

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. Williams, the latter formerly Miss Elaine King, of Mount Pleasant, now of Astoria, are guests at the home of Mrs. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King, of Mount Pleasant. They came here to attend a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Lawton, the latter aunt of Mrs. Williams, and residing at Mount Pleasant. The old historical home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Others attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Forbe Barclay Pratt and daughter, Betty, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. King and family, of Mount Pleasant.

Miss Hazel Lanckins, formerly of Oregon City, arrived here from Joseph, Eastern Oregon, Friday morning, and in the afternoon left for Viola, where she is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lanckins. Miss Lanckins, who is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College, is engaged in teaching at Joseph, and at the time of her departure from that place, there was snow covering the ground, and sleighing was being enjoyed. Miss Lanckins will return to her duties after New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Garlock and daughters, Misses Elizabeth and Blanche, have arrived in Oregon City from Saskatoon, Sask., Canada, and for the present are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Moore. Mr. Garlock is a brother of Mrs. Moore, and this is the first time they have met for thirteen years. He and his family are to make their permanent home in Oregon, and may decide to locate in Oregon City. Miss Elizabeth Garlock is an accomplished musician, and expects to teach piano in the city. She makes her home here. Miss Blanche is a book-keeper and has been connected with a bank at Saskatoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Story, who have been in Oregon City, where they have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Welsh, the latter sister of Mrs. Welsh, have returned to Salem where they are making their home for the winter. They were accompanied by their son, Archie, of Spokane, Wash., and his family, who are to remain there until the middle of January, when they will return to Oregon City for a brief visit at the Welsh home.

Mrs. Mary Fortham, of Freewater, Oregon, has arrived in Oregon City, where she is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scroggin, at whose home she is spending the holidays. Mrs. Fortham is a sister of Mrs. Scroggin, of Division street. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Scroggin to Portland Christmas, where they spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Scroggin, where a family reunion was held. Mr. Scroggin is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scroggin.

Douglas King, of Mount Pleasant, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. King, of that place, was taken to the Oregon City hospital Wednesday evening, where he will undergo medical treatment for an injury received a few days ago.

Dr. J. W. Powell, of Brownsville, formerly of this city, and later of Molalla, has arrived in Oregon City, where he is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Humphrys. Dr. Powell is the father of Mrs. Humphrys.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Silvers and the latter's sister, Miss Erma Keen, teacher in the Oregon City schools, left Friday for Brownsville, where they spent Christmas with the mother of Mrs. Silvers and Miss Keen.

A Santa Claus letter addressed to "Santa Claus, North Pole, U. S. A." and signed "Elma" reached this office too late to be published, but which was turned over to Santa Claus so it would reach him in time before starting for little Elma's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bennett, who are occupying the James cottage on Eighth and Washington streets are to occupy the residence formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fuson. They are to take possession this week.

David Caulfield is in Tillamook county, where he is assisting in improving a farm recently purchased by his son, Jack R. Caulfield. The latter and his family have taken possession of their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Warnock and son, Lyman, of Mount Pleasant, were guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. E. H. Reddaway, and family at Milwaukie Christmas, where a family reunion was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Graves entertained on Christmas at their Mount Pleasant home on Christmas day their daughters, Miss Lella Graves, of Canby, Miss Leona Graves, of Portland, and also their son, John Graves, of Canby.

Charles Forward, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Forward, of this city, is visiting his parents in this city, having come for the holidays. He is a student of the University of Washington at Seattle.

Pierce Walker is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker. He is taking a special course at the Oregon Agricultural College.

Roy Stafford, employed as an engineer in construction work at Tillamook, is here for the holidays, where he is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stafford.

William Strohmeyer, of Marshfield, is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Strohmeyer, where they are spending the holidays with their relatives.

mevor, of this city. Bill is also visiting among his many friends.

