SANDY LOCALS

SANDY, Dec. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Mattingly and Dorothy were over to spend the day Sunday with the Powers family.

George Beers was in Portland Monday on business affairs. "George" played at Gresham one evening last week at a big lodge affair.

Mrs. Minnie Maroney and daughter, Ethel, were out from Portland over Saturday and Sunday and visited the John Maroney family, also Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell.

Mrs. Nelson and Milton Nelson were in Sandy on Monday and were with Mrs. Bonett for lunch.

Joe Loundree was hustling gravel on the west end of Main street this week with a big truck.

George Beers has rented Minnie Maroney's farm to Mr. Young of Dover who will move on the place in about a month.

New "subs" for the Enterprise have not yet received their papers, but the mailing force is very busy and patience may be necessary for a little while.

Nick Hilsenkops had his arm dislocated last week when the donkey cable struck a pole and knocked the pole against his arm. Antone Mickelson took him down to Portland where he had his arm put in a cast, but it was not necessary to remain at the hospital. Jim Folsom was knocked down and had a narrow escape at the same time.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sig. Knighton will be sorry to learn that Mrs. Knighton is ill. A nurse is with her. Orville was well again and about ready to start to school when Mrs. Knighton called the doctor.

C. L. Hanson, head ranger, was in town Monday but no stormy day could dampen his spirits after being down to the city to call on his brand new baby daughter, "LeRoy Louise". The little one and Mrs. Hansen are doing fine at a maternity hospital.

Jack Scates came home Monday evening "feeling as fine as a kitten" he said and looked as though he had been feeding on fat of the land, but had evidently been "drinking" for he said he consumed from three to four gallons of mineral water every day at Shepherd's Springs where he was holding forth the past ten days.

It looks like Sandy was the first community in this part of the state to send money for the suffering European children. Another ten dollars and eighty cents came in after the seventy-five was sent away, which makes a very good showing for "us". The call comes ringing through the land more strongly than ever for help, and other places are gathering up money now to meet the Oregon quota.

The ladies of the Baptist church at Pleasant Home gave their bazaar last week. A literary program came first in the afternoon, and the show articles continued until after the fine supper that was served in the evening.

Friday of this week is the date of the Methodist bazaar at Pleasant Home, which will be held in the church, during the afternoon and evening. A program assisted by the choir, and other features aside from the big supper will be featured.

Rev. Earl Cotton announces his next stereoscopic lecture at Sandy for Tuesday evening, December 28. A straight admittance fee of fifteen cents will be charged to cover the cost of the slides. The Ben Hur pictures will be shown. The same pictures will be given at the Kelso school house on Tuesday evening, December 21.

Rev. Helsey of Gresham took stereoscopic pictures over to Boring last week and lectured as he displayed a resume of the early history of Methodism in the northwest, and especially in Oregon. He gave the same lecture at Fairview.

Dr. W. H. Nation, community expert, was a drawing card at the Chautauque at Gresham last Monday night. If only some experts could get communities to centralize! So many organizations mean scattered effort, and "near brain storms" to the wide-awake citizen who attempts to help in every good thing in a town or neighborhood.

Rev. A. S. Helsey of Gresham will preach at Sandy, M. E. church in the evening of December 14 (next Tuesday) at 7:45, after which a business meeting will be held.

Miss Frances Meinig is an artist as a window trimmer and Xmas decorations, she makes everyone want Santa Claus to come! And so does Marguerite Klein with her display of the decorator's art. Really we have lots of home talent that could easily develop into "professional".

Mrs. J. C. Loundree and her cousin, Joe Washburn, from California, were off on a "Tangent" trip several days last week, visiting Mrs. Loundree's sister, Mrs. Walter Kizer.

"Billy" Alt was down from Brightwood last week and was enthusiastic about the opening of the new hall and his urgent invitation for a Sandy crowd to come up would have hardly been necessary had the roads been half way good.

Sandy-ridge is coming forward, as usual, with a fine showing of Red Cross memberships. Charley Krebs is the solicitor and in one day he secured over thirty dollars. He will finish his territory some time this week. If every neighborhood would do as well there would be great fun for the "greatest mother" to use in caring for the suffering world.

