

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Colonel Hollingsworth, one of the well known homesteaders of Elk Prairie, about 15 miles beyond Molalla, was in Oregon City on business Friday. Colonel Hollingsworth received his title in the world war and after receiving his honorable discharge from the service visited his home in Nebraska for a short time, later coming to Clackamas county, where he is making his home on a homestead he is taking up. This is one of the most slightly homesteads in the Elk Prairie country, and the colonel is planning on erecting a modern little home with fire-place and other comforts. Since taking up his home there he has made many friends among the homesteaders and is working for the betterment of that section of the county.

N. Christensen, who resides on the Fields Bridge farm on the Trout River, about five miles from this city, was in Oregon City Friday. Mr. Christensen moved to that place about a year ago from Eastern Oregon. His peach plum crop this year is unusually heavy and the twenty trees are heavily laden with the fruit, and as many of the canneries are not purchasing plums of this variety this year, it is necessary to sell them at a lower price than anticipated earlier in the season.

Dr. W. H. Chapman, of Woodburn, was in Oregon City Thursday. He has recently disposed of one of his places east of Woodburn, consisting of 70 acres. He also sold an adjoining tract of land of 20 acres to A. G. Brauer, at a consideration of $38,000, taking as part payment the Brauer building at Front and Grant streets, Woodburn, and occupied by the Moore drug store, and some property in Portland. Dr. Chapman cleared the land himself and planted it with walnuts and Logan berries.

Andrew Koehler, who is to have charge of the poultry department at the Clackamas county fair, and whose home is in Canby, accompanied by George Meeks, poultryman of Canby, were in this city Thursday on their way to Springfield, where they went in the interest of the fair, and are to visit some of the poultrymen, who contemplate entering some of their best birds at the coming fair. Among these was Ed Scheerer, who is engaged in breeding Plymouth Rocks and Light Brahmans.

Frank Criswell and Jud Doering, who are on the U. S. S. Idaho, and who have been in Oregon City as guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Gertie M. Criswell, and other relatives, left Saturday evening for Seattle to report for duty. Criswell, who is well and favorably known here, is now in his fifth year of the naval service, and has visited many interesting ports since leaving home five years ago.

Attorney Traffe Dye, of Cleveland, Ohio, has arrived in Oregon City, and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye, and other relatives, and has joined his family, who preceded him here about a month ago. After visiting in this city and in Portland for a month they will return to their home in the East. Mr. Dye is the junior member of Cross-Williams-Dunst & Dye, attorneys of Cleveland.

Clarence Doty, who is employed in the Brady Mercantile company's store, in company with Hugh Thompson will leave August 15 for British Columbia, and after visiting there will go by boat to Los Angeles, Calif., where they are to visit for about three weeks. They intend returning from California by way of the new Los Angeles automobile stage.

Mrs. C. G. Ballal, who has been visiting her brother, Charles Swift, of Willamette, for the past six weeks, will leave for her home at Katamaron, Michigan, the latter part of the week. This is Mrs. Ballal's first visit to Oregon and she is favorably impressed with the climate, and since coming here her health has improved.

I. D. Taylor, who has charge of the tax department, is now on his vacation, and among the places he will visit will be Vancouver, Wash., where he will be the guest of his son, W. E. Taylor and family, and will be accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. John Lowry is meeting with success with her hotel at Rockaway this year. Her home is in Bolton, and this is her first attempt at the hotel business at that resort. Many Oregon City people are patronizing the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Livesay, of Clackamas Heights, are the proud parents of a son, born July 29, and who was given the name of Robert Earl.

M. H. Ashton, of New York, was in this city Wednesday, and on Thursday morning left for Pendleton, Oregon, where he will remain for several days.

J. R. Berkley, of Seattle, Wash., was in Oregon City Wednesday and Thursday and registered at the Electric Hotel.

Mrs. Josephine Shewman, of Concord, formerly of Oregon City, was in this city on business Thursday.

Mrs. Dewey Allen underwent an operation at the Oregon City hospital Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Badger, of Elk Prairie, who are making their home on their homestead, where they have resided for the past three years, were in Oregon City on business Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Badger are taking an active interest in their section of the county, and are now promoting the establishment of a school in that section. They are also working in the interest of establishing good roads from Molalla to Elk Prairie. They have made many improvements on their homestead during the past year, and have planted over 1000 strawberry plants. Their corn is now tasseling and from the present indications they will have a good crop. Mr. and Mrs. Badger left for Molalla Monday evening, and Mrs. Badger will leave this morning for her home, her husband being employed at Molalla at the present time.