Fred C. Charman, who has been spending Christmas and Sunday at his home in this city, left Sunday evening for Seattle, where he will resume his position with the Pacific Steamship company. Charman will leave January 15th for New York, where he will take up his duties as purser of a Wenatchee, and will make the trip through the Isthmus of Panama, arriving in Seattle in March. He will then sail for China or the steamer as her purser. While here he visited relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Wade are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter born at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Roberts, of Eighth and Madison streets, Monday morning, December 27th. The little one, who weighs seven pounds, has been named Violet Eleanor. Mrs. Wade was formerly Miss Eleanor Miller, of Portland. The father of the little one is a hero of the world war.

N. R. Charman, who is connected with the engineering department of the Crown Willamette Paper company with headquarters in Portland, spent Sunday in Oregon City visiting relatives. He recently returned from California, and will probably be transferred to Astoria.

Mrs. E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas, accompanied by her niece, Miss Mildred Dedman, student of Reed College, were in Oregon City Monday. Miss Dedman is spending a portion of her vacation at the Dedman home at Clackamas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roll and three children, of Portland, arriving here Saturday to spend Christmas with Mrs. Roll's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cooper, returned to their home Monday morning.

Mary and Julia Kiltner, little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kiltner, of this city, underwent operations on their throats at the Oregon City hospital Monday, when they had their tonsils removed.

Mr. and Mrs. George Califf, of this city, have taken out papers for the adoption of their grandchild, little 20 months old Lovina Ruth Califf, daughter of Marvin Califf. The child's mother died last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baxter, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Riley have returned to Oregon City from Estacada, where they attended a family reunion on Christmas day at the home of Mrs. Baxter's mother, Mrs. L. E. Wilcox.

Richard Masten, accompanied by his cousin, Miss Terry Young, of Portland, were in Oregon City Saturday, having spent Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brady.

Miss Dolly Daly, of Portland, and formerly linotype operator for the Morning Enterprise, is in this city, where she is a guest of Miss Edna Calavan.

Mrs. A. M. Buckley, county school supervisor, who recently underwent a surgical operation in Portland, has been able to return to her apartments on Eleventh and Main streets.

W. E. Griffith, of Redland, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday. He is one of the prominent residents of that section of the country.

Miss Minerva Thiesen underwent an operation on her throat at the Oregon City hospital Monday. Her home is at Milwaukie.

Miss Mary Confer, who came here to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Confer, will return to Bremerton, Wash., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Montgomery are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, born December 21st.

A. A. Spangler, of Spangler Station, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday.

Thomas Lovett, student of the Oregon Agricultural College, is spending his holiday vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lovett.

Mrs. Bertha Adams spent Christmas in Portland, where she was the guest of her son, Allen Adams, and family.

Mrs. Samuel H. Weed, of Walla Walla, Wash., has arrived in Oregon City, where she is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Kellogg, of this city.

Miss Mary Confer of Bellingham, Wash., has arrived here for the holidays. She is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Confer.

E. Scott, of Seaside, Oregon, visited Oregon City Thursday and Friday. While here he registered at the Electric.

Dorothy Hartke, who has been very ill from pneumonia, is improving. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hartke.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bladet, of New Era, are receiving the congratulations over the arrival of a son, born December 21st.

Miss Roma Stafford, teacher in the Portland schools, is spending the holidays in Mount Pleasant with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stafford.

Art DeWolf and Charles White, of Cottage Grove were here Thursday and Friday.

Grand Carter, of Glenada, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

Hugh Mitchell and family, of Clackamas, was among those to visit Oregon City Thursday and Friday.

Born, December 19th, to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse G. Cromer, of Oregon City Route 6, a son.

Mrs. H. Strohmeyer and little son are in Astoria, where they are spending the holidays with relatives.

Miss Effie Newman, whose home is in this city, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Newman, of Sixth and Water streets. Miss Newman, who is a well known teacher of Clackamas county, is engaged in teaching the first grade of the public school at Harrington, Wash., about 50 miles from Spokane, receiving an excellent salary. She is delighted with Harrington and its people, and will return to that place next Sunday evening to resume her duties. While here she is also visiting among her many friends.

