

CANBY AND SOUTHERN CLACKAMAS

Blood Is Given to Save Aunt's Life

CANBY, Or., Nov. 2.—Miss Rena Hutchinson has played the part of a heroine, having donated one and one-half pints of her blood for transfusion in order to save the life of her aunt, Mrs. H. S. Gilmore, of this city. Mrs. Gilmore has been seriously ill for several months and two weeks ago was removed to the Oregon City hospital. After arriving at the institution it was found necessary for her to undergo a surgical operation, but before this could be accomplished it would be necessary to have transfusion of blood. Members of the family offered to submit to operation in order to secure blood, and after several tests had been made, failed to fill the requirements. Miss Hutchinson then offered her blood. Last Tuesday she went to the hospital, where the transfusion was made, and returned home Thursday.

MISS LENT ENTERTAINS.

CANBY, Or., Nov. 2.—Miss Eleanor Lent entertained several of her friends at a dinner at her home Thursday evening. The affair was in honor of her birthday anniversary. Following the dinner, the members of the party motored to Oregon City, where they attended a "movie."

MANY REPUBLICANS CAST VOTE.

CANBY, Or., Nov. 2.—Very few people, who were entitled to vote, failed to make their appearance at the voting places in this section Tuesday. Canby has its big share of Republicans, and the majority voted the straight ticket.

STUDENTS GIVE PARTY.

CANBY, Or., Nov. 2.—The students of the Canby high school gave a hallowe'en party Friday evening in the auditorium. This was largely attended and an enjoyable time was had. Games and music were among the features of the evening. Refreshments were served.

NEW GROCERY STORE FOR CANBY

CANBY, Or., Nov. 2.—Jones' Cash store has opened for business in the store building formerly occupied by a jewelry establishment, several doors west of the postoffice.

DAVIS STAYS 10 ROUNDS WITH FOXY GORMAN

Lean, long and lanky, with his ribs showing through the white skin, Jack Davis, of Oakland, Cal., stayed 10 rounds with Joe Gorman at the Milwaukie arena Wednesday night. Much to the surprise of hundreds of fans who expected the California kid to stay about a minute. But the lad was shifty, took a lot of punishment and kept on coming, and though he lost the decision, he was game to the finish and played fltic tunes on Joe's stomach in a manner that annoyed the doughty little Portland boxer.

It was Ray Palmer, an Arizona middle-weight, who furnished the real thrills during his 10-round go with Valley Trambitas. The Portland boy started out to wallop his lighter antagonist, but Palmer knocked him through the ropes and gumbled after him. The bout was a rattler and had the main event faded for entertainment. Palmer earned the decision. He's one of the cleverest fighters seen this season at Milwaukie.

Big Ole Anderson was victorious over Leo Cross. The heavies slugged in the good old-fashioned way, and in the final round Anderson felled Cross to the floor and the veteran took the count.

Califfs Go Strong On G. O. P. Vote

Mr. and Mrs. George Califf, of this city, who are among the staunch Republicans of Clackamas county, are proud to say that fourteen members of their family voted the Republican ticket Tuesday.

Mervin Califf, their son, who is employed at the Crown Willamette Paper Company, was on the night shift leaving the paper mills at 12 o'clock, arose the following morning at 6 and was the first at the polls. He has to his credit the first vote cast in Ward 3 on the Republican ticket.

Mr. and Mrs. Califf both are members of the good old G. O. P. stock. The former's father, Captain F. B. Califf, was a Civil War veteran, Republican from the time he was of age until his death. His wife was also a staunch Republican. In the Califf family voting the Republican ticket were Mr. and Mrs. George Califf, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Califf, Jr., Mervin Califf, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eberly, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Ennon, Califf, of Portland, the former a baseball player Billy Califf, of Vancouver, B. C., who came home to vote; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shott, of San Francisco, Cal. Next year there will be another voter in the Califf family, when Raymond Califf, will follow in the footsteps in politics of his parents.

Miles Returns to Old Home Here

F. A. Miles, special agent for the Willamette Valley Southern Railway Company, and also agent for the Portland Railway Light and Power Co., has been on a month's visit at his old home in Northern Missouri. He has been visiting his brother, J. D. Miles and wife, and his sister, Mrs. Margaret Elsen, residing at Atlanta, Missouri, returned to his home at Glen Echo, near this city, Sunday evening, after a most enjoyable trip. Although Mr. Miles has visited among many of his old time friends, made many of his old time friends, made the most enjoyable trips, says there is no place like old Oregon.

During his stay in Missouri Mr. Miles had occasion to visit many places where he had spent his boyhood days, and says even the hills, and the same curves in the roads are there, for there has been very little improvement in the roads since he traveled over since he was a lad, and the scenes were all familiar. His attention was particularly drawn towards the condition of the roads in Missouri and Oregon. . . .