Portland for some time, where Mr. Pope is ill, was in Oregon City Monday, coming here in business. Mr. Pope has been ill in Portland since Christmas, having gone there to attend a family gathering at that time, and was taken ill shortly after arriving at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith. He was recovering from his illness, and able to be out when he was taken critically ill with pneumonia, but is now on the road to recovery. Mr. Pope is one of the prominent and old time pioneer merchants of this city, and his many friends will be pleased to hear of his improvement.

David Long, secretary of the Clackamas county fair, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday. Mr. Long came here for the purpose of closing a contract with the Browning Amusement company, for one of the great attractions at the coming county fair to be held at Canby September 20 to 23 inclusive. William Browning, one of the promoters, was in this city and closed the deal. The amusement company will have a full carnival company with the latest ferris wheel with music and merry-go-round and many concessions.

Mrs. Ida M. Stubbs, prominent resident of Clackamas county, formerly of Estacada, now of Damascus, accompanied by Mrs. R. E. Ball and the latter's son, A. C. Ball, of Damascus, were Oregon City visitors Monday.

Miss Lorraine Lee, of Canby, who has been here as a guest of Miss Margaret Clark, of West Linn, returned to her home Monday morning.

Mrs. C. T. Hickman, who has been at Gervais visiting her son, Dr. Harvey Hickman, and wife, returned to Oregon City Monday morning.

W. W. Everhart, ex-county assessor, now connected with the bank of Molalla, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. While in Oregon City Mr. Everhart visited among his many friends at the court house before returning home.

Lilley Baker Says Hubby Was Cruel

Lilley J. Baker and Charles W. Baker were married at Vancouver October, 1916, and in her divorce suit filed here Friday she alleges cruel and inhuman treatment.

According to the complaint the couple went to Alberta soon after the marriage and she alleges that he refused to provide wood for her and that she was compelled to split and carry the wood in order to keep from freezing.

After they moved back to Estacada she says she had to undergo an operation caused by the exposure and hard work in Alberta and that after she was brought home he refused to provide assistance for her and often left her all day, even refusing to make her a cup of coffee.

The couple resided in Oregon City for a short time before moving to Estacada.

Gas Shortage In Oregon City Ends

The gasoline shortage in Oregon City has been relieved and now motorists may have all they want at 40 cents per gallon, as 10,000 gallons arrived here Monday morning and all the garages have received a portion. A trainload has just arrived in Oregon and one car came in at night, allowing the purchase of any amount for the first time in over two months.

This gas cost the local dealers 25 cents per gallon in Texas, and this high price together with the freight makes it necessary for them to sell it here at 40 cents per gallon.

C-W WINS GAME

The Crown Willamette paper mills team won from the Oregon City Independents Sunday at Canemay, Park. At no time did the Independents have a chance in the game and the mills boys played rings around the city team. "King" Cole in the box for C-W, struck out the Independents in one-two-three order on several occasions.

LICENSE TO WED Fred C. Cabbe, 38, of Salem, and Elsie Niscomb, 28, of Oregon City, were issued a marriage license Monday.

SOCIETY

A pretty wedding took place last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. L. Hickman, of Molalla Avenue, when her granddaughter, Miss Wanda T. Hickman, became the bride of Leonard Lagason, of this city. The wedding ceremony was witnessed by only intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties, and the impressive ring ceremony was read by Rev. Willis Pettibone, pastor of the Baptist church.

The bride's gown was of pale blue tulle with picture hat to match, and she carried a bouquet of dainty Cecil Brunner roses.

The color scheme of the living room where the marriage took place, was pink, white and lavender, when Shasta daisies, Canterbury bells and Dorothy Perkins roses were used. The dining room was in pink and white, when sweet peas and ferns were used most artistically intermingled with gypsophylla blossoms. The color scheme for the veranda which was converted into a living room was red and green, when red geraniums and asparagus ferns were used.

Mr. and Mrs. Lagason have gone to Newport to spend their honeymoon and upon their return will occupy for the present the home of Mr. Lagason's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lagason, on Twelfth and Center streets.

The bride, who has made her home for a number of years with her grandmother, Mrs. A. L. Hickman is a most popular girl, and an active member of the Baptist church, being a member of several societies of the church. She attended the Oregon City high school and was one of the most popular students.

Mr. Lagason, who is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lagason, of this city, is manager of the Oregon City Shoe store and has resided in Oregon City twelve years, for a number of years being connected with a Portland shoe company.

Previous to her marriage the bride was the guest of honor of several social functions.

Miss June Charman was a charming hostess at her pretty home on the Buff last Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Lester Bauer of Chicago, formerly Miss Jessie Block, of this city, was the guest of honor.

The afternoon was devoted to cards, and Mrs. M. D. Latourrette was the winner of the first prize, the consolation prize going to Miss Mary Mattley. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Charman was assisted in entertaining by Miss Marie Walker and Miss Helen Mattley.

