LOOP ROAD THROUGH SANDY.

The charity-workers that gathered in to a big bunch and slyly approached the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ridderbusch, the other night, insist they had a rollicking time, but some particulars are lacking. In order to write up an exact account one needs names and events. For some reason these present have not been generous enough to write up a list. They all sang "How Dry I Am" and Mrs. Ridderbusch said: "Henry, go and get a bucket of water." Henry brought out cigars, but who wouldn't stop all that noise!

There will be an all day Mission fest held at their grove back of the Lutheran church on Sunday, and Rev. F. Dobbler will return from a two months' stay in the East in time to participate in the services. There will also be present, Rev. Bayerlein of Albany, and Rev. Probst of Corvallis. German will be the language in the morning service, and English in the afternoon, at two o'clock. The entire congregation will bring a picnic dinner, and all kinds of light refreshments will be sold on the grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. McPherson and son and Mr. and Mrs. Parry of The Dalles were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kamp on Sunday. Mr. Parry is a conductor on the O. W. R. & N. R. R. The Misses Bertha and Martha Hoffner drove Mrs. Deaton and little Mertie home Sunday, remaining in Portland for the day.

Mrs. Alice Scales went up to Weiler's last Saturday to join her sister-in-law and her sons, Tommy and Kenneth, for a whole week of rest. Mrs. "Beatie" Harris is helping in the store while Mrs. Scales is away, and folks seem pleased to see her behind the counter again.