Visiting the corn section of Missouri, Mr. Miles was favorably impressed with the fine yield of this year, and brought some samples of the seed corn to be tried in Clackamas county, which has been presented to Judge Grant B. Dimick, who is well posted in corn growing, and as the soil of his farm at Hubbard is well adapted for growing this variety of feed, Judge Dimick will give his special attention so as to try it out. Another sample has been presented to Mr. Martin's son-in-law, Roy Martin, residing in Lafayette, Oregon, and he will try his hand at growing the Missouri corn in his section of the state. When next year's crop is harvested the two Oregon growers are to compare their seed corn to that brought here.

The corn will soon be harvested in Missouri. The weather has been ideal for the corn this year, and all farmers are well pleased over the outlook for a large yield. Two weeks ago, while Mr. Miles was visiting the corn section, he found the weather as our summer, and children were running around in their bare feet and farmers working in shirt sleeves.

The corn will go from 50 to 60 bushels to the acre, and the farmers are being paid 75 cents per bushel.

Mr. Miles, who has been in Missouri for about two weeks, said he commenced to have that longing for old Oregon, and the train couldn't travel fast enough to bring him back into Portland. He boosted for Oregon while in Missouri, although the latter was his native state.

From Top To Bottom

Republicans of Clackamas swallowed no Democratic doctrine last Tuesday. Some of them wavered, it is true, but enough of them went to the polls and registered their faith in Republicanism to carry the entire national, state and county ticket to victory. Right up to the eve of election local Democrats were claiming victory for the three nominees on whom they centered their strength, but the final returns show that the men who had faith in Warren C. Harding also had faith in Robert N. Stanfield, in Livy Stipp, in Harvey Cross and in William J. Wilson. They declined to be moved by rumblings of factionalism, and were swayed by the oft repeated advice of The Enterprise to "Vote 'er Straight."

The result of the election shows what can be accomplished with a united front. It demonstrates that the Republican organization of this county worked efficiently, though quietly and that there were thousands of Republicans who would not listen to the voice of those who urged them from the path of duty.

The Republican victory is remarkable in many ways. George Chamberlain carried Clackamas county for governor in 1906, for senator in 1908 and again in 1914, but he has lost it by more than 1,000 to Mr. Stanfield, whose lead in the state will be better than 15,000. Members of the Republican party could not be brought to the support of Harding and the renunciation of those nominees who had as good a right to expect Republican allegiance as had the presidential candidate. The county made up its mind to turn to the Republican party to steer it over troubled seas and the people of Clackamas were with the majority.

BONDS FOR CITY HALL DISCUSSED BY COUNCILMEN

Elect James Shannon was present and made a short talk. The ordinance prohibiting the parking of automobiles on Seventh street between Main and Railroad avenue was given its final passage. Under the terms of the measure no machine will be allowed to stand within that block, and definitions of what constitutes parking were explained to the chief of police, with instructions to enforce the act.

A notice of a proposal to change the grade of 12th street between Main and Center was passed and ordered published. The street committee was authorized to have the old building at 8th and Water streets removed, and a suitable barrier erected to prevent cars or pedestrians from walking off the street over the river bank. The committee on arrangements for housing the fire truck until the erection of a city hall reported that they decided to fix up the Cataract hose company quarters.

EVANS WINS OFFICE IN MULTNOMAH COUNTY

Walter Evans is an easy victor in the contest for district attorney, returns from 85 precincts indicate, Hulbert is reelected sheriff and Gloss has defeated Willis for constable. Each running three to one ahead of his opponent.

SUCCEEDS HARDING

Frank R. Willis, elected Tuesday as United States senator from the Buckeye state, will take his oath of office January 3 when Mr. Harding, now president-elect, is scheduled to tender his resignation.

COUNTY PRESIDENTIAL VOTE FOR HARDING

- * Seventy-eight out of 82 precincts in Clackamas county gave * Harding for president 6796 votes, Cox 3637 and Debs, socialist, * 706.
- * R. N. Stanfield in 71 precincts * has 5129, and George E. Chamberlain 3674.

R. N. STANFIELD, who has a lead of 19,162 votes over Chamberlain. From the very first returns, Stanfield jumped in the lead and has held it continuously. Clackamas county gave him a healthy majority.

CITY HOME SOLD "Den Knowland has purchased the Toole property at 1213 Main street. The house is a double one, and situated close to the business part of the city.

PRESIDENT WILSON MAKES NO COMMENT WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—President Wilson had no comment to make today on the result of Tuesday's election.

JAMES SHANNON ELECTED MAYOR

Official returns on the city election will not be available until after the canvass of votes to be made at 1 o'clock today by the council, and due to the failure of the various election boards to post statements in detail, definite information as to the outcome of Tuesday's polling cannot be had.