Mrs. W. N. Miller, of Nampa, Idaho, accompanied by her granddaughter, Miss Margaret Green, are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Miller is visiting her son, County Clerk Fred Miller, and Miss Green is visiting her father, Carl Green, and also her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Green. They will remain for several weeks since arriving here Mrs. Miller has been very ill and threatened with pneumonia.

Rev. E. E. Gilbert, formerly pastor of the Methodist church of this city, now district superintendent of the M. E. church, with his home at Salem, was among those to visit Oregon City Monday. He was on his way to Damascus, where he went on business pertaining to his duties of the church, and was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mulligan and baby, Frank, Jr., arrived in Oregon City a few days ago to spend the holidays with Mr. Mulligan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mulligan, of Twelfth and Center streets, and also Mrs. Mulligan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman. They are now residing near Medford.

Mrs. Bessie Dundas, who is spending the holidays at her home at New Era, was in Oregon City Tuesday. Mrs. Dundas, during the school days, is making her home in Oregon City, as her daughter, Miss Olive, is a student of the high school. Miss Olive is also spending her vacation at the Dundas farm.

Edward Schell, of Canby, was among those to attend the budget meeting from the southern part of the county, Tuesday. He was accompanied home by his wife, who had been called to Portland by the illness of her daughter, employed in that city.

A. D. Gribble, whose home is at Gribble Prairie, and one of the prominent Jersey breeders of Clackamas county, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday. After transacting business here he visited among some of his old time friends.

Edward Sharp, Charles Thopson, Ernest Kruse and Loren Kruse, of Stafford, were Oregon City visitors Tuesday, having represented that section of the county at the budget meeting.

Arthur Mattley, who has been spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mattley, and other relatives in Oregon City, will return to the Mattley summer home at Nehalem, Oregon, today.

Mrs. Mulligan, after spending the past six weeks in Independence, Kansas, has returned to her home in this city. While at Independence Mrs. Mulligan visited her mother and other relatives.

Miss Isabelle Burns, acting county nurse for Clackamas under the direction of the county health association, has handed in her resignation to take effect immediately.

Herbert Harris, student of the Oregon Agricultural College, is spending his vacation in Oregon City also at Seaside, Oregon. At the latter place he is visiting his mother, Mrs. V. Harris.

Miss Addie Clark, an instructor of the Portland schools, will return to Portland today, after spending Christmas at the home of her brother, Attorney John F. Clark, and family, at West Linn.

Mr. and Mrs. Rousser and sons, Samuel and Henry, have returned to their home on John Adams street, after spending the week-end with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kurlidge, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Parker, who have been spending the Christmas holidays at the home of their son, Rufus Parker, and family, returned to Oregon City Monday evening.

Grant Mumpower, of Stine, was among Oregon City visitors Tuesday. He was among those to attend the budget meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Eby and son, Roland, spent Sunday at Molalla, where they were guests of Mrs. Eby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Moore.

E. C. Gambb, of Salem, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday and Tuesday. While here he registered at the Electric.

Miss Helen Mattley, student of the Oregon Agricultural College, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mattley.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Garner, of Portland, returned to their home Monday, after spending Christmas week-end with friends here.

Misses Alice and Ruth Chinn, students of the Oregon City high school, are spending their holidays with their parents at New Era.

Miss Meta Diets, who is attending the Oregon City high school, is spending her holidays at her home near New Era, visiting relatives.

Miss Merle Keok spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. B. T. McElin and family in Portland.

Miss Anna Wilehart, of Portland, but a former resident of this city, after visiting friends here for a few days, returned to Portland Tuesday.

John Busch, of Portland, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. While here he visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Busch, Sr.

Gus Jaeger, horse breeder of Clackamas county, whose home is at Willsonville, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

J. A. Kitching, from Frog Pond, was here on Tuesday. He was among those attending the budget meeting.

Mr. Vick, accompanied by his son, William Vick, residents of Liberal, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

M. Hattan, of Stone, was among those to transact business in this city Tuesday.

Harvey Everhart, of Molalla, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

H. Bryan, of The Dalles, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday and Tuesday.

Fred Rousser, spent the week-end with his sister, Miss Ida Rousser, of Sellwood.

