LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Buzby, of Fairbanks, Alaska, have arrived at Willamette, where they are the guests at the which was badly cut while Elliott ty. home of Mr. and Mrs. George DeBok. Mr. Buzby is a brother of Mrs. De- necessary to go to the Oregon City Bok whom she has not seen for hospital and have a number of stitchthirty years. He has been engaged es taken to close the wound. The day and Friday. in business in Fairbanks for some accident occurred Wednesday at the time, and decided to make a change. Elliott home owing to his wife's health. The family have found from their experience, that life is too short to endure any

d are to seek a warmer climate, Mr. Buzby contemplates entering the Oregon they were forced to make many miles by way of a dog team spent some time in Los Angeles. through the snow, and the thermomter registered 50 degrees below They will remain at Willamette for a few weeks when they will proceed on their journey south.

Funeral services over the remains of Miss Frances McKinnis, who died noon from appendicitis, where she had been removed to be operated upon, will be held from the Holman & Pace chapel this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with interment in the family mains laid to rest beside her grand father, who recently died in this city, of this city, Friday. Mr. Fox is During Saturday there were over 100 friends of the young woman calling to view the remains at the funeral chapel, many of whom were employrecently been employed, and was popular among her associates.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Bagby, of this city, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter born at their home at 1411 Washingo'clock, February 3. The little one, with the name of Alice June. The grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bagby, of Greenpoint, are as happy over the new arrival as the proud in that city as guests or relatives. parents are, as this is their first grandchild. Mrs. Harriet Bagby, of Molalla, who celebrated her 90th birthbaby.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcelles Pyle, of Montana, were in Oregon City Thursday, where they were guests of their rized in Oregon City, where she is nephew, James Martin, and family, Eliza Martin, who is making her John Adams streets, Mrs. Robbins home at the Martin residence. They will remain here for several weeks. left for Newberg Friday in company with Mrs. Eliza Martin, where they are to make their future home. They will also visit Silas Pyle, brother of Marcelles Pyle, and Mrs. Martin. Mr. and Mrs. Pyle are 80 years of age, and are still hale and hearty, and and Mrs. J. J. Tobin. thoroughly enjoyed their trip to Oregon. The sister will return here after visiting in Newberg for a few

T. V. Yanney, of the commercial department of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company in Portland, the local branch during the two ed to Oregon City Saturday, where months' furlough of Benjamin Hayhurst, who will leave Monday for California, where he goes for the benefit of his health, Mr. Hayhurst dicitis some time ago, and he is making the trip in order to regain his of his old time friends. strength. He will go to Los Gatos, and will return about March 31st to resume his duties with the telephone company.

ren. Jeanette and Richard Gordon. who have been in California since last summer, where the latter was born at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Buchtel, of northern City Thursday evening on their way to Portland. They will later go to Astoria, where they are to make their family at Salem, accompanying his family to Portland. The latter formerly resided here.

H. H. Bower, formerly of Oregon City, where he represented the Wiley B. Allen company, has entered in business in Portland, having purchased "The Novelty," a pressing and repairing establishment located at 210 Fifth street. A tailoring establishment is also in connection. Mr Bower engaged in similar business some years ago in Vancouver, Wash., but disposed of his interests at that place. He recently arrived here from Aberdeen and other Washington cities, where he has been since last fall.

Among those to come to Oregon City Thursday was J. R. Hamilton, of Viola. Mr. Mamilton is engaged in the poultry business, and is interested in the White Wyandottes, and brought some of the finest eggs that have been marketed in this city. Several weighed over three ounces. Mr. Mamilton has entered the poultry business in a proper manner, and by the care he is giving his birds, he is Friday evening, where he is registerfinding a profit in the business. The buildings, which are of modern construction, are always in a sanitary condition.

Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, of Bend, Oregon, a former resident of Oregon City, who is in Oregon City visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. G. Miller, also visiting her mother, Mrs. C. O. T. Williams, will return to her home next Wednesday. During her visit in Oregon City Mrs. Lawrence is being entertained by her friends, as she was a former resident of Ore gon City.

