METHODISTS TO HAVE FINE CHURCH BUILDING
WHEN WORK IS FINISHED

The work of remodeling the building purchased by the Methodist church, formerly owned by C. H. Caulfield at Eighth and Center streets, is progressing rapidly. It is expected to have the dedication of the church about February 1st.

The first floor will be devoted to a Sunday school room, work room of the Ladies' Aid Society, kitchen and pantry. The social events of the church will be held on this floor. The second floor will be devoted to church auditorium. The main auditorium will be 36x50 feet, with a gallery at the rear, which will be used as a class room or when the auditorium is crowded. The gallery is 18x24 feet.

The windows will be left as they are at the present time, and with the installation of electric light clusters, the church will have an excellent lighting system.

The grounds surrounding the building are to be improved and beautified. The members of the Calendar Committee of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church have worked untiringly during the past year to help defray the expense of remodeling the building and for paying on the church property. Since commencing their duties last year, these women have to their credit almost $1000. The last affair given to apply on the property fund was a bazaar, when about $400 was raised.

There will be no bazaar sale today as was intended, as most of the articles have been disposed of.

BIG FIVE-TON
TRUCK RUNS
OFF HIGHWAY

A five-ton truck, owned by the Portland Flouring mills, left the highway near the approach of the Johnson Creek bridge at Milwaukie Thursday morning and crashed to the bottom near the creek bed. The contents of the machine—mostly flour—was scattered in every direction, and the truck turned over three times and lighted right side up on its downward plunge over the bank. The driver, whose name could not be learned, immediately took the street car for Portland after the accident, and it is supposed that he escaped uninjured. Whether the steering gear of the machine, or the carelessness of the driver caused the big truck to leave the road could not be determined late Thursday afternoon.

On the list of banks having this amount of money or more on deposit, Oregon City has passed Corvallis over the report of last year, and Gresham, Heppner, Athena, Condon and Burns have fallen down with less than one million since the last report from the superintendent's office.

In default of $2000 bail, the two robbers were placed in the county jail to await action by the next grand jury.

President May Veto
Farmers' Aid Bill

GOVERNMENT SUFFERS
FROM LOW SALARIES
AND NOT EMPLOYEES

The real injury from low salaries is not to employees of the Government, who can take care of themselves by seeking other positions, but to the Government itself, Col. Greeley states. The loss of well-trained and efficient men means poorer protection of public property, less efficient handling of public business, and poorer service to the hundreds of thousands of people and the many industries which use the National Forests.

Costly experience during the past year has shown that the capable woodsmen needed for the proper conduct of the National Forest business can no longer be secured at pre-war rates and that filling their places with unseasoned men may be responsible for fire losses far greater than the cost of capable men. "Many experienced forest officers are holding on," Col. Greeley says, "notwithstanding starvation wages, because of loyalty to the service, of a desire to stay on their chosen work, and of faith that fair salary adjustments will be made."

OFFICIALS TO MAKE 4-DAY
INSPECTION

A large delegation from the Oregon Strawberry Plant Growers' Association of Clackamas county and others interested in the strawberry industry attended a meeting in the Multnomah county court house Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Lee B. Strong, California's chief deputy plant inspector, who made a special trip to inspect the strawberry vines of Clackamas county, made an address before the assembly, and expressed satisfaction as to the healthy condition of the strawberry plants here.

As the strawberry producers of California are depending upon the Northwest, especially Oregon, in supplying them with berry plants, the subject is vital to the plant growers of this county. It is presumed by many strawberry plant growers that the plants shipped to California, and shipped from other parts of the country, and which were found to be blighted, were grown by Asiatic growers, who would not conform to the law, thus causing the ban to be placed on strawberry vines shipped from this state.

At the meeting held Friday, arrangements were made whereby O. E. Freytag, state horticultural inspector of Clackamas county, who organized the Oregon Strawberry Plant Growers' Association of Clackamas County last Saturday, is to make an inspection tour over the various strawberry tracts of Clackamas county. This will be on Tuesday, December 21, when he will be accompanied by Professor Lovett, chief etymologist of the Oregon Agricultural College, Dr. Atwell, of Hillsboro, and J. E. Stansbury, state horticultural inspector of Portland. These men are to inspect about 75 strawberry fields here. Growers not affiliated with the Strawberry Growers' Association in Clackamas county who desire their strawberry plants inspected by these men, can advise Mr. Freytag at Gladstone.

The work of the inspection will require about four days and there will be no charges for the inspection. J. W. Brewer, representing the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce, attending the meeting, and assured the strawberry plant growers if the State Chamber of Commerce could be of any service the organization would give them its support.

Thomas in Critical Condition at Hospital

O. G. Thomas, who formerly resided at Mount Pleasant, and recently moving from that place to Sellwood, where he purchased a home, is in a critical condition as a result of injuries received while employed at the Pacific Steel & Boiler company's plant in Portland, and is now in the Good Samaritan hospital.

Mr. Thomas was crushed when a derrick fell on him, his leg being broken in three places, besides receiving a broken shoulder and other injuries.

