaking parlors of Holman & Pace. posed of his property interests, and Mr. Chalk was a native of England. will leave soon for the East, where he born March 14, 1843, and has resided property to a Kansas family, and be- The funeral services will be held fore leaving for his Eastern home will from the Methodist church at Clackao'clock, and the interment will be in

MRS. GANONG INJURED

Mrs. R. C. Ganong, of Canemah, met with a painful accident Sunday. of the right ankle, and is now recciving medical attention in the Ore-

The accident occurred as Mrs. Gahas returned from Bend, Oregon, through an alley way, when her foot ing the world war, being transferred where she has been attending the accidentally struck a hole in the to France, where he was stationed state convention. Mrs. Howard was ground. Her husband being at home until 1919, when he was given his not an applicant for the office this at the time of the accident, immed-honorable discharge from the service. year, and will enjoy a much needed jately summoned the family physi- He is now employed by the Standard cian.

SPUDS CAUSE SUIT

W. W. Durgin filed sult against W. H. Lucke Friday to collect $513.75 al-

According to the complaint the potatoes were sold Lucke from Corvallis Taber, Mrs. Maggie Cross and daughand the price was $2.50 per hundred ter, Miss Ella Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Among the Oregon City visitors Sat pounds. The total amount came to William A. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. urday were Colonel Hollingsworth, a $563.65 and plaintiff alleges that only > LICENSE TO WED Asel J. Taber, 24, and Carolyn M. Cross, 21, both of Oregon City, were granted a marriage license by County Clerk Miller Friday.

> Homer Prior, 23, of West Linn, and Evelyn Taves, 16, of Oregon City, also issued a license Friday. The father of the girl gave his consent to the mar-

BARNEY NEW POSTMASTER

Victor C. Barney, who has been employed at the Oregon City postoffice summer guests. Mrs. Carter will go pointed as postmaster at West Linn church since taking up her residence later to Bar View to remain for the and will take up his new duties July in her church work, the party was Eugene Horton has had charge of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Caufield, who the West Linn postoffice since the planned and carried out.

SEVEN KILLED IN STORM

DETROIT, June 11,-Seven person were killed by lightning or drowned Herbert Harris, who have been at and 13 seriously injured during a comtending the Oregon Agricultural col-bination hall, electrical and wind lege at Corvallis, have returned to storm that raged over Detroit early Oregon City to spend their vacation last night. Four of the dead were members of an amateur baseball team at Northwestern high school, who had son, of Hubbard, and Lucius Simpkins, Oregon City he claimed that he was a Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Cash, of taken refuge from the storm under the who resides near that place, was

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

Clackamas county, whose farm is lo- curred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. at the home of Father Cronin, who of cated at Sandy, was among those to Frank Cross at 311 Eighteenth street ficiated in the presence of only im-June 12, when their daughter, Miss partles. Carolyne Marguerite, was united in > Previous to the marriage ceremony, Miss Lillian Cross, sister of the bride,

The bride and bridegroom, preceded by the bride's maid, Miss Mildred Ellis, and the best man, Verne Cross, brother of the bride, took their places formed of orange blossoms and dainty ferns, where the impressive ring coremony was performed by Rev. Melville T. Wire, pastor of the Methodist church.

The bride was beautiful in her gown of white cerps de chine embellished with silver lace. Silver beads were C. L. Jordan, who recently arrived gracefully arranged in her coiffure, at Mount Pleasant from Pendleton, is and her shower bouquet was of white string of pearls, the gift of the bride-

> The bride's maid was becomingly gowned in pale blue taffeta, and carried pink sweet peas.

Pollowing the marriage ceremony, a charge, Mr. Wink has engaged sister-in-law-, Mrs. Ernest Cross.

The decorations of the Cross home were artistic and beautiful. The par- in attendance at this reception for, where the marriage ceremony took place was in white and green, the archway being formed of orange were graceful palms, while at the reer were banks of ferns. White was used parlor and living room was of vines ning, June 12, at the home of the decorations of the living room. The of the young couple. effectively among the decorations of corated with roses and ferns. the dining room, and the tables centered with these and extending to each corner were trailing viens.

