The Clackamas county headquarters of the Children's Relief Drive was opened Tuesday at the Commercial Club parlors with Miss Elba Erickson as assistant secretary.

Clackamas county's quota is $6000—the lives of 609 children.

RINGLING BROS.
SELL OUT TO DENVER FIRM

The following press notice was furnished the Enterprise by Chas. Lyon, whose brother in the east is a press agent for the big show circuit, and forwarded this notice to Mr. Lyon here as a matter of news:

The famous name of "Ringling" may disappear from the circus world, for the great tented show for more than two score years that bore that title has been purchased, together with four others, by H. H. Tammen and F. G. Bonfils of Denver.

The shows included in the deal that is believed to be one of the largest in the history of the circus business are: Sells-Floto, Ringling, Barnum & Bailey, John Robinson, How's London and Yankee Robinson.

Some 45 years ago August Ringling, Sr., had a harness shop on the main street of Rice Lake. He had seven sons. All of them played in the Rice Lake town band. When in their "teens," five of the boys started out from here with a carnival company, having music, acrobatic stunts and athletic tumbling. Soon afterwards they collected together as their manager a few bears, wildcats and other animals, all obtained from the woods of northern Wisconsin and northern Minnesota.

Of the seven brothers, only Charles and John are alive. None of the five who are dead reached the age of 20 years.

While the popularity of the cord tire is sweeping rapidly forward among motorists, fully seventy per cent of the cars of the country, constituting the "small car" class, still ride on fabric tires. An Appeal to the American People

THREE and one-half million children in Eastern and Central Europe have no alternative to disaster between now and next harvest except American aid. For months these most helpless sufferers in the track of war have been admitted to American feedstuffs only if tragically undernourished, and have received American medical aid only if desperately threatened by death from disease.

One's cent but American meal today has saved a thousand lives. Winter is closing down. The money of many nations is valueless outside their own boundaries. Economic and crop conditions make famine, with its terrible train of diseases, a certain visitor until next harvest. Inevitably the helpless children will suffer most. No child can grow to health and sanity on the pitiful makeshifts for food with which millions of European adults must content themselves this winter. It is obvious that the remedy can come only from outside.

America saved 6,000,000 European children winter before last. Normal recuperation cut the need nearly in half last year, but unusual conditions have resulted in scant shrinkage of child destitution during the twelvemonth just past. The response of America must now decide whether 3,500,000 of these charges, in acute distress, shall begin to be turned away in January from more than 17,000 asylums, hospitals, clinics and feeding stations dependent on American support. There would be no tragedy in history so sweeping or so destructive of those who can deserve no evil.

The underaged organizations, working among every race and creed, many engaged also in other forms of relief, agree unanimously that the plight of these helpless children should have complete priority in overseas charity until the situation is met. This is an issue without politics and without religious lines. There can be no danger of paperization, for the $23,000,000 for child food, and the $10,000,000 for medical service that we seek, will relieve only the critical cases. The medical supplies, of course, must be an unqualified gift, but for every American dollar used in child-feeding, the governments and communities aided furnish two dollars in the form of transportation, rent, labor, clerical help, cash contributions and such food supplies as are locally obtainable.

America has not failed in the past in great heartedness. She has never had a more poignant call than this. Contributions should be turned over to the local committees which are now being formed for this national collection, or sent to Franklin K. Lane, Treasurer, Guaranty Trust Co., New York City.

PICTURE MEN
CAUSE TROUBLE
ON THE HILL

Two men, taking orders for enlarged pictures, made themselves offensive to several women residents on the hill section Monday afternoon, by protruding themselves upon the thresholds of homes where not wanted. One lady reported to the chief of police, that one of the men, after being denied admittance to the home, crowded her out of the doorway and came in anyway, in spite of her efforts to keep him out with aspersions that she was not interested in his wares or products. Both men seem to be of a very bold type, and will be watched by the city officials from now on.

MONEY IN BANKING

It would be a pleasure to give credit where credit is certainly due for this letter; but it came to the editor's desk with only the notation "Clipped from a house organ." "A bank in New Jersey ran this advertisement in a local paper: "Wanted—a Clerk. Must be experienced in foreign exchange. Salary $10.00 a week." And this is one of the replies: "Dear Bank:—I would respectfully apply for the position you offer. I am an expert in foreign exchange, in all branches. In addition I converse fluently in Gum Arabic, Gorgonzola, Zola and Billingsgate. I write shorthand, longhand, left hand and write hand. I can supply my own typewriter; if necessary, and I may mention that I typewrite half an hour in ten minutes, the record. I would be willing also to let you have the service, gratis, of my large family of boys, and if agreeable to you, my wife would be pleased to clean your office regularly without extra charge. The cost of postage for your answer to this application can be deducted from my salary. Please note, that is you have a back yard, I would make bricks in my spare time. "Awaiting an early reply, I remain yours truly,"