R. C. Bagby, of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Huth Crumly, of Sellliam Bagby. Mr. Bagby is the son ness Friday. Mr. Kelland is a form- ton counties, where he has been of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bagby, and he er resident of Oregon City, where he working in the interests of the farm came here to see his new niece, lit- is well known, having attended the bureau, speaking and soliciting for tle Alice June, who was born at the Oregon City schools. home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bagby Thursday morning.

Walter Elliott is suffering from an was engaged in cutting wood. It was

Miss Charlotte Bisazza, a former teacher of art in the Oregon City longer the cold winters of Alaska, high school, whose home is at Seattle, spent the week-end in Oregon deciding upon lower California, where City as a guest of Miss Helen Lovett. Miss Bisazza was on her way home stock industry. When leaving for from California, where she had been visiting relatives and friends having

Among the happiest people of Ore gon City today are Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scollard, of 1203 Main street, who are rejoicing over the arrival of a son, born Saturday, January 29. They recently arrived here from Woodburn. Mr. Scollard having accepted in the Sellwood hospital Friday after- a position with the Huntley-Draper Drug company.

Henry Fox, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Fox, who is seriously ill in Portland suffering from heart trouble, remains lot in Clackamas cemetery, and re- about the same, according to word received by Mrs. Rosina Fouts Evans. brother of Mrs. Evans.

Enterprice, Wallowa county, Oregon, City Thursday. es of the Oregon City Manufacturing are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. company, where Miss McKinnis has and Mrs. C. C. Shumway, of Willamette. Mr. Quinn served in the world war for four years, and con- here on business. nected with the mayal department. He made ten trips across the Atlantic.

Morris Williams left Saturday Oregon City Thursday. morning for a week-end visit with his ton streets Thursday morning at 2 uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. I. Channel. . He will return to Oregon who weighs 71/2 pounds, is honored City this evening. The lad was accompanied as far as Portland by his mother, Mrs. E. P. Williams, and her little son, Bobby, who spent the day

Mrs. J. B. Robinson and son, Kenneth, of Portland, were in Oregon City day anniversary last August, is the Wednesday evening, and were among great grandmother of Alice June, and those out of town people attending she is now one of the happiest wo- the Charity Ball given by the women men in Molalla over the birth of the of this city, for the benefit of the starving children of Europe.

> Mrs. J. W. Robbins, residing near Egly, near Carter, Montana, has arthe guest of her parents, Mr. and Miss May Tobin will return Mount Angel this afternoon, where she will resume her studies at the Islands for a number of years. Mount Angel Academy, While in this city she visited her parents, Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKay, of Aber they were guests at the home of M and Mrs. C. O. Dryden.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Cromer and son, Jack, of Logan, prominent residents has arrived here to take charge of of that section of the county, motor-

Henry O'Malley, of Seattle, was in Oregon City on business pertaining underwent an operation for appen- to the government fisheries Friday, and while here visited among some

> Mrs. Walter Taylor, of Portland, is Her husband will arrive this evenhome.

> John Broderick, of Seattle, Wash, arrived in Oregon City on Thursday, where he will remain for a few days Electric hotel.

Among the Oregon City visitors ings, residing in Twilight. Mr. and Mrs. Ellings are in the poultry in Rev. Parsons for this week. dustry on a small scale.

James Wright, of Bay City, Mich. was in Oregon City Friday. Mr. Wright is looking after property interests in Oregon, and some of his interests are in Clackamas county.

Miss Marian Eccles, of Baker, was among those to visit here Friday having come here to look after pro perty interests, having considerable property in Clackamas county.

Rev. Charles H. Shank, of Seattle, Wash., will preach at the Congregational church on Sunday morning house during the former's absence. at 11 o'clock and also Sunday even ing at 7:30.

F. F. Campae, of Hubbard, was fore returning to his home, visited her duties within a short time. among some of his friends in this city.

