THREE OFFICERS ARE WOUNDED BY INSANE MAN

PORTLAND, Feb. 16.-His mind crazed in the belief that he was sur- shame. rounded on all sides by robbers and Dury, a barber, 35, ran amuck at 7 o'clock last night, fortified his small ed Motorcycle Patrolman M. E. Nolan.

Two others, L. L. Stevens and H. G. Hansen, were also victims of the maniac. Both received slight wounds baby boy of which they are very proud.

Dury's place of business.

Mrs. Ciper and Stevens late in the afternoon heard Dury screaming: "Help, help," and "robbers are murduring me." Dury, according to Mrs. Ciper, was evidently in the living room at the rear of the shop.

Stevens calling to his aid employes of nearby stores, attempted to force the doors of the shop, and failing in this, tried to reach Dury by means of a small window.

Their efforts to force an entrance proved unavailing and the men called the east-side police headquarters and Motorcycle Officer Nolan, responding to the call, also tried to reach Dury. Nolan, according to Stevens, forced the door and entered the shop. He forced another door leading to Dury, who evidently was in the farther corner of the living room.

As Nolan, followed by Stevens and Hansen, a bystander, who lives at 1256 East Washington street, entered they were greeted with a hail of bullets, shot from a tiny .32 caliber re volver held by Dury.

Nolan fell at the first shot, but his companions persevered and with the aid of police reinforcements succeeded in capturing Dury.

Neighbors of Dury said last night that the man a few weeks ago was didscharged from the state insane asylum at Salem as being harmless.
