Chandler, rector officiating. Only immediate friends of the contracting parties will attend, and following the ceremony Dr. Christofferson and bride will leave on their honeymoon and later take up their residence at Seattle.

The Ladies of the St. Paul's Guild

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON - Is maintained by the state in order that the young people of Oregon may receive, without cost, the benefits of a liberal education.

The University includes the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, the Graduate School, the School of Physical Education, and the professional Schools of Law, Medicine (at Portland), Architecture, Commerce, Journalism, Education and Music. High standards of scholarship are made possible by an able faculty, well equipped laboratories and a library of nearly 100,000 volumes. Supervised athletics are encouraged and every attention given the health and welfare of the students. With a heightened confidence gained by the recent expression of public support, the University is now entering upon an era of large development and extended usefulness. For a catalogue or for any information, address: THE REGISTRAR, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon.

of the St. Paul's Episcopal church commenced their fall work, after the summer vacation, Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank T. Barlow at Gladstone, which proved a most interesting meeting and a portion of the afternoon was devoted to a social time, after the business had been transacted.

The early part of the afternoon was devoted to the arrangements of a dahlia show and food sale and entertainment to be given in the near future at the parish house at Ninth and Main streets.

Committees were appointed, and the chairman will appoint their assistants in the near future.

The chairman of each committee are as follows: Dahlia show, Mrs. Frank T. Barlow and Mrs. Thomas Warner; food sale, Mrs. Robert Goodfellow; silver tea, Mrs. H. N. Templeton, Mrs. Charles Priestler and Mrs. James Dawson; entertainment, Mrs. Walter Bennett.

As the dahlias are of gorgeous coloring this year, the women having charge of the show are looking forward to having one of the most successful shows of this kind held in Oregon City. There are a number of women in this city, who are interested in the growth of these blossoms and who are contemplating making an entry. Mrs. Barlow, who is one of the most active women of the county engaged in growing dahlias, having any of the rare blossoms, had her home beautifully decorated with many handsome flowers.

Attending were Mrs. H. L. Kelly, Mrs. Mary E. Barlow, Mrs. George A. Peterson, of this city, was solemnized at the Baptist parsonage, Saturday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, with Rev. Pettibone, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. The wedding was of a very quiet affair, and attended by only relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Philip Hampton Thearle, and the bridegroom by Mr. Thearle. A becoming gown of navy blue with chic urban to match was worn by the bride.

Following the marriage ceremony the young couple left for a brief honeymoon, and upon their return took up their residence in Busch's apartments on Twelfth and Main streets.

The bride, who is a charming young woman, has made her home continuously in this city, where she is well and favorably known. For some time she has been employed as an operator for the Pacific Telephone company, and will continue her duties with the company for the present.

Mr. Peterson, who was in the service during the world war, has resided here for about a year and a half, and is employed by the Oregon City Sand & Gravel company. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Peterson, of Renneville, Minn., where the young man resided before entering the service.

Dr. and Mrs. David Catto entertained last Sunday at a dinner in honor of their nephew, Cleo Howell, who left Monday for Forest Grove, where he has entered the Pacific University.

The table was prettily decorated to correspond with the decorations of the dining room. Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Howell, Cleo and Merle Howell, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Eaton, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. David Catto and sons, Elvin and Everette, of Gladstone.

Misses Alice Freytag and Fayne Burdon of Gladstone, went to Portland Tuesday where they were joined by some girl friend forming a theatre party at the Baker in the evening. Miss Burdon left Thursday for Corvallis where she will take a special course at O. A. C. She will be a guest at the Pi Beta Phi house, of which she is a member.