Professor W. Russell Browne, of Philadelphia, arrived in Oregon City in this city Monday. He is residing ed at the Electric hotel.

Louis Vierhus has gone to Madras, Oregon where he has accepted a posttion. Mr. Vierhus has been for sev eral weeks visiting his family.

S. R. Brisbon, of Roseburg, was among the Oregon City visitors Friday and Saturday.

C. M. Thomas, of Seattle, was among those to transact business here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hough, of Redland, were in this city on Friday.

M. M. Bassett, of Portland, was wood, were in Oregon City Thurs- among those to visit here Saturday.

injury to the thumb of his left hand, known dairymen of Clackamas counthese two counties, and has secured

H. H. Johnson, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City on business Thurs-city Thursday.

E. Plank and H. A. Schmidt, of the city for a few weeks.

Gordon Taylor, editor and publisher of the Molalla Pioneer, was in Oregon City on business Saturday, where he also visited his newspaper friends. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lanten, of Oakland, California, arrived in Oregon City Wednesday for a few days' visit in Oregon City.

L. R. Chinn, of Greenwood, accompanied by his wife, was in Oregon in some ifne Rhode Island Red birds.

Among the Oregon City visitors home is at Hubbard.

E. P. Dedman, of Clarkamas, was nor collection will be asked.

in Oregon City Thursday, coming W. J. E. Vick, of Molalla, was

R. A. Hendricks, of Tacoma, Wash. was in this city Thursday. While here he registered at the Electric.

William Carpenter, who has been employed at Bar View, Oregon, who was called to Gladstone by the illness of his sister, the late Miss Gladys Carpenter, arrived at the Carpenter home Sunday evening. ing to the recent storms on the coast the message was delayed in reaching the young man, and did not reach him in time for the funeral services, which were set for Sunday afternoon. Miss Carpenter died Friday night.

County Recorder and Mrs. Gilbert Noe and Attorney Dean Butler motored to Hazelia Saturday evening, also visiting Mr. Pyle's sister, Mrs. Mrs. H. Moynaugh, of Twelfth and where they attended the entertainment given under the auspices of the Hazelia Literary society. Mr. Butler gave an address on "Philippine Islands," being well posted on subject, as he made his home on the

> Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, of Portland, after visiting at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Taylor, near Oregon City, returned Taylor and children, of Vancouver, Wash, who spent Sunday at the hall. home of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Taylor.

Samuel Roake, fromer resident of Clackamas county, now mayor of Castle Rock, Wash., is in Oregon City for a few days, wher he is visiting his brother, J. A. Roake, and visiting his daughter, Mrs. George Gardner, and family, at Jennings Gerald W. Warner, who has been employed in the Crown Willamette in this city as guest of Mr. Taylor's Paper mills at West Linn, has resignparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Taylor. ed his position, and will leave today to take a position under the state Mrs. N. R. Charman and little child- ing, to spend Sunday at the Taylor highway commission. Warner is an ex-service man and one of the most active members o fthe Oregon City Fire Department.

Rev. John Parsons, of Portland, California, passed through Oregon He is making his headquarters at the will give a free lecture at the Oregon City library auditorium Wednesday evening. His subject will be "Wadsworth and His Message." F. W. ure home. Mr. Charman met his Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ell- Parker, who has been giving a series of lectures on poets, has secured

> Mrs. Howell, of Colorad Springs, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gwillim, her cousins, has accepted a temporary position in the tax collecting department of the court house. Mrs. Howell has commenced her duties.

Mrs. C. I. Stafford visited in Port. day. land Monday. During her absence Mrs. William Puckett, formerly connected with that store, and recently recovering from typhoid fever, assisted with the duties at the business

Mrs. Alice McKinnon, who is employed in the tax department, who has been ill for several weeks, is imhere on business Thursday, and be proving and will be able to resume

> Rev. Spees, who has been ill for several weeks, is improving, and was visiting among some of his friends near Clackamas.

