

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

W. H. Lucke, a commission merchant of Canby, was among those to transact business here Thursday.

Mrs. J. L. Lindley and two children, of Bellingham, Wash., arrived Thursday morning to visit a few days with Mrs. Eads at Medford.

The many friends of Mrs. Mary Barlow, of Twelfth and Washington streets, will be pleased to hear of her improvement from an illness.

Mrs. Theo. McLaren, after making a brief visit in Portland as a guest of her sister, Miss Adele Quinn, and with her father, W. W. Quinn, of Canemah, and other relatives of that place, returned to her home at Wilholt Thursday evening.

Miss Vera Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, of Los Angeles, former residents of Oregon City, has arrived here where she is a guest at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Ely.

S. B. Barney, whose home is at Maple Lane, has brought to the office of the Morning Enterprise a sample of alfalfa grown on his farm, which stands about five feet in height.

Miss Addie Clark, who has been spending the summer at the home of her brother, Attorney John F. Clark, and family, at West Linn, will leave today for Chehalis, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, of Redland, the former a merchant of that place, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday, having come here on business.

George Gray, of Aurora, well known resident of that place, was among those to transact business here Thursday.

Attorney John W. Loder left Thursday for a few days' vacation at Eagle Creek, where he will enjoy camp life.

Roy Sullivan, who has been in Oregon City for a few days, has returned to his home at Molalla.

H. Hopkins, of Rufus, Oregon, was among those to transact business here Wednesday and Thursday.

T. O. Ridings, of Molalla, prominent farmer of the county, was in this city on business Thursday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Beatie, at Oregon City hospital, on Tuesday evening, August 25, a son.

J. E. Duncan and H. H. Goucher, of Marshfield, are in this city for a few days.

W. M. Metcalf, formerly an Oregon City boy, and now engaged in the poultry industry at Salt Lake City, Utah, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greaves, at Willamette, and with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Greaves, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kent are spending the weekend with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Steiner, of Forest Grove.

A. J. Bockhold, accompanied by Mr. Gross, of Beaver Creek, motored to Lebanon, a distance of 220 miles, Sunday leaving here at 7 o'clock.

After an absence of three months in Pennsylvania, Mrs. Augusta Schoenhorn has returned to Oregon City, after a most delightful visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bolton, of Canemah, are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter, who made her appearance August 10. The little one has been given the name of Betty.

Mrs. H. E. Harbottle and three little children, after spending the summer months in Oregon City as guests of Mrs. Harbottle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bigger, and her sister, Mrs. J. Askew, left here Saturday evening for Seattle, and from there will leave on the steamer Spokane for their home at White Horse, Yukon Territory, Canada.

Attorney John F. Clark and Dick Bittner, of this city, accompanied by Frank Toner, of Dallas, Oregon, are to leave on their annual hunting trip this morning and are to visit their old stamping ground in Southern Oregon near Roseburg.

E. T. Avison, of Maple Lane, who is engaged in farming on a small scale at the farm of Dr. C. H. Melsner, his son-in-law, was in Oregon City on business Saturday visiting at the Melsner home.

May Russell, who has been having a most enjoyable vacation at Greesham, visiting on the Austin farm as guest of friends, has returned to Oregon City, and resumed her position with Bannan & Company.

Mrs. Jessie Bishop, of this city, but recently arriving from Spokane, W. Va., is spending a few days in camp life at Oak Grove, where her son, Denton, and also her sister, Miss Grace Spiger, are enjoying camping.

Charles Burns, who has been turned out of the Oregon State penitentiary, has returned to Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. Burns are for the present at the home of their niece, Mrs. L. G. Lee, and will soon take up their residence at their home in Greenpoint they left a number of years ago, when Mr. Burns accepted the position in Salem.

Miss Belle Mattley, who taught in the Walla Walla high school last year, and recently accepting a position as instructor in an Oakland, Calif., high school, left for that city the latter part of the week to take up her duties.

Miss Clara Tate is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Bartolot, of Portland. Mrs. Viola Tate, formerly of this city, now of Wheeler, is also visiting at the home of her daughter, having come from that city to attend the marriage of her daughter, Miss Lucy, to Lesley Massitt, of Wheeler.

Mrs. Roy D. Armstrong and children, Elaine and Bruce, of Portland, were guests at the Legler home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Priebe, accompanied by their son, William Priebe, and daughters, Misses Edith and Bertha, motored to Hood River Thursday, to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Francis are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter, born at Oregon City hospital Saturday morning. Their home is Millwaukie, Route 4.

