ROUTE NOT DECIDED

SANDY, Ore., Aug. 10.—Every "south slder" was sitting on the brink of expectancy last Tuesday while awaiting the decision that was supposed to be forthcoming on the Mt. Hood Loop question, but Mr. Mann succeeded in convincing two of the Commissioners that his side of the affair had not been fully and clearly presented.

Gus Moser, who is employed by Mann and his followers to roll stones in the path of our county's progress made a heart rending appeal that their engineer have a conference with Mr. Scott, the locating engineer who did the work for the state highway commissioners on this side of the Sandy, so the decision was postponed and we shall have to hold our breath for two whole weeks.

Sandy's good red blood was felt by the other side for we gave them some thrillers—but it seems a big bunch of our folks must have gone z-blackberrying or fishing! And then some said "George will do it." These are some of the folks at went down to feel the pulse of the meeting: Casper Junker, Paul Meinig, W. Bosholm, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bodley, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hart, Mr. Morrison, Mrs. Updegrave, Hazel Beers, Mrs. J. M. C. Miller, Gertrude Meinig, George Maroney, Mr. Bailey of Brightwood, also Anton Mickelson, of the Sandy Lumber Co.
