

CANBY AND SOUTHERN CLACKAMAS

City Water Held Not Contaminated

CANBY, Feb. 9.—A report on the condition of the water supplying the residents of Canby from the two wells, has been made by the board of health...

Man Injured When Car Turns Turtle

CANBY, Feb. 9.—An automobile containing four men of Portland turned "turtle" near the "Y", where the Molalla train crosses the highway...

BAIRS ARE HONORED

CANBY, Feb. 9.—In honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bair who will leave February 15th for Southern California...

CARD CLUB RESUMES

CANBY, Feb. 9.—The Canby Card Club met recently for the first time since the summer months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gramam...

COUNCIL MEETS

CANBY, Feb. 8.—At the meeting of the city council held Monday evening, the regular routine of business was transacted.

LOCAL TEAM WINS

CANBY, Feb. 9.—In an exciting basketball game played in this city Friday evening between the local high school team and the Willamette school basketball team, the local boys won.

NEWS FOR CANBY AND VICINITY

Any news for the Canby edition of the Oregon City Enterprise may be left at the Cottage Hotel, which will be called for by Miss Nan Cochran Tuesday afternoon...

CANBY LOCALS

CANBY, Feb. 9. Mrs. Snyder, who recently entered the shoe repairing business in Canby, was in Portland and Oregon City on Tuesday.

Saul Rider, who has been on a year's visit in the East, has returned to Canby.

Jack Malley, who has been employed in Grants Pass, has arrived in Oregon City, where he is visiting at the Newstrom home for a few days.

Miss Hattie Reynolds, who is taking a course in domestic science at the Girls' Polytechnic school in Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday in Canby, where she was the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Altman, of Portland, accompanied by their little children, Dale and Alene, here on Sunday where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Altman, the latter an aunt of Mrs. Altman.

Mrs. W. D. Rider was an Oregon City visitor Friday.

Dr. W. J. Thompson, an eye specialist, whose headquarters are in Portland, but whose home is at Salem, was in Canby Wednesday, where he came on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harnack of Macksburg plan to leave for Canada soon to engage in wheat farming.

Friends and relatives gave them a farewell surprise party Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Harnack have lived at Macksburg several years.

CANBY-OREGON CITY

Table with columns for Stage Time Table, Stage Leaves & Minutes Before Scheduled Time, and Week-Days. Includes routes to Lv. Canby and Lv. Ore. City.

Page 25c

MANY BILLS ARE SIGNED BY GOVERNOR

STATE HOUSE, Salem, Or., Feb. 9.—Governor Olcott has signed the following bills:

- H. B. 57, by Lynn—Providing means for nomination and election of persons to fill vacancy at same time.
H. B. 35, by Krell—Providing for election of constables in districts of 100,000 or more population.
H. B. 27, by Powell—Changing time of holding examinations for teachers.
H. B. 18, by Kubi—Relating to plats and index of taxpayers to be kept by assessors.
H. B. 63, by March—Providing for licensing of nurserymen and their agents.
H. B. 13, by Hindman—Providing for legislation of gifts, grants and bequests of personal property in trust for cemeteries.
H. B. 17, by Kubi—Defining criminal syndicalism and sabotage and providing punishment.
S. B. 136, by Norblad—Providing for preliminary survey for interstate bridge across Columbia river.
S. B. 105, by Washington county delegation—To permit county court of Washington county to compensate Francis Willard Taylor.
S. B. 20, by Staples—Providing for regulation of the sale and distribution of commercial foodstuffs.
S. B. 189, by committee on revision of laws—Relating to who is qualified to make a will.
S. B. 172, by Hume—Relating to who may prosecute action for damages.
S. B. 114, by Moser—Relating to state aid for institutions.
S. B. 102, by Dennis—Relating to circulation of false statements as to standing or reputation of banking institutions.
S. B. 46, by Ryan—Relating to county superintendents' apportionment to high schools.
S. B. 69, by Joseph—Relating to interest coupons in exchange for bonds.
S. B. 66, by Dennis—Relating to conviction of minors.
S. B. 65, by Patterson—Creating state budget commission.
S. B. 33, by Joseph—Fixing limitation on revocation, countermands and payment and stop-payment orders relating to the payment of any check or draft against accounts.
H. B. 114, by Moser—Relating to state aid for institutions.
S. B. 102, by Dennis—Relating to circulation of false statements as to standing or reputation of banking institutions.
S. B. 46, by Ryan—Relating to county superintendents' apportionment to high schools.
S. B. 69, by Joseph—Relating to interest coupons in exchange for bonds.
S. B. 66, by Dennis—Relating to conviction of minors.
S. B. 65, by Patterson—Creating state budget commission.
S. B. 33, by Joseph—Fixing limitation on revocation, countermands and payment and stop-payment orders relating to the payment of any check or draft against accounts.