Judge J. U. Campbell, wife and daughter, Mary, have returned from their motoring trip to Seaside. They visited Bar View, Rockaway and other resorts while enroute.

Mr. and Mrs. George V. Ely and children, Harless and Eloise, who have been having an enjoyable outing at Cannon Beach, where they were camped for two weeks returned to Oregon City Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George V. Ely and children, Harless and Eloise, who have been having an enjoyable outing at Cannon Beach, where they were camped for two weeks returned to Oregon City Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lovett and family, who have been residing at Thirteenth and Washington streets for a number of years, are to move to West Linn this week, and will occupy the residence formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Leithwaite, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. James Carey.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Morris and son, Bobby, and Mrs. Morris' mother, Mrs. Robert Goodfellow, who have been spending the past month at Cannon Beach, returned to their home in this city Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Perry, of Sherwood, formerly of this city and of Willamette, were in Oregon City Wednesday transacting business. They have just completed their new bungalow at Sherwood, and it is one of the most attractive in that section of the county. They have about 20 acres of Mrs. F. Holden, formerly Miss Francis Myers, of this city, and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Myers, early Oregon City pioneers, arrived in Oregon City Friday with her four children, where she is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Beatie, of Fourth and High streets.

C. B. Wilson and son, Bruce, left Saturday for Seaside, and from that resort they will hike to Rockaway, where they are to remain for two weeks, Mr. Wilson having rented a house at the resort for that time.

John DeNeul, of Stafford, was among those to transact business here Monday. Mr. DeNeul has resided at Stafford for a number of years, and owned one of the best farms there, being engaged in the walnut industry as well as general farming.

J. W. Smith, ex-county commissioner, whose home is at Mackburg, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday. Mr. Smith, who is engaged in the sheep industry, is planning to have an exhibit of some of his stock at the coming county fair to be held at Canby, September 20-24.

James Summers, formerly of this city, and a son of Oregon City pioneers, arrived in Oregon City Monday morning, and is visiting his sister, Mrs. Kate McNamara, and his brother, Peter Summers, of Seventh and Washington streets.

Rev. and Mrs. Edgar and family, who have been spending a few weeks at Rockaway, and later guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel in their mountain home at Rhododendron, have returned to Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirchem of Logan, were in Oregon City Monday transacting business. Mr. Kirchem is one of the energetic farmers, having finished his harvesting and has all his grain and hay stored.

Misses Esther and Agnes Harris, who have been on an extended Eastern trip, visiting Ohio, New York and other Eastern states, have returned to Oregon City, after a most delightful trip.

R. G. Scott and family, who have been enjoying a week's stay at Lake Lytle, occupying the White cottage, will return this week. Mr. Scott will resume his work as county agent, and has thoroughly enjoyed his outing. They made the trip by automobile.

Mr. Tidd and Mr. Battles, of Elk Prairie, both of whom are taking up homesteads, were in Oregon City Monday. Mr. Battles was on his way to Spokane on a business trip.

J. M. Dickerson, of Boring, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Thomas Gerber, of the Arcady Press, of Portland, was in Oregon City Tuesday transacting business in connection with the firm. He also visited some of his friends, having formerly resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Eby will leave Thursday morning for Eugene to remain for several days, while Mr. Eby is attending the meeting of the State Bar Association to convene Friday and Saturday.

The farm recently purchased by A. J. Bockhold, realty dealer, has been sold to M. Lessemann, who has just arrived from Nebraska to make his home in Clackamas county. The land consists of 50 acres, and is located near Mount Pleasant. It formerly was the home of F. Burdorfer. The price was $11,500, with house and modern buildings. Mr. Lessemann will take possession immediately.

Charles Rider, of Greenwood, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

I. J. White, of McCoy, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. B. H. Stuart, of Linn's Old Mill, was among the Oregon City visitors Saturday. She and her children will leave today for Gervais to remain for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wilson have purchased three lots of Ed Park in Gladstone, where they have started to build a new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Legler left Saturday to spend the week-end with Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Mott, of Salem.

Mrs. Alex Simmons, of Estacada, is the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. McCole.

Miss Hazel Brandell, of Portland, is spending several days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Haas.

Elmo Eby has returned after a week's outing with his cousin at Newberg.

Hear Ye! "Court Convenes" is the title of tonight's service at the Purdom-Schaffner meetings.—Adv.

