

QUIET PREVAILS IN GERMANY AS TROOPS PATROL

DUESSELDORF, March 9. — Although 7000 French, British and Belgian soldiers were today occupying Dusseldorf, Duisburg, Hamborn and Ruhrort, the people of those cities were proceeding about their usual affairs.

There were no signs today of any immediate labor movement by German workmen as an outcome of the occupation, the effort of agitators to bring about the long threatened general strike in protest against the imposition of the allied reparation penalties having failed. This refusal of the workmen to strike, at least for the time being, is attributed by the leaders to the poverty of the men. However, the temper of the laborers in the Essen district is reported such that it is feared the agitations may develop a menacing situation there.

Allied troops to the number of 5000 with four tanks and three river flotillas, are stationed here, but the military are not in evidence except that double sentinels were at the street corners with machine guns.

Alongside the order of the French general of occupation which was posted in public places was the proclamation by President Ebert calling upon the people to bear up peaceably under the "entente's slavery."

General Degoutte's proclamation of a siege ordered the surrender of all arms within 12 hours and prohibited strikes or sabotage. German authorities, and the police are to act under supervision of the allies.

General Degoutte's order places the miners "and other functionaries of the public utilities," under military control. It likewise forbids passenger train service, except for workmen and international travelers. General Maucher, commanding the French troops, on Dusseldorf, visited the burgomaster today and told him General Degoutte had no objection to the meeting of the Rhine provincial landing called for Sunday, provided no speeches were made with regard to the occupation.

The communal police are remaining on duty. The security police force which was "disarmed yesterday," received its arms back today. The men on duty were reduced to the smallest number consistent with the preservation of order.

INDIAN SINGS IN NEW YORK GRAND OPERA

NEW YORK, March 9.—The chasm between unmelodious Indian war whoops and the smooth strains of operatic singing was bridged tonight when Chief Cawpocan, a native Arakanian Indian of the Chilean Andes, made his debut with the Metropolitan Opera company in the leading role of "The Polish Jew." The large audience gave the "big chief" a rousing reception.

French Wives Here May Secure Books

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, March 8.—A list of French fiction and drama available at the library of the University of Oregon will shortly be ready for distribution. A special request for such a list came to the library not long ago from a French war bride in Corvallis who wishes to borrow such books. The French wives of former soldiers throughout the state will no doubt find particular interest in the large number of books in their own language they are able to borrow from the library of the university. They do not have to send to France for reading matter.

POPPIES FROM SHORE OF LAKE LOUISE TO BLOOM IN QUEEN OF ENGLAND'S GARDEN

QUEEN MARY WILL HAVE A GARDEN OF LAKE LOUISE POPPIES * CAVALCADE SEEN BETWEEN THE BLUE OF LAKE LOUISE AND THE GOLD OF HER POPPY FRINGE

When the Duke of Argyle was Governor-General of Canada, his Duchess, the Princess Louise, was fascinated by the beauty of the Canadian Pacific Rockies, and it was accepted as a very happy comment when a new lake of exceptional beauty, discovered in 1882 by Tom Wilson, a famous guide at Banff, was named after Her Royal Highness. The lake does indeed appear to have been known to the Indians who called it "the Lake of the Little Fishes." Today the Indians would probably describe it as the "Lake of Golden Poppies," for the Canadian Pacific Railway has planted vast quantities of beautiful Iceland poppies on the shores and hills surrounding the great Chateau Hotel. This poppy is a hardy perennial and has multiplied quickly so that in summer there is now a blaze of brilliant poppy blossoms about the hotel and lake. When the delegates to the Imperial Press Conference returned last Fall from Canada to England, Miss Hillington, the one woman delegate, mentioned the exceptional beauty of these poppies to Princess Louise, who expressed a desire to obtain some of the seeds. These were sent to Her Royal Highness in a specially made box of Canadian maple wood, and were accepted with expressions of great delight. The tale of Lake Louise's poppies came to the ears of the Queen, who also received a consignment. Her Majesty was equally delighted and gave orders that the seeds should be planted in the Royal Gardens at Balmoral. There, for many a summer to come, the Royal Family will be pleasantly reminded of the most exquisitely beautiful spot in the Canadian Rockies.

SANDY

Moore, the sorrowing husband, works for the Otis Elevator Co. where Mr. Allen is employed.

Dr. and Mrs. Sture took a trip over the week end into Washington to visit the doctor's mother who has been ill in bed for some time.

Mrs. Agnes M. Buckley supervisor, said there were several localities in the county that are afflicted with black diphtheria and spasmodic croup.

Mrs. Katie Koch was sick in bed the first of the week and could not attend the dinner party Sunday that was given by the Wendland's at Mrs. Koch's home place.

The Mannen family passed through town Monday on their way out to their claim at Dover. The truck coming out from Portland with their freight got stuck and they had quite a time of it!

