

NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTY

Correspondence From All Over the County Telling of Improvements and Local Happenings During The Past Week—Your Subscription Will Receive Prompt Attention.

Macksburg Mothers Club Meets Thursday

MACKSBURG, Oct. 20.—Most of the song-birds have gone on their journey south, but this only makes the note of our tiny soloist, the meadow-lark more charming as he carols to tell us that when all other songsters fall and the flowers cease to be he will remain to brighten the winter day.

The small circle of friends who became acquainted with Herick P. Nichols of Chicago in his visits to this place will be grieved to hear of his death, which took place last month in a Tuberculosis Hospital in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The Mother's Club is to meet Oct. 21, at the home of its secretary.

Roy Yoder is preparing to take his family to his newly-purchased farm in Alberta, Canada, early in the coming spring.

Jess Nofziger is still working in the harvest fields of Canada.

Glade Hepler put his new auto in use on Sunday last by taking his father and mother to spend the day with their daughter Mrs. Will Roth.

George Sutherland whose serious illness was mentioned in a late copy of this paper, is thought to be slightly better, now.

The ranch, formerly owned by Mr. Westberg which has been empty for over a year is now occupied by friends of Rev. Glinrich of the Minnesota Community. Mr. Glinrich, having bought the place some time ago.

MRS. CHRISTENSEN SURPRISED

MOUNTAIN ROAD, October 21.—Mrs. Neils Christensen of Mountain Road was delightfully surprised Sunday afternoon October 17, when about 40 friends and relatives gathered at her home to wish her a happy birthday.

Mrs. Christensen was 50 years old, and a large birthday cake with 50 pink candles was presented to her. This cake was cut in 40 pieces and much merriment was caused by the finding of the ring by Chris Christensen, the silver piece by Ellen Christensen, the bachelor button by Edward Christensen and the thimble by Alice Moser.

The afternoon was spent in playing games and music. During the afternoon, delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Christensen received many beautiful and useful presents.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Meiser and children, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Iderhoff and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Koellmeier and children, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koellmeier, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stockley of Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Moehnik and daughter of Beaver Creek, Miss Emilie Toedtermeier, Miss Maggie Toedtermeier, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boeckman and son Raymond, Mrs. Lou Koellmeier and daughter, Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. Neils Christensen, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Neils Christensen, Jr., of Willamette, Mrs. Alfred Koehler and children of Portland, Mr.

and Mrs. Chris Christensen of Estacada, Edward Christensen of Madras, John Christensen, of Redland, Miss Ellen Christensen, Walter Christensen, John Wagley and Fred Christensen.

MOUNTAIN ROAD, Oct. 20.—The rain is making the roads very muddy in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Bersey and children of Willamette have moved out in this district to the Laura Dollar place. There will be three more children added to the school.

Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. J. Kaiser motored to Deer Island Saturday and Sunday.

A surprise birthday party was given Mrs. N. Christensen Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Belding of Portland have moved to their new home on Peters Mountain.

Among the Oregon City visitors Saturday were: Mrs. Rypynski and son, Leo, Frank Kelerioter, Fred and Ed Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Hodge and sons Dewarg and Donald and daughter Bernice.

Damascus News.

DAMASCUS, Oct. 21.—Hugh Leigh moved onto his farm last week. There is talk of the electric lights to be established here in the near future. The poles are strung along from Sycamore to Damascus for some distance.

Plowing is on the stand still now owing to so much rain.

Our telephone is out of commission now and has been for over a week and no one seems to have time to repair it.

The Foster road is in poor condition for there are fillings that need repair, such as filling up holes, and there is considerable travel.

Mrs. Henry Hillery, who has been visiting her sister, has returned to her home, and reports that the water was poor, to much alkali for her. She was in Eastern Oregon.

Miss Clara Lingle spent the week end at home with her father and mother, returning to her school Sunday evening.

Mrs. John Moar is still on the sick list.

Union Mill Notes

UNION MILLS, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Fred Howard and children, Bertha, Opal and Elmon of Portland spent the week end at Rose Mulvaney's.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Korjula and daughter of Portland, also Mr. and Mrs. D. Hakkinen and children spent Sunday with O. F. Johnson.

Bertha Howard and Elizabeth Emig spent Sunday with the R. L. Orem family.

Martin and Harold Johnson motored up from Corvallis Friday to spend the week end at home. They were accompanied by Professor and Mrs. Mireen, also Mrs. Thomas Vennice.