William Moehcke, of Clarks, was among those to transact business here Tuesday.

John Risley, of Risley Station, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

J. R. Youell, of Silverton, was here on Tuesday.

H. King, of Elma, Wash., was here on Monday and Tuesday.

F. Harris, of Spokane, Wash., was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

Mr. Yoder, of Yoder Station, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

Born, at the Oregon City hospital December 19th to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jordan, of Gladstone, a son.

A baby girl has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stovall.

Alumni Dance Will Be Elaborate Affair

The Alumni Association is to give a big dance Thursday evening, December 30, at eight-thirty o'clock in the Crown Willamette hall. This dance is to be in honor of all the college students who are now home for the holidays.

All Alumni and friends, also college Alumni are cordially invited and urged to attend. Great preparations are being made to make this dance a success, so the committee hopes to have the support of all the Alumni. This is to be one of the most interesting social events of the season, for there are to be special numbers on the dance program. Alumni members may bring out-siders.

MOOSE TO STAGE HOME MINSTREL

Oregon City is to have a home minstrel show next Friday evening, Jan. 1, the first to be held here for many years. The announcement comes from the management of the Moose lodge, and the performance will be made up entirely from local talent. Chas. F. Lyon, late of the Robinson circus, and Al Pleau, late of Haverly's minstrels, will have charge of the program. The performance, to be held on the new Moose stage, will be preceded on Saturday evening by a street parade, headed by the Moose band and Chas. Lyon, world's champion drum major will lead the parade.

Judge Stipp Ties Two Knots Monday

Judge Stipp, of the justice court, had a busy afternoon Monday, when two marriages took place in his office. Those whom the judge joined together were William Divorschak, 25, of St. Helens, and Hazel Gentry, 17, of Yankton, Ore.; Albert Swanson, 32, Aberdeen, Wash., and Minnie Sumner, 33, Portland.

Oregon City Couple Secures License

Ralph Bailey, 22, and Miss Leata Bonde, 22, both of Oregon City, secured a marriage license from County Clerk Miller yesterday afternoon.

WOMAN'S CLUB AID

The national federation of women's clubs have joined hands with the U. S. and state college extension in work to correct the evils brought about by improper feeding of children. The club women will help in announcing, advertising and planning the campaigns to find which children are underfed in any community, and back up the home demonstration agents in planning better nutrition and getting plans accepted by the mothers. The serious need for this work in Oregon is seen in the large ratio of underweight children found in the few communities so far surveyed by the extension service.

COMMITTEE NAMED

A committee made up of citizens of the Mt. Pleasant district has been named to cooperate with a committee from the Hill Improvement club for the purpose of securing city water for the Mt. Pleasant community. The Hill club delegation is composed of Albert Estes, W. E. O'Donnell and S. M. McDonald—Mt. Pleasant committee—J. T. Graves, G. M. McDowell and Chas. Baker.

MARRIED Merwin Melvin Califf, 28, and Miss Lena Agnes Hann, 17, both of this city, secured a marriage license from the county clerk Friday afternoon.

Society

The marriage of Miss Helen Scott and Irvin Morris, of this city, was solemnized at the home of Rev. Scaggs, pastor of the Christian church at Vancouver, Wash., Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, December 18th.

The bride was becomingly gowned in blue silk with picture hat of black. The bride's maid wore a gown of dark blue crepe de chine.

Mrs. Morris is the only daughter of Mrs. Eva Scott, an instructor of the Oregon City schools. She graduated from the Oregon City high school with the class of 1920, and is now connected with the Oregon City Abstract Company, and has many friends here.

Mr. Morris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris of Beaver Creek, and for some time was employed by the Hawley Pulp & Paper company, and is taking a course in electrical engineering.

A family reunion was held at the home of the Misses Cochran at 1115 Washington street Christmas afternoon and evening.

The rooms were decorated with Oregon grape, holly and Christmas bells.

Dinner was served during the afternoon, and in the evening a Christmas tree was enjoyed.