TWO WIVES OF COUNTY ASK DIVORCE

Belle Freeman has entered suit for divorce against W. L. Freeman, and charges in the complaint filed yesterday cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married at Vancouver, Wash., April 28, last year, and the wife asks for a complete divorce, $75 temporary support, $100 attorney's fees and one-third interest in all of the husband's property, both real and personal.

Grace E. Bridenbeck also wants a divorce from Clarence Bridenbeck, and also charges cruel and inhuman treatment in her complaint. She asks for all belongings owned by her before her marriage and one-half interest in her husband's property both real and personal. They were married in New York state March 6, 1916.

HIGH COURT GIVES VERDICT ON ROAD BONDS

O. D. Eby, attorney for W. P. Hawley, Sr., in which the former instituted suit to test the validity of the Clackamas county $1,700,000 bond issue, announced yesterday that the supreme court has handed down a decision in favor of the validity of the bonds. No obstacle from now on will hinder the buyers of the securities and the road program under the bond issue will progress as the bonds are sold.

MARRIED NINE MONTHS, ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Mary E. Probst, who was married to Dale D. Probst in Gladstone during June, 1920, entered suit for divorce yesterday in the circuit court. She alleges in her complaint filed that since her marriage she has been treated cruel and inhuman by her husband, and that in November, he deserted her. She asks the court for the right to resume her maiden name, Mary E. Boone, and such other relief as may seem fit.

Woman Very Ill; Children Called

Mrs. Sadie Ackley, of Gladstone, is very ill at her home and her children from Hood River have been called to her bedside. One son, who resides in Los Angeles, has been wired to come at once.

Molalla Raises $20 Fund for China

A special collection was taken at the Methodist church at Molalla Sunday for the China famine fund. Nearly $20 was raised. A special collection will be taken in the Sunday school next Sunday for the same cause.

F. B. Brown, of Colton, underwent an operation on his throat at the Oregon City hospital Wednesday, when adenoids and tonsils were removed.

FLASHLIGHT OF POSSUM HUNT IN THE SOUTH. Possum hunting offers many thrills which the ordinary sportsman never gets. In the first place the hunting is done in the middle of the night. The party dressed in their oldest clothes beat up the brush and tap the trees. The hunters are accompanied by dogs who "tree" the possums for the hunters. The little animals are captured alive and taken home in bags.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Mrs. Andrew Robertson, formerly of this city, where her husband was in business, was called from her home at Sellwood Monday to California, where her husband is in a serious condition, suffering from lung trouble. Mrs. Robertson was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lillian, and also by her son, Edward, left Monday night for San Diego, to be at her husband's bedside.

A. A. Price, who has been spending several months in New York, where he went to purchase his spring and summer stock, has returned to this city, having made an excellent selection, bringing a large stock back with him, while the remainder is to be shipped within a few days.