SOCIETY

The marriage of Miss Ruth E. Haven, of Woodburn, and H. E. Castle of this city, was solemnized at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage at Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday at 3 o'clock, August 10, when Rev. Thompson, pastor performed the impressive ring ceremony.

The bride's maid was Miss Lila M. Castle, sister of the bridegroom whose home is in Woodburn, and the best man was Robert W. Simmons of this city.

The bride was becomingly gowned in a traveling suit of blue with hat to match, and her corsage was of white carnations.

The bride's maid was also gowned in dark blue, and wore a corsage bouquet of pink carnations.

Following the marriage ceremony the bridal party returned to Portland where a dinner was enjoyed, and after a brief honeymoon the happy couple returned to Oregon City, where they have gone to housekeeping at 1209 Eleventh Street.

The bride is an attractive young woman, and has been a resident of Woodburn for the past year. Before making her home in that city she resided at Falls City, Oregon, where she has a host of friends. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Haven.

Mr. Castle is the son of Mrs. Effie Castle, of Woodburn, a well known resident of that city, and was among the first young men of Marion county to respond to his country's call.

He was a member of the 31st Regimental Band, and was first stationed at Vancouver Barracks, later being transferred to Manila, P. I., and then to Siberia, where he was stationed at Vladivostok, and was in the service for about two years, receiving his discharge from the army at the Presidio, California, October 23, 1919.

In January he came to Oregon City, where he has since been employed by the Crown Willamette Paper company. He is an active member of the Moose band.

A large audience attended the piano recital given at the home of Mrs. A. Thomas, at Hoff, Oregon, during the past week.

The principal part of the program was a demonstration of the Dunning system given by her summer class.

Those taking part were Irene Makluster, Ellen Santesson, Arlen Blumh, Genevieve Londergan, Lubelle Lindley, DeEtta Shaw, Genet Gwillim, and Laura Parry.

land, and are in the poultry industry, breeding White Leghorns, having engaged in the business while residing at Willamette and at Maple Lane. They have 800 pure-blooded birds on their farm this year, and have erected modern poultry buildings.

Mrs. Matt Smith, of North Bend, Oregon, who has been in this city and at Beaver Creek visiting relatives, the latter place being her former home, left Wednesday evening for her home. Mrs. Smith, formerly Miss Grace Bohlender, of this city, has been visiting her sister, of Enterprise, Oregon.

While at Beaver Creek she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bohlender, well known pioneer residents of that section of the county.

Mrs. C. B. Wilson and family left Wednesday morning for Rockaway to spend two weeks in the residence of Miss Hawley. Mr. Wilson and son, Bruce, who are hiking to Rockaway, from Seaside, have been heard from, and had remained at Seaside until the storm had passed over, so continued their journey Monday, when the weather was reported favorable.

John DeNeul, a prominent farmer of Stafford, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday. It was announced here that Mr. DeNeul had disposed of his farm including his fine walnut grove, but it was R. DeNeul, who sold his farm at Stafford to make his home in Oswego.

Mrs. Herman Fisher, of Redland, was in Oregon City Wednesday on her way to Portland to spend a few days visiting her aunt, Mrs. Graham, of Portland.

Charles Rider, of Greenwood, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

I. J. White, of McCoy, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. B. H. Stuart, of Linn's Old Mill, was among the Oregon City visitors Saturday. She and her children will leave today for Gervais to remain for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wilson have purchased three lots of Ed Park in Gladstone, where they have started to build a new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Legler left Saturday to spend the week-end with Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Mott, of Salem.

Mrs. Alex Simmons, of Estacada, is the week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. McCole.

Miss Hazel Brandell, of Portland, is spending several days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Haas.

Elmo Eby has returned after a week's outing with his cousin at Newberg.

Hear Ye! "Court Convenes" is the title of tonight's service at the Purdom-Schaffner meetings.—Adv.

Mrs. Herbert Martin, of Portland, visited her daughter, Mrs. William Folger, of this city, Thursday.

Mrs. Reed and daughter, Miss Lola Reed, are at Pacific City enjoying an outing.

Miss Norma Holman, whose engagement to Dr. O. H. Christofferson, of Seattle, was recently announced, was the guest of honor of a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening at the home of Miss Virginia Shaw, of Sixth and High streets, when about twelve friends of the bride elset attended.

The home of Miss Shaw was prettily decorated for the occasion, when roses and asters were used most effectively. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Miss Holman, who is one of the popular young women of this city was presented with many handsome gifts.

