Firewood School Shows Fine Talent

SANDY, Nov. 3.—Under the direction of Miss Selby, the Firewood teacher, a splendid Halloween entertainment was given at the school house, which was adorned with...

SCHOOL NEWS

SANDY, Nov. 3.—Florence Toller has been helping in the Post Office, and is now a member of the P. O. Association.

Josephine and Pearl Dixon were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Gresham at a motor trip to Hood River, and White Salmon for the week end and had a most glorious time.

Ghosts Walk at Sandy Hallowe'en

SANDY, Nov. 3.—The Sandy high school celebrated Hallowe'en with an effervescent that spilled over on Friday night, which is the only natural demerit of the younger generation.

SANDY NOTES

SANDY, Nov. 4.—The Sunday evening song service opened with an organ voluntary by Mrs. Eason, songs by the congregation followed by a Hallowe'en recitation by Johnnie Sheldon in costume.

DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE MEETS

SANDY, Nov. 4.—The first meeting of the Development League for some time was held Friday evening with the President Ed Hart in the chair.

SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, Nov. 3.—The district Sunday School Convention held in the Baptist church at Pleasant Home was an all day affair last Sunday, with lunch served in the basement of the church.

"Yours for Real Tobacco" says the Good Judge

Men are getting away from the big chew idea. They find more satisfaction in a little of the Real Tobacco Chew than they ever got from a big chew of the ordinary kind.

the surveyor who laid out the Brightwood plat some years ago and the Borthwicks still own land there and have great hopes for the future of that locality because of the highway location.

There is an effort to re-open the Taft Road No. 622 which is located through Eagle Coalman's place. A petition for donation work being circulated, so the road can be put in use again.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Averill, newlyweds, were out on their honeymoon trip, and visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tan Eyck on the way up to their home folks, Parnell Averill's of Cherryville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thacheron of Gresham were out visiting the Henry Perret family last Sunday. Little Doris Allen has been ailing with tonsillitis during the week but is getting over it now.

A party going to Portland on Oct. 26 to attend a masquerade ball given by Anchor Council No. 746 of the Security Benefit Association at the W. O. W. hall on Eleventh St. consisted of Mrs. Alma Maroney of Sandy, Elizabeth Hagan of Bull Run, Bertha Cline, Mrs. Arthur and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jackson of Gresham, joined by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. White and Glenn Andre of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy, Miss Eddy and Mrs. Miller were at Pleasant Home Sunday afternoon to attend the district S. S. convention. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Averill visited at the R. E. Ten Eyck home last Sunday, returning to Portland in the evening.

Miss Hilda Byers and her brother Carl Byers who have just returned from a visit in Wisconsin were visitors of Miss Bertha Abel of Kelso last week. Miss Byers is a prominent piano teacher.

George Perret went into Portland Sunday after Mrs. Perret, Lillian and their perfectly fine new baby boy, George Albert, so the Perret family have their happy home fires burning again. Miss Marie Thacheron, Mr. Perret's sister of Gresham is with the Mrs. Perret for a time.

Sandy is still on the upward climb! Three sales to report this week, house hunters still desperately seeking accommodations, new comers moving in, business bustling and so many goings and comings that the town had a "distinctive air", to delve slightly into high sounding phrases!

Friday night made the evening lively, especially with "ghosts" gliding about and weird echoes pervading the frosty air.

It is already whispered out loud that four have consented to join an orchestra and no doubt more will come in. "The Sandy string band" is a dream some of us have had a long time and it cannot come true too soon for the good of the town and every one in it.

George Beers is thinking seriously of putting in a small stock of musical instruments and won't that be a fine thing for the town!

Mr. Creighton of Rhododendron was in Portland last week and had courage to start from Sandy on foot on his return trip as the passenger business is not popular just now for stagemen up that way. Mrs. Creighton will probably come down to the city for the winter soon.

E Ryan has brought his wife on from Clackamas Station to live at Brightwood, where his mill is located. It is reported that a large black bear is running at large around Brightwood and is after stock. Geo. Flynn took up some bait to lure the brute into a trap.

