

MILWAUKIE AND NORTHERN CLACKAMAS

Shingle Mill Starts Work at Milwaukie

MILWAUKIE, Feb. 3.—Sophomore girls basketball game played the grammar school girls Thursday afternoon January 27. The grammar school girls played a good game, but they were smaller than the Sophomores. At the close of the game the score stood 24 to 11 in favor of the Sophs. On the same afternoon the Freshmen quintet played the grammar quintet. It was a hard fought game. The grammar boys put up a hard fight. The game ended with a score of 24 to 13 in favor of the Freshmen.

A double header basketball game between Beaverton and Milwaukie was played Friday, January 28 at Beaverton. Quite a crowd from Milwaukie attended the game. The boys' game was close and hard fought from the start to finish. At the end of the first half the score stood 13-13, but when the Milwaukie boys dropped in two baskets in succession the tide turned and the Beaverton boys were unable to overcome the lead. The game ended with the score 21-17 in Milwaukie's favor. The girls' game seemed rather slow from the start and although the visiting team played hard, the high temperature of the "box court" seemed to sap their pep and the home team walked away with the score.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wendel and their son, Kenneth, returned Saturday evening from an extended visit in Los Angeles. They had a lovely time.

Jack Varley, who has been ill with appendicitis, is still in the hospital, but is getting better. The Junior class of which he is a member sent him a lovely bouquet of flowers.

The Thompson and Bullis shingle mill resumed work last Tuesday after several weeks of inactivity. The shut down was caused by the difficulty in obtaining logs and the congestion of the market.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Anderson returned Thursday evening from an extended visit in Los Angeles. They had a very enjoyable time.

ent were Mr. and Mrs. Lennie Hallman, Mr. and Mrs. Nellie Holt and M. J. Worthington.

Mrs. James Gregory of Camas is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Austin.

Mr. Newland's mother and father are visiting here. They expect to stay a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Snedden and daughter Martha were up from Orient to attend the last dance here.

Mrs. J. C. Loundree and Harry Dodson had a pleasure and business trip combined last week when they went to Oregon City together.

A. E. Collier, resident engineer for the Mt. Hood Loop highway and Mrs. Collier were in town Sunday according to Mrs. Scates. The Collier family will move into the Scates house the last of the week as they expect to be Sandy residents for at least two years. Mr. Collier returned to town on Monday evening bringing a crew of men with him.

Mr. and Mrs. George Perrett extended their delightful hospitality to their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. C. Miller last Sunday, inviting them to dinner and Mrs. Alice Scates, Mrs. Sture, Mrs. Esson, R. S. Smith and Dr. Sture spent a portion of the afternoon, the Sunday night quartette practicing old-time songs with Mrs. Perrett at the piano. Little Lillian Perrett sang "Blanket Bay" so sweetly! Dr. and Mrs. Sture and Mrs. Miller remained for Sunday evening supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Purcell entertained Rev. Earl Cotton over last Sunday night. Mrs. Purcell went to Portland on Monday to remain a week or so.

Little local ads pay. Try them.—Adv.

Dr. W. W. Youngson, District Supt. of the Methodist church, Dr. Heisey of Gresham and Rev. Cotton were in town a few days ago. Dr. Youngson coming out this way to look over church property.

Mrs. James Mc Cormack and children who have been visiting at the Nick Schmitz home for a few weeks have returned to Haines, Or. Pauline Mutchler went along to Baker, where she will stay with her mother.

Mrs. Frank Schmitz went to Portland last week for a couple of days shopping, visiting and pleasure seeking.

Mrs. Anderson, the engineer who kept highway through the forest region went up the mountains last week to look over the road and see how it is standing up under the traffic.

Anton Michelson was down a few days ago to look after business in our little city.

This has been an exceptionally quiet week so far as business is concerned, but it is usually quiet at this season of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Krebs, Jr., have rented the Sladke place on Sandy ridge and are moving in. Work is too scarce in Portland to depend upon, and this young couple will get a start out here which is the best place ever!