The young couple received many handsome gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Taber left Saturday evening on their honeymoon, and will visit several of the beach resorts, including Seaside and Cannon beach. Upon their return they are to make their temporary home at the residence and at Parkplace. He entered the S. P. Leger, who has resided for the died in this city Sunday evening, and of Mr. Taber's parents. The bride's past year at Mount Pleasant, and the remains were removed to the un- going away gown was of tan with hat to match and she wore a corsage bouquet of roses.

The bride is one of Oregon City's will make his home. He formerly re- at Clackamas for some time, where he well known young women, born and reared here, and attended the city schools, finishing her studies at the commercial school of the Y. W. C. A. mas Wednesday afternoon at 2 in Pertland. After completing her studies at that institution as a stenographer, she accepted a position, and has been connected with the S. L. Jones, importers and exporters, of Portland She comes from good old pioneer stock on both sides of the family, her father being a well known business man of this city.

> The bridegroom came to Oregon with his parents a number of years ago from Iowa and was in the government service at Washington, D. C., when given a commission in the army, dur-Oil company, with headquarters at Parkplace. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Taber, of Glen Echo, well known residents of Clackamas county.

The wedding was attended by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Taber, Mr. and Mrs. M. E Walker and the latter's son, Marion Miller, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ernest Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cross, Miss Mildred Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Cross, William Hamilton, Miss Lillian Cross, Verne Cross, Melvin Cross and Leonard Cross, and Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Cross.

Miss Kathryn Catron, who left Wednesday for Payette, Idaho, to visit her brother, later going to Howe, ties. Idaho, to spend the summer, was the guest of honor at a party given at the parlors of the Baptist church Wed- gagements, receiving wounds. nesday evening, and largely attended.

The evening was spent in music and games, followed by refreshments. Miss Catron has been one of the most active workers in the Baptist here, and in order to express their appreciation for her untiring efforts and Alta M. Meredith. The marriage ceremony was per formed by Rev. Wire. The young couple will reside in the country near Oregon City.

Married-at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. Melville T. Wire, Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, John T. Braker

The marriage of Miss Gladys Thomp-Milwankie, Route 1, are receiving the shelter of a tree on the grounds. Six solmenized at the home of Rev. and dition very little attention was paid congratulations over the arrival of a other playeds were injured by the bolt. Mrs. Melvine T. Wire Friday after to this.

noon at 1 o'clock, with Rev. Wire of ficiating. Mr. and Mrs. Simpkins will make their home on a farm near Hubbard.

The marriage of Miss Delia Tauscher of Portland, and Arthur H. Wink, One of the prettiest home weddings of New Era, and son of Mrs. W. G. that has taken place in this city oc. Hall, of this city, was solemnized > bride's nephew, John Auder, The bride was becomingly gowned in navy blue traveling suit with picture hat.

Following the marriage ceremony ceremony the bridal party drove to Lohengrin's Wedding March pealed the home of the bride's sister. Mrs. forth, rendered by Miss Lillian Criss, Micholas Auder, where a reception wa sheld, and about 40 relatives and intimate friends attending. Among those in attendance were Mrs. Hall, mother of the bridegroom, and his brother, Earl Wink, of this city. The reception was given at 8 o'clock. Many handsome gifts were received.

The young couple left for their home at New Era, where Mr. Wink was born and reared, and now engaged in farming.

The bride is an attractive young woman, and has many friends in Port. land.