> H. W. Kelly, of Vancouver, B. C., spent Sunday and Monday in Oregon City. While here he registered at the Electric.

I. N. Cook, accompanied by his wife, and whose home is at Mulino, were Oregon City, visitors Sunday and Monday.

Miss Carlotta Pace spent Saturday night and Sunday in Portland as a guest of her sister, Mrs. Rhoda Watkins.

Mrs., J. B. Robinson has returned to her home in Portland after visiting for several days in this city as day evening. While here they were; Jud Kelland, of Twilight, accom- O. R. Daugherty, of Molalla, is in guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. panied by his brother-in-law, Mr. Oregon City for a few days, having C. W. Begby, and Mr. and Mrs. Wil- Engle, were in Oregon City on busi- recently arrived from Linn and Benthe organization. Mr. Daugherty is president of the Clackamas County Frank Hutchins, of Logan, was Farm Bureau, and has been greatly among those to transact business encouraged over the interest the here Friday. He is one of the well farmers are taking during his visit in 90 per cent of the districts where he has visited. A drive is being conducted for membership, and at the close there is no doubt but that the larger majority of the farmers of Clackamas county where districts have E. A. Guras, of Hoff, was in this been visited will be members of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Brown and lit-Johnson Piano company, are in this tle daughter, Martha Jane, who have been residing in the residence of Men in this city in celebration of the Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hartman on 28th anniversary of the organization Dr. Ade Scott, of Vancouver, B. C., Eleventh and Center streets, left in Oregon City. was in Oregon City Thursday and Tuesday for Washington, where they visit the fromer's sisters in Portland | a committee was appointed to make Martha Jane, who recently suffered is composed of A. Nobel, Sr., C. W from pneumonia, and for several Kelly and Walter L. Little. days her condition was critical, has fully recovered. Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Bowland are to take possession of bers of the Portland order, as well as the Hartman house today.

Miss Isabel Crawford, of New York, a member of the executive com-City on business Thursday, bringing mittee of the Women's Board of Home Missions will deliver an address in the Presbyterian church program. Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Thursday was George Perdue, whose Miss Crawford is an exceptional speaker and will discuss the great task of Americanization and Christ-W. H. Mattoon, of Viola, was among innization which confronts the church. Mr. and Mrs. Winford Quinn, of those to transact business in Oregon The public is cordially invited, especially the women of the church and of the community, No admission

> Mrs. J. M. Lawrence, of Bend, Oregon, who has been spending several weeks in this city visiting her mothamong those to transact business in er and sister, Mrs. C. O. T. Williams and Mrs. C. C. Miller, and the latter's family, will leave this morning for Portland, where she is to visit friends and relatives for a week before proceeding to her home. Mrs. Lawrence, formerly Miss Grace Williams, was entertained at several functions by friends.

> > Mrs. Don Meldrum, formerly of Oregon City, where she is well and favorably known, who has been seriously ill for several months, has been removed to the sanitarium of Dr. Wiley Jones, stomach specialist of Portland. Mrs. Meldrum was re moved to the institution Friday, where she is reported to be considerably improved.

Otto Freytag, who recently arrived at Parkplace from Boise, Idaho, in company with his family, for the benefit of his health, is gradually improving. Mr. Freytag is now able to Eby. H. Coffee, Esther Moore, Lewis walk some distance since coming Hemler, M. A. Brayton, Howard here. For the present the family is Fisher, Clenard *Eby and visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Paul Praeger, of Parkplace.

patriotic exercises at the Willamette the parish house Tuesday evening. deen, Wash, were in Oregon City the deen, Wash, were in Oregon City the to their home Sunday evening. They be in a check for $10, from Willard P. Hawstore, and march in a body to the > ber, real estate agent, of Portland. son and Mrs. Thomas Warner. Mr. Loney has resided at Barton for some time, and has one of the best farms in that section.

F. W. McLaren, of Wilhoit, was among those to arrive here Tuesday He is in charge of the Wilhoit summer resort, and says there has been very little snow fall in that section this winter.

