Mrs. Eval Davis and son Robert were guests of Mr and Mrs. John Maronay over the week end. Mrs. Davis is a sister of Mr. Maronay, also of George Maronay, and her home is at Albany.

George Maronay was in Portland for a few days last week, returning with his sister, Mrs. Davis.

William Jocelyn stopped in to sub scribe for the Enterprise Monday and incidentally told of his recent trip to Salem where he purchased four fine sows of the Big Type Poland-China from Fox and Lowe at the state fair grounds. Mr. Jocelyn bought a herd boar from the same type in December, and may decide to go into the hog raising industry on a larger scale later on. This blooded strain he bought is said to be among the best on the coast.

Jaca Scales has been trying to learn the veterinary profession the past week by practicing on an ailing bovine. According to authentic report he dosed her with seven pounds of epsom salts and seven quarts of linseed oil. Note: The cow is gradually growing worse!

Charley Krebs lost his best cow a few days ago, presumably from milk

Joe Lilly is stepping high since the honor" of being chief of police was thrust upon him. But some body has to look after the interests of this burg. regardless of the botheration it is to be an office holder in the small town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. L. Maybee, and Lloyd of Lents, Mrs. B. S. Cline and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jackson of Gresham and Mrs. Tom Hagan and daughter Thelma were guests of the John Maronay's last Saturday night. The Maronay's had eighteen there for midnight supper, all relatives except Mrs. Power and Carl Power. The merry party provided baskets of various good things to eat and the lunch was served cafeteria style, everyone having a delightful lot of fun, then going back to the dance. Marshall Davis was in the crowd, also, as was his sister-inlaw Mrs. Davis from Albany.

A farewell 'stag" party was given on Carl Langer last week one night and friends from Tillamook, Firwood and Sandy were present, there being 15 "male-men" in all! Cards were the great amusement, interspersed with a nice lunch, until five o'clock in the morning. Carl is a perefctly fine fellow and will be missed on the ridge. He has bought a home in Portland, and Mrs. Truble and the girls will then e togther. Mrs. Truble came to Sandy-ridge in 1904 has been a boost-