Mrs. D. Hakkinen spent a few days of the past week in Portland.

The Chindgren Bros. are filling silos for several of the farmers in this vicinity.

SURPRISE PARTIES ARE FREQUENT IN STAFFORD DISTRICT

STAFFORD, Oct. 21.—Surprise parties have been the order for the past few weeks. In addition to the party given to Mr. and Mrs. Weddie when they left for their new home near Albany, and the one to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oldenstadt last week, Monday evening, to bid them good bye, when they were about to move to Portland. The Ladies Circle of Stafford met on Thursday last with full baskets and birthday present, to celebrate the birthday of M. A. Gage. Seventeen ladies and five children children came, and spent a delightful day and the dinner table was loaded with the goods things that farmers wives know so well how to prepare. Then Sunday as many of the Oswego Grange as could get there came in a body to also celebrate her birthday and five of her six remaining children also came, making over thirty to partake of the excellent picnic dinner provided by the guests. and beautiful presents came with each party, and both gatherings were a complete surprise to Mrs. Gage.

On Friday last Mrs. Agnes Howard of Watsburg Washington came to visit friends and relatives in Stafford where she spent the days of her childhood and youth.

Mr. and Mrs. Oldham took dinner last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gill who are old Redland friends.

The bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schantz are settled down in the old home.

A good deal of plowing is being done in spite of the frequent rains.

The old Hayes house has been newly shingled and other repairs made by the new owner Mr. Seige.

Mrs. Hiesgen motored to Oregon City last Friday.

The electric light company of Wilsonville has come as far towards Stafford as eGo. Aden's place.

Lad Hill Club to Elect Officers Nov. 6

LAD HILL, Oct. 21.—Archie McCutley has gone to Hood River to pick apples.

Ruben Kramien, who has been working in Portland, spent the week end with his father, Gus Kramien.

There will be a dance at Lad Hill Club House Saturday, Oct. 23. Everybody welcome and a good time assured.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Parrott and family of Portland spent Sunday visiting relatives in Lad Hill.

Geo. Smith and family spent Sunday at the home of Rufe Briston's on Parrott Mountain.

Lad Hill will celebrate Halloween on Saturday, October 30. Plans are to have two excellent speakers out from Oregon City, and after the speaking will have a party and refreshments. Everybody welcome.

The Lad Hill Commercial Club met at its regular meeting Saturday. There was a good attendance. The next meeting will be November, 6, at which time new officers will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutton are back in Lad Hill again.

Mrs. Viola Sellwood has gone to Portland to stay for the winter. She has rented her place to a man and his wife from Portland.

Redland Operator Leaves Switchboard

REDLAND, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Thilie Bittenour, the Redland telephone central, was quite pleasantly surprised Saturday, October 16, by about twenty four ladies of the neighborhood. The ladies met at the Redland store and from there went to Mrs. Bittenour's office. The surprise was complete in every detail as the eats were not forgotten and as each one carried a little token of appreciation for the courteous treatment rendered to each over the wire. Mrs. Bittenour has been at the switch board for several years and has the respect of everyone and each one is sorry she is leaving but these secrets will find their way out and Mrs. Bittenour's happy secret did likewise: "Tilly" will become a bride soon and each present she received was useful to her in her new home and each lady wished her much happiness. Those present were Mrs. Lester Schwartz, Mrs. Joseph Schwartz, Mrs. E. R. Leek, Mrs. H. P. Gross and son Robert, Mrs. Wm. Lewis, Mrs. B. B. Abbott, Mrs. Carl Staab, Mrs. Wm. Romney and baby Edna, Mrs. Wm. Cummings and daughters Ruth and Olive, Mrs. G. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Cook Fouts, Mrs. Gus Leach, Miss Helen Smith, Mrs. A. Warren, Mrs. Otto Fisher, Mrs. J. J. Hinkle, Mrs. Tenny and Mrs. B. H. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Hammond gave a dance in their new home near here Saturday night, October 16. Quite a number from here attended and report a good time.

Linns Old Mill

LINNS OLD MILL, Oct. 21.—Solon A. Bray has bought about fifty goats and turned them out on his ranch.

Mr. Howard from Bend has moved on to the Morrow ranch.

Mr. Young from Madison, Wis. has moved to the ranch vacated by B. H. Stewart.

H. E. Gibson and sons Orvell and picking.

Mr. and Mrs. eGo. Clossner attended the Hammond dance Saturday night.