Based on the partial and unofficial returns from the most of the precincts, the mayor's race has gone to James Shannon, every precinct giving him a majority, according to some reports. He was opposed by J. J. Tobin, senior member of the council. The most doubtful of all municipal contests lies between George L. Story, incumbent, and Oscar D. Eby, for city attorney. Neither side at a late hour last night was prepared to say which had been favored, and the outcome will remain in doubt until the official count is made. Charles W. Kelly, for city recorder, was unopposed.

The voting in the various wards on councilmen resulted in the following, according to indications gathered from unofficial casting of the tally sheets yesterday: Ward 1, E. M. Howell elected over Fred Metzger, by an extremely narrow margin, may be reversed; Ward 2, Dr. Hugh Mount elected by a safe margin over W. C. Green; Ward 3, Dr. William Krasig defeated Mike Long; and Ward 4, Ed. Van Anken, winning out over Ben Eby.

REPUBLICAN LEAD IN HOUSE TO BE ABOUT 111, GAIN 33

In the totals on the two measures before city voters, indications are that the city hall was voted for a site in McLaughlin Park, carrying all but three of the down town precincts, but by no extremely large margin. The one-mill tax measure for the city library was carried by a safe margin, according to all reports.

Based on returns in the indicated trend in states where the result is not final, it appears that the house of representatives in the sixty-seventh congress will be constituted approximately as follows: Republicans, 273; Democrats, 159; Independents, 2; Prohibitionists 1. This estimate while not final, would give the Republicans a majority of 113.

Milwaukie Voters Favor School Tax

At the special school election Saturday the citizens who voted were five to one in favor of the additional school tax levy to raise additional funds of a little over $45,000 for the school year.

COUNTY VOTES DOWN EVERY MEASURE BUT ONE ON THE BALLOT

Clackamas county voters registered against every state-wide measure and amendment on the ballot with the exception of the dock commission measure. Returns from 78 precincts complete out of 82 follow: Oleo bill—yes 3338, no 5376; single tax—yes 1924, no 6665; bird refuge—yes 3711, no 4969; dock commission—yes 4023, no 3719; anti-vaccination—yes 3257, no 5608; legal rate interest—yes 1651, no 6894; divided session amendment—yes 2573, no 4689; market commission bill—yes 2473; no 6223.

CLACKAMAS STACKS UP LARGE VOTE FOR G. O. P.

Clackamas County has gone Republican from start to finish, giving large majorities to the national ticket and to Robert N. Stanfield, who has a lead of 1455 over Chamberlain with only 11 precincts to hear from out of a total of 82 precincts. Stanfield polled 5129 and Chamberlain 3674, and the entire Republican ticket has been elected, though hard fights were made by the Democrats to land the offices of county judge, district attorney and sheriff. For district attorney Livy Stipp has a lead over Gilbert L. Hodges, incumbent, of 361, with one precinct out. Harvey E. Cross has a majority over R. B. Beale of 294, with two precincts to hear from and sheriff Wilson has been re-elected by 63 votes over Ex-Sheriff Maas, with only Cherryville precinct to come. Other Republican candidates for county offices elected, with little opposition, are: State senator, Thos. F. Ryan; representative, Philip L. Hammond, F. D. Shank, William M. Stone; commissioner, W. A. Proctor; clerk, Fred A. Miller; recorder, J. G. Noe; treasurer, Alberta L. Dunn; school superintendent, Brenton Vedder; assessor, W. B. Cook; surveyor, D. T. Meldrum; coroner, O. A. Pace.

In the Oregon City Justice district, E. J. Noble, Republican, was elected Justice of the Peace without opposition, and Ed. Fortune, the only Democrat chosen, bet D. E. Forst, for constable. The 250,000 bond issue for a new bridge across the Willamette river between Oregon City and West Linn went over with a big favorable majority, receiving 4906 affirmative votes against 3501 negative, a majority of 1405, with 11 precincts to come in.

FEW DISTURBANCES HERE ON ELECTION NIGHT, LARGE CROWDS

The election in Oregon City and over Clackamas county passed off very quietly with very little disturbances of any nature. In the early part of the evening, several boisterous men cut up a little on Main street, but were soon quelled by the night officers on the beat. In ward two, here in the city, the judges counted votes until the early morning, and finished with the heaviest vote of any ward counted.

The Enterprise bulletins flashed upon the screen opposite the Enterprise building attracted large crowds, who got the returns from a special wire direct from the Western Union company.

TEARS COME TO EYES OF HARDING WHEN TOLD OF HIS VICTORY

MARION, Ohio, Nov. 3.—"Whatever responsibilities are thrust upon me, I will meet them with the same justice and fairness I have always shown," Warren G. Harding told employees of his newspaper when they called to congratulate him on his apparent victory tonight. They presented him with a gold printer's makeup rule as a birthday gift. "Tears came to his eyes and he tried to talk to the little circle grouped around the porch. His voice choked. "You all know me and it is no use for me to pose," he said. "I will try to be on the square with everybody in the world."