The rooms of the Charman home were beautifully decorated for this occasion, as was also the sun room, one of the most popular places of the home on this occasion, where tables were arranged for cards.

Attending were Mrs. M. D. Latourrette, Mrs. L. A. Henderson, Mrs. Edith Dillard, Mrs. Clyde Mount, Mrs. Chris Crumrine, Miss Helen Mattley, Miss Mary Mattley, Miss C. B. Barclay Pratt, Miss Dolly Pratt, Miss Louise Walker, Miss Marie Walker, Miss Helen Lovett, Miss Helen Daulton, Miss Merle Keck, Miss Virginia Shaw, Miss Wynne Hays, Miss Evelyn Harding, Miss Muriel Stevens, Miss Maude Galloway, Mrs. Lester Bauer, of Chicago; Mrs. Kenneth Stanton of San Francisco; Miss Ethel Graves, and Miss Hester Danneham, of Portland.

One of the prettiest home weddings was solemnized at the home of the bride's brother Edwin P. Edwards at Gladstone Sunday evening at 6 o'clock when Emile Gertrude Edwards and Noble Reakecker were united in marriage. Rev. Clay of the Christian church of that city read the impressive services under a canopy of ferns and pink sweet peas.

The bride is a very popular girl having lived here most of her life receiving her education here and is now employed by the Crown Willamette Paper company. She wore a navy blue suit and white picture hat and corsage bouquet of Cecil Brunner rose buds. She was attended by Miss Payne Burdon who wore a white serge suit with a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and picture hat to correspond.

Mr. Reakecker is the son of Mrs. Eva Reakecker of Oregon City having recently returned from the navy where he served during the world war. He received his earlier education in Missouri. Mr. Reakecker was attended by Andy De Shamps.

Mrs. Edwin Edwards played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered the living room which was beautifully decorated with sword ferns and pink sweet peas and small gladiolus. Mrs. T. B. Edwards mother of the bride wore a taupe silk and Mrs. Reakecker, mother of the groom wore blue Georgette. Many of the most beautiful and useful wedding gifts were received, among them a chest of silver from the Finishing room at the Crown-Willamette Paper company where both the bride and the groom were employed previous to their marriage. After the ceremony a dainty buffet luncheon was served when the young couple left for Portland where they remained for a few days and left for a month's stay at Seaside, Gearhart and other Oregon beaches after which they will be at home to their many friends at 312 High Street Oregon City.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Lawrence, sister of the groom, Mrs. Eva Reakecker, Mrs. T. B. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Prater, grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Mann and son, Ray Jr., Mrs. Carrie Connecke and son Ralph Uron, J. M. Hollowell, Miss Alice Freytag, Mrs. Pearl Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Edwards and little daughter, Barbara Jeanne, Fayne Burdon and Andy De Shamps.

One of the most enjoyable birthday parties is being held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Thomas, of Park-place today in honor of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. May Thomas, of Spokane, Wash., it being her 23rd birthday anniversary.

After a birthday dinner the party will enjoy swimming and a week-end roast on the Clackamas river.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jennings at Sixth and John Adams streets was the scene of a very pretty wedding when their youngest daughter Miss Sunshine Mae became the bride of George E. Hale of this city. The impressive ring ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives, and a few intimate friends of the young couple by Rev. Herbert Crocker, pastor of the Congregational church. During the ceremony Mrs. Hale mother of the bridegroom sang "Pearly Gates," and was accompanied by Mrs. Albert Buckles, of Willamette.

The bride was becomingly attired in a navy blue traveling suit and carried sweet peas.

Miss Fidelia Sanders was maid of honor, and Wayne Hickerson was the best man.

The rooms were decorated with sweet peas and dahlias. The color scheme for the living room where the marriage ceremony was performed was in pink, white and green. Banks of ferns were used most effectively, and were also arranged in baskets in this room as well as the dining room. The dining room was in red and green. The electroluxes were shaded in corresponding colors in which they were decorated.

The couple were attended by Miss Elizabeth Bruechert and Glen Elkins cousins of the bride and groom. Miss Bruechert's gown was white net over white silk and she carried white and pink sweet peas. Mesdames H. M. Moyles of Airle, Oregon and Mrs. J. C. Elkins of Portland cut the cakes while Mrs. Arthur Roberts, Miss Ruth Elkins and Miss Wilma Bruechert presided over the feast.

In the evening a wedding supper was served.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Maple, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Morse, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Butts, of Park-place, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Scripture, of Oregon City, Mrs. H. M. Moyles, of Airle, Mrs. Bess Bruechert and Mr. and Mrs. Elkins, of Portland, Geo. Banks of ferns were used most effectively, and were also arranged in baskets in this room as well as the dining room. The dining room was in red and green. The electroluxes were shaded in corresponding colors in which they were decorated.

