MANY GATHER OVER GRAVE OF SOLDIER HERO

The funeral services of the late Bertram VanCleve, a hero of the world war, who died at Tacoma, Wash., were held from the Holman & Pace funeral chapel Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. The chapel was filled to capacity with friends of the young man, while many were unable to gain entrance, remaining until after the services and following the remains to their last resting place in the Masonic plot in the Mountain View cemetery.

VanCleve died from the effects of gas received in action in France. Rev. H. G. Edgar, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated and during the services Mrs. W. C. Green and Mrs. Frank Schoenborn sweetly sang "Abide With Me" and "Sometime We'll Understand." Mrs. Emery French was accompanist.

The floral tributes were in great profusion and were beautiful and the casket was draped with the national colors. At the cemetery, the hero was given a military burial under the direction of Williamette Falls Post, local American legion, and Edward W. Miller sounded taps over the grave of VanCleve.

Funeral services were ex-service men in uniform and consisted of George Sizer, Dan Finnuene, H. W. Champanze, George True, Earl Hall and Dale Finch.

NO BOXING AT MILWAUKIE FOR 6 WEEKS

George Moore, manager of the Milwaukie boxing arena, announced yesterday in Portland that there would be no more shows at Milwaukie for the next month or six weeks on account of the small patronage shown at the last show held Wednesday evening. Moore alleges that the lowered prices charged last Wednesday evening did not bring out the crowd that was expected and that the boxers could not be secured for the small gate receipts.

Society

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Freytag were pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon by a number of their friends from Oregon City and Gladstone when they reminded them of their twenty-second wedding anniversary.

Music was the entertainment of the evening after which ice cream and cake were served.

Mrs. L. A. Read entertained the Euterpean club at her home in Gladstone Saturday afternoon in a most delightful manner. She had as her out-of-town guest, Mrs. Bellingsly, of Portland, who assisted in serving a delicious luncheon at 1:30 after which the business of the club was transacted.

Mrs. William Hammond told in a most interesting manner "The Life and Work of Titian," an early Italian artist. Mrs. Victor Gault brought several of his pictures from the Portland library and a brief account of each.

For American music the members enjoyed "Grand Polka De Concert," composed by Homer Bartlett of New York and played by Mrs. M. A. Thompson.

The Japanese question from an international standpoint was ably presented by Mrs. Victor Gault. Mrs. F. P. Nelson gave a resume of the Japanese question.

Those enjoying Mrs. Read's hospitality were Mrs. Billingsly, Mrs. F. P. Nelson, Mrs. M. E. Turner, Mrs. R. M. McGetchie, Mrs. M. E. Thompson, Mrs. Mary Paddock, Mrs. J. G. Nash, Mrs. F. Miranda, Mrs. William Hammond and Mrs. Victor Gault.

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, of Portland, an active member of Multnomah Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, was a charming hostess of a large reception at the University Club in Portland Tuesday afternoon. This proved one of the largest and most enjoyable social events held in Portland.

As all chapters of the state had been extended an invitation, many were represented, when about 200 members from the various chapters attended.

The affair was in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of Multnomah Chapter; and the interior of the club rooms were in keeping with the season.

Among those from Susannah Lee Barlow Chapter, Oregon City, were Mrs. E. L. Pope, regent; Mrs. George A. Harding and Mrs. H. B. Cartledge, past regents; Miss Alma Moore and Miss Florence Moore.

A very enjoyable party was given at the home of H. L. Morrell and wife Friday evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Norma and Miss Dorris Ellis, whose birthday anniversaries occurred on February 17.

The Morrell home was decorated with ferns, pussy willows and daffodils. The young ladies were presented a large cake adorned with 16 candles. The evening was devoted to games, music and dancing.

Refreshments were served. Mrs. Morrell was assisted in serving by Mrs. Clarence Morrell and Miss Mary Rinker.

Present were J. N. Wallace, Woodson Smith, Ollie Amen, Prentice Wallace, Helen Carpenter, Lester Kerns, Clay Brendt, Maynard Brendt, Troy Solomon, Elvin Catto, Edna Rowan, Goldy Harby, Robert Mabe, Fred Lund, Elva Peoples, Clarence Morrell, Mrs. H. L. Morrell, George Lund, Fred Ellis, Norma Morrell, Averil Morrell, Edna Lund, Leona Dawe, Mary Rinker, Marvin Elveridge, Dennis Wallace, Eunice Morrell and Dorris Morrell.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Taylor celebrated their twenty-third wedding anniversary at their home in Portland Tuesday. Mrs. Taylor was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. C. A. Wells, of Newberg, in serving a dinner.