George Reddaway, of Carver, formerly engaged in business in this city, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday: While here he visited among some of his old time friends.

N. H. Smith, of Redland, well known Jersey breeder, was among those to transact business here Tues-J. G. Easton, of Boyd, Oregon, accompanied by his family, are among those to register at the Electric hotel Tuesday.

Mr. Snyder, of Canby, who has en- ters. tered business at that place, was in Oregon City Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Schwartz, of

Mt. Angel, were in Oregon City Tues Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Oathout, residing at Elliott Prairie, were in Oregon City Tuesday.

Fred Ruhl, of Molalla, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday and

Among those to visit here Tuesday was Gideon Krugbaum, whose home is at Estacada.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McCord, of Molalla, were here on Tuesday.

Clyde Kendall, of Canby, was this city on business Tuesday. George Armstrong, of Redland, prominent resident of that section, was here on Monday, where he transacted business. B. F. Wiseman, prominent resident of Carby, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday afternoon.

Among the Oregon' City visitors Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Pasinsca, whose home is at Canby. Ralph Milln spent Saturday evening in Oregon City with his mother, Mrs. Arthur Milln. Mr. and Mrs. Solon Bray, of Linn's ders of Mr. Stevens' Indian days are day. They came here on business.

Tuesday evening will be the regular social night of the Moose Lodge at the Moose hall, when dancing and are planned by the committee in charge . Refreshments will be served. These meetings have become popular Mooseheart Legion, and are always largely attended. Burns' orchestra, a popular musical organization, is to furnish the music for the dancing.

Great preparations will soon commence by the Improved Order of Red and Miss Alice Freytag.

At a well attended meeting held in are to make their home near Seattle. the Moose hall Thursday evening Mrs. Brown and little daughter will further arrangements were made, and for a few days while enroute. Little the necessary arrangements. This

The affair, which will be held March 17th, will be attended by memfrom Oswego order and the great council officers. There are about 175 members belonging to the local organization, and at the time of the anniversary celebration an impressive ceremony will be among the evening's

The Women's Auxiliary of the St. Paul's Episcopal church met at the parish house last Thursday. The day was devoted to needlework and at 12 o'clock a lunch was served.

Partaking of the lunch were Rev. and Mrs. C. H. L. Chandler, Mrs. James Dawson, Mrs. Charlles Priester and daughter, Elaine, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. A. E. King, Mrs. W. B. Lawton. Miss Leedale, Mrs. George Sheppard, Mrs. Anderson, Miss Alice Dawson Mrs. Thomas Warner, Miss Young, of Milwaukie.

A similar meeting will be held on Thursday of this week.

The most enjoyable day was spent at the home of Mrs. M. Rivers, of Edgewood, Tuesday, when a number of women met to assist her in quilting, the quilt to be given as a wedding gift for Mr and Mrs. George Richardson, the former a brother of Mrs. Rivers.

During the atfernoon Miss Wava Oehler, of Portland, grand daugnter of Mrs. Rivers, sang several selections in a most pleasing manner. Refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Wava

Oehler and Esther Moore. Present were Mesdames M. Rivers Phillip Ochler, James Keeley and son, Harland, and Miss Wava Oehler. of Portland; James Witzig, A. F. Fisher, Mary Kent, James Moore, Ferd Himler, Frank Lucas, Edward Harold

St. Paul's Guild and the King's The American Legion will, upon Daughters of the S. Paul's Episcopal invitation of the G. A. R. attend the church will hold one their socials at

Mrs. Rosina Fouts Evans, president of the Guild, has appointed the follow ing committee from that organiza-Henry Loney, of Barton, has sold tion: Mrs. Charles Priester, chairhis farm to Bernhardt Lage, the deal man; Frs. Frank T. Barlow, Mrs. having been made through L. O. Ger- Robert Goodfellow, Mrs. James Daw-

> Last week Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stevens of Oregon City celebrated their golden wedding at the old home near Dayton where they were married fifty years ago. Great then was their surprise when a second celebration developed at their home here Wednesday when the ladies of the Congregational church came bearing golden testimonials to Mrs. Stevens. the leader and founder of their Aid Society, who, for nearly half a century, has aided and abetted every good work. Three charter members, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Sophia Charman and Mrs. David Caufield were present to recall the mission days of the oldest Congregational church west of the Rocky Mountains.

