Oak Grove Votes Special Road Tax

OAK GROVE, Dec. 2.—John M. Oiler and family of Salem spent Thanksgiving with J. H. Riley and family.

Mrs. V. G. Bonvie was the dinner guest of Mrs. Geo. Stays in Portland Thanksgiving.

Mrs. R. McKenon and son spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Millin Johnson of Berlin.

School convened Monday after the usual Thanksgiving vacation.

The Social Service Club met last Thursday with Mrs. Lora Warren, near Riley and after the business session an interesting program was enjoyed. Two ladies were admitted to membership.

Miss Vera Hollen came home from Portland for Thanksgiving and the week end.

The road districts formerly 28 and 47 were well represented at a meeting held Saturday night at Oak Grove school when a 10 mill special tax was levied. H. G. Starkweather presided and J. Dean Butler acted as secretary.

Mrs. R. R. Davenport is convalescing slowly.

J. H. Bellan left Monday to spend the winter in Los Angeles and Mrs. Bellan has gone to visit her mother at Ellensburg, Wash.

GRAIN GROWERS IN CALGARY DECLARE FOR BIG WHEAT POOL

CALGARY, Canada, Dec. 1.—Representing more than 36,000 share holders in the three prairie provinces, the delegates to the United Grain Growers' convention Saturday afternoon unanimously endorsed the proposition for the creation of a farmers' co-operative pool to handle the wheat crop of 1921 and future years. The Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator company at a meeting in Regina on Wednesday of this week carried a similar resolution. The Saskatchewan company has upward of 22,000 share holders and the total number of shareholders whose representatives have endorsed the scheme are therefore approximately sixty thousand. The committee of the Canadian Council of Agriculture who drafted the proposal estimated that with 75,000 contract holders, representing eight and a half million acres of wheat land, this gigantic undertaking could be launched successfully. The U. F. A. secretaries who endorsed the council's plan this week are representatives of a great body of farmers of these two companies and non-members.

Apparently, therefore, if the big convention held this week reflects the opinion of the farmers of the west, as may be assumed, the Canadian Council of Agriculture may now feel confident in proceeding with the details of their scheme.

Many Hunters Off to Find Oil Wells

EDMONTON, Ontario, Dec. 1.—The first of the overland oil hunters have started on their way to the Great Slave Lake and Fort Norman. They are Dan Darough, A. H. Schuror, Tony Neils and J. A. M. Rankin, all of them experienced northerners, and they left Thursday on an A. & G. W. train for Fort McMurray which also took winter mail for the far north.

Sandy Schools Give Pilgrim Day Program

SANDY, Dec. 1.—A big program given last Wednesday at the school house in honor of Thanksgiving day and also the landing of the Pilgrims at Plymouth, 300 years ago. The grade and high school united forces in preparing the program which was as follows: "The Little Pilgrims," 3rd and 4th grades; Scene 1, England, Scene 2, Holland, Scene 3, America; "Little Hollanders," 3rd and 4th grades; Song, "Eight Girls' Dialogue; Song, "Katrina," by Loid Mayborn; Thanksgiving Talk, by Hazel Burnett; Reading "A Pianny Duet," by Ruby Dodd in costume; "Dance of the Wild Flowers," a piano solo by Frieda Dobberful; Song by 7th and 8th grades, "The Golden Dream Boat"; Reading (in costume) "De Circus Tukey," by Florence Toller. After the program concluded the school pupils were dismissed and part of the program were repeated for the patrons of the school who were invited to come at two o'clock, there being no room large enough to accommodate both pupils and visitors. After the second installment of program was finished Mrs. Ten Eyck presented the matter of a Parent-Teacher's organization. A paper by Mrs. Robert Jonsrud of Kelso was read, setting forth the advantages to be gained by organized effort, and literature from the Multnomah County Parent Teachers' Association was read. After quite a discussion as to whether it was best to have a separate organization or have the work carried on by committees appointed under the auspices of the Women's club, the majority decided to have a Parent Teacher's election at once and Mrs. Ten Eyck acted as temporary chairman. The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Mrs. Cabitz; vice-president, Mrs. Dittler; secretary, Mrs. Velnick; treasurer, Mrs. Jack Burnett. Mrs. Shaw was appointed to help Mrs. Mattingly draw up a constitution and laws. Friday, December 3, was appointed as the next meeting time, at two o'clock, in the school house.