The afternoon was spent in needlework, vocal and instrumental music. Enjoying the day were Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wells and son, Merwin, of Newberg; Mrs. Daisy Oehler and Mrs. James Keely, of Portland; Mrs. Mack Rivers, of Edgewood and Mrs. Edward W. Eby, of Gladstone.

DELINQUENCY CASE WILL BE HEARD FRIDAY

E. C. Horton, of Lakewood, was arrested by Constable Fortune Monday on a warrant charging him with alleged delinquency of a minor. The case will be heard in Judge Noble's court Friday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

NO BOXING AT MILWAUKIE FOR 6 WEEKS

George Moore, manager of the Milwaukie boxing arena, announced yesterday in Portland that there would be no more shows at Milwaukie for the next month or six weeks on account of the small patronage shown at the last show held Wednesday evening. Moore alleges that the lowered prices charged last Wednesday evening did not bring out the crowd that was expected and that the boxers could not be secured for the small gate receipts.

Simmons, Otto Erickson, Bert Baxter Ervin Riley W. Smith Paul Naumann, S. Simmons, Neal Sullivan, of Oregon City and Mrs. Harry Peckover, of Edgewood.

Before leaving for home the women were served with refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. VanWey's home was the scene of a merry gathering on the evening of February 5th. The occasion was the fifteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. VanWey.

Vocal and instrumental music and games were among the events enjoyed during the evening. Mrs. Frank Schoenborn, in her usual charming manner, sang "Love's Old, Sweet Song," and by request, Mrs. Van Wey, sang a Scotch number "My Ain Folk," delighting her hearers.

Refreshments were served during the evening.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Vann, Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Lindborg, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Baker, Miss Tolvia Carlson, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schoenborn, Mrs. Augusta Schoenborn, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Green, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dickey, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Benawa, Mr. and Mrs. S. MacDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Cushman, of this city.

Miss Violet Farr was a charming young hostess at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Farr Friday evening, February 18, when a number of her friends planned and carried out a surprise party.

The color scheme for the decorations was pink and white, artistically arranged in the rooms of the Farr home. Pink and white carnations and pink hyacinths were used.

Music and games were among the features of the evening, after which refreshments were served.

Attending were Mildred Marley, Mildred Midlam, Lorena Jack, Helen Toole, Lottie Feltelson, Violet Farr, Ivan Christie, Lloyd McCormick, Anthony Shockman, Forest Yexley, Fred Gardiner, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Randall and son, Gilbert; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Farr and son, Marvin; Ed. Jacobs and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Farr and Leo and Ivan Farr.

Susannah Lee Barlow Chapter, Daughter of the American Revolution, and those eligible to become members of the organization, enjoyed a tea at the historical old home of Dr. John McLoughlin, father of old Oregon, last Saturday afternoon.

The affair was in the form of a Washington Birthday tea, and Mrs. E. L. Shaw made a most charming Lady Washington, and was one of the hostesses of the afternoon, assisting Mrs. H. G. Edgar pouring tea. Serving refreshments were Misses Helen Edgar and Eleanor Pope.

Decorations were of the Stars and Stripes and violets.

Among the features of the afternoon was the dancing of the Virginia Reel, when Mrs. George A. Harding, presiding at one of the first pianos brought to Oregon, which was a gift to the McLoughlin Home, played a number of the old time selections.

Attending were Mrs. J. E. Hedges, Mrs. Hugh S. Mount, Mrs. Clyde G. Huntley, Mrs. W. W. Woodbeck, Mrs. Clara Knight, of Portland; Mrs. George Swafford, Mrs. James Shannon, Mrs. E. L. Pope, Mrs. H. B. Edgar, Miss Gertrude Humphrey, Miss Dorothy Hedges, Miss Vera Caulfield, Miss Eleanor Pope, Miss Helen Edgar, Miss Florence Mooré and Miss Alma Moore.