Henry Kamp has sublet his mail contract from Sandy to Zig Zag to Melvin Smith who began carrying the mail on the 1st. Kamp carried the mail for a year and ten months, and he says the roads are not as bad as when he began his contract, for there was no planking then.

Three autos were stuck at once near the rock crusher the other day! Dr. Williams sat serenely in his flivver Saturday while a pair of fine horses pulled him down Main street!

"Tom" Hagan has been helping A. C. Thomas on road repairing work in the Bull Run district this week. Hopes are held that their ten mill tax will get the roads in fair shape for next winter's travel.

There was a good attendance at the big sale on the old Theosax Place at Bull Run last week. The prices were considered good, the average for grade cows being $65 per head. The Wilkinson's will move to Portland after they settle up all their farm business.

The Grange session is slated for Saturday, and officers are to be elected, some new applications for membership are expected. It will be a big day.

Mr. and Mrs. Purcell drove down to the city the first of the week on business.

Geo. Maroney was a Portland visitor during the week.

W. Ganger a prominent citizen of Bull Run was over in Sandy on Saturday attending a meeting of the union high school board.

Ed. Hart managed to overcome the difficulties of transportation from Firwood to Sandy the other night to attend the League meeting.

Mayor Blanche Shelley and little one's returned during the week from an enjoyable trip to Hood River, whether they motored before Thanksgiving.

August Senske has returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Wisconsin.

Sixty-five percent of the ten mill special tax voted at the Sandy road meeting on last Saturday night is to be spent on the Sandy-ridge road beginning by the Smith garage.

Miss Pauline Zogg who took ill very suddenly with spinal meningitis about two weeks ago is recovering under the care of Dr. McCall of Estacada. Mrs. Zogg was away at the time but hurried home finding Pauline in a serious condition.

Geo. Krebs is now in a sanitarium on Hawthorne Ave. Taking the rest and milk cure and is gaining in weight and getting stronger. Dr. Wiley, the physician he went to when expecting to undergo an operation, decided an operation was not necessary, and now he is gaining so rapidly under the care of the Moore Sanitarium people that he expects to be able to go to work in four or five weeks.

Mrs. Gus Finger was over from the ridge again to have some teeth extracted. She can have only a few removed at a time on account of her heart which prolongs her tooth troubles considerably.

Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Kersch of the bluff road have had as their guests Mr. Kersch's brother, Dr. Ralph Kersch and his family from Crookston Minn. during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Aschoff had a splendid visit and schoolmate of Mrs. Aschoff's, John Heaffner, from the suburbs of Minneapolis for four days last week. Mr. Heaffner was on a hurried trip and could not remain long.

"Billy" Coats and Mrs. Coats of Marmot, and Mr. and Mrs. Ward, of Portland, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Aschoff last Sunday.

Elbert Schwartz is looking through the glass windows of a new Ford Sedan these days while journeying about the country.

Amil Wendland was in town the other day on foot and said Santa Claus can never make it up to his place by Xmas unless he goes via the Eagle Creek route. Some one ought to tell "Santa".

Thirty-two "walk outs", that is to say they walked out from Firwood to Sandy, leaving the Johnson truck at that point for good reasons! "They" were the cook and laborers from the Johnson Construction Co. coming out last Monday. They left ten inches of snow up above the Twin bridges. A small crew is finishing a little work "up there", and Mr. Johnson is kind of waiting around till the first of the year to see if he gets the contract for the completion of the highway.

The latest report is the worst mud holes are going to be planked today (Tuesday) this side of Bosholm's, so Firwood people are jubilant.

Annelis Thoms spent Sunday with Atha and Florence De Shazer. J. G. DeShazer was chopping oats for Wm. Fisher, Mr. Van Lacken, himself and others the past few days.

A piano tuner was in town last Tuesday and looked over various pianos.

Mrs. Bonett, president of the Parent Teacher's association started out the very next day after her election to learn what she could of school business by attending the meeting of the H. S. board. The P. T. at Cottrell has invited the Sandy P. T. to meet with them at next session in a body and it is hoped a number of cars can be filled. They will serve refreshments and a pleasant and instructive time is anticipated.