Her marriage is to take place early in September.

A surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Burr Tatrot at their home on High street, Friday evening, August 20, when a number of their friends called in a body to spend the evening, and was in the form of a farewell party before they leave for their future home at The Dalles, where Mr. Tatrot has taken a position in the high school.

The evening was spent in games, followed by serving ice cream and cake, and a most enjoyable time was had.

Attending were Bernita Jack, Lorena Jack, Donna Warner, Sidney Warner, Mrs. Crawford, Dorothy Stafford, Mrs. Cushing, Mrs. Malva Bolle, Neva Sterlie, Henry Rogers, Violet Roberts, Myrtle Henderson, Edgar Brock, Elva Linton, Lois Campbell, Eltha Kibby, Dennis Kibby, Everette Rosenbarn, John Legistan, Mrs. Hair, George Scouton, James Myers, Ruth Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Tatrot.

Last Wednesday evening a surprise shower was tendered Miss Alvena Scherzinger, of West Linn, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wegner, in honor of her approaching marriage to Anthony Wohl, of Duquesne, Pa.

The Wegner home was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The shower was arranged in a most unique and up to date manner and consisted of many beautiful and useful presents.

During the evening delicious refreshments were served and much pleasant chat, laughter, music and games were indulged in.

Those present were Margaret Gerber, Geanette Brozinsky, Naomi Lewis, Elsie Kay, Grace Helsby, Mary Scherzinger, Zelma McDonald, May

CANEMAH BOY HAS NARROW ESCAPE WHEN HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

Sammy Stevens, Jr., four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stevens, of Canemah, is suffering from severe bruises on the head and body caused by being run over by an automobile near the Stevens home on the highway Tuesday evening.

The little fellow did not see the approaching automobile, driven by a Portland man, who was on his way to Portland, when he started across the road. The boy was thrown beneath the car, which was brought to a sudden stop as the rear wheel struck the body, thus preventing the heavy car from passing over him.

The driver of the car gave every assistance and took the little fellow from under the car, and he was later carried to the family home by his cousin, Mildred Midlam, where the family physician was called, but who found no broken bones, except the scratches and bruises.

This is the third narrow escape the youngster has had this summer. Two previous times he has climbed upon the logs in the Willamette river near the Stevens home, but saved in the "nick" of time.

Japanese Gardener Loses Big Barn

A large barn on the Semmler farm at Damascus, leased by a Japanese gardener, was totally destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. In the barn was the new hay, farming machinery, automobile and tractor owned by the Japanese, who suffered a loss of $3000.

The fire is believed to have been started by a four-year-old son of the Japanese, who had been playing with matches, according to the neighbors, who assisted in saving the adjoining buildings. There was no livestock in the building at the time of the fire.

The Semmler place was formerly owned by the late Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cooke, parents of Postmaster Cooke, of this city, and A. W. Cooke, prominent farmer of Damascus.

ALLEGES ASSAULT

Charles F. Randall filed suit Wednesday against the Singer Sewing Machine company, asking $2,999 damages he alleges he suffered when attacked by two agents of the company.

According to the complaint Randall was agent for the defendant and owned a sewing machine, which he says that B. S. Miller and E. T. McKeever, supervising auditor and manager for the company, trespassed on plaintiff's property for the purpose of taking the machine, which they claimed. In resisting them the plaintiff alleges that he was attacked and hit on the head with a hammer and suffered much from loss of blood.

TO DEDICATE CHURCH

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of this city has announced that their church edifice will be dedicated on Sunday, September 5th. Services will be held at 10:45 A. M. A cordial invitation to be present is extended to all.

belle Pilkington, Addie Wright, Erna Limbcock, Donalds Vallerie, Martha McLarty, Lillian Lindquist, Francis Yeager, Mrs. Zola Smith, Mrs. Zora Leighton, Mrs. Wegner, Mrs. Emma Zirkel, Mrs. John Hickman, Mrs. Limbcock.

Miss Scherzinger has been a resident of West Linn since early childhood and is a most estimable young lady.

Mr. Wohl is a millwright by trade and was one of Uncle Sam's men, having enlisted in Pennsylvania in the early part of the war and was sent West and placed in the Spruce Division. While in the west he made the acquaintance of Miss Scherzinger and the approaching wedding is the culmination of the war romance.

Mr. Wohl expects to arrive from Pennsylvania soon and the young couple will make their home in West Linn.