Happy Family Has Reunion At Marmot

SANDY, Dec. 1.—Among the big doings of the week was the family reunion on Thanksgiving at the R. A. Ten Eyck home at Marmot. This was the first time Mrs. Ten Eyck could put down eleven plates for the eleven children, ranging in age from 23 to 12 years since Henry came home from France, and hers was a feeling of a mother can understand, as she saw them all gather around the table once again. Eleven children, no deaths, no sickness, all hearty and happy, all grown but two, all single but one—what a record! Mr. Ten Eyck feels he can understand, and it would be hard to find a father more proud of every child than he. Rose and Ivy home from their schools where they give excellent satisfaction as teachers. Lillie came out from Reed College where she is making her fine scores. Glenn coming with her from Portland where he is in Washington High, Jennie and Cora hurried up from the Oregon "U," George the prosperous farmer, and his wife.

Lillian, who is teaching at Sandy, joined the other three boys who are still at home. Henry, the soldier farmer, "Bil" the "standby," and Miles the "little fellow" completed the list, though two visitors also had places at the table along with the "heads" of the household. Needless to say there was everything to eat anybody could want, and in the eve when the "chores" were all done a happy family gathered at the fireside and had singing, speaking, readings, stories and "n' everything, with candy, nuts and sweet elder between acts till all at once "father" discovered it was two o'clock in the morning!

GOOD PROGRAM GIVEN

The following excellent program was given Sunday night at the M. E. church building: with Mrs. George Perret at the organ; Voluntary; Doxology; Responsive reading; Hymn by choir and congregation; Recitation, "Sleepy Land," by Drusilla Miller; Anthem, "Thanksgiving," by a quartette consisting of Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Esson, Dr. Sture and R. S. Smith; Reading, "Sunbeams" by Mrs. J. C. Duke; Solo, "Gallilee," by Dr. Sture; Song, "Lullaby Land," Ruby Dodd and Hazel Beers; "Some Day," by the quartette choir; "A Few Paragraphs on Music," Mrs. Miller; anthem, "Come Thou Fount," by quartette; announcements, song by congregation. The next musical program will be a week from Sunday night, December 12. Everybody who loves music should come!

SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, Dec. 1.—The Scales family feasted a number of relatives as one of their ways of showing gratitude on the big day last week. Miss Marguerite Klein was manager of the cuisine and did herself proud, of course. Gathered around this glowing fireside were Mrs. Scales' mother, Mrs. H. Blackhall, Miss Bella Blackhall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bay and two children, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reed of Corbett and their daughter Bella and young son, Mr. and Mrs. Scales, of Tully and Kenneth, Miss Klein and Anna Crow. The Reed family remained over night and attended church in the evening with the Scales family. Mr. Reed is the big salmon fisherman at Corbett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell went to the city on Thanksgiving morning, remaining with relatives until Sunday. The Charley Krebs and the Henry Herman families of Sandy-ridge and the Walter Krebs family spent Thanksgiving at the "Grandpa" Krebs home and they all had a very happy time together.

There was a large crowd at the Thanksgiving dance which was held on Saturday night, especially with such roads to muddle through.

Mrs. E. J. Mitchell had a big family dinner that was a happy event for all present on Thanksgiving day. The guests included Ned and Harry Mitchell who came home from the O. A. C. to be with their mother on the great day, Mr. and Mrs. Ganger, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ganger of Bull Run, Miss Mollie Mitchell, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Justin and little Muriel of Oregon City, and Mr. and Mrs. John Maroney of Sandy.

