

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong have received word from their son, Fred Armstrong...

Clifford DeBok, who has been spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George DeBok...

Miss Locklin, demonstrating for the Ker-Gifford company of Portland, in this city at the Brady Mercantile company's store...

Mrs. Frank Hopp and family, who have been residing near Mount Pleasant, have gone to Canby...

Grant Murre, of Stone, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Friday...

Born, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Beard, in Sellwood, to the wife of W. C. Moore...

A. H. Hollingsworth, who is taking up a homestead in the Elk Prairie country, about 15 miles from Molalla...

Mrs. Wambaugh, mail carrier for Oregon City, Route 2, who underwent a surgical operation for appendicitis in October...

Mrs. H. B. Stewart and son, James, of Redland, were in Oregon City Saturday...

Mrs. Frank Hopp, recently moving to Canby with her family, and whose former home was near Mount Pleasant...

Miss Ethel DeBok, financial secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in Portland and her sister, Miss Winnie DeBok...

Bud Weiser, prominent farmer of Clackamas county, whose home is at Canby, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday...

J. J. Sperr, of Canby, was in Oregon City Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Sperr is a prominent farmer of that section...

Among the Oregon City visitors Monday and registered at the Electric was William Johnson...

Godfrey Schemp, of Henri, on the Beaver Creek road, has been called to Canada on account of the death of his sister...

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bullard and son, Norman, of Clarks, were in Oregon City Thursday...

Among those to transact business in Oregon City Friday was Phillip Mohr...

Henry Schornborn, of Eldorado, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday, bringing in a load of potatoes for the market...

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Price, of this city, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, born Thursday, January 6...

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wettlaufer, of Clarks, were in Oregon City on business Friday...

Lee Kirchem, of Redland, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday and Thursday...

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Davenport, now engaged in farming on Route 5, were in Oregon City Saturday...

E. E. Brodie, editor and publisher of the Morning Enterprise, and Hal Hoss, advertising manager, will leave Thursday morning for Eugene...

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. McKeehan, of 1213 Seventh street, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son...

A. S. Pattullo, of Portland, private secretary for the Oswego Iron & Steel company, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday...

Mrs. W. B. Mott, of Salem, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Francis, of Mountain View...

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Thompson, of Canby, were in Oregon City Thursday...

S. P. Huddle, of Boring, was here on business Wednesday...

Robert Schoenborn, of Canby, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday. He also visited in Portland before returning to his home...

Fred Hoffmeister, of Eagle Creek, returned to his home Thursday afternoon, after visiting in Oregon City for a few days...

A. D. Mazingo, of Willhoit, was in Oregon City Friday. While here he visited among some of his old time friends...

J. Hardors, of Bissell, Oregon, was in this city Friday, where he came on business...

J. N. Jepsen, whose home is at Mulino, was an Oregon City visitor Friday...

S. A. Wooster, prominent resident of Estacada, was in this city Friday, coming here on business...

M. F. Davis, of Union, Oregon, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday...

William Schatz, of Stafford, transacted business in this city Friday...

Mr. Herzog, of Redland, was in Oregon City on business Saturday...

Among the Oregon City visitors Monday was J. P. Cook, of Oswego...

Dr. E. A. Gibbs, of Salem, was among those to transact business here Monday...

Mr. and Mrs. W. Blom, of Bremerton, Wash., visited relatives in Oregon City Sunday...

Mrs. R. J. Kelly, of Omaha, Neb., was in Oregon City Sunday and Monday...

E. A. Gibbs, of Salem, was an Oregon City visitor Monday and Tuesday registering at the Electric...

On Monday and Tuesday L. M. Brown, of Eugene, transacted business here...

Mrs. Laura Howland, of Liberal, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday and Tuesday...

D. F. Cassidy, of Lebanon, was among those to transact business in this city Tuesday...

N. F. Nelson, of Oak Grove, was among those to transact business in this city Tuesday...

C. G. Miller, of this city, went to Canby on business Tuesday...

Oscar Vorhies, of Molalla, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday...

Frank Busch & Sons have instituted suit against J. Holberg to collect the sum of $136.58...

Society

One of the prettiest and most successful social events given in this city was the Alumni dance at the Crown Willamette Hall...

The hall was beautifully and appropriately decorated for the holiday season. Excellent music was furnished by a three-piece orchestra...

This affair was the first one the newly organized Alumni Association has given, but the committee is so well pleased over the result it contemplates giving another large dance when college students are home again...

Patrons and patronesses were dance last Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Canfield, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mount, and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Latourette...