An enjoyable affair was held at the home of Miss Gladys Blount Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Ralph Johnson, nee Zella McFarlane, in the form of a miscellaneous shower. The rooms of the Blount home were decorated with dahlias and cosmos. The table was decorated with two cupids in the center and tiny cupid placards. The evening was spent in music and games after which refreshments were served, Miss Blount being assisted by her mother Mrs. A. Blount. Those attending were Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Misses Alice Freytag, Fayne Burdon, Clara Davis, Genevieve Evon, Helen Carpenter, Marjorie Reed, Helen Buont and Gladys Blount.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolrich entertained at dinner in a most charming manner at their home Thursday evening. The living rooms were decorated profusely with dainty pink and lavender asters and sweet peas with tiny candles and pink shades.

The evening was spent with both instrumental and vocal music. Covers were laid for the following Mr. and Mrs. H. Wolrich, Ralph and Miss The marriage of Mrs. Fay Argo and George Welles, both of Cincinnati, Ohio, was solemnized at the parsonage of the First Congregational church in Portland Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Rev. McEldown, pastor officiating, in the presence of a few relatives of the contracting parties. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

The bride, who is a most attractive young woman, was gowned in a gray with large black picture hat.

Miss Emma Shriver, of Portland, sister of the bride, was the bride's maid, and Thomas Gregory, of this city, nephew of the bridegroom, was the best man.

Following the marriage a wedding dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Gregory, of Oregon City, Route 1, the latter a sister of Mrs. Welles.

The Gergory rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion, when ferns and fall flowers and autumn leaves were used most artistically.

Among those attending the wedding were Mrs. E. R. Gregory and son, city; Miss Emma Shriver and Miss Kathryn Shriver, of Portland.

After visiting for about a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. Welles will leave for their future home in San Francisco. The bride has visited in this city on several occasions, and is a most charming young woman. She arrived in Oregon City a few days ago from Cincinnati, and before her marriage was a guest of her sister, Mrs. E. R. Gregory. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Shriver, pioneers of Cincinnati.

The bridegroom is a railroad man, and has recently come to the Western coast from Cincinnati, and being so favorably impressed with the coast states, decided to locate in California. He is the son of Mrs. William Weller, of Wisconsin.

Mildred Wolrich, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Legler and daughter Mildred, Miss Isa Keen, Miss Gertrude Hamilton and Waldo Silvers.

Rev. B. F. Clay and wife of Gladstone entertained the young folks of the Christian church in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taft who were recently married. Mrs. Taft was formerly Miss Millie Yeager, both are very popular in this community. About 25 were present.

Ice cream and cake was served and a most delightful time was reported.

Miss Anna McMillin, of Gladstone, entertained a few friends informally on Monday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Gault. Mrs. Gault left Wednesday for New York to visit her parents. She expects to be gone for several months.

Mrs. Marjorie Hawley entertained Saturday evening at her home on Eighth and Center streets in honor of Miss Rose Uptegrove, of Portland, whose engagement to Kent Moody, of this city, was recently announced. The affair was in the form of a shower, and many pretty gifts were presented to the bride-elect.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brodie, Dr. and Mrs. Austin Huyck, Miss Sadye Evelyn Ford and Mrs. Lawrence.

DIVER FINDS AUTO.

Through the fact that an automobile really had plunged from a cliff into the Sandy river was established when the machine was dragged from the river depths yesterday, the reason for the plunge and the possibility of there having been any occupants at the time remained a mystery at the conclusion of an exhaustive investigation.

Investigators believe it unlikely, however, that anyone went down with the car.

The automobile was owned by H. B. Watt, shipyard worker living at 561 East Twenty-sixth street Portland. He reported to the police and sheriff's office on the morning of August 31 that his car had been stolen from his garage some time the night before. The machine given up by the river plunged into its watery bed about 2 o'clock on the morning of August 31, according to campers nearby who were disturbed by the crash. It was insured.

McCLOUD FUNERAL MONDAY.

The remains of the late Mrs. Mary McCloud, of Salem, but a former resident of Oregon City, were brought to Oregon City Monday afternoon, and funeral services were held at the Mountain View cemetery at 4 o'clock, with Rev. Aldrich, of Salem, officiating. Many friends of the deceased accompanied the remains to this city.