The bridegroom, who was engaged as a sawyer, previous to the world war. and was among the first of Clackamas county to answer his country's call, enlisting in the navy, and was rapidly promoted, being a petty officer when he received his discharge in 1919. He had made many trips over-seas. Since receiving his disdeticious wedding dinner was served, farming. He is, well and favorably assisting the bride's mother in serving known throughout Clackamas county. were Miss Lillian Cross and Miss Efn- Upon returning to New Era, they were ma Eilis. The wedding cake was made given a reception by the many friends by Mrs. Maggie Cross, who has the dis- of the young man, when about 120 tinction of making every wedding cake were in attendance. Refreshments for the Cross family weddings, and were served. The bride was given a the bride's cake was made by the most cordial welcoming into the New Era section. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hall and Earl Wink were among those

Refreshments were served during ing out teh surprise, bringing many

The marriage of Miss Buell Barthloin shading the electroliers, and twining mew, of Corvallis, and William vines extending, making it most at Thomas Lucas, of Parkplace, was tractive. The archway separating the solemnized at Corvallis Saturday eveand Caroline Testout roses, this var- bride's parents, and was attended by fety of roses also being used in the only the intimate friends and relatives color scheme of the living and dining Mr. and Mrs. Lucas are to take a room was pink and green, and festoons brief honeymoon and will arrive at of vines were used, extended from the the nome of the bridegroom's parents, corners to the electrollers and made a Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lucas, at Parkmost artistic finish when extending to place, this morning, where a wedding the lights that were shaded in pink, dinner will be served. The home of The Caroline Testouts were also used the Lucas family will be prettily de-home in Corvallis, the bridegroom to complete his special course at the Oregon Agricultural College this sum-

The bride is one of the popular girls of Corvallis and has been connected with the Co-Operative store of Corvallis for two years.

The bridegroom is well known here service at the time the United States seas, being a member of an areo before marriage.

Andrews church of the sorority sisters from O A. C., cessities of life. and Mrs. Trafton Dye and daughter from Cleveland, Ohio, gathered at the mobile but after a short time refused home of the bride's parents and the her the use of the machine and gave announcement came as a surprise to it to his children. At one time she most of those present. home economics at O. A. C. in 1919. bill charged to him and that he pub-While in college she was prominent in lished a notice that he would not be student activities and a member of Sig- responsible for any of her bills. ma Kappa sorority, also of Omicron During the last year she has nent alimony, $25 per month for her been in charge of the household arts support and $156 attorney's fees. department of the Raymond, Washington, high school, and was re-elected at a substantial increase in salary.

Mr. Hutchinson was one of the first to respond to his country's call and spent two years in France with Company F, 18th R. R. Engineers, and is at present a student at Reed College.

The marriage of Miss Clara Ehrlick, of Lents, and Fred William Luenberger, of Gladstone, was solemnized Saturady evening with Rev. Henry Spees, of Gladstone, officiating. The bride's maid was Miss Hilda Susseras, and best man was Charles Ehrlich.

The ceremony was performed at the M. E. Church at Canby, and was witnessed by only a few intimate friends and relatives of the contracting par-

The bridegroom was in the service and was in some of the largest en-rested Thursday by Sheriff Wilson at a bed. Cottrell, was examined Friday for sanity and committed to the state asyulm. He was taken to Salem that evening.

Insane Youth Is

Elliott told Wilson that his home was in Martinez, Contra Costa county, Calif., and a wire was sent to the boy's father. Sheriff Velea, of the California county, wired back Friday that the boy was a deserter from the United States army and his father asked that he be turned over to the army authorities.

After the young man was brought to deserter, but on account of his con graduation exercises of the high ment for their aid in the recent fire. The bride was attended by her school were held Friday night at the attended the exercises.

HUNDREDS ATTEND EXERCISES GIVEN BY GRADUATING CLASS

Before 8 o'clock the building was packed to the doors and during the exercises probably 200 people stood bill. ple anxious to hear the exercises and for the banquet. those who attended were well paid for their trouble.

sisted of music by the high school or for Oregon City's entry in the chestra, the high school glee club and parade, violin solos by Miss Maxine Telford. The invocation was given by Rev. H. G. Edgar and the presentation of diplo- on the Pacific Highway between Oremas was made by Joseph E. Hedges. Hon. B. F. Mulkey made an address made that it was unnecessary to close that was enthusiastically received by the bridge for the minor repairs. the audience.

