G.O.P. NOMINEE PROMISES NEW ADMINISTRATION

MARION, O., Sept. 25.—An era of business stability and of business-like government was promised by Senator Harding today in a front porch speech to a gathering of several thousand commercial travelers who came from all parts of the country, under the auspices of the Harding and Coolidge Traveling Men's league.

The business methods of the Democratic administration, both in the conduct of its own affairs and in its relations to private enterprise, were denounced by the Republican nominee as "meddling and autocratic," to a degree threatening industrial chaos. He outlined a policy of common counsel in contrast to "one man judgment," and pledged himself to "an idealism based on such sense that it does not treat the nation's business with suspicion and contempt."

"I believe that everyone in the land," said Senator Harding, "there is the opinion that we have had centralized; in executive powers enough of autocratic government unwilling to heed counsel and advice; enough of government which ignores the representative branch and its close contact with the popular will. I want it very explicitly understood that my election to the executive office means a complete change from the one-man policy which has characterized our national government during the past seven years."

SECRETARY SAYS POLITICS RULE LEGION PAPERS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The Stars and Stripes, a soldier publication, is controlled by the Democratic national committee, and the American Legion Weekly, another soldier publication, is controlled by the Republican national committee, Joseph Heffernan, secretary-treasurer of the Stars and Stripes Publishing company, testified today before the senate campaign investigating committee.

The right of Senator Edgar, Republican of New Jersey, to participate in any investigation by the senate campaign investigating committee into the political activities of the Stars and Stripes, was challenged before the committee by Heffernan, who said he had information that Senator Hedge was involved in "some scheme, whatever it is, against us."

Heffernan previously had testified that his paper, despite "a bona fide circulation" of 100,000, had been unable to obtain advertising. He said he had information that Senator Edge recently had participated in conferences with men interested in preventing the Stars and Stripes from obtaining advertising.

Senator Edge demanded the name of the person who had informed Heffernan, and was finally told that Richard S. Jones, an associate in the Stars and Stripes office, was the man. Jones was ordered subpoenaed.

Montana Man Is Champion Rider

PENDLETON, Or., Sept. 25.—Tex Smith of Miles City, Mont., won the title of championship bucking horse rider of the world in the finals of this event held before a crowd of 30,000 persons, who attended the last day of the 11th annual Round-up held here this afternoon.

The new champion won the title over two ex-champions, Enos A. ("Yakima") Canutt, Colfax, Wash., champion last year and in 1919, and Hugh Strickland, Fort Worth, Tex., title winner in 1918, who rode with him in the finals today and Canutt third.

Smith won third place in the bucking annual last year in the Round-up here. Today he beat Sam Jackson in a pretty ride which brought the crowd to its feet. As winner he takes $450 in cash and the $500 hand made saddle.

City To Have New Brass Works

J. Rohrbach, a resident of this city for the past year, is to open a brass foundry in the old water commission house near Willamette Valley Southern station, and will handle the work of the Crown-Willamette and the Canas paper mills along this line as well as outside work.

Mr. Rohrbach is experienced in the brass foundry business, having handled this for the Pacific Mills Ocean Falls for three years.

AMERICA'S TASK IN HAITI FINISHED IS CLAIMED BY COLBY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Secretary Colby announced that the "benevolent purpose" of this country's occupation of the island of Haiti was "near" attainment, and declared, in a statement last night, that the United States "hopes" to withdraw and leave the island's administration to the "unaided efforts of the Haitian people when that purpose has been fully achieved."

The relations of the United States with Haiti, he added, "should not be misrepresented even under the temptations of a political campaign presents to irresponsible utterances and conscious untruths."

While not relying directly to recent charges by Senator Harding that the administration was conducting "unconstitutional warfare" against Haiti and San Domingo, Secretary Colby defended American occupation of those countries as being guided by "no thought except to help" their people.

Senator Harding's attack on the administration's record in Haiti was made in connection with a criticism of recent statements in regard to the island by Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic vice-presidential nominee.

Three Wounded In Dublin Riots

DUBLIN, Sept. 24.—Reports today recorded the shooting of Sergeant McGuire at Ferbane, while making an arrest. He was taken to a hospital in a critical condition.

Constable DeGhugue was wounded from ambush at Newcastle and died. A publican at Balingass was fired upon and wounded seriously yesterday while a constable was wounded at the same time. Two civilians while passing the barracks in Abbeyteale, county Limberick, failed to halt when challenged. The police fire, wounding both.

Several Snowbound At Crater Lake

MEDFORD, Sept. 24.—Seven touring cars were snowbound at Crater Lake yesterday, and the stage which arrived last night had to be hauled by a government team from the rim of the lake one mile to the government camp through snow from three feet to seventeen inches in depth, according to reports from passengers on the stage.

As snow is still falling, it may be several days before all the cars are able to get out if they did not get out yesterday.

There is plenty of food at the lodge, and plenty of warmth, however, so there will be no serious suffering. The snowstorm has effectively closed the season of 1920, which was to have been closed officially October 1.