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krebs, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herman, George Krebs and Ruth Krebs were all visitors at the "Grandpa" Krebs home last Sunday.

Mrs. R. C. Shipley went to Kelso to the graduation exercises Saturday night with Joe Vaeretti and his mother.

Mrs. Thomas Bowen, formerly of Kelso and Sandy was over from Oregon City last week on a short visit. Kelso Sunday after Mrs. Bowen. They are getting on fine at Oregon City where Mr. Bowen is working at the paper mill. Mrs. Bowen made a short visit in Sandy this time, but said she was coming again.

Mrs. Henry Perrett and children and Mrs. J. M. C. Miller were at Kelso Saturday night to attend the school entertainment. Mrs. Perrett's niece, Gertrude Kigel, was one of the four graduates.

Little Louise Coleman gave a birthday party for her little friends Ernest and Mildred Nicholas last Monday. There were five candles on Louise's cake and the children all had a fine time and nice things to eat. Such birthday remembrances are great events in little lives.

Mrs. E. L. Power and little Gretchen had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reed.

The town is going to miss Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Lawton who have suddenly decided to leave Sandy. It came as a shock to their many friends here for they were supposed to be "fixtures" for at least a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Davo Douglas were in town from up the Cheryville way on Monday to do trading and look after business affairs.

Jack Scates went to Portland on Monday and remained until "the day after."

Everyone who likes old time songs should come to the evening of song Sunday night, (the 6th) at 7:45 P. M. A fine program which will include violin solo by Miss Wentz of Sandy-ridge, and many of the kind of ballads that will never die, will be sung by various voices. Solos, duets, quartets, and readings will make "variety."

Rev. Earl Cotton gave the stereoptical pictures of the "Melting Pot" last Tuesday evening at the Methodist church. His sermon last Sunday night was on the subject of the Methodist discipline. In two weeks he will talk on "The Community Church."

Helnie Junker was out from Portland to spend the week end with the home folks which made him happy as well as "the rest."

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perrett and children visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weiss at Lents Sunday afternoon.

Your ad here would be read by hundreds of Eastern Clackamas county people.—Adv.

There were five automobiles belonging to the city of Portland that came out to Bull Run one day last week, and along with the city officials were twenty O. A. C. students who had the advantage of a sight-seeing trip, at this attractive place.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Heacock and young daughter and Miss Pauline Heacock of Damascus were recently visiting at "Firwooden", at the home of their sister, Mrs. Anton Maler.

Mr. and Mrs. Wentzel and children were out to spend the week end with their home folks, Mr. and Mrs. August Senke.

Miss Mid Senke was out from Portland to spend the day Sunday with her father and mother, and Mark Senke and family were also Saturday and Sunday "in town" at home, so there were quite a family reunion.

The Misses Canning have not been home for some time, their usual custom of driving home for the week end having to be delayed until the roads are in better shape.

"Bob" Readson came out from Portland Sunday evening to see his friend Carl Aeschoff.

Joe Haley was out to see his brother, John Haley, from Saturday until Monday. Joe will have some "news" to tell soon, that is if he will only tell it.

Mr. Vandermirle, who has the W. A. Proctor place in charge was in town last Monday.

George Eklecker and daughter were in Sandy on Monday laying in a supply of goods at the Scates store.

The Willard Boshorn family are mourning an accident to their fine Scotch-collie. The dog was running after the horses and had his leg broken. Justus played surgeon and put the leg in splints and there is a chance the dog may have use of his leg again.

John Free of Cheryville was in Sandy the first of the week.

Fred Koenigke is building a new house not far from his father's house. What for?

Mrs. Ernest Bonnett had a relapse during the week from ptomaine poisoning and is again on the road to recovery and his friends hope she will now walk rapidly.

A. Maler, Sr., is having an attack of illness which confines him to his bed the greater part of the time this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Dahrens have another brand new baby-boy at their home, regardless of the little clothes that were all blue bordered! Mr. Dahrens said his tiny son is "no bigger than a pea-unt," but the scales will tell a different story for he is a little "husky." He arrived Monday about one o'clock in the morning.