POMONA GRANGE IS HONORED WEDNESDAY BY ENTERTAINMENT

LOGAN, Oct. 21.—Mr. Aerni is having a well drilled on his farm near North Logan and not far from the well was drilled which proved to be an artesian one, as the water flows continuously.

Lines Anderson entertained a number of her little friends Saturday, Oct. 2, it being in honor of her ninth birthday.

Clackamas County Pomona Grange was entertained by Harding No. 122 on Wednesday, the 13th. The date however or the inclement weather did not keep the crowd at home. Many visitors were present including State Master Spence and wife, Mary S. Howard, Mr. Upson head of the State Co-operative Poultry Association, Mr. Hurd, who is head of the herd of county agents, J. J. Johnson, master of Evening Star Grange and many others. A chicken dinner was served at noon along with collies of other good things. The long tables in the spacious dining room looked tempting and beautiful with large bouquet of dahlias for decoration. A profusion of the same flowers adorned the main hall. It being the election month, officers were elected in the late afternoon, Master M. Glover, Mrs. Davis of Garfield, was elected Secretary, as Mrs. Johnson who has served for many years did not wish to any longer. Mrs. Blanche Hoffman was re-elected as Lecturer. Mr. Spence explained the Oismargarine bill and Mr. Upson the Poultry question. A large class took the fifth degree, and a musical concluded the evening.

L. H. Kirchem was a Logan visitor and attended the Pomona Wednesday.

Mrs. Sophia Strohm entertained a number of relatives Sunday last, it being her birthday.

Grandpa Taylor, father of Rev. Oswald Taylor of Portland, is here from Canada making his home with another son on the Taylor farm.

Albert Geber quit work at Jefferson with his truck and went to Hood River.

The ladies of Hadling Grange met at the Hall and cleaned house Saturday last.

William, Hugh and S. G. Kirchem, of Upper Logan returned from a hunting trip in Southern Oregon after having secured three deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith returned from a trip to their homestead near Creswell bringing back a load of things they had left there. Mrs. Griffith is a native daughter of Logan and now past the three score and ten mark. She intends visiting her granddaughter soon at Vancouver.

Mrs. Polson is visiting her nephews Charles and Ralph Track of Upper Logan.

Alma, Bertha and John Boss attended the fair at Gresham one day "breaking in" their new Ford.

Mrs. N. L. Kirchem visited her parents at Estacada Sunday last.

Mrs. J. B. Smith, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Jennie, of Salt Lake Utah are visiting her daughter Mrs. E. S. Cromer of Upper Logan.

The proprietors of the Lower Logan store are installing a roller mill and will grind feed, etc., for the public.

P. M. Kirchem took a load of fat hogs to the stock yards Wednesday, receiving the notch price for them.

Kelso People Plan Splendid Program

KELSO, Oct. 20.—A Halloween tin-pail and shadow social will be given at the Kelso school house on Saturday evening, October 30, under the auspices of the Kelso Ladies' Club. There will be a program, and Halloween features. Shadows will be sold, the tin pail lunch to go with the shadow, at a moderate price. Ladies are requested to bring tin pail or box lunches. Those who do not bring a tin-pail lunch, please bring a cake or a pie. Coffee, pie and cake will also be sold at a moderate price. All are cordially invited to attend. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the school.

Some excitement was caused at the Jonard-Gunderson mill one day last week when some loose bolts played havoc with the planer which is an unusually large one and was running full blast. For a few minutes the air was filled with bolts, knives and castings, but due to the presence of mind of the planerman, Martin Lennartz, who stopped the machine, no one was injured and the planer escaped very serious damage. Mr. Bancroft who was offbearing also had a narrow escape.

T. B. Bowen and family, who recently sold their place here and moved to Sandy will move to Oregon City to make their home shortly.

Joel Jari reports that his wife is rapidly improving in health. She recently visited John Strauss' fine home near San Diego. Mr. Strauss who is well known here, has not fully recovered from hurts received when his auto truck tipped over some time ago, but is able to work around his place.

Robert Jonard has traded in his Paige car for a new Ford.

Henry Eri has a new Ford.

The Jonard-Gunderson Lumber company recently purchased forty acres of timber from Henry Herman.

The Toller family has moved to Sandy from the Haley place here which they rented.

The Lilly family who recently sold their farm here and went to Sandy, will soon move to a farm near Corvallis.

Wilsonville School to Hold Big Social

WILSONVILLE, Oct. 21.—The Stangel brothers are enjoying their annual hunting trip in Southern Oregon.