Mrs. John Maroney had her turkey and every "fixin'" already on Thanksgiving, fully expecting her father and mother out as the holiday was also her father's birthday, but lo! and behold the quarantine man was slipping round in that Portland man's town and Loyal was found to have diphtheria germs in his system, although he was not really ill. To have a feast and no guests takes the joy out of life, so the neighbors were invited—al had legitimate excuse—"Carl" dropped in and of course was "hungry" so he was dispatched back to the ranch in a hurry and Mr. and Mrs. Powers and he soon returned in fine trim for the big dinner, so the hours sped merrily and the turkey followed suit.

Mrs. Maroney also had as midnight supper guests on Saturday Mrs. Tom Hagan and Mrs. Powers and Carl Powers.

The Nelson and Peterson families down the Powell valley way are the proud possessors of a new piano which they purchased last week from stock on display in the Sandy bank building.

Kenneth Scales is one of the happiest youngsters in town since he sold 50 copies of the December Ladies' Home Journal and will get a flash light as a prize.

Monday was a good day and how trucks and teams fitted about! The hum of industry is always inspiring. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Platt recently had the pleasure of a visit from Captain and Mrs. Willis Platt of Vancouver Barracks. Captain Platt is a brother of our new townsmen, C. H. Platt.

Mrs. M. E. Laverty, of Yakima, Wash., is spending some time here visiting her daughters, Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Wisler. Mrs. Laverty is well known in our county, having lived twenty years near Wilhoit Springs. Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Wisler were born in Clackamas County so it is no wonder they feel at home here, and everyone holds out the glad hand to them.

Mrs. Joe Lilly went up the Willamette valley to spend the week end with relatives.

Mrs. Bertha Parker came out to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her children and her mother, Mrs. Caron.

Mr. Jones and Mr. Holman, workers at the Sandy Lumber Co. mill were down in our town last Saturday.

Miss Lulu Eddy is recovering from a severe cold which has been hanging on for the past week or more.

Mrs. S. W. Allen is grateful to all the neighbors and friends who were so thoughtful during the recent illness of the family. Sandy has a heart and it is usually in the right place.

Polish Children Deeply Grateful for Saving Gift of American Food

Holiday or "play day" to school boys and girls in Poland means marching in a procession and carrying an American flag. Because they receive a daily meal of good hot American food at their noon recess, these children want to show their gratitude to their benefactors, and so they laboriously make our flag to carry in a public march. They have placed the stars in the wrong corner and they probably do not know the good old traditions about our thirteen colonies for which the stripes stand, but they are clear on the question of who is their friend.

They have gone—a million of them in all parts of Poland, day after day and week after week since the Armistice—to the kitchens of the American Relief Administration European Children's Fund, and have been fed. They still face starvation without their daily ration of nourishing soup and cocoa from the kitchens, but the resources available to the European Children's Fund will furnish the child feeding stations with supplies only until January.

For the means to carry on the work after that date Herbert Hoover appeals to American generosity. Mr. Hoover is chairman of the European Children's Fund, which is a branch of the American Relief Administration, of which he is head. The fund gives one meal a day to a million children in Poland and a million and a half in the Baltic States, Czechoslovakia and Austria. The gift of $23,000,000 from the American people will mean the continuance of the child welfare work until next summer. Without the gift the children will starve.

Jack Scales left for Shepherd's springs last Saturday and will spend a week or ten days at "hard drink." Mr. H. Blackhall, Miss Bella Blackhall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bay and two children, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reed of Corbett and their daughter Bella and young son, Mr. and Mrs. Scales, of Tully and Kenneth, Miss Klein and Anna Crow. The Reed family remained over night and attended church in the evening with the Scales family. Mr. Reed is the big salmon fisherman at Corbett.

Mrs. S. W. Allen is grateful to all the neighbors and friends who were so thoughtful during the recent illness of the family. Sandy has a heart and it is usually in the right place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ashoff of Portland, who are in the Marmot country, was in Sandy last Saturday. Mrs. Ashoff believes the things everyone says about the road conditions.