There is fine feed in the ranges judging from the condition of the cattle up the mountain way. Claude Danielson and Emmett Aldernat contractors, for a two mile stretch of Loop road this side of Government Camp are near the completion of their contract, the snow and rain delayed them considerably.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Skogan of Sandy-ridge had a little daughter arrived at their home on last Saturday the 30th. Gobbins and stork seem to have been very busy at Hallowe'en time!

Joe Blue "blew" down from the mountains a few days ago, and no doubt more "blue" than ever before he got back over the up country roads. Mario Boitano was in town a few days ago, bringing his cousin, Mr. Garbarino of Portland with him; who came out on a hunting and visiting trip to the Pizzola-Boitano ranch. Mr. Boitano's little boy has been on the sick list for several days.

The W. A. Proctor family are getting settled in their new home in Sandy and are very welcome newcomers. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hammond were in town Saturday but did not attempt a trip to their Firewood ranch.

Geo. Flynn is working at the Ryan mill at Brightwood now but comes down on Saturday to see his folks and attend to his "pound duties". Fay Young went to her home in Dover to spend the Hallowe'en vacation.

It turned frosty and cold the last of the week, but Albion Meinig says on October 26 last year there was snow!

The many friends of Otto Aschoff will be interested to hear he is improving. He is still in the hospital. Ed Wolf was taken to the hospital on Saturday because of an abscess on his arm which formed as a result of being hurt with a cable, according to report.

on her leg, which did not yield to treatment. Mr. and Mrs. John Kreiger of Dover are the proud possessors of a new baby boy the stork left there last week.

A dinner party that was undoubtedly a near banquet was an event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Purcell last Friday night. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Eddy, Miss Lulu Eddy, Miss Mixer, Miss Vera Mixer, and Miss Ruby Meyers, a delightful evening was enjoyed by all; dinner parties are rare events in these busy times.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Averill, newlyweds, were out on their honeymoon trip, and visited Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tan Eyck on the way up to their home folks, Parnell Averill's of Cherryville.

Mr. and Mrs. Perret and Miss Bertha Abel were Estacada visitors Sunday, going to church, then after a restaurant dinner proceeded to Oregon City for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thacheron of Gresham were out visiting the Henry Perret family last Sunday. Little Doris Allen has been ailing with tonsillitis during the week but is getting over it now.

Judge Beattie was out on Sunday making calls in our town, James Bell showed the Judge around. Miss Bertha Abel of Kelso invited Father Hogan and Mr. Van Dominan as dinner guests one day last week.

George and Oscar Gunderson of the Ridge took all the home folks down to the Sandy on a hunting and fishing trip last Sunday as they wanted one more chance before the season closed. S. W. Allen had a vacation Saturday till Wednesday which he spent with his family.

"Hallowe'enists" had their usual sport packing off gates, daubing windows, taking wagons apart and leaving various here and there, etc., etc., on Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Dahrens came home on Monday after a month's visit up the Willamette valley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ten Eyck are riding around in a Chevrolet these days, having traded their Ford. Miss Klein and Miss Meyers had Sunday evening supper with Miss Barton in her bachelor flat.

Mr. and Mrs. Sture went to their Powell Valley church for Sunday morning service, then drove down to Portland for the concert at the Auditorium and enjoyed the program greatly, especially the work of the Schubert Glee Club.

Warren Wilkins was home over the election vacation from the head works and was a good sport in buying four baskets at the school entertainment to help the organ, or piano fund along.

The road from Brightwood to Cherryville has been patched up so the travelling is much better at that portion of the mountain highway. The detour that was made via Hill Crest road out so now the Sandy Ridge road is the best side road to take, to reach Dover and Firwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Pridmore were out from the city for the election, like all good patriots they do not neglect Uncle Sam.