Mrs. H. H. Hughes, of this city, went to Portland Wednesday, where she spent the day. Mrs. Hughes is the aunt of Miss Edna Zwicker, who has mysteriously disappeared from Portland, just as she was ready to return here. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes are making every effort to find trace of their niece, and Mrs. Hughes' trip to Portland Wednesday was another effort to find the missing young woman.

Miss Louise Walker, who left here several months ago for New York where she has been taking a special course in dancing, is now visiting at the home of Mrs. Henry Smith, formerly of Oregon City. She has also visited with her aunt, Mrs. Walter Prestler, of Newberg, N. Y., sister of J. H. Walker, whom she had not seen before taking this trip.

Mrs. Charles Poindexter and daughter, Ruth Arlette, of Klamath Falls, who have been in this city, where home Sunday evening. Mrs. Poindexter and daughter had been visiting relatives at Aberdeen, Wash., for several weeks. Mrs. Poindexter was formerly Miss Lydia Vose, of this city, where she is well and favorably known.

In a letter to friends from Miss Bertha Goldsmith, recently leaving for California from this city, says that a terrible storm was experienced by people along the coast February 5th. Being at San Francisco at the time she was among those to have the experience. Steamer captains arriving in port at San Francisco on that day reported having their troubles with the gale.

Earl K. Allen, of Oregon City, route 2, who has been receiving medical treatment for an injured hand at the Oregon City hospital for the past week, was able to leave for his home Wednesday afternoon. Allen was employed at a sawmill, when the left hand came in contact with a saw. A portion of the first and second fingers of the left hand were amputated.

Esther L. Taylor, of Portland, has arrived in Oregon City, where she has accepted a position with the Price Brothers' store, and will have charge of the millinery department, having much experience in that line. Miss Margaret Kooz, of Portland, will arrive within a few days, having accepted the position as trimmer.

Miss Isabel Crawford, of New York, a member of the executive committee of the Women's Home Mission Board, will speak at the Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Crawford, who is visiting in Portland, will be a dinner guest at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Edgar.

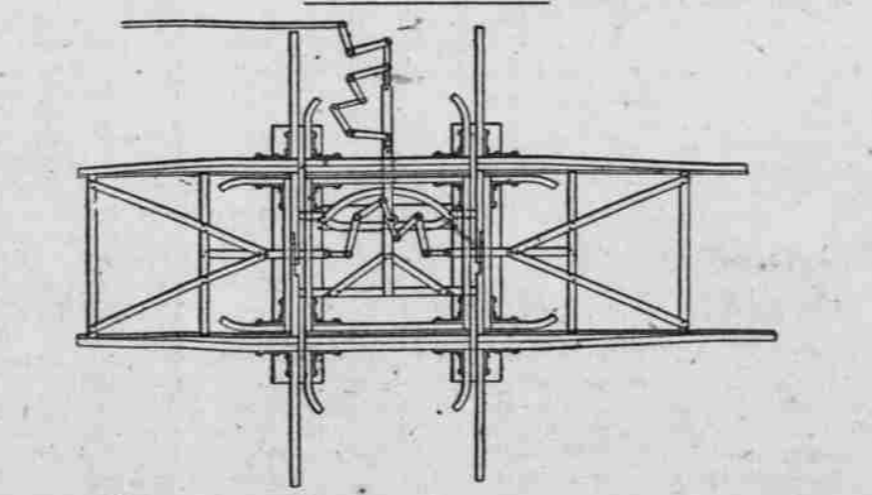

Wacheno Council Degree of Pochontas will hold its regular meeting at Keapp's hall Friday evening, Feb. 11, after which the committee composed of Mrs. Daisy Lavier, chairman, Mrs. Mina Wenger and Mrs. Laura Frost will serve refreshments. Shiek's orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

Mrs. W. D. Laughery, residing on Tenth and Jefferson streets, underwent a serious operation at the Oregon City hospital, Wednesday morning. The report from the hospital Wednesday evening was that Mrs. Laughery was resting easily from the operation.