The little two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ridgembush fell off the bed last Monday and run the point of the scissors through her cheek. Dr. Lawton attended the child.

Mrs. Sig Knighton was able to go out to the Parent Teachers affair Friday night. She had several spells of heart trouble since she is up and around.

A fine new baby boy recently was carried into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hembrich, who are on the Alfred Bell place, by the wings of the stork-bird, and congratulations of friends are in order.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Revenue, are also the proud parents of a brand new baby boy, weight eight one and one-half pounds, so "grandfather" John Revenue can now sing "By-o-baby-bunting" etc. It is fine "it" is a boy, for the old pioneer name of the Revenue family must not die out.

Mrs. Rich, who lives down the Boring way is laid up with rheumatism according to report.

Harry Dodson has recovered from hurting himself on the head at the Burns mill.

Miss Pauline Zogg is now able to sit up in bed occasionally and says she expects to be able to go home next month. Mrs. Zogg is still with her at Estacada and Barbara Zogg is at home looking after the work.

Friends of Mrs. R. S. Smith were glad to see her out again last week after her siege of being housed so long.

Mrs. Duncan has been ailing again during the week but is getting over her trouble.

Adolph Dahrens hurt his leg at the Dwyer camp about two weeks ago but went on working and last week it got so painful he had to lay off. The trouble seems to be around the knee cap.

William O'Neill's mother was quite ill the past week and is under the care of Dr. Williams. Mrs. O'Neill is eighty four years of age and any illness is hard on her.

Robert Bell hurt his knee cap again and had to go to the hospital for a day or two. He came out from Portland on Saturday and will have to let the logging business rest a while.

The Rebekah entertainment committee, Miss Margaret Klein, Mrs. Maronay and Otto Meinig, have charge of the big masquerade which will be given on the 12th. It will be worth while to go just to see the costumes even if the toes do not get to tickling.

Saturday, February 12 is the next Grange meeting and an enjoyable time is promised. The dinner is always fine, and after the appetite is satisfied will come discussions worth while along various lines during the lecture hour, which also puts on a short program. Little Doris Allen has consented to dance this time, and there will be other attractive numbers also. The question of taking action to get a cannery started in this section will be brought up during the day, and other vital interests of the country discussed. The Grange is an intellectual forum as well as a place to eat the best to be had.

Mayor Junker, J. C. Duke, Fred Proctor and Charles Krebs all attended the stockholder's meeting of the Telephone Co. at Gresham on Monday.

Snelt are again running and Mario Bottona, Henry Herman and Charles Krebs went over to the Sandy to dip up a few.

Harry Dodson and Mr. Martin "plowed up the earth" when the steering gear rod on their auto broke near Gresham. They ran into a man's yard and cut up several ciphers with no harm to themselves, fortunately.

County Commissioner Proctor went to Portland last Monday evening on business.

The heavy wind that "cycloned" along the Washington coast Saturday must have spent some of its fury out here the way the trees scattered fir across the roads and bent and twisted in about fifteen minutes, but that was enough to put the lights out. However, soon after all the old tallow candles and the once treasured Rochester burners were dug out of the garrets the good old electric came on again!

It is said that practically all of the right-of-way have now been signed up for the Mt. Hood highway which is another big step toward getting the actual work begun.

Mayor Junker is pruning his fruit trees and trying to get his place clean-up before springtime.

The bluff road is being planked in the worst places which is helping greatly. The Firwood road is also planked along Ed. Wolfe's place now.

at times between the visible and the unknown so deftly does her art interpret the hidden mysteries of the song called life.

The regular meeting of the high school girls sewing club was held at the home of Miss Mixer again this week and the usual fine time was enjoyed and refreshments served.