The honor students of the Oregon arships for the class.

TILLAMOOK PEOPLE HAVE NARROW ESCAPE ON ROAD TO CANEMAH

A man by the name of Putsch, of Tillamook, accompanied by his daugh- Development League. ter, Miss Hilda, registering at the Electric hotel, had a narrow escape Presley L. Welsh the evening, those planning and carry. from drowning Friday afternoon, when an automobile in which they were ridblossoms and ferns, and at each side ing out the surprise, bringing many in gtowards. Canemah struck the railing of the sidewalk, wrecking the railing, but a few of the boards luckily caught the rear wheels, preventing the machine from going into the basin. One wheel was demolished and the fender badly damaged and other parts > of the machine damaged. his daughter, and the automobile is now in a garage being repaired. The railing for about 20 feet was de molished. This is a dangerous road, and nar many years as Welch prairie. row, and when passing machines have very little room

The young couple are to make their DIVORCE IS ASKED WHEN HUBBY BREAKS PRE-MARRIAGE VOWS

Mary D. Larkins filed suit for dibecame involved in the world war, leging that he treated her cruelly and and was in active service while over- did not live up to his promises made

They were married at Kalama Wash., May 29, 1917, and have lived The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye at Gladstone for some time. She alwas the scene of a happy occasion leges that before marriage he promised Friady night announcing the marriage to take care of and educate her three of their daughter, Charlotte Evange- children by a former marriage and to young couple were married at Van- cording to complaint he refused to aid by Rev. V. S. Henderson, D. D. of St. to quit school and go to work. She also claims that he refused to give her including Miss McIntyre and several to provide her with clothes and the ne- heart.

She says that he bought her an autoclaims when she was in need she pur-She asks a divorce and $25 perma-

LICENSE TOWED

Oscar Straughan, 25, and Jessie May Hannah, 23, both of Estacada were issued a marriage license by County Clerk Miller Saturday.

Edward M. C. K. Taylor, 19, and Esther Parish, 16, also secured a marriage license Saturday. The mothers of the young people gave their consent to the marriage.

Charles C. Stehman, 22, and Martha Lela Henderson, 16, of Oregon City, Robert Harvey Of also were granted a marriage license with the mother of the girl giving her Martin Widdows, 27, of Barlow, and Mabel Gribble, 19, of Canby, were issued a license Saturday.

STORE IS ENTERED

When the Woolworth store was opened Thursday morning it was discovered that someone had entered the place the night before. Nothing but a small amount of candy was taken Army Deserter but the intruders made a hammock from some canvas and evidently were in the building for some time. From Carver; Charles, of Carver; William Homer Cross Elliott, who was ar indications they used the hammock as of Wyoming; Roy, of Nebraska. His

LIVE WIRES TO VISIT REDLANDS FOR BIG FEED

At the regular weekly noon-day luncheon of the Live Wires Tuesday a letter from Mayor Baker of Portland was read in which he acknow Before one of the jargest audiences ledged the resolution of the Wires that ever gathered in Oregon City the thanking the Portland fire departand those of Oregon City given last money enough on hand to settle the ents and other relatives. A yote of thanks was extended The halls were packed with peo- the Masons for the use of hteir hall

L. Adams, chairman of the float committee for the Portland Rose A fine program was given which con- Show, reported that all will be ready

Considerable time was taken with discussion of closing the bridge gon City and Canby, statements being

Mr. Brotz, road supervisor for Road District No. 6, Redland, was present City high school were Mariam Barn and extended the Wires an invitation um, Alfred Beatle, Carrie Cunning to visit that section as guests of the golden arrow the secret was disclosed, ham, Mildred Dryden, Alice Dawson. district on June 29. As Mr. Brotz Noma Freytig. Mary Hathaway Lor promised the Wires a dinner prepared ena Kleinsmith, Kenneth Swanson and by the ladies of that community the Pierce Walker. Mildred Dryden and invitation was accepted and the mem Alfred Beatle were awarded the schol- bers will journey to that place in two weeks and partake of the feed.