No names are to be mentioned, but if the lovers of "moonshine" could have seen the torture a patient was suffering recently at a Portland hospital (who was a victim of "320 percent whiskey") the still would soon go out of business. The two inner linings of the man's stomach were entirely gone, no food could be digested, and he lay there suffering tortures that words can never tell, while waiting to die. He no doubt got some of the galvanized or "wood" brand, but what still manufacturer cares what he gives, just so he "gets".

The moral that every man has to pay for what he breaks is undisputable. The regular song service will be held on Sunday night and a nice program is being arranged. These song services are entirely nonsectarian.

having nothing whatever to do with any organization. No money is asked for, and everybody is welcome to drop in for a pleasant evening. There will be violin selections by Wanda Wentz of Portland accompanied by her sister, Miss Louisa Wentz, a quartette choir will sing and there will be other special numbers beside congregational singing on next Sunday evening.

The regular meeting of the Sandy branch of the Clackamas County Development met on Friday night with the President, Ed. Hart, in the chair. Several matters of business were disposed of, then the question of a new union high school was discussed. A committee, Paul Dunn, Mrs. Hoernicke and P. R. Meinig was appointed to look up a site. It was agreed that Sandy should furnish the site for the school. Other communities are offering free ground, but Sandy is the most central and the sense of those present was in favor of taking action at once to secure an acre or more of free ground to offer the board. Various matters were discussed and the time sped by so quickly some other important things were left undone. Giving of credits in the public school to children who voluntarily study the Bible as a part of their education was favored, and the idea advanced that more communities should encourage this system which is already established by State Superintendent Churchill, though not on an extensive scale as it is in use in Colorado. The wave of crime sweeping over the nation which is conducted largely by the youth of our land should awaken every one to a sense of responsibility, and "educational week", it was hoped, would bring out new suggestions. Mr. Junker reported he had learned in Portland that we need have no fear as to the completion of the highway, that Mr. Yon is in sympathy with us.

C. H. Mininger was through Sandy the other day and is contemplating building a bridge across the river near his place, and Mr. Mininger is satisfied with the Loop coming as it will.

The Boring Hobekids Lodge gave a very successful evening last Friday which added over ninety dollars to their treasury. There was a program which opened with "Bubbles" by the Boring orchestra; other numbers were a recitation by Naomi Child, piano selection, Martha Maulding; selection by the Odd Fellow's quartette; Mr. Saffer danced a jig and rattled bones; grotesque selection, a sale of bazaar articles followed by a big supper. A delightful as well as a profitable evening was enjoyed by the large crowd.

W. A. Proctor was in Oregon City most of last week consorting with other members of the County Commission over various intricate problems, no doubt.

It is reported that the new Dwyer R. B. which is graded to the bridge on Deep Creek (below Matt Zogg's) is not going to haul any freight for the farmers over there, and naturally they will feel some what "peevish". It is true "Matt" says all the good they will get out of the road will be the whistle!

Mario Boltano went down to Portland last week with Carl Langer to look at some horses, but Mario is still studying whether to buy a pair of drays or "rabbits" to farm with!

B. E. Fisk managed to get down to the Development League meeting the other night through the rain and mud, and it is presumed he got home again!

R. E. Eason and Cecil Duke drove over to Woodburn last week where Mr. Eason had business affairs to look after. They were away two or three days.

Charley Krebs has been cutting wood with a drag saw for his brother George's family that their hearth-fires may keep a glow while George is at the sanitarium in quest of his health.

St. Clair, the purchasing agent for the O. R. and N. Co. was up at the Sandy Lumber Co. mill last week.

Charley Uplegrave's team had a close call last Saturday between Walter Krebs' place and Will Bosholm's. Both horses were almost drowned in the mud; their heads had to be held until calls for help could be heard and neighbors come to the rescue. As luck would have it a man was along with Charley, and between them they managed to keep their heads (the horses) out of the "wallow" that will be transformed into a boulevard if it is hoped. Comparisons will then be in order! Some will remember the "awful roads" before the Loop was made! Others will think only of their own pleasure in riding over it and care little for the pioneering hardships.

Raymond Murray was a welcome visitor at the high school last week on Thursday.

Mary Scharnke, Lewis Murray and Bertha Hoffman were the "culture" victims among the "highs" and of course had to miss school for seven days, but that was better than being laid up with the real thing!