Mrs. McCloud has resided in Oregon for many years, and moved to Salem several years ago. Her age was 70 years, and she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ella Parvin, formerly of this city, now of Glendale, Oregon; a son in the East, and grandson, of this city.

KILLS LARGE COUGAR.

Joe and Frank Doogie, well known hunters of Clackamas county, whose home is at Colton, killed a large cougar that measured six and one-half feet long, Sunday. The animal had been causing the farmers and stockmen of that section considerable trouble recently, devouring some of the best sheep in that section. A few nights ago Mr. Grace lost six sheep, and a portion of their bodies had been partly buried by the animal. The Doogie brothers set watch and with their hunting hounds, secured the animal shortly after the last sheep had been killed.

C-W WIN AND LOSE.

The Crown-Willamette boys dropped their afternoon game Sunday to the Hesse-Martin bunch 2 to 1 and won the morning canto from Arlet W. O. W. 12 to 11 in 11 innings.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 18.—Judge George G. Bingham of the circuit court here, who became suddenly ill in his office yesterday with an ailment which was reported to be partial paralysis, is back at work today in apparent normal condition.

MRS EFFIE WINFREE IS GRANTED DIVORCE AND YOUNGER CHILD

Mrs. Effie Winfree was granted a divorce Tuesday from Phillip Winfree, who she had sued on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. Mrs. Winfree was given the custody of the younger child and $12 per month while Mr. Winfree was given the custody of the older child.

The Winfree first came into the limelight here about a year ago when Mrs. Winfree, who at that time was divorced from her husband, robbed the bank at Aurora of over $6000 while employed there. She claimed that she took the money and gave it to her husband, hoping this would bring about a reconciliation. Winfree hid the money on his place near Sandy and most of it was afterwards recovered by Sheriff Wilson and the case was dropped by the bank.

Some time after the Winfree were remarried and made their home at Sandy. A month ago Mrs. Winfree had her husband arrested on charges of assault and battery. He was found guilty in the justice court and fined $40 and costs. He appealed the case and will be tried at a future date.

WALNUT CROP ON NIEDERHAUSEN PLACE IS BELOW LAST YEAR

F. de Niederhausen, one of the prominent farmers of Clackamas county, and an enthusiastic grower of walnuts, was in Oregon City on business Friday. Mr. Niederhausen, together with his brother, Walter Niederhausen, planted some of the ground to this variety of nuts about ten years ago, and says the crop this year will not be as large as that of last year, owing to the severe cold winter experienced, but he believes the nuts will be of excellent variety, and already a number of orders have come in for his product. Several of the trees were damaged so badly by the cold weather that they are useless this year, and 50 chestnut trees out of 75 have died, besides some of his best apple trees. These will be replaced with other trees of the same varieties. He expects to harvest about 400 pounds of nuts from 100 trees this fall, the crop to be ready for marketing about the latter part of October or November 1st.

Hunters Secure Limit of Deer

A hunting party composed of John F. Clark and Richard Bittner, of this city; Frank Tiner of Dallas, Stuart Steine, of Portland, have returned from their trip in Southern Oregon. Clark and Bittner were the luckiest men of the bunch, each getting the limit. After partaking of all they desired in the mountains, they managed to bring six deer home with them. Mr. Clark secured a pair of fine antlers and brought them home to be mounted. Mr. Clark has been on a hunting expedition every year since 1894 except one year, and said that the deer were scarcer this hunting season than at any time he has seen. One of the deer that Clark brought home was shot three times before it was brought down. The first shots struck him in the back while the third was in the neck, the shot breaking the animal's neck.

The men also brought home some dried venison, and friends were reminded with some of the fresh and dried meat.

YOUNG ROBBERS CAUGHT.

Conrad Krigbaum, George Barr, Arthur Norris, Harje and Harold Sarvey, and Stanley Bellis, boys of Estacada whose ages are from 13 to 17, were