Harvey Cross, Republican nominee for county judge, was present and others in attendance, were not aware gave a talk in which he said that if of the engagement until the announcehe was elected ht would use every ment was made and the handsome effort to get good roads for the coun ring displayed that had been presentty for the entire proposed 144 miles. last Tuesday the Rires will hold quet of dainty roesbuds, lilles of the their last meeting of the season and valley and orchids was received from elect officers. On account of next Mr. Knick. Tuesday being a holiday the Wires will meet Monday and entertain the most appropriate for the occasion, the

Passes Wednesday

Died at Oregon City hospital Wednesday, June 9th, 1920, Presley 1. Welch, a pioneer born in West Linn on September 19th, 1849.

He came of that rugged pioneer Assistance was given the man and who followed later, and his father, Dr. Presley Welch, crossed the plains in 1845 and was known to many of the early settlers. He settled east of Miss Marie Walker. Clackamas, and it was known for

There were four daughters and three sons born to this pioneer couple. Three daughters, Mrs. Emma R. Capps, of Pendleton, Ore.; Mrs. Mary Foster of Hood River, and Mrs. Annie only ones left to mourn the loss of this their only brother left and the youngest of the family.

The funeral will be held at Holman & Pace's undertaking parlors today at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the family lot at Damascus.

DIES ON THURSDAY AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Edwin G. Roberts, a son of early line to Richard Earl Hutchinson. The give her property in Gladstone. Ac- Oregon pioneers of 1852, the late Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Roberts, died at the couver, British Columbia, May 15, 1920, the children and they were compelled family home at 192 Eighth and Washinuton streets, Thursday morning, after an illness of ten days, resulting About thirty of the young people, the deed to the property and neglected from rheumatic fever that affected his

Mr. Roberts was born in Oregon City November 17, 1868, the early part of his life having been spent on the Roberts farm at Beaver Creek, but for the past 33 years he has resided in Oregon City, where he was favorably Mrs. Hutchinson graduated from chased some merchandise and had the known and had many friends. He has been employed by the Crown-Willamette Paper Company, principally as bookkeeper for the past 25 years, and was a most efficient man in that line.

Mr. Roberts married Miss M. Gertrude Fairclough September 6, 1913. Marborough, of this city.

The funeral services will be held from the St. Paul's Episcopal church the East for several years and was lat-Sunday afternoon, June 15, at 2:30 er conected with the Erie railway. p. m. The interment will be in the When first coming to Oregon he en-Mountain View cemetery.

Carver Passes Away

Robert G. Harvey, of Carver, died at the home of his son, Charles Harvey Tuesday morning after an illness ford, who is a student of the Willamof several weeks at the age of 90 years and 27 days.

Mr. Harvey came to Clackamas county bout a yar ago from Meadow Grove, Nebraska, and since that time has resided at Carver and Da mascus.

Mr. Harvey is survived by the folwife died several months ago.

. Ice Cream GOLDSMITH'S Ice Cream

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS LOUISE JANE WALKER ANNOUNCED AT PARTY

The engagement of Miss Louise Jane Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Price, chairman of the banquet John H. Walker, of this city, to Thom school auditorium when the class of committee, reported that the enter- as Oliver Knick, of Los Angeles, Calif. 74 graduated. It prestimated that 709 tainment for the Portland firemen announced Saturday afternoon, came as a surprise to the many friends of week cost $285 and that there was the young lady, as well as to her par-The engagement was announced at a prettily arranged card party in honor of Miss Walker's cousin, Miss Mary Helen Buckley, and William Dangnerty, of Portland, the party having been planned and carried out by Miss big Walker. After cards had been enjoy-ed, when the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Lionel Gordon, of Marshfield, Oregon; and Miss Buckley, of Portland, little Jane Ice, appearing as a cupid, with cupid's darts artistically arrange ed about her little body, and carrying a little cupid's dart, she aimed the arrow toward the bride-elect, Miss Walker, and as she shot the little causing much merriment. This was followed by a cupid's dance by the little dancer, Jane Ice, who later presented each guest with a 'kewple.' Attached were red hearts bearing the names of Miss Walker and Mr. Knick.