The Wilsonville public school will hold a Halloween social on Friday evening, Oct. 29th, in the school house, at eight o'clock, and a good program and supper is being planned by the teachers, assisted by the members of the Parent-teachers association. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

Attorneys O. D. Eby and W. M. Stone, of Oregon City held a debate in our village on Wednesday evening, the topic being "The League of Nations," but on account of the bad weather and roads, there was not a very good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Bliss, and family, of Gooding, Idaho, have moved to Wilsonville, and Mr. Bliss is assisting in the store of his son-in-law, H. D. Aden.

M. D. Say, has taken over the work of ferry-man, having resigned his position at Aden's store last week.

Mrs. Reed Graham was on the Sherwood Grange fair committee last week and through her energy quite a number of exhibits were made from near this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. P. McMillan who spent the summer at the farm of their daughter, Mrs. H. D. Say, have arrived safely at their Californian home.

The Corral Creek bridge has been improved by the work done on it the past week, under the direction of H. Jost.

A democratic meeting held here recently was not well attended, on account of it being held on Saturday evening, when the I. O. O. F. were having an important meeting. The speakers of the evening were Messrs. Glover, Beatie, Hedges and Mass.

Miss Bettie Batalgia, Mrs. Elmer Joens and Gerald Baker, won several prizes for various exhibits at the Grange fair, held at Sherwood last Saturday.

There will be a Republican rally held in Wilsonville on the evening of October 27th, at the A. O. W. W. hall, to which all are invited. There will be several speakers to talk on political affairs.

Mrs. S. G. Rosier and children of Hoodport, Oregon, are visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kylo.

Mrs. A. P. Kylo has been on the sick list for a couple of months, is feeling better.

Mrs. Haries Roster of Garden Home visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kylo.

Meadowbrook News.

MEADOWBROOK, Oct. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davidson of Portland have been visiting with Mrs. Davidson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Coover, the past week.

There will be a Literary at the school house Saturday evening, October 23.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Hellbacke were given a surprise a few days ago, the occasion being their silver wedding anniversary. They received many nice presents.

Fred Blackman and family moved to Union Mills Saturday where he has bought some land.

Miss Henderson, the Chindgren young folks and Glenn Larkins attended the Luther League Social at Oscar Hall's of Colton Wednesday evening. Miss Henderson spent her week end in Oregon City.

Roy Sullivan made a business trip to Oregon City Saturday returning home Sunday.

Elmira Matson left for Portland Monday where she expects to attend school this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holman are visiting in Molalla with their son, Ralph and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Helms and daughter have moved back to Meadowbrook.

SUES ON NOTE.

E. P. Stromgren filed suit Tuesday against Carl J. and Victoria Renhart to collect on a note given in Minnesota June 1, 1918, for $600.

According to the complaint only $280 has been paid and a settlement of $399.25, the balance of the principle and interest is asked.

PREMIUM LIST FOR COUNTY FAIR

(Continued from Oct. 8.)

FARM PRODUCE DEPT.

Div. H. Class 51.—Best 3 sun flowers. Andrew Koehler, Canby, 1st.

Best 6 redmangel wurtzels. Geo. Eranzel, Oregon City, two 1sts.

Best exhibit of millet. R. J. Bobuhr, Canby, 2nd; Mrs. Annie Gibson, Aurora, 1st.

Best exhibit of squash and pumpkin. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st.

Class 52.—Shelled grains and seeds.—Best 1/2 bu. winter wheat. G. Harus, Aurora; Paul Jaeger, Sherwood, 2nd.

Best 1/2 bu. spring wheat. O. R. Daugherty, Molalla, 1st; Paul Jaeger, Sherwood, 2nd.

Best 1/2 bu. gray oats. Paul Jaeger, Sherwood, 1st.

Best 1/2 bu. spring oats. Paul Jaeger, Sherwood, 1st; Clarence Burgess, Canby, 2nd.

Best 1/2 bu. rye. Herman Harnes, Aurora, 1st; Paul Jaeger, Sherwood, 2nd.

Best peck vetch seed. Paul Jaeger, Sherwood, 1st.

Best peck field peas. George Ingram, Oregon City 1st; P. A. Weber, Canby, 2nd.

Best 1/2 bu. black oats. O. R. Daugherty, Molalla, 1st.

Class 53.—Corn.—Best 12 ears yellow dent. Fred Stoller, Canby, 1st.