SANDY, Feb. 2.—Our neighboring school, Kelso, held graduating exercises Saturday night at the Kelso school house, the following pupils receiving eighth grade diplomas: Nellie Harvison, Gertrude Kigel, Dock Hite and Robert Patterson. The program: "Song by 7th and 8th grade girls; Drill "Playing Soldier," by small boys; Reading, "A Telephone Conversation," Miss Eunice Jonsrud, a senior of Jefferson high, "Reflections," Anna Louise Larson; Play, "Fortunes of War," by the 7th and 8th grade classes; Recitation, Alma Spooner; Song, by Mrs. John Dunn; Hoop Drill by a girl's class; Song, "Japanese Manners," by Alice Irvin and Helen Hite; Recitation, Edward Nelson; Song, "Goodbye," by the school.

John Revenue made the diploma presentations and his short address was sensible and practical, the kind of a talk that idealizes work as the greatest benefactor teaches the glory of the commonplace. After the program came a plate supper for which the Kelso ladies are famous! There were two hundred plates served, with coffee and real cream and everything free! The Women's Club of Kelso said it was their "treat," and it was a treat! After the eating program was concluded there were games by the young folks and visiting among the older ones till about twelve. Such occasions mark an epoch in the lives of every boy and girl in the community. Miss Caroline Vaeretti and Mrs. A. C. Baumback are the efficient teachers who had charge of the program.

Miss Eunice Jonsrud, a Kelso girl, was recently admitted into the "Zeta" society at the Jefferson high, which is a distinctive honor. A number of her poems, and her picture have recently been published in the "Spectrum", of which staff she is a member.

H. C. Compton of Boring was in town a few days ago on business. Mr. Compton has ordered two thousand baby chicks from the O. A. C. to be delivered in March and is now making brooders to handle the same. Last week the Compton's gross check was $116.00 for eggs, very good for one week's laying. Actually the science of poultry raising is producing fanciers that know more about a hen than she knows about herself, but no one understands a "chicken."

The City Fathers (and a "Mother") met last week and talked the question of housing the chemical engine, and finally decided to store it in the city hall.

Two hogs that Pizzola and Boitano butchered last week weighed nine hundred pounds. Helnie Hasewander and Rudolph Krebs helped handle these heavy weights.

According to John Oak the location where the old Wempe P. O. was situated is now selling at thirty dollars and acre to persons desiring a summer home. The land is all sand there, but summer visitors do not grow anything anyway! Evidently some folks are taking time by the forelock so as to get a situation on the highway so they can rusticate at will.

Mildred Jarl who attends Franklin high was out from Portland last week to spend her vacation with her father and brother at Kelso.

On the 19th of February a play and program will be given at the Kelso school. Lunch will be served, but more about the program later.

Gertrude Kigel who graduated from the Kelso school on Saturday night went to Portland to start into high school there on Monday, the roads being too bad for her to get to Sandy.

Mrs. I. H. Phipps of Kelso baked a great big "graduation cake" for the class, as is her custom, and it was called "devil's food" but after a general sample of it was "tasted" by the Sandy reporter and others it was decided that "angel's food" would be a better name for it! It was dully decorated, with lettering appropriate for class honors and served at a special table for them. A "class cake" is really a brilliant idea.

BLOODED COW HURT.

SANDY, Feb. 2.—Another piece of hard luck came to Mr. and Mrs. Anton Maler, fancy Jersey breeds, a few days ago when one of their best cows broke her leg. The herd was turned out only fifteen minutes and it is supposed either an automobile struck the cow's leg, or that she slipped and fell.

The injured cow is Le Coney of Ingleside, and is the mother of Le Coney-ina that won first prize in the senior feeder class of forty-three at the recent Pacific International Stock show. Le Coney was about ready to freshen, so she is being cared for with the hope she may calve and then it may be possible to lift her up and put her leg in a cast. The cow's mother (which belonged to Altman) broke her leg at almost the exact spot but lived to calve twice afterward. The Malers had the misfortune to lose a seven hundred dollar cow only last fall, and this cow is considered still more valuable, and "we would not have considered selling her at all," said Mrs. Maler, who, with her husband is philosophical and meets the loss bravely without a note of discouragement. Mr. Kinney, the veterinarian, has been doing all he could to save Le Coney.