Dorothea McCord, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McCord, of Molalla, underwent an operation at the Oregon City hospital Wednesday morning. The operation, which was for acute appendicitis, was successful.

C. E. Spence, state master of the Grange, was among those to visit Oregon City Sunday and Monday.

LOCAL MAN RECEIVES PATENT ON CLEVER RAILROAD INVENTION

Calvin W. Bagby, of Oregon City and pioneer of Clackamas, who has resided in this county since he was born on the old Bagby farm near Molalla, has received a patent on an invention which will be useful for railroad crossing structures. The invention provides a silent railway track crossing for use at the intersection of two lines of trackway, which is constructed in such a manner that the rails at the crossing may be made continuous or unbroken, so as to prevent jarring of the cars passing over.

Carpenter Funeral Well Attended

Many friends of the late Miss Anna Gladys Carpenter, well known and popular girl of Gladstone, who died at the family home Friday night, after a lingering illness, attended the funeral services, which were held from the Christian church at Gladstone Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

During the services Garland Hollowell sang most impressively "Face to Face", and a quartette, composed of Mrs. Ralph McGetchle, Mrs. M. E. Turner, Garland and Homer Hollowell, sang "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," and "Abide With Me." Interment was in the Mountain View cemetery, and the remains laid to rest beside those of her father, the late William Carpenter, and her brother, the late Chester Carpenter, both of whom died a year ago.

Henry Fox Passes at Portland Home

Henry Fox, of Portland, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Fox, of this city, died at his home Tuesday night after a several months' illness of heart trouble. Mr. Fox is well and favorably known here, where he made his home taking up his residence in Portland. He spent his boyhood days in Oregon City and attended the local schools. Deceased is survived by his mother, of this city; his wife and daughter of Portland; a sister, Mrs. Rosina Fouts Evans, of this city, and a brother, George Fox, of Portland. Mrs. Fox and her daughter left immediately for Portland when advised of Mr. Fox' death.

Young Daughter of Zimmelmann Is Dead

Lydia Zimmelmann, aged 3 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmelmann, died at the family home about three miles from Oregon City, Tuesday morning, and the remains were taken to the Holman & Pace undertaking establishment. Funeral services are to be held Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the Lutheran church. Rev. Kraxberger will officiate.

Mrs. Harriett Grout Passes Away Here

Mrs. Harriet A. Grout, 65 years of age, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. D. Lind, on the Oatfield road yesterday afternoon. The remains are at the parlors of Brady & De Moss, and funeral services have not been arranged as yet. Her daughter, Mrs. Lind is a well known woman of this county, and two other daughters, one in Minnesota and another in Portland, survive her.

TWO SPEEDERS PAY FINES OF $25 AND COSTS

Speeders are beginning to crop up again in the justice court here as spring approaches, and especially during the past few days of nice weather. The latest to pay fines in Judge Noble's court for violation of the speed ordinances were: Geo. Brownman, fined $10 and costs; John Rodemacher, $15 and costs. Both men were taken in by Speedofficer Long on the New Era highway.

MANY COWS SENT GERMANY FREE OF COST

BREMEN, Germany, Feb. 7.—The American steamer West Arrow, from Galveston and Newport News, arrived here today with 743 milk cows donated to Germany by American farmers. Seven cows died of seasickness during the voyage, but 40 calves were born.

YEAGER AND MADDEN FINED FOR JOY RIDE

Fred Yeager and J. C. Madden, who were responsible for an automobile accident on the New Era road some few days ago, in which Mrs. Kate Gordon was placed in the Oregon City hospital to recover from injuries received, were fined in Judge Noble's court yesterday afternoon. Yeager was assessed a fine of $50 and costs, and Madden got $75 and costs. Both men were arrested after their machine, crashed into a ditch near the turn on the highway at New Era while going at the rate of 50 miles per hour.