Ice cream and cake were served during the evening, after which the young couple left for their brief honeymoon and will be at home to their friends at the Meyer flat on Seventh and Jackson streets after September 1st.

The bride is one of Oregon City's most popular young women. She came to Oregon City with her parents from Mendocino, Calif., about four years ago, and for two years was a student of the Oregon City high school.

Mr. Hale came to Oregon City about two years ago from Albany, Oregon, and is employed at the Crown Willamette Paper company at West Linn. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hale, of Brownsville, former residents of Albany.

Miss Naldene Blanchard, of Gladstone whose marriage to Jack O. Armetrou, of this city will be an event of September was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Hayhurst, at Gladstone, Wednesday afternoon, when the bride-elect was presented with many handsome and useful gifts.

The affair was a most novel one, and prettily arranged by Mrs. Hayhurst who was assisted by Mrs. Roy Trullinger, of this city. The color scheme of the living and dining rooms was pink and white. A large pink umbrella was suspended from the ceiling, and gracefully hung from one side trailing pink rambler roses, while on the opposite side were the pretty gifts, which were presented to Miss Blanchard.

A most enjoyable afternoon was spent in music and conversation.

During the afternoon refreshments were served.

There were about 25 friends attending.

Simplicity was the keynote of a pretty little wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Roberts at Jennings Lodge on Thursday afternoon August 5th, when their only daughter Bessie Emily was united in marriage to James Clarence Maple, Rev. A. B. Snider pastor of the Grace church, officiated in the presence of about thirty relatives.

The paler shades of sweet peas with gypsophylla, ferns and corresponding shades of phlox were used in the living room where the couple plighted their marriage vows.

In the dining room the darker tones of sweet peas were arranged about the rooms and the corresponding shades of phlox were very prettily arranged.

The bride was becomingly gowned in dainty white organdie with hand embroidered collar and cuffs and wore a hat to match. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and water lilies.

MARSHALL DUE FRIDAY PORTLAND, Aug. 5.—Vice President Thomas R. Marshall will have lunch as guest of the Portland Chamber of Commerce Friday as a feature of his brief visit in the city. Thereafter he will tour over the Columbia river highway to satisfy a desire he has expressed to the chamber. The vice president is due Friday morning and will leave Portland at 7:10 P. M., en route to Yellowstone National park.

The county court has been asked to pass a resolution for the establishment of the Corral Creek road to link Clackamas county with Yamhill starting at Wilsonville and running to Newberg.

This proposed road will be about three miles long and will connect many valuable farms with the highway and make a better route to Yamhill county. The road would follow Corral Creek, and would be practically free from grades of any consequence and furnish an outlet for much valuable land in that neighborhood.

The establishment of this road was brought up before but was turned down in the circuit court.

The court passed the resolution and notices will be posted for 30 days which will hold the matter over until the October term of court.

Carver Bank To Open On August 14

The formal opening of the Carver State bank will take place Saturday, August 14. In celebration of the event there will be a picnic at Hatton beach in the evening, at which Thomas F. Ryan, president of the bank, and G. M. Slocum, cashier, will speak. The Carver State bank was established to aid in the development of the Baker's Bridge-Viola district, at the end of the present line of the Portland & Oregon City railroad. The bank receives its mail by rural free delivery from the Clackamas postoffice.

WOMAN HIT BY AUTO DRIVEN BY T. LINN ASKS FOR DAMAGES

Bertha E. Worley filed suit against T. W. Linn Friday, asking $3000 damages and $397 expenses for injuries she alleged she received when Linn ran into her with his car last February.

The alleged accident occurred near the St. Agnes Baby home and plaintiff says that she was walking toward Oregon City when Linn going the same way, ran into her. She says that she was near the right side of the road but Linn failed to turn out or sound a signal. She accuses him of careless driving and claims that she was injured to the extent of $3000 and that her hospital and doctor bills amounted to $397.

According to the complaint plaintiff suffered a broken leg and other painful injuries.

Goodyear Girls Help Little Crippled Child

Girls of the new Goodyear plant at Los Angeles go in strong for athletics as a matter of healthful exercise and pleasurable recreation, but do not confine the efforts of their Girls' Club solely to self improvement, as is evidenced by their action in undertaking to provide all necessary funds for an operation to restore to health a little cripple girl, Margaret Johnson, so that she may run and play like other children of her age. Little Margaret is one of a family of eight children whose widowed mother is heroically struggling to provide a living for them by making canteen covers. The Goodyear Girls will also raise the money necessary for curative treatments following the operation.