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Reinke entertained the former's mother, Mrs. Ruby McGee and her sister, Miss Lora McGee and niece, Miss Opal Gesner...

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. White, of Gladstone, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home December 30...

The affair was given in honor of the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Burns and Donald Praeger, when both were honored with birthday cakes forming a part of the table decorations...

The affair was held in the afternoon, and proved a most enjoyable occasion. Refreshments were served during the afternoon...

A number of handsome gifts were received by the host and hostess. The decoration of the White home were most attractive and artistically arranged...

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. White took place fifty years ago at Menomonee, Wis. They came to Oregon ten years ago. For eight years they made their home at Meldrum Station...

During the day when they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary many messages of congratulations were extended from friends in their old home state, Wisconsin, and pretty gift from that state were also received...

Since coming to Oregon Mr. and Mrs. White have made many friends in this city, as well as at Meldrum and Gladstone, where they have resided...

The Saturday Club was entertained in a delightful manner at the home of Mrs. Samuel Stevens at Ninth and Center streets Monday evening, when Mrs. W. A. White and Mrs. William Krassig were assistant hostesses...

This was the first meeting of the year the newly elected officers took their place of office, these being as follows: President, Mrs. A. Henderson; vice-president, Mrs. Albert Roake; secretary, Mrs. Verne Roake and treasurer, Miss Helen Daulton...

The early part of the evening was devoted to business, when committees were appointed to arrange for the banquet to be held next fall, an annual event held by the society. Mrs. H. E. Hendry was appointed chairman, and her committee is composed of Mrs. L. Adams and Mrs. D. W. Kelly...

After all business was transacted the remainder of the evening was devoted to a social time, when refreshments were served. The long table was prettily centered with red carnations. Carnations were also used in decorating the living room...

Attending were Mrs. H. E. Hendry, Mrs. Thomas Keith, Mrs. L. A. Henderson, Mrs. C. H. Meissner, Mrs. Mielke, Mrs. L. Adams, Mrs. Robert Warner, Mrs. Albert Roake, Mrs. D. W. Kelly, Mrs. C. D. Latourette, Mrs. Julia Haskell, Mrs. John F. Clark, Mrs. Snover, Mrs. Earl Hutchinson, Mrs. Walter Wentworth, Mrs. Verne Roake, Mrs. John Crawford, Mrs. James Roake, Mrs. Ada Pearl, Mrs. William Krassig, Mrs. W. A. White, Mrs. George Rake, Mrs. August Rake, Mrs. Chance, of Portland, Miss Helen Daulton, Miss Muriel Stevens, Miss Maude Warner, Mrs. Stevens...

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Gladstone Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Owens Wednesday. After the regular business was transacted officers for the ensuing year were elected. These were Mrs. T. B. Gault, president; Mrs. R. M. McGee, secretary; Mrs. Albert Blount, treasurer...

All other officers are to be appointed by the president at the next regular meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Prater...

After making plans for the year's work, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess to about twenty guests...

Mrs. L. H. Strickland, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Harry Wheeler, served a farewell dinner Wednesday for the pleasure of Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Clay...

Rev. and Mrs. Clay will make their home on a farm near Hillsboro. They have resided at Gladstone for nearly two years and have made a host of friends both in and out of the church...

During the afternoon many friends called at the Strickland home to bid them farewell...

Thomas Gault accompanied Rev. and Mrs. Clay to Hillsboro, the trip being made by automobile. He returned to Gladstone Thursday...

The Security Benefit Association held its regular meeting at Moose hall Monday evening...

After the close of this meeting games and music were enjoyed and refreshments served by W. C. Green and team...

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong entertained at their home at West Linn Christmas day at a family reunion, proving a most delightful affair...

Oregon grape and ferns were used artistically in decorating the Armstrong home, and arranged by their daughter, Miss Odella Armstrong...

One of the features of the day was the delicious dinner prepared and served by Mrs. Armstrong during the afternoon...

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nedwell, of Portland; Mrs. Julia Mead, of South Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carrington and children, Walter, Jack and Bobby, of Gladstone; Miss Glenna Turner, of Bandon, Oregon; Miss Odella Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong...

Mrs. Paul Praeger was a charming hostess at her home at Parkplace Wednesday when she entertained at dinner Mrs. R. Winkler, Mrs. Thomas Colton, Mrs. Samuel Erickson, of Portland; Mrs. Maude Glass, Mrs. Dora Burns, Donald Praeger, John Straight, Mrs. Praeger's father...