The bride's parents, as well as the ed in April. During the party a tele-At the meeting four weeks from gram and a handsome corsage bou-

During the afternoon delicious rewill not meet but the week after they freshments were served, and were color scheme being pink and white. Mrs. Walker was assisted in serve ing by Mrs. Olive H. Fox, Mrs. L. G. Ice and Mrs. Henry C. Buckley, of Portland. Attending were Mrs. Henry Buckley, Miss Mary Helen Buckley, Miss Lucille Evans, Miss Henrietta Heppner Miss Elizabeth Kirby, Miss Jane Murpry, Miss Hazel Bowie, Mrs. Henning Carlson, of Portland; Mrs. Lionel Gordon, of Marshfield, Oregon; Mrs. stock that biazed the trail for those Charles Leonard, of Seattle; Mrs. Alfred Cook, of Canada; Miss Sadye Evelyn Ford, Miss Helen Lovett, Miss Marie Holmes, Miss June Charman,

Miss Walker is one of the most accomplished young women of Oregon City, being a most successful instructor of dancing and piano, and recently gave a pageant, the first of its kind given in this city, and was one of the De Shields of East Portland are the Miss Walker is a graduate of the Oregon City high school, and after com pleting her musical studies in Port land she spent some time in Califor nia, where she took a special course. Since her return here she has devoted her time to dancing as well as to piano instruction. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Thomas Charman, and of the late Major Thomas Charman, prominneers of Oregon

> Mr .Knick, who is at the present time in Texas, is a California young man, and it was while in California Miss Walker met Mr. Knick. He entered the service during the early part of the world war, and was commissioned first lieutenant. He was in France for about two years, and was one of the most popular officers of his company.

The wedding date has not been set, but will probably take place in the spring of 1921, as Miss Walker expects to go to New York in the early fall to further her studies in dancing in-

SERVICES FOR C. I. STAFFORD TO BE HELD MONDAY

Clinton I. Stafford, a prominent res-The deceased leaves a widow and ident and well known merchant of Ordaughter, Frances Marie, aged four eson City, who died suddenly at the years, and four sisters, Mrs. Jennie family home on High street Friday May, Mrs. Jeanette Jaggar, of Carus; evening from heart trouble, was born Miss Sarah Roberts and Mrs. Grace in New York October 18, 1862, and came to Oregon City 14 years ago. Mr. Stafford engaged in teaching in > gaged in the lumber business on the Hood claim and has been in the drygoods business here for the past eighn Mr. Stafford had been active in church work, and was a member of the Methodist church for many years.

Mr. Stafford is survived by his wife and a daughter, Miss Dorothy Stafette University. He also leaves a brother in New York. His father died a short time ago in New York. The remains are at the funeral parlors of Holman & Pace, and the funeral services are to be conducted from the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, with Rev. Mellowing children: Mrs. G. C. Dullas, of ville T. Wire, pastor of the Methodist Damascus; Mrs. M. A. Williams. of church, officiating, who will be assisted by Dr. E. E. Gilbert, formerly pastor of the Methodist church of this eity, now district superintendent of Salem district.

The interment will be in Mountain View cemetery.

ADJUDGED INSANE

Mrs. Edith Kallunki, of Milwankie was taken into custody Monday night by Sheriff Wilson and given an examination Tuesday for sanity. She was adjudged insane and committed to

Mrs. Kallunki has been an inmate of a Portland sanitarium but has been at home for some time. According to complaint she recently attempted to kill her husband with a kitchen