A pleasant surprise was planned and carried out at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Ware Thursday evening, when Mrs. Otto Werner, nee Lavira Williams, was the guest of honor.

Being invited to the Ware home earlier in the week on the pretext that a party was to be given in honor of Mrs. Marie Morley, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Ware, Mrs. Werner made her appearance at an appointed hour and to her surprise found a number of guests in waiting, who called out "surprise."

The evening was devoted to games and music. Among those to favor with a vocal selection was Mrs. Werner.

Refreshments were served. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Morley, Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Arthur Rugg.

Attending were Mrs. A. E. Ruge, Mrs. LeRoy Eaton, of Portland; Mrs. C. O. Dryden, Miss Mildred Dryden, Mrs. F. W. Peckover, Mrs. Otto Werner, Mrs. Albert Hoffman, Mrs. John Green, Mrs. J. B. Johnson, Mrs. Eva May, Mrs. Marie Morley, Mrs. G. J. Howell, Mrs. David Catto, Dicksy Dryden, and Gwendolyn Morley. Mrs. A. J. Ware, Mrs. John Surfas, Mrs. Jack Cameron, Mrs. Basil Saunders, Miss Ethel Younger and Mrs. Charles Surfas.

Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Mount were guests at a dinner given at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Coffey, of Portland, Thursday evening, which was given in honor of Dr. and Roy Matson, prominent residents of Portland, previous to their departure for Europe, where they are to be gone for a year.

Covers were laid for 24 guests, when all guests were physicians and their wives.

The decorative scheme of the Coffey home was attractive.

Dr. and Mrs. Matson are well known in Clackamas county, having a summer home on the banks of the Clackamas river, where they spend their summer vacation each year.

One of the delightful events of the past week was at the home of Mrs. Charles D. Latourette when she had her guests members of the Thursday afternoon Bridge Club and a few other friends.

Cards were enjoyed during the afternoon. Handsome Oriental cards cases containing cards were presented as prizes. Winning these were Mrs. J. R. Humphrys, Mrs. C. H. Meisner, Mrs. E. T. Avison. Mrs. Avison won the guest prize.

Mrs. Latourette was assisted in serving refreshments by her daughter-ter-in-law, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, of this city; Mrs. E. C. Latourette; Mrs. Howard Latourette, of Portland.

The interior of the Latourette home was most attractive, when decorations were of daffodils, jonquills and Oregon grape, which were arranged in baskets throughout the rooms.

Attending were Mrs. C. H. Meisner, Mrs. H. E. Hendry, Mrs. L. E. Jones, Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Mrs. Thomas Keith, Mrs. J. R. Humphrys, Mrs. William Folger, Mrs. L. A. Henderson, Mrs. J. H. Latourette, Mrs. Howard Latourette of Portland, Mrs. E. L. Shaw, Mrs. M. D. Latourette.

The masque skating carnival at the skating rink on Washington's Birthday was largely attended, and proved one of the enjoyable events of the past week.

A large number appeared masqued and entered for the prizes.

Many handsome costumes were worn.

A Portland band furnished the music, and was one of the main drawing cards.

Mr. Jeffries, manager, is already planning for a similar event in the near future.

Mrs. H. S. Mount and Mrs. Frank Mount attended at luncheon at the University Club in Portland Friday afternoon. The affair was given by Mrs. Guy Strohm, wife of Dr. Strohm.

Mrs. William Krasiss, Miss Christine Brakel, Mrs. Arthur Beattie, Miss Francis Bowland and Miss Mildred Ellis, of this city, formed a party on Wednesday evening when they went to hear Hoffman.

Mrs. William Wright entertained in a charming manner at her beautiful home near Meldrum Monday afternoon, when the guest of honor was her mother, Mrs. Curtis, of Calgary. The affair was in the form of a farewell luncheon before her departure for her home.

The house decorations were beautiful, when red and yellow tulips were used throughout the rooms.

Places were laid for 20 guests, when Mrs. H. S. Mount, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. L. E. Jones and Mrs. C. H. Huntley, of this city, were among those attending. Others were friends from Portland.

On Wednesday evening Miss Hazel Strief, instructor in domestic science in the Oregon City high school, assisted by eight of her students were hostesses at an informal dinner party at the Oregon City high school building