Walter Krebs laughingly remarked that his family had gone to Portland to spend the rest of his "fortune" the other day. They are evidently remembering the motto "shop early."

Gus Dahrens worked all day on Thanksgiving, as the lawyer men were so industrious they preferred a day's wages to a day's feasting.

Youthful nitwits are going forth armed for the "catch" but no unusual fish stories are reported up to date.

Mrs. L. M. Wilson, mother of Mayor Blanche Shelley has gone over to Tillamook where she expects to make her home, having moved her belongings a few days ago. The cheer of Mrs. Wilson, and her kindly manner will be missed, as well as her willingness to help others. She expects to be nursing over there.

Mayor (elect) Junker was a Portland visitor this week and while in the city looked after several community interests.

Mr. and Mrs. George Perret had a pleasant visit from relatives the past week end. Mrs. and Miss Atchison, Mrs. Perret's mother and sister, also her aunt, were the guests.

Mrs. Jack Barnett, Mildred and Ruthie will be in Portland for awhile, and Marguerite will keep house for her father while they are away.

Will Bell spent his Thanksgiving as a guest over in the Douglas neighborhood eating turkey and other good things.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dunn and Fenton were "thankful" at the home of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn.

Warren Wilkisons is staying at home for a month or six weeks and will then go back to work at Bull Run Lake.

MaMrio Boitano killed a young beef last week and divided up with his neighbors.

Meinigs have been making all the deliveries with the small truck that were possible, and have had to make some mountain trips by team.

A new three and a half ton truck is a new possession at the Jonsrud-Gundersen mill. The mill has been idle for two or three weeks and it is uncertain as to the date of starting work again.

Paul Dunn bought the cow belonging to Adolph Dahrens for John Dunn who has taken it to his place on the bluff.

Antone Jabs is riding around in a flivver now. It seems everyone around town is getting too swift for the old way of traveling.

The Anton Malars were thankful they could have a quiet day of rest on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Malars' mother, Mrs. Heacock spent a couple of days with her this week.

Earl Linkin of Viola spent his Thanksgiving vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ten Eyck at their Marmot ranch home.

Geo. Wolf was on the ailing list again last Monday but got the best of his illness in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoernicke missed having a thankful time at Gresham because of being miserably with a severe cold and sore throat, which was just the plain old fashioned kind and not diphtheria. However, she and Mr. Hoernicke cooked themselves a nice dinner and had a good time anyway. Mrs. Hoernicke went to work again in Meinigs store the early part of this week.

There will be a big dance at the new hall at Brightwood on Saturday night for the pleasure of the mill boys in particular. Mrs. Nudsen, Mrs. Osburn are the sponsors for the party.

Antone Mickelson was down from the big mill at Brightwood on Monday, looking around town on business.

The Alfred Hoyt's of Portland were out to their country home on the bluff road Sunday for an outing.

they have been working in the snow got too deep to accomplish anything. Chas. Updegrave and Mrs. Weist helped each other in the well digging business last week with result that Chas. has a new well 22 ft. deep, and Weist has one 15 ft. on their respective places. Really it is hard to see why anyone need go underground for water these days.

A party at the Udel home in Dover was well attended on Saturday night. It was a surprise affair given in honor of Miss Alice Udel. Games and singing and refreshments entertained the guests until the wee small hours. Mr. Mann and Mr. Child had a blow out on the way to the party so a horse had to be borrowed, a journey made to a neighbor after an inner tube, but finally the repair was made and they proceeded to the party arriving at eleven o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Sousebrenner of the Barn have gone to visit a week with their aunt.

Mrs. John Burmeister is with her mother, Mrs. August Senke in Sandy to still until she is feeling better. She is having a seque with her teeth and goes to Portland every few weeks to her dentist.

Dr. Julius Sture and Mrs. Sture drove over into Washington to eat "drumsticks" with the doctor's home folks. Mrs. Sture remained until Sunday when Dr. drove over and brought her home.