Mrs. Stevens' father, Medorum Crawford, came to Oregon in 1842, taught for several years in the original Methodist mission at Wheatland, and finally settled in Yamhill county, where his daughter, Mary Crawford.

Tales of the country school were told, and of the best remembered teacher, Rev. Mr. Spencer, grandfather of the Portland singer, Virginia Spencer Hutchinson. On Sundays this circult riding teacher preached in schoolhouses far and near, summon- sociation went to Portland Monday ing the settlers to sermons three evening, where they attended the inhours long and drilling them in the itiatory ceremonies at the W. O. W. old fashioned hymns.

In 1862 Harley Stevens came ou from New York, and was for a time ducted the ceremonies. clerk in the Indian store on the Umatiila Reservation, until the new- new members were secured in Orely built Southern Pacific Railroad gon; 30 of whom went from Willametopened its depot in Oregon City, te Council, Oregon City. Members where he became the first telegrapher attended from Oregon City, West and for twenty years station agent. Linn and Gladstone. In January 1871, when the wedding day arrived Mr. Stevens begged to be relieved long enough to get married. Society held an enjoyable meeting He waited, and waited, and finally Thursday afternoon at the home of locked the door and ran all the way Mrs. J. J. Tingle in Gladstone. to Canemah to catch his disappearing boat. That feature Mr. Stevens will Montgomery was studied and discusnever forget, for as he ran he carried sed, followed by an interesting proan enormous clothes basket contain gram, including instrumental music ing the bride's cake and other con- by Mrs. George Osburn, of Oregon comitants of the wedding feast. But City. Delicious refreshments were he caught the boat and they keep served by the hostess, Mrs. Tingle, the clothes basket still as a souvenir.

grandmother's snuff box brought hour was enjoyed. across the plains in 1842, snuff still in it, and a beautiful doll the Craw- Mesdames J. J. Tingle, H. E. Cross, ford children played with sixty years M. A. Ross, Rose Tabor, M. L. Driggs, ago. The bride's white kid gloves Edna Walker, H. A. Hogue O. E. Holare fresh as on the wedding day.

Rev. John Howard, son of the Prater, Lizzie Humphrys, George Os founder of the Howard Mills at Mu- burn, Alexander and Larson. lino tied the knot Interesting remin-Old Mill, were in Oregon City Mon- in his large and valuable collection Gray and Edward Bolle was solemn of double-pointed obsidian knives, ized Monday evening at the Baptist tained at Celilo when such relics friends. were numerous there many, many moons ago.

day evening was a success in every way. The rooms were artistically music are among the features that paper festoons and various sized butterflies.

Hot biscuits, fruit conserve, syrup and coffee were served, after which January 30, at the Sartin home in with members of the order and of the music, games, contests and stunts were enjoyed. The proceeds of the evening amounting to $16, were placed in the choir fund In charge of the air. it were Mrs. K. E. Bauersfelt, Miss Iva Harrington in a traveling suit. Only the mother of the bride, Mrs. Culter, of this city, and Mrs. Wire attended the marriage ceremony.

.The marriage of Miss Jessie M. Walker and Luther S. Cole occurred at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Melville and friends, after which Mr. and Mrs. T. Wire in this city Tuesday morning at 10:30, February 1st.

Following a short honeymoon the Gladstone. young couple have taken up their residence on Taylor street. The young couple have many friends in Oregon City, Mr. Cole be- nesday evening, when she entertained ing employed by the Crown Wil-

The marriage of Mrs. Tillie Edhome of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burdon at Methodist church, acted as instructor, a few friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hollowell left immediately for a short honeymoon and will able features." be at home to their many friends at the Hollowell home near Gladstone. well and favorably known in Glad- ma Myers. stone and in Oregon City.