The affair was given in honor of the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Burns and Donald Praeger, when both were honored with birthday cakes forming a part of the table decorations...

Members of Mooseheart Legion acted as hostesses at a delightful social affair at the Moose hall Tuesday evening when the birthday anniversaries of three prominent members were celebrated...

The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. White took place fifty years ago at Menomonee, Wis. They came to Oregon ten years ago. For eight years they made their home at Meldrum Station, and for the past two years have resided at Gladstone...

Little Ethel Wenger and Master Donald Praeger, whose birthday anniversaries occur during January, were not forgotten, for a decorated table was arranged for the little children. Places of honor were marked with birthday cakes, prettily ornamented with lighted candles...

There were about 50 attending, as members of the Moose Lodge were also invited from the club rooms to partake of the feast prepared and served by Mooseheart Legion...

The bride was prettily attired in pale blue messaline and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses...

Following the marriage ceremony, refreshments were served. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earsley was beautifully decorated, when laurel, ferns and Oregon grape were used...

The bride is a most attractive young woman, and has for some time been a resident of Medford, where she has a host of friends. She has been connected with an abstract office in Medford for some time...

The young couple have gone to Medford, the bride's traveling gown for to make their home...

Ex-Soldier Breaks Arm Cranking Auto

After dodging bullets and sharpnel while driving motor trucks during the war in France, and escaping without a scratch from the conflict, Earl Horton, of Gladstone, broke his arm in an attempt to crank an automobile, last Sunday. Horton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Horton, of Gladstone, and is employed at the Miller-Parker company. He just returned from the service a few weeks ago...

MARRIED The following Oregon City couples secured marriage licenses in Vancouver, Wash., yesterday: Clarence Crisswell, 28, and Dorothy Rayburn, 24; Jesse J. Shannon, 20, and Evelyn Boettcher, 20...

CLUB HOLDS MEETING On Monday evening, at the library building, the Hill Improvement held its weekly meeting with about twelve members present. Plans for the betterment of the hill section and other matters were discussed...

SUES FOR DIVORCE G. G. McClure has filed suit for divorce against Mary A. McClure on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Oklahoma City Nov. 20th, 1905...

and children, Beverly, Leila, Ray and Bill Cox, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wenger and children, Lawrence, June, Charles and George Wenger...

The afternoon and evening was devoted to cards and music. In the evening refreshments were served. The children attending the dinner party enjoyed a theatre party at the Grand theatre in the afternoon, and were chaperoned by Ray Cox...

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Alldredge entertained at their home on Division streets New Year's eve, when the guests of honor were their nephew, Cleo Howell, and Harry Romig, students of the Pacific University of Oregon, who had been spending their holidays in this city...

Cards were enjoyed during the evening, when prizes went to Misses Francis and Mary Shannon, Harry Romig and John Criswell...

Luncheon was served during the evening, and just as the new year approached the young people were partaking of the feast. Toasts were responded to when Cleo Howell and Harry Romig acted as toastmasters...

The table decorations were unusually attractive, and were keeping with the holiday season. The dining room also the living room were correspondingly decorated, when Oregon grape, silver tinsel were used, and intermingled with poinsettias...

The marriage of Miss Clara Lettenmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lettenmeyer, of Mountain View, and Lewis O'Farrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Forward, of this city, was solemnized December 11th at 7:30 p. m., at the home of the bride's parents...

The bride was prettily attired in white messaline. Her long tulle veil was held in place by a dainty wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and carnations...

Arnold Lettenmeyer, brother of the bride, was best man...

Following the marriage a reception was held and wedding dinner served. The house decorations were attractive and artistically arranged...

Many handsome gifts were received by the young couple. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. Lettenmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Forward and daughter, Carrie, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Lettenmeyer, Rev. and Mrs. Kraxberger, Mr. and Mrs. N. Couder, Mr. and Mrs. William Lettenmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lettenmeyer, Misses Minnie, Frances and Alice Lettenmeyer, Messrs. Arthur, Carl, Henry, Edward, Karl and Harold Lettenmeyer, Marion Couder...

The young couple, well known in Oregon City, will make their future home here, and will be at home to their friends at Eighth and Washington streets, having returned from their honeymoon...

Mr. Forward is employed by the Crown Willamette Paper Company at West Linn...

The marriage of Miss Mable Earsley, of Medford, and Mr. Lloyd Showers, also of Medford, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Earsley, at Willamette, Saturday evening at 6:30 o'clock, with Rev. Cooper, of Salem, officiating...

The bride was prettily attired in pale blue messaline and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's roses...