Attending this reunion were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Keating, Mrs. J. B. Robinson, Kenneth and Don Robinson, Rodney and Virginia Keating, N. R. Charman, of Portland; Fred C. Charman, of Seattle, Wash., Misses Cochran.

One of the enjoyable family reunions held in Oregon City Christmas day was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Doolittle, of Medford, when a delicious Christmas dinner was served. The table decorations were very attractive and were in keeping with the season. The living and dining rooms were prettily decorated with Oregon grape and holly.

Following the dinner a Christmas tree was enjoyed.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cheney, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Oren Cheney, of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Doolittle and little daughter, of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Doolittle.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Rauch entertained Friday evening at their home in Gladstone with a family reunion and Christmas tree.

After removing from the beautifully decorated tree the many gifts, games and music were enjoyed.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peckover, of Parkplace; Mr. and Mrs. Winnifred Knight, Miss Amy Peckover, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peckover, of Oregon City; Charles Peckover, of Parkplace; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rauch and daughters, Veatrice and Vivian, of Gladstone.

Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. Winnifred Knight entertained at dinner for the pleasure of relatives Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peckover, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rauch, Charles Peckover, Misses Amy Peckover, Veatrice and Vivian Rauch.

Mrs. Carrie Connecke, and son, Ralph, entertained in a most charming manner, at dinner Christmas day, the latter's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prater, of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Prater, of St. Johns; Mr. and Mrs. R. Mann and son, Junior, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Edwards and daughter, Barbara Jean and Mrs. T. B. Edwards. One of the most enjoyable features was that little Barbara Jean ate dinner with her grandmother, Mrs. T. B. Edwards and great grandmother, Mrs. J. H. Prater.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Rivers, of Parkplace, entertained at dinner for their children and grandchildren Christmas day.

The home was beautifully decorated with Oregon grape, holly and Christmas bells.

Enjoying the feast were Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Oehler, Wilton, Wava and Gladys Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Keely and children, Maxine and Harlon, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. William Rivers and children, Aldon and Erol, of Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. M. Rivers of Parkplace.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Preauger entertained with a family reunion at their home in Parkplace, Christmas day.

The living and dining rooms were artistically decorated with ferns and poinsettias. A pretty decorated Christmas tree added much to the beauty of the rooms and much pleasure for the guests.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Paul Preauger and son, Donald, John Straight, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Glass, and children, Melvin, Norman and Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burns, and son, Jack, of Parkplace, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Colton, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Winkler, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis, Chester LaMarr, Miss Florence LaMarr, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ketels have as their home guests Christmas week, Mr. and Mrs. A. Willman of Damascus.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lette, of Gladstone, entertained with a family reunion and Christmas dinner at their home on Clackamas boulevard. A brilliantly decorated Christmas tree was laden with gifts. The rooms of the Lette home were decorated with holly, mistletoe and Christmas bells.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lette, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Crabtree and children, Major and William, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Wickerman and daughter, Jeanette Roberts, of Clackamas; Misses Lura and Heper Lette, of Gladstone; P. O. Wade, of Oregon City, Ralph Lette, of Portland.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the week was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Welsh, when their wedding anniversary and also the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Story, of Long Beach, Cal., the latter a sister of Mrs. Welsh, was celebrated by a family reunion. One of the features of the day was a "wedding" dinner. Prepared and served by Mrs. Welsh and Mrs. Story.

The rooms of the Welsh home were beautifully decorated for this occasion. Poinsettias, holly wreaths, Oregon grape were used most effectively, and the table was centered with pink chrysanthemums.

Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Archie Story and children, Wilbur and Janice, of Spokane, Wash.; Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Welsh and daughter, Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Ray S. Welsh and daughter, Evelyn, (little Jeanette who was but two weeks old, was too young for a place at the table), Mr. and Mrs. Francis Welsh, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Story, of Long Beach, but who are making their home for the winter in Salem.

The marriage of Miss Nettie Taylor to Mr. Francis Welsh, and Miss Hattie Taylor to Mr. C. D. Story occurred at Mountain Home, Clackamas county, December 20, 1881, and was a social event of that place thirty nine years ago, and was a double wedding.