One of the most successful social events ever given in this city was 18th. the Charity ball given at the Moose hall Wednesday evening for the benefit of the starving children of Europe.

The Moose Lodge donated its hall orchestras of the county, the music. the occasion, when American flags palms, donated by the Oregon City Greenhouse, red and white crepe festoons, flags of all nations, ferns and pussy willows were used.

Many of the latest and popular selection were rendered by the orchestra, and the encores were numerous and steps and waltzes were among the popular dances of the evening. Mrs. Don James, Mrs. Edward Fortune and Mrs. Henry Henningsen composed the floor committee, and from the time of the first dance to famous jelly and canned fruit. the "Home Sweet Home."

Refreshments were served orchestra and the ladies accompanying them, and to Moose Lodge members responsible for donating the hall, and their wives. Mrs. Frank Alldredge and the Peerless Bakery assisted in donations toward the rerefreshments.

A pleasant surprise was received by the committee in charge of the event, when on Thursday morning a ley, Jr., now in San Francisco, saying it was for a ticket for himself and Chapter. little daughter, Eva Adele, of this city The check was greatly appreciated by the committee, which added to the sum to be turned over. Mr. Hawley recently sent a check to the relief committee of this city for a larger

The committe appreciates the favors of the Moose Lodge, the Burns orchestra, composed of Paul Burns, director; Jack Loder and Roland Peters: the oMrning Enterprise for printing the posters and tickets; Oregon City Greenhouse, W. P. Hawley, Jr., Mrs. David Caufield, Mrs. Frank Alldredge, the Peerless Bakery and others assisting to making the ball a success.

In charge of the event were Miss Nan Cochran, chairman; Mrs. Don James, chairman of floor committee: Mrs. Edward Fortune. Mrs. Henry Henningson, Miss Mary Mitchell and cial aid of worthy girls desirous of Evelyn Harding.

The door-keeper was Mrs. David

Caufield.

A "pot luck" supper will be served by the Security Benefit Association at 6:30 at the Moose hall Monday evening, after which the degree team grew up with her brothers and sis. under Captain Spagle, will give a drill, and a social time will be enjoyed.

> The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. E. O. DeMoss and W. C. Green are chairmen. A special car carrying about fifty members of the Security Benefit As> hall. National President J. M. Kirkpatrick was in attendance and con-A special campaign is on and 582

The Methodist Ladies' Missionary

"The Bible in Missions" by Mrs. assisted by Mrs. H. E. Cross and Miss Other interesting souvenirs are the Frances Cross, after which a social > Present were Rev. and Mrs. Wire, lingsworth, G. E. LaSalle, J. H.

spear points, stone beads from the parsonage. Rev. W. E. Pettibone, of-Columbia river and a sun stone ob- ficiated in the presnce of a few

The contracting parties are well known here. Mr. Bolle is a paper maker, employed at the Crown Wil-The "Butterfly" social given at the lamette aper company, and served in Christian church of Gladstone Satur- the world war for nearly two years. Mr. and Mrs. Bolle will be at home to their many friends on their farm decorated with Oregon grape, crepe on the Clackamas near Edgewood.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the week was solemnized Sunday, Gladstone, when Louise Sartin became the bride of Alec Patterson, with Rev. B. F. Clay, of Hillsboro, officiating.

The bride was attended by Miss Nina Hollowell, bridesmaid, and Mrs. Carl Johnson, the latter niece of the bride, mho acted as matron of honor. Guy Patterson was best man.

An elaborate wedding breakfast was served to about thirty relatives Patterson left for a short honeymoon, M. and Mrs. Patterson have many

The bride was becomingly attired friends in this city and Gladstone. Mr. Patterson is employed as a superintendent by the Crown, Willamette Paper company. They will be at home at West Arlington street,

Mrs. Malva Bolle was a charming hostess at her home at Bolton Wedmembers of the Epworth League and lamette Paper Company at West Linn, a few friends.