Miss Showers, of Medford, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's maid, and Mr. Earl Wiggins, of Tacoma, Wash., was the best man...

Following the marriage ceremony, refreshments were served. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Earsley was beautifully decorated, when laurel, ferns and Oregon grape were used...

The bride is a most attractive young woman, and has for some time been a resident of Medford, where she has a host of friends. She has been connected with an abstract office in Medford for some time...

The young couple have gone to Medford, the bride's traveling gown for to make their home...

Ex-Soldier Breaks Arm Cranking Auto

After dodging bullets and sharpnel while driving motor trucks during the war in France, and escaping without a scratch from the conflict, Earl Horton, of Gladstone, broke his arm in an attempt to crank an automobile, last Sunday. Horton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Horton, of Gladstone, and is employed at the Miller-Parker company. He just returned from the service a few weeks ago...

MARRIED The following Oregon City couples secured marriage licenses in Vancouver, Wash., yesterday: Clarence Crisswell, 28, and Dorothy Rayburn, 24; Jesse J. Shannon, 20, and Evelyn Boettcher, 20...

CLUB HOLDS MEETING On Monday evening, at the library building, the Hill Improvement held its weekly meeting with about twelve members present. Plans for the betterment of the hill section and other matters were discussed...

SUES FOR DIVORCE G. G. McClure has filed suit for divorce against Mary A. McClure on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Oklahoma City Nov. 20th, 1905...

TWO WIVES ENTER SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Two Clackamas county couples are involved in the divorce courts here and the complaints were filed in the circuit court Thursday afternoon...

Madeline Tripp wants a divorce from Bert Tripp on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, according to the complaint. One minor child is involved, which she asks the custody of and $50 per month from the husband for maintenance of the child and herself. They were married in New York May 30, 1914...

Maudie V. Clark has entered suit for divorce against H. L. Clark the latter a merchant in Milwaukie. She alleges in her complaint that her husband has a bad temper, and at one time, struck her about the head and face. She asks the court to give her half of her husband's property, consisting of notes and property in Milwaukie, $25 per month, and $100 attorney's fees, besides the custody of three minor children. They were married at LaGrande, Aug. 4, 1909...

WIFE SUES FOR DIVORCE AND $5000

A divorce suit has been instituted here by Francis Hill against Verd Hill, and property interests involved aggregate over $39,000 owned by the husband. Mrs. Hill alleges in her complaint filed that her husband has only contributed $15 per month for the support of their minor child. She asks the court to allow her $1500 while the case is pending and $1,000 attorney's fees. She also asks for $5,000 permanent alimony; one-third interest in all of her husband's property, the custody of the minor child and an absolute divorce. The couple was married in Linn county Dec. 28, 1914, and the plaintiff gives her address as Clackamas county...

MASS RESIGNS AS DEPUTY U. S. MARSHAL

E. T. Mass, ex-sheriff of Clackamas county, who for the last 3 1/2 years has served as a deputy United States marshal under George F. Alexander, resigned yesterday and retired immediately. He will be succeeded by Howard P. Swetland, an overseas veteran...

Mass took oath of office the same day as Marshall Alexander, August 3, 1917. He has been retained by the merchants of this city to serve in a special detective capacity. Marshall Alexander said that Mass had been one of the most faithful and efficient deputies on the force...

COMPANY FILES LIEN AGAINST LAND HERE

Writ of attachment was filed by the Advance Rumley Thresher company against 59 1/2 acres owned by W. J. Uppendahl in the circuit court here yesterday. The land is located in the John Marks D. L. C., and the amount involved in the case is $780, alleged due the company, or plaintiffs...

Young People Attend Meeting in Portland

A number of the young people attended the Baptist Young Peoples Union convention held in Portland at The White Temple Sunday. The main address was made by Rev. Dodd...

Those attending were Dr. Keeney, Ferris, Mrs. H. C. Leete, Mrs. W. I. Rowen, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Graiser, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Amen, H. H. Hubbard and son, Teddy; Misses Edna Rowen, Ollie Amen, Leona Deue and Edna Lund, Troy Solomon, Elvin Catto, Manard and Clay Brendo, Lester Kerns, Fred Lund, Dennis Wallace and Marvin Allsworth...

HIGH OFFICIAL OF ELKS HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Thos. B. James, district deputy grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks, will inspect the local lodge and witness initiation of candidates on next Friday evening. Several new members will be taken into the order on the above night, and a large attendance is expected to turn out. Refreshments will be served after the ceremonies, and the semi-annual inspection of the district ruler will be observed by special initiation rituals...