Hazel Beers had a miserable cold in her head and felt "kinda mean" the whole week as a result, but her temper remained serene.

Ruby Dodd went "a-Portland-ing" for her week end vacation and of course had an enjoyable trip.

Josephine and Pearl Dixon went up home again on Friday evening. There's no place like home sweet home to them which is perfectly natural.

The Sandy grades will give a program at the school house on Friday before Xmas according to Mrs. Ten Eyck's report. More about it later.

Miss Louisa Wentz went home for the week end and her sister Wanda returned with her and will go on with her seventh grade work at Sandy-ridge until Christmas. "Wanda" is a young violinist and has begun opera selections in her repertoire. She will help her sister with her Xmas entertainment, and will also play at the song service here on Sunday night, accompanied by Miss Wentz.

Miss Wentz is much pleased with the record her pupils are making for attendance. There have been three weeks when there was perfect attendance, not one being tardy or absent.

Arthur Frace has been selling some Red Cross seals this week while delivering his Journals, and was very happy in doing so.

Orville Johnson has the sympathy of his schoolmates in being housed up so long.

In the first county test given this year Bertha Yabs made 100 in arithmetic, and none of the eighth grade class in arithmetic got below 90, most of them reaching 95.

The county test in spelling for the eighth grade gave Dorothy Eason 100, and Dorothy Mattingly and Della Toller each 100.

Mrs. Buckley, county school supervisor, and also a nurse were expected out on Friday to address patrons of the school on the subjects of consolidation for schools, and diseases of children, but they did not come, probably because of the stormy day.

Miss Myers and Mrs. Ten Eyck were both up early Saturday morning to catch the stage into Portland for the day.

Miss Crum, teacher of the "new" grade went into the city to spend the week end at home.

Several eighth "graders" (in Miss Myers room) evidently did fine work as the regular monthly test tells the tale. Carl Cubitz, 100 in agriculture; Dorothy Eason, 100 in geography, history and spelling; Edith Helo, 100 in history, geography and agriculture; Bertha Yabs, 100 in history; Frieda Dohberful, 100 in history; Dorothy Mattingly carried off the highest honors, receiving 100 in history, civics, agriculture and spelling.

The highest winners in the seventh grade for the monthly examinations were Tomas Scates, 100 in history; George Dodd, 100 in geography; Harold Krebs, 100 in language; Bernice Duncan and Emma O'Neill also received 100 in language.

The highest honors in the sixth grade will be reported next week, as Miss Myers was to busy to hand in the tests this week.

The following pupils in the intermediate room have neither been tardy nor absent for the month of November: Winifred Glockner, Ellen Wolf, Evelyn Meinig, Anton Perret, Heine Ditter, Arthur Frace, Mabel Frace, Walter Duncan, Raymond Platt.

The following have had 90 or above in arithmetic: Elrod Coalman, Preston Ring, Evelyn Meinig, Mabel Lilly, Winifred Glockner, Heine Ditter, Mabel Frace, Walter Duncan, Anton Perret, Arthur Frace, Mildred Barnett, Jonna Shelley, Evelyn Matcher, In the intermediate grades there were a number of tardy marks for November. A report has to be sent in to the Superintendent and parents are urged by the teachers to do what they can to lessen these tardy marks.

Under the direction of Miss Wentz preparations are on way for a program and basket social at the Sandy-ridge school house on the evening of December 23. There will be two one-act plays and various other numbers, as the program will require about one and a half hours. A big crowd is especially desired, and a fine time is promised.

Charley Krebs is circulating a petition in the Sandy-ridge district to call a special meeting for the purpose of selecting a site for the new school house which they expect to build during the summer. The building will be a modern, two room structure. There are thirty-one pupils attending the school now and there is not enough desk room. More pupils will soon be large enough to attend the school, it is claimed. The present ground will probably be used for agricultural demonstration when the new building is occupied.

Raymond Murray was a welcome visitor at the high school last week on Thursday.

Mary Scharnke, Lewis Murray and Bertha Hoffman were the "culture" victims among the "highs" and of course had to miss school for seven days, but that was better than being laid up with the real thing!