The Bible study occupied about an hour in the early part of the evening, wards and John M. Hollowell, both of when Rev. M. T. Wire, pastor the high noon Sunday in the presence of This was followed by a social time, when games, guessing contests and vocal music were among the enjoy-

Mrs. Bolle was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. Clyde Hughes, Both Mr. and Mrs. Hollowell are Mrs. Frank Hammerly and Mrs. Em-

Oregon grape and ferns formed the The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ruth Boylan, February

Attending Wednesday's meeting were Rev. and Mrs. M. T. Wire, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dillow, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myers, Mrs. Gio, Mrs. Frank and Burns' orchestra, one of the best Hammerly, Mrs. Clyde Hughes, Mrs. Stearnes Cushing, Mrs. Ruth Boylan, The hall was prettily decorated for Miss Elva Linton, Miss Myrtle Henderson, Miss Neva Satterlee, Miss Madge Warner, Mrs. Malva Bolle, Fred Gio, Graydon Pace, Sidney Warner, Dennis Kidby, George Cush-

Miss Maude Warner was taken by surprise Friday evening, when a few of her friends called to remind her of her birthday anniversary.

The evening was devoted to cards and music, followed by a luncheon, when Mrs. Robert Warner, mother of were busily engaged in their duties Miss Warner, served some of her Prizes were won by Paul Burns, Mrs. Praeger and Mrs. Ralph Smith. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Al

Cox. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burns, Mr.

and Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mrs. Rudolph

Wenger, Mrs. Clara Praeger, Mrs. Ida Parker, Mrs. Robert Warner, Miss Maude Warner. The members of the Order of the Eastern Star will entertain at a six o'clock banquet Tuesday evening in make her official visit to Pioneer A musical event of more than passing interest will occur Wednesday evening. February 9th, when three of Portland's most prominent musicians will appear in joint recital at the Congregational church. Emil Enna, well known concert pianist who has appeared both in Europe and in this country, will present a program of the best in the American music. He will be ably assisted by Otto Wedemeyer, basso, who has been so favorably received by local people on previous occasions. The third member of this superior trio, Richard Montgomery, is a ceilo-ist of ability. The interesting program is being sponsored by the P. E. O. Sisterhood, as a benefit for the educational fund, the purpose of which is to give finanattaining a college training. One young lady from Willamette has already availed herself of this opportunity, and the privilege of application is open to any local young lady of 18, irrespective of any P. E. O.

connection. The King's Daughters of the St. Paul's Episcopal church were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. P. Lovett at West Linn in a charming manner last Wednesday.

Early in the afternoon business of the society was taken up, at which time plans were made for the annual bazaar to be given, and committees appointed to take up the year's work. Several new members were taken in, these being Mrs. William Hammond, Miss Margaret Hammond, Mrs.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. R. Humphrys February 16. Mrs. Lovett served delicious refreshments, and was assisted by her daughter, Miss Helen. Attending were Mrs. H. S. Mount, Mrs. A. C. Warner, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. A. L. Beatie, Mrs. William Krassig, Mrs. Livy Stipp, Mrs. M. H. Hedden, Mrs. Wallace Caufield, Mrs. E. E. Brodie, Mrs. Kent Moody, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. J. J. Tobin, Mrs. G. F. Mighels, Mrs. Lovett, Miss Helen Lovett.

M. W. Hedden and Mrs. C. Crucius.

There were about 21 girls, members of the Girls' Friendly Society of America attending the meeting at the parish house of the St. Paul's church last Wednesday evening.

The business session was proceded by the monthly supper under the direction of Mrs. J. J. Tobin, branch secretary of the organization.

The table was prettily decorated for the occasion, which was centered with a large birthday cake in honor of the birthday anniversaries of three of the members, Miss Edith Chandler, The marriage of Miss Kathrine | Miss Alice Dawson and Miss Mildred,

(Continued Fron Page $)