Max Woenche was taken to town by his brother Friedel last week and Dr. Jack King (the King whose country place is at Eagle Creek) told Max if he will follow instructions he will soon be able to walk again. The few Turkish Bath treatments he had under Dr. King helped, and with the home treatment prescribed great things are expected. The doctor claims to have discovered the kidney condition which has caused the continued rheumatic affection, so everyone is hoping for a rapid improvement in the case.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kitzmiller of Dover are the parents of a new baby boy which was born about the last of February.

Miss Ruth Jonsrud of Cherryville, and James E. Folsom of Estacada, started out from Vancouver, Wash., February 28 to sail the sea of life to "waters" will be calm for them!

There was no meeting of the Woman's Club last week, no dance, no picture shows, only one League meeting, very little social life, in fact there was a dearth of "things doing."

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wendland gave a big chicken dinner last Sunday for a few friends and the day was much enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Dahrens and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Mattson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gish and C. A. Wendland did full justice to the dinner, in fact liked it so much that they all remained for supper, but then Mrs. Wendland used to be an expert "chef" at Lipman's so she knows how to prepare a wonderful feed!

Mr. and Mrs. Miller entertained at dinner recently the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson and daughter, Beatrice of Troutdale, Miss Helen Dineen of Portland and Mr. J. H. Hogan of Hidden Lake.

The grader did a lot of good work on the Sandy and blud' road last Saturday and folks were beginning to grov eloquent over the improvement when, lo! it began to rain again Sunday evening! Happens that way most every time!

Joel Jarl says he has cleared a whole acre on his place this winter by himself and kept hatch too! How many can beat it!

The regular meeting of the Development League was not held Friday because the farmers were too busy plowing and seeding.

Louie Vorett has already planned his potatoes! He came to do his marketing on Saturday night so as to lose no time, while the sun shone. Alas! the rain came on Sunday again.

Alf Bell broke a spring in his big service truck, but had to lay off only a part of the day.

Mrs. W. F. Strack says they have over two hundred cabbage plants out already! Beats all how swift some of the farmers are around here!

A. J. Morrison and Vic Biedy had a hatch of three hundred White Leghorn chicks came off last week; which is a good start in the chicken venture.

The Dwyer Logging Co. changed plans and decided not to close down while changing the mill setting, so things are moving right along, the R. R. is building and the five "donkeys" are being moved, the new camp is being fixed up ship-shape and logging going on every day.

The Sandy Lumber Co. may close down for a time as the present timber site is about sawed out. New contracts will probably be secured, however. This is a popular mill and it's closing even for a time will be felt in many localities.

Willie Fisher who had his leg broken at the Sandy Lumber Co. mill last fall went back to work last week.

M. E. Sulser went to Portland last week from Dover, bought a cow, hired a team for a month and is going to open the road through the Wolfe place.

February 26 was the thirty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ten Eyck, and most of those years have been spent right there on the Ten Eyck ranch, but thirty-five years seems a short time after it is lived.

Attilio Cereghino has been in Portland for a few days of visiting, so missed a few days of school on Sandy Ridge.

John Haley hauled the last of Carl Langer's effects down to Portland with his truck the first of the week.

Will Widmer has a live wire horse! He took the bridle off to give the beast a feed in Lohrmann's barn lot and the ungrateful animal gave a "jump" and sped over the gate and buggy and all went tearing along past the Burns place, crossed the bridge, headed for the fluff road and was caught at Pete Hialia's place and tied up. No damage to the horse, and not a great deal to the buggy, considering the wild chase.

Mrs. Susan Kellihier of Dover was in the city last week to get clover seed. She reports their gray oats was also sowed last week.

Chris Finger, Will Bell and Mr. and Mrs. F. Lohrmann were in town to attend the Dairymen's League meeting last week.

Jack Scalers sold another of his "thousandbred" cows the past week!

Frank Thissen has been using Max Woenche's team while "stirring up the ground" to plant his spring crop. A three horse team is going at it right, Frank thinks!

Richard Suckow is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis, which came on nearly two weeks ago. Mrs. Suckow has also been miserably ill during the recent illness and death of her father, Albert Spallinger.

Mr. Spallinger was born in Zurich, Switzerland in '64, but spent the most of his life in Oregon, of late years residing at Shaniko, Albert Spallinger, Jr., and Werner Spallinger of Shaniko attended their father's funeral in Portland last week.

Lawyer and Mrs. C. D. Purcell had as their dinner guests last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas and Edith, worth Bell of Bull Run and Mr. James Bell of Sandy Ridge. Ellsworth's piano playing pleased this party of diners very much indeed, and he surely showed marks of talent. The nice dinner was also a feature of the occasion especially appreciated.

Mrs. E. L. Power spent the day Monday with Mrs. Alma Maroney and the twin of them had mutual pleasures in the event.

Mayor Junker, L. E. Hoffman and Paul Melhig went to Portland Tuesday to present at the highway meeting.

George Maroney went to Portland Sunday and remained for a few days in the big city.

John Maroney went to the big road meeting at Oregon City Monday and spent Monday night at Lents with the Maybee's returning to Oregon City for Tuesday's session.

Tuesday morning the weather