Al Eully was in town over Sunday night and came to the Sunday evening musical program.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke and Cecil Duke were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Junker on last Friday evening.

Heinle Junker will go to Evlerton in a week or two where he has a position promised him in the Sneed garage. It is a large business and will be a profitable experience for our young townsmen.

Mrs. Wm. Mueller had the herd luck to fall down and hurt her hand severely, and she is carrying it around all bound up, which interferes with her work, naturally.

Joe Abell was over from the Frans mill last Monday night shopping.

Mrs. Linfield Miller of Mrs. Caron, has gone to her farm at Wild Cat for the winter, after spending a month or two in Portland. Mrs. Linfield was at the big dance Saturday night.

Mrs. Sniffden and daughter, relatives of Mrs. Caron who lives at Cottrell, were also at the dance Saturday night.

Little Drusilla Miller is at the home of her grandparents again for an extended stay.

Everyone living at Beaver Creek near Oregon City knows Mr. and Mrs. Clint Gordy and will be glad to hear they are in Oregon again. They are going to spend the winter, anyway, in Gresham, and may locate there.

Mr. Snodgrass is here from Molalla looking up some cedar timber with the fine idea of starting a shingle mill in case he can make satisfactory arrangements.

Dave Douglas has been working on the middle road and says it will be finished this week. It was reported already that it was finished. The road referred to is from Cherryville to Firwood, presumably.

The Bruns saw mill is working about a half crew now and is sawing some ties now, as well as lumber. A full crew may be put on when the roads are repaired.

John Hatley has seventy five hogs he is feeding; quite a hog ranch for a bachelor. He has finished hauling out six ton of whole corn he bought down at Park Rose, hauling a load back after taking a truck load of products down from time to time.

Mario Boitano spoiled a perfectly good rubber shoe by running a rusty nail into his foot the other day. Just a few days before he said he couldn't stand it if he felt any better he was in such perfect health.

There have been several more road meetings during the past week. The Bull Run district voted a ten mill special tax and recommended Geo. Ten Eyck for supervisor at their meeting Saturday. The Cottrell district also voted ten mill, and Mr. Brock of Cottrell was the choice for supervisor. The Sandy road meeting was held Saturday night, a ten mill tax voted and Oln Maroney named supervisor. Fred Proctor was secretary and John Maroney, chairman.

The rock crusher started working again on Monday morning, the day was fair, and if only the little rain-god would run away for a month the traveling might be helped out considerably.

There was a road meeting at Firwood school house Saturday at which a five mill tax was voted to be spent on the Hart road. Will Bushelm was again the choice for supervisor. A school meeting was also held after the road meeting adjourned at which a special tax of eight mills was voted. The road district No. 27, and the school district No. 52.

Thanksgiving night was a friendly one for the Sandy-rite folks when the Suckow Bros. and Mrs. Dodd invited a number in to share the evening with them in a neighborhood dance and a delicious midnight lunch. The merry folks were not weary of their amusements until the old clock pointed to 3 A. M., then "chores" were remembered and they all hurried for home. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Suckow, Richard and Milton, Mr. and Mrs. Littlepage and Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Flynn and Mrs. Pierce, Billy Dockery, the Zogg boys, the Oberke brothers, Gunde-son boys and Wm. Miller, Geo. Gundersen was the leader of the Ridge orchestra that furnished the music and Mr. Miller played the concertino. Mrs. Danielson, Mrs. Dodd's daughter, also Doris, were out from Portland, and they and Ruby Dodd were also present.

Mrs. Frank Smith and Florence Toller managed the Post Office for a few days the past week.

Scales' store has a big assortment of Xmas goods. Drop in before buying elsewhere. Special prices for the holidays. (Adv.)

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Suckow entertained several people at dinner on Thanksgiving, among whom were her sister Mrs. Laura Larsen of Portland, and Mr. Wildmer and Will.