ROBT. BEATIE IS VICTIM OF COW'S KICK

Robert (Bob) Beattie, of Beaver Creek, is in the Oregon City hospital suffering from injuries received a few days ago when a cow stepped on his face.

Myers was engaged in milking, when his stool slipped throwing him to the ground. The cow became frightened and "stepped around" at a lively gait, coming down on Beattie's face with one of her feet. The cheek bone was crushed, and it was necessary for the young man to undergo an operation at the hospital and have the bone raised.

Beattie suffered from a similar accident while in the naval service when he slipped and struck his face against a piece of steel. The cow's hoof struck this portion of his face.

Beattie's brother, William, was removed to the Oregon City hospital a few days ago in a precarious condition, suffering from appendicitis. He underwent an operation as soon as his arrival at the hospital, and is improved.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE FROM CLACKAMAS WILL ATTEND BIG AUTO SHOW

The twelfth annual automobile show to be held at Portland on January 10th to 15th inclusive, will attract many automobile enthusiasts from Oregon City and Clackamas county. All of the dealers here are making arrangements to take parties to the show and display to them the wonders of 1921, red hot from the factories and distribution centers.

The exhibit this year promises to out-class any other event of its kind in the history of Oregon. Owing to the crowded space occupied for pleasure cars, the truck exhibit will have to be placed in another building. The passenger cars on display alone take up over 50,000 square feet of floor space, and 34 dealers have leased room in the exhibit building representing 51 different makes of cars and over 141 different models will be shown.

This year's automobile show has been rightly named "The Beauty Show" and it sure will be, as the wonderful new models are classed from steering wheel to rear springs. The event will be housed in the municipal auditorium, and the opening night—Monday, Jan. 10—will be given over to a reception to automobile dealers and distributors of the Northwest.

Many dealers from this city will attend the banquet to be held that night by the association, and hear about the coming year's prospects as to the industry as a whole—which it is rumored that this summer will see the best and soundest automobile business for the past ten years.

IN N. Y. MARKET

Oregon eggs top the world in the New York market, according to R. E. Butler, a poultryman of Jennings Lodge, being three cents per dozen better than eggs from Petaluma, for years the recognized egg producing center of the Pacific Coast. The last carload of eggs sent to New York brought 97 cents, while previous shipments sold for $1.05, $1.07 and $1.08. The cost of transportation and overhead runs from 14 to 15 cents, bringing the producer in Oregon a net price of 81 cents or better.

Mr. Butler expressed his appreciation of the cooperation the poultrymen have received from R. G. Scott, county agent, and stated that the county should make a liberal appropriation for the maintenance of the farm bureau activities for 1921.

"The Oregon Poultry Producers Association, with a membership of 65,000 hens, has done $315,000 worth of business in 10 months of this year," said Mr. Butler, but we concluded to enlarge our territory to include the famous Winlock, Wash., district, so we are reorganizing under the name of the Pacific Cooperative Poultry Producers Association, with a membership of 140,000 hens, and from 4,000 to 5,000 are coming in every day. We expect to do a business next year of $1,000,000."

Clackamas is the banner poultry county of Oregon, both F. C. Schroeder, of Kendall Station, president of the association, and Mr. Butler, the secretary, being local poultrymen.

NEIGHBORHOOD
AROUSSED OVER
MAN'S ARREST

Charles Howard Thomas, from the South Mills neighborhood, was brought to this city Monday afternoon by Constable Fortune on a warrant issued from the district attorney's office charging him with shooting sheep belonging to F. A. Hilton. Thomas will have a preliminary hearing in Judge Stipp's court Tuesday morning. It is rumored that the neighborhood in which Thomas lives is considerably aroused over the matter and a delegation will attend the trial and intercede in behalf of the accused man.

Use two parts of black oxide of manganese, three parts of graphite and nine parts of Fuller's earth, thoroughly mixed and added to which is ten quarts of soda lye, one part of glucose and four quarts of water, until it is of the consistency that enables it to be applied with a brush.

"THE EARLY
BIRD CATCHES
THE WORM"

Of course, there are some people who will wait until a theater curtain has gone up before they attempt to take their seats—and again there are people who arrive at the show in plenty of time to take off their hats without undue haste. So it is with Christmas shoppers. Many will think this article is printed for the purpose of stimulating trade for the stores of Oregon City, but alas—the clerks are so busy right now that they haven't time for lunch. The stores and shops are crowded to full capacity with Christmas buyers this week, and if the last-minute shopper thinks it will be easy to secure a selection, well, let him or her try it.

WALL STREET
CRASH MAKES DEALERS JUMP

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—On transactions approximating 1,700,000 shares the largest turnover of the year, the stock market today experienced another drastic readjustment of quoted values, which forced many issues down from 2 to 22 points and established numerous low records in from one to four years.

The collapse, which exceeded in violence any movement of the prolonged reaction, encompassed every branch of the list but was most in dependent steels, coppers, motors and related shares.