Mrs. Severin who came out from Brightwood to spend a week with her friend Mrs. Casper Junken has returned home. Mrs. Webber of Cherryville was in town on election day. Mr. Webber is teaming for the Scales Merchandise company for the present.

L. W. Greene of Cherryville whose hand was so severely injured some time ago will not be able to use the hand for a long time, but it is improving.

Mrs. Joel Jarl of Chula Vista, Cal., writes the weather is very warm down there, the sun is shining and she is improving. Emery Ryan has bought a new saw and also a boiler for his mill near Brightwood. The mill was formerly owned by Fred Beechel. Ties, road plank and house patterns are the products of this mill.

The high lead at the Sandy Lumber Co. mill that was finished about a week ago tumbled down the day it was first used. The tree to which it was attached was rotten inside and there is a big loss in getting it reconstructed.

Chasley Krebs got his threshing home last Saturday and finished his own threshing. He almost broke through the bridge on the cross road, the bridge settling considerably, but he managed to pull the machine out, tho it was a close call.

There were 2100 sheep brought from east of the mountains last week through the Eagle Creek country. They were a "muttony" bunch. Big potatoes are the record everywhere. Now comes Mr. Tice of Bull Run with samples 9 inches long and weight 2.24. Geo. Beers has a window full of fine samples.

Mrs. Matt Ziggs of Sandyridge was up at Estacada last week spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Wilcox.

"Grandpa" Krebs is still suffering, having another stroke on last Friday added greatly to his helpless condition. He is still suffering much pain and little can be done to relieve him aside from good care.

Next week will be Grange day again and a large attendance is desired. At the recent Dairy League meeting here it was stated by a prominent speaker that it was the "Grange that showed up the necessity for organizing this co-operative league." That is merely one good thing it has done!

according to Geo. Beers who managed the trade. Beers also reports the sale of Mrs. L. M. Wilson's twenty acres to Melvin Smith.

The Ellsworth place below Peterson's corner has been sold to Mr. Van Dominan of Estacada, recently. Wm. O'Neill is taking stumps out of his acreage these fine days using the coal-pit system for most parts.

Mr. Bacon, Mrs. Tom Hagan's father, is out for a visit at the Hagan home. Mrs. Hagan drove to Sellwood for a day's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Justin and Miss Mollie Mitchell were out for a week end with their mother, Mrs. Mitchell. Mr. Justin leaving Oregon City at 9:30 Saturday night and driving out in the moonlight.

Reports of trucks and machines getting stuck on the upper road still continue, the stiff mud making it so going, some machines getting in so "only the ears are left sticking out."

John Burmeister of "The Burn" had his hand severely injured by a horse kicking him a few days ago. One finger is reported as broken.

Frank Ties and Mr. Spaller are helping Pizzola and Boitano harvest their potato crop, which is turning out fine.

John Macho of Sandyridge says the logging road has rails laid as far as the George Epperson place and grading is done to Wilcoxe. Macho has 100 cords of wood ready to market.

Among the Sandy Odd Fellows attending the district convention at Oregon City last week are Ronald Eason, J. C. Duke, Cecil Duke, R. C. France, George Maroney and Lige Coalman.

Armistice day, while not celebrated in Sandy will not be forgotten, and many will not doubt attend the big doings at Gresham, as most of our boys belong to the Post there. It will be only neighborly for our town to turn out en masse.

For one week, commencing Monday, Lippman & Wolfe will have a display in the Sandy bank building pianos of various grades and prices to be sold on same terms and prices as the Portland store, which carries the largest stock of pianos in the city. C. A. Peterson, one of the head galesmen of Lippman & Wolfe's piano department, will have charge of the display at Sandy, which also includes a good selection of phonographs. Miss Vera Mixer will demonstrate. Monday evening a free concert will be given. Everybody come.—Adv.

SANDY, Nov. 4.—The following city officers for the town of Sandy have been elected as follows: Mayor, Casper Junken; recorder, C. D. Purcell; treasurer, Cecil Duke; L. E. Hoffman; Paul Dunnard, Joe Loundree.