Mrs. Welsh and Mrs. Story are daughters of the late J. C. and Kathryn Taylor, prominent early Oregon pioneers, who resided in Clackamas county many years, and moved from Mountain Home to Oregon City, where the family was favorably known.

The event held in honor of the double wedding Monday was a most enjoyable affair and long to be remembered by members of the family attending.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shively and daughter, Miss Lillie, of this city, were guests of the former's son, Attorney W. B. Shively and family, of Portland Christmas. They attended the Christmas dinner, and while there also enjoyed the Christmas tree arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Shively. The Shively home was beautifully and artistically decorated for the occasion with poinsettias and evergreens, and the beautifully decorated tree added to the beauty of the room.

The historical home of the Barclay family in this city was the scene of a family reunion Christmas day when the home was artistically decorated with poinsettias, ferns, Oregon grape and holly with Christmas bells artistically suspended from the festoons of evergreens.

The mantels were banked with Oregon grape centered with poinsettias, making most artistic finishing in the parlors.

Attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt, Miss Kate Barclay, Mr. and Mrs. Forbe Barclay Pratt and daughter, Bett, of Portland, Miss Cis Barclay Pratt and Miss Dolly Pratt.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warner at Mount Pleasant was decorated for Christmas when a family reunion was held.

Poinsettias intermingled with pussy willows and ferns, with Oregon grape, Christmas bells and holly were artistically arranged in the dining room and parlors of the Warner home, making the rooms most attractive.

Dinner was served in the afternoon, when places were laid at the prettily decorated table for Dr. Dr. and Mrs. Harvey O. Hickman, of Gervais; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hickman, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lageson, Mrs. A. L. Hickman, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding held their annual family reunion at their home Christmas day, when the parlors, living and dining rooms were most attractively decorated, the decorations being in keeping with the season. Christmas bells, festoons of evergreens and potted poinsettias added to the beauty of the decorative scheme.

Dinner was served during the evening. The table was beautifully decorated, when the color scheme was appropriate for the holiday season.

Among those to attend the family reunion were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harding, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brodie and children, George and Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Miss Evelyn Harding, Lloyd Harding, of this city; Mrs. Kate Heaves, of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding held their annual family reunion at their home Christmas day, when the parlors, living and dining rooms were most attractively decorated, the decorations being in keeping with the season. Christmas bells, festoons of evergreens and potted poinsettias added to the beauty of the decorative scheme.

Dinner was served during the evening. The table was beautifully decorated, when the color scheme was appropriate for the holiday season.

Among those to attend the family reunion were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harding, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brodie and children, George and Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Miss Evelyn Harding, Lloyd Harding, of this city; Mrs. Kate Heaves, of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding held their annual family reunion at their home Christmas day, when the parlors, living and dining rooms were most attractively decorated, the decorations being in keeping with the season. Christmas bells, festoons of evergreens and potted poinsettias added to the beauty of the decorative scheme.

Dinner was served during the evening. The table was beautifully decorated, when the color scheme was appropriate for the holiday season.

Among those to attend the family reunion were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harding, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brodie and children, George and Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Miss Evelyn Harding, Lloyd Harding, of this city; Mrs. Kate Heaves, of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Harding held their annual family reunion at their home Christmas day, when the parlors, living and dining rooms were most attractively decorated, the decorations being in keeping with the season. Christmas bells, festoons of evergreens and potted poinsettias added to the beauty of the decorative scheme.

Dinner was served during the evening. The table was beautifully decorated, when the color scheme was appropriate for the holiday season.

Among those to attend the family reunion were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Harding, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brodie and children, George and Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Miss Evelyn Harding, Lloyd Harding, of this city; Mrs. Kate Heaves, of Salem.

MARRIED

Lloyd Ira Showers, 26, of Medford, and Miss Mabel Earsley, 21, of Oregon City, route 5, secured a marriage license in Oregon City Tuesday.

MARRIED