Friday evening, September 14, is the time set for a benefit to be given the G. A. R. at the Star Theater under the management of Mrs. Walter Bennett and Mrs. Henry Henningsen, aides of the Women's Relief Corps, who have been appointed to give the entertainment. All throughout the United States the Relief Corps are giving a benefit for the G. A. R. of their different cities and towns, and the women of this city are trying to do their part to have a large fund raised for the Meade Post.

Among the features of the evening will be a Virginia Reel taken part in by a number of the old Civil War veterans, who will have as their partners other members wives instead of their own.

The marriage of Miss Lucy Violet Tate, youngest daughter of Mrs. Viola Tate, formerly of Oregon City, now of Wheeler, Oregon, and Lesley Massitt, of Wheeler, was solemnized at Vancouver, Wash., Saturday afternoon, August 23, when Rev. C. C. Curtis, pastor of the Christian church at Vancouver, performed the impressive ring ceremony. The ceremony was at the home of Rev. Curtis in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends of the young couple.

The bride was prettily gowned in white crepe de chine, and carried a shower bouquet of carnations.

Following a brief honeymoon, the young couple will return to Wheeler, where the bridegroom is employed.

The bride is well and favorably known in Canemah and Oregon City, where she has many friends, and was active in church work while here. She is the sister of Miss Clara Tate, of this city.

The bridegroom is one of the popular young men of Wheeler, where he has been employed for some time.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was a shower given at the home of Mrs. Clara Carpenter August 25, in honor of Miss Millie Yeager and Clifford Taft, who are to be married today, August 29, at 3 P. M., after which they will spend their honeymoon camping on the Columbia river.

Both are well and favorably known in Gladstone and Oregon City where they will reside.

The rooms of the Carpenter home were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns. After a delightful evening of music and various games, ice cream and cake were served.

Many useful and beautiful presents were received.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

Those present were Misses Millie Yeager, Marjorie Reed, Helen Carpenter, Francis Yeager, Lena Carpenter, Gladys Carpenter, Messrs. Clifford Taft, Eugene Vedder, Arleigh Reed, Dean Vedder, Ivan Menke, John Yeager, Sam Kimball, Roy Carpenter, and Mrs. Carpenter.

A delightful surprise shower was given Miss Barlowe Johnson Thursday evening by the Pythian Sisters at her home. A number of useful and beautiful presents were received including a set of silver sugar tonks and cake server from the Pythian Sisters, of which she is a member.

A most delightful evening was spent after which lunch was served. Those enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Johnson and Mesdames W. J. Wilson, Otto Erickson, W. A. White, Clemmie Wood, W. H. Smith, Bert Baxter, John Kent, Bud Simmons, Bert Hall, L. Y. Jenkins, Gussie Hall, Misses Uma Johnson, Helen Erickson and Bernice Johnson.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baker of Willamette Wednesday evening, August 18, when Miss Vera Eva Williams of this city, became the bride of Otto Albert Werner, brother of Mrs. Baker. The impressive ring ceremony was performed beneath a handsome white floral bell by Rev. A. J. Ware, of this city.

The living room where the ceremony was performed was beautifully decorated in roses and sweet peas, white and green being the color scheme, while the dining room, where the wedding dinner was served, was in pink, pink sweet peas and roses being used.

The bride was handsomely gowned in white satin, with overdress of white net, and wore a large white hat.

Only immediate relatives attended the marriage ceremony.

The young couple have taken up their residence at the Williams home on Molalla Avenue, where they will be at home to their friends.

The bride is a popular girl of this city, and for the past six months has been connected with the Kendrick store, and previous to that was for about a year connected with a music store, being an accomplished pianist. She was a student of the Oregon City high school for two years, and is the youngest daughter of Horace Williams of this city and of the late Mrs. Dora Williams, having always made her home in Oregon City, where she has a host of friends.

Mr. Werner, who has been for the past year employed by the Oregon City Sand and Gravel company, is well and favorably known here. He was in the service during the world war.

Oswego Lake, one of the most picturesque spots in Clackamas county, was the destination of a merry party from this city and Portland last Sunday, when they arrived at that resort about 1 o'clock. Dinner served beneath the shade of the trees and along the banks of the water. The afternoon was devoted to rowing and bathing, and in the evening supper was served, when corn was roasted over a fire and hot coffee served with other eatables to satisfy the appetites.

The return trip was made about 9:30 after having one of the