Best 12 ears sweet corn. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 2nd.

Best 12 ears pop corn. Imer Rice, Canby, 1st.

Class 54.—Grains and grasses.—Best sheaf of fall wheat. C. M. Spencer, Aurora, 1st.

Class 55.—See beans, peas and forage seeds.—Best 1 qt. Lady Washington beans. H. C. Hartman, Canby, 1st; Andrew Koehler, Canby, 2nd.

Best 4M. Onnnonff-mbf gwkrqq Quart Davis kidney wax beans, Augusta Jaeger, Sherwood, 1st.

Quart Kentuck Wonder. H. C. Hartman, Canby, 1st; Andrew Koehler, Canby, 2nd.

Quart Oregon pole Lima. Andrew Koehler, Canby, 1st; H. C. Hartman, Canby, 2nd.

Quart colored beans. Andrew Koehler, Canby, 1st; H. C. Hartman, Canby, 2nd.

Best exhibit of peas or beans in qt. jar. Andrew Koehler, Canby 1st; H. C. Hartman, Canby, 2nd.

Class 55 1/2.—Vegetables exhibits.—Best federal ex. grown by 1 person. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st.

Best 6 table beets. H. J. Bigger, 1st.

Best 3 cabbages. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st; J. W. Stone, Oswego, 2nd.

Best display of cabbage. H. J. Bigger, 1st.

Best 6 cauliflower. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 2nd.

Best 6 cucumbers. Augusta Jaeger, Sherwood, 1st; H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 2nd.

Best 6 Kohl Rabi. H. C. Hartman, Canby, 1st.

Best 12 onions. Paul Jaeger, Sherwood, 1st; H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 2nd.

Best onion sets. H. C. Stowe, Barlow, 1st.

Best 6 carrots. H. C. Stowe, Barlow, 1st; H. C. Hartman, Canby, 2nd.

Best 3 cantaloupes. C. M. Swinney, Hubbard, 1st.

Best 6 peppers. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st; Augusta Jaeger, Sherwood, 2nd.

Best 3 pumpkins. Andrew Koehler, Canby, 1st; J. W. Stone, Oswego, 2nd.

Best 3 squash. H. C. Sturve, Barlow, 1st; H. C. Hartman, Canby, 2nd.

Tomatoes, 1 box. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st.

Tomatoes, 10 best. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st; Augusta Jaeger, Sherwood, 2nd.

Tomatoes, 6 largest. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st; Augusta Jaeger, Sherwood, 2nd.

8th best turnips. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st; Augusta Jaeger, Sherwood, 2nd.

Lettuce, 6 best. H. J. Jaeger, Oregon City, 1st.

Rhubarb, best 6 lbs. J. W. Stone, Oswego, 1st; H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 2nd.

Egg plant, 3 largest. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st.

Class 56.—Large Products.—Largest Mangel wurtzel beet. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st; John Burgoyne, New Era, 2nd.

Largest water melon. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st; H. C. Hartman, Canby, 2nd.

Largest cantaloupe. C. M. Swinney, Hubbard, 1st; H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 2nd.

Largest sun flower. Andrew Koehler, Canby, 1st; Miss Elsie Robbins, Canby, 2nd.

Largest squash. Geo. G. Randall, Oregon City, 1st; C. M. Swinney, Hubbard, 2nd.

Class 57.—Potatoes.—Irish cobbler. W. R. Wilmot, Oswego, 1st.

Garnets. N. R. Melum, Canby, 1st.

H. C. Sturve, Barlow, 2nd.

White rose potatoes. J. W. Stone, Oswego, 1st.

Early Mays (special). Arthur Winsler, Canby, 1st.

Early Market (special). John Burgoyne, New Era, 1st.

Hubank G. Harnes, Aurora, 1st.

Money maker. H. J. Bigger, Oregon City, 1st and 2nd.

Nettled Gem. Arthur Winsler, Canby, 1st.

American Wonders. Oscar, Mays Canby, 1st; James Mohlem, Canby, 2nd.

Blue Victor. M. R. Cherrick, Barlow, 1st.

(Concluded Next Week)

Cabbage in 100 pound quantities $1.50 a Hundred.

GRAPES FOR CANNING.

Fresh Vegetables and Fruits at all seasons. Staple Groceries.

Hay, Grain and Feed of all kinds.

Poultry Supplies.

"MEET ME AT BRADY'S"

Brady Mercantile Co.