CARL ASCHOFF ILL

SANDY, Feb. 2.—Carl Aschoff, one of Sandy's well known citizens was taken to Troutdale Monday to the home of Harry Bramhall to be nursed through an illness which is said to be a form of sleeping sickness. Although Mr. Aschoff does not sleep to speak of he "sees double," which is one of the symptoms of the disease. While working in Dwyer's logging camp nearly two weeks ago he began seeing double and told his wife he was afraid to work so remained at home, and has been delirious much of the time since, the running not temperature according to the report. Dr. Adix of Gresham is attending the case and with the careful nursing he is having it is hoped he will soon get better, though it may require six weeks or more for his recovery. Mrs. Aschoff went with her husband and took little Dorothy along.

SUICIDE CAST GLOOM

SANDY, Feb. 2.—The suicide of Mrs. Jasper Dugger cast a gloom over the vicinity of Kelso on the 27th, and her husband and daughter of that locality and also her son Shelby Dugger of Sandy have the sympathy of the entire country around here. Mrs. Dugger was forty-eight years old and had been a sufferer for some time with cancer, and while her husband was out at work and her daughter in Portland it seems she lost her self control and took a "22" and shot herself. The neighbors are all very sad over the occurrence as she was much loved in the community. Mr. Dugger is almost beside himself with grief. The remains were sent to Grass Valley, Eastern Oregon, for burial.

LOCAL NEWS

SANDY, Feb. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scott and daughter have moved here from Iowa and are at present located in the house where the Mills family formerly lived. We are glad to welcome them to our town.

Mrs. Mattie Williams of Lusted Flat who is a sister of Mrs. John Mitchell was a visitor at the Mitchell home last Sunday. Mrs. Mitchell is spending a week at the home of her mother in Gresham and John is manipulating the bachelor's art while clearing land. George Nichole of Newberg came over and surprised his brother Harry and family last week, remaining for a short visit.

CROSS ROBBERY CLEARED UP; MEN IN COUNTY JAIL

Robbers entered the F. H. Cross Leather Goods store on Seventh street, hill section, early Thursday morning and after attempting to "blow" the safe, made away with ten pairs of shoes from the establishment. They gained entrance through a back window and a step ladder was found by the officials under the window the next morning.

Evidently the yegmen were frightened away just as they were getting ready to open the safe with explosives, as the lock on the door of the safe was found broken off, and a small hole started in the door preparatory of putting in the "soup."

No clue to the robbers has been discovered by the sheriff so far, and just why the stepladder was placed under the low window is puzzling the officials, as a man could have gained entrance through the window without the use of a ladder. Sheriff Wilson alleges that the ladder was placed there for a "blind" to mislead, and make out that the job was done by young boys. The work on the safe, however, was done by experts and the hole started in the safe door was just the right size for "nitro."

A remarkable coincidence to the affair happened about 1:30 o'clock Thursday morning, when a telephone call was received at the Oregonian office in Portland, and a voice over the wire inquired whether that paper had received the news from Oregon City. The reporter asked what news in particular was referred to, and the voice replied "you'll hear of it soon," and the receiver was hung up.

COUNTY HAS ONLY CLUB IN THE WEST

Miss R. P. Sneedecker, county club leader of Clackamas county, with the aid of the Clackamas County Guernsey Cattle club, has organized the only Junior Guernsey Calf club in the West.

An increased enrollment is expected over the ten members of last year, each of whom owned a pure-bred Guernsey. The county Guernsey club organization will help the new junior club obtain calves and will assist in working out its program for the coming year. Most of the club meetings will be held in connection with the county cattle club.

ESTACADA, Jan. 28.—The Eastern Clackamas News is moving from Broadway to the building fitted up especially for it at Second and Zorbrist streets. Editor Gibbs is installing electric power to run the presses, each of which will have its individual motor. He plans to put in a new news press.

Catarrah Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrah deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrah Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrah, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrah Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrah Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrah Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c.