MILWAUKIE H. S. BUILDING NEW LUNCH TABLES

The manual training class of the Milwaukie high school is constructing a number of folding tables on a new design and pattern which will be used in the cafeteria. Another practical job in the construction of portable bleachers which can be set up indoors or outdoors.

BILL FOR COUNTY DIVISION PLACED BEFORE SOLONS

SALEM, Feb. 9.—(Special to the Enterprise)—The county division bill, as proposed by J. W. Reed of Estacada, and David Lofgren, joint representative from Clackamas and Multnomah counties, was introduced in the house late yesterday afternoon by Senator Staples, of Multnomah. The bill provides for the division of Clackamas county so that a separate section will be made in to what will be known as Cascade county, and that portion of Oswego north of the Clackamas river will be taken into Multnomah county.

The sponsors of the bill have secured the cooperation of Senator Staples, but it is said that the majority of the Clackamas and Multnomah delegations are against any division of Clackamas county, inasmuch as the passage of the bill would injure not only this county but would put a hardship on Multnomah county. Those informed at Salem allege that both bills will be killed in short order.

DISAPPEARANCE OF MISS ZWICKER CAUSES ALARM

County and state officials are working on the case of the mysterious disappearance of Mary Zwicker, who left her aunt's home on Third and Washington streets in this city Sunday, Jan. 30, and has not been heard of since. Mrs. Etchison, the girl's aunt, has released photographs of the young woman to the press and detectives in Portland, where the girl was last seen, and it is hoped that a clue to her whereabouts can be uncovered shortly.

Miss Zwicker is a fine looking girl and is 19 years of age. She has a pleasing appearance and is said to be of a bashful disposition. When she left Oregon City for Portland on Jan. 30, for the purpose of staying with a friend there for the night, her aunt thought nothing of the matter, and not until the young woman had been gone over three days did the aunt become alarmed.

The entire police force of Portland and Oregon City is on the lookout for a clue leading to the girl and are of the opinion that she has met with foul play, either from the hands of gangsters, or by some smooth crook in Portland. All of Miss Zwicker's relatives have been notified of her disappearance, including her father, who is employed at Salem. None of them, however, know where the young lady is at present.

FOUR COUPLES ARE MARRIED ON TUESDAY

Chris. Henry Nelson, 21, and Mollie McKay, 18, both of Hoff; Charles Gross, 34, of Lilliamook, and Elizabeth Church, 28, of Oswego; Nelson Richard McConnell, 38, San Diego, Drussilla Yoder, 27, Aurora; secured marriage licenses from County Clerk Miller yesterday. One couple—Granviel Shockley, legal of this city, and Ethel Mueller, legal, Portland secured a marriage license in Vancouver, Wash., on the same day.

JUDGE PERRY FINES MANY DURING YEAR

Judge Parry, of Milwaukie has collected more fines than any justice of the peace in Clackamas county the past year, and has had no cases appealed. Last week a citizen arrested for throwing glass on the street was dismissed on the plea that it was an accident, the windshield falling in the night and the owner making every effort to pick up the pieces.

SCOTT'S MILLS BANK BUILDS NEW HOME

A modern brick bank building has recently been built in Scott's Mills for the bank at that place, and greatly improves the main street of the town. The institution has grown considerably during the past three years, and J. O. Dixon is in charge as cashier.

Aurora Man Is Heir to $25,000 Estate

John Pugh Sr., who was notified last summer that he is among heirs to a large estate in Indiana of which he expects to receive $25,000, has moved with his family into the Bowery residence. He has previously recovered from a fracture of the hip, which occurred several months ago.

BORN

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Belle, of Gladstone yesterday afternoon. The little fellow has been named "Elbert."

KRUEGER BROS. Furniture and Deliver FREE WITH OUR MOTOR VAN. CANBY, OREGON.

G. W. White Garage CANBY, OREGON Agents for Ford Car--Fordson Tractor We specialize in Ford repairing and carry all the genuine Ford Parts. AUTHORIZED FORD AGENTS