

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

J. J. Cook, postmaster, has visited in the rural sections during the week, accompanying the mail carriers on their trip, and making an inspection of the routes. Mr. Cooke, who has lived in Clackamas county all of his life, says the crops are now looking better than any time he can remember. John believes that the state of Oregon is the finest state in the union, and Clackamas county the best county, and Oregon City the best city in the world and where he lives on Fifth and Washington the best street in the city. These are among the main reasons why John is glad he is alive. He says he does not even think about a vacation, for he is happy here he is, and the only thing he ever worries about each year is getting a new summer "lid" that is suitable to his style of beauty.

Mrs. A. S. Nicol, formerly Miss Lulu Hankins, of this city, now of Coronado, Calif., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hankins, of Fern Ridge, and with other relatives of this city, has returned to her home. Her son, Allen, who accompanied her here, will remain for the summer with his grandparents, returning later to take up his studies in Coronado.

Mrs. Rebekah Torney, prominent early Oregon pioneer, who has been critically ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Farmer, of West Linn, for the past two weeks, suffering from malarial fever and chills, is slightly improved.

OREGON BEACHES PICTURESQUE Week-End Trips To Coast Reveals Many Scenic Wonders to Traveler BY E. E. BLODIE For the thousands who are unable, for business or other reasons, to enjoy an extended summer vacation and who are able to beg, borrow, or steal a few gallons of joy water, I would recommend the weekend motor trip to the beautiful beaches of Oregon. Lately I have taken two of these Saturday to Monday or Tuesday runs and find them a delightful break in the heat of the summer, and am just home from a tour of the coast from the entrance to Tillamook Bay to wonderful Neah-Kah-nie Mountain.