Journalists Honor Publisher Enterprise

E. E. Brodie, editor and publisher of the Morning Enterprise, has been honored by being elected to honorary membership in Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalism fraternity. The initiation of Mr. Brodie and other newspaper men who are to attend the Oregon Newspaper Conference in Eugene this week, will take place on the evening of January 13th, previous to the convention...

SUES ON NOTE A. H. Wilson has been made the defendant in a suit for judgment filed by William Ecklund for the amount of $225. Plaintiff alleges the money due on a note executed April 4, 1910, by the defendant. Ecklund also asks for $25 as attorney's fees...

SUITCASE AND $200 WORTH OF EFFECTS LOST

Mrs. Jimmy Wilson, of Portland, sister of Mrs. E. E. Gabriel, of this city, lost a grip yesterday evening containing over $200 worth of clothing and personal effects, and not only was the grip lost, but in a very peculiar manner...

Mr. Gabriel started out to drive Mrs. Wilson to Portland, and had placed the grip on the runnings-board of the machine while in front of the Gabriel candy store on Seventh street. He forgot to put the grip in the car, and had driven a few blocks, when the loss was discovered. Gabriel searched carefully over the back route, and when he arrived at the store, a clerk told him that another car had stopped and one of the passengers got out and picked up the grip. The car then was driven off very rapidly. The clerk says that he remembers two numbers on the car, and an effort will be made to trace the owner and recover the suitcase...

The night police searched many strange cars last night, but could not discover the case. A lookout is being kept on the second hand shops here and at Portland for the missing grip and contents, with the idea in mind that if the finders of the suitcase are dishonest, they will attempt to dispose of the grip...

COUGAR SHOT BY FERGUSON NEAR MOLALLA

J. W. Ferguson, who is making his headquarters at the North Fork in the Molalla country, was in Oregon City Friday afternoon and brought in a hide of a cougar he killed Thursday. The cougar weighed about 90 pounds and measured 7 1/2 feet. The hide was an exceptionally fine one and Mr. Ferguson will have it tanned and made into a handsome rug for his cabin in the mountains...

Ferguson met the animal on a lonely path about one mile from his home, and just as it came around a log in his direction, he brought the animal down by one shot from his gun. The cougar was shot in the nose, the bullet ranging upward through its head and breaking its neck. A bounty of $25 was awarded Ferguson...

He has killed about 17 such animals, which abound in that section and are feeding on deer. They seldom attack a man, unless they are unusually hungry. A large number of deer have been slaughtered by the cougars in that section during the past year, and it is the intention of Ferguson to kill his share of the animals and secure the bounty...

NEW PLAN IN EXPRESS SERVICE

Announcement was made today, by E. L. Hibbs in charge of the local express office, of the inauguration of a new plan movement in the express business to be known as the "Right Way plan." The purpose of this effort will be to increase the efficiency of the express service...

Agent Hibbs, Clerk Vickers, and Driver Burness of the local forces will attend a "Right Way Meeting" to be held at Portland January 11th, at which the right way principles of handling express matter will be set forth by prominent express officials...

This meeting will be held simultaneously with others throughout the country and will introduce the plan, which has been adopted as a permanent educational policy of the express carrier. It is expected that all classes of express workers will be reached by this plan, including vehicle-men, comprising express drivers and routemen; platform employees, in terminals and railroad stations, express messengers; waybill clerks; scalemen, checkers and office workers generally...

The cooperation of express shippers in this city will be enlisted in the movement. Special emphasis will be laid on what is called the "Right Way of starting express shipments" with an explanation of the packing and marking regulations, the correct method of filing claims and for sending shipments C. O. D., as well as other subjects caucated to be of interest to every express user...

GUILD ELECTS OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

At the annual election of St. Paul's Guild held at the parish house of the Episcopal church Monday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Rosina Fouts Evans; vice-president, Mrs. Robert Goddow; secretary, Mrs. G. A. Harding; treasurer, Mrs. Frank T. Barlow...

Debate Coach to Publish Book Soon

Pacific coast forensic contests are about to be published in book form. Professor George L. Koehn, debate coach at Reed college, is preparing reports of important Pacific coast debates, and these will be published along with tables of victories and losses. Detailed reports of high school state championships and a list of all high school victories for the 1920-21 debate year will be included...

The volume will contain stenographic reports of the recent Princeton-Oregon debate held in Portland, and the Oregon league debates, in which Reed scored a double victory over the state university and the Oregon Aggies. Professor Koehn has never lost a debate in seven years of coaching in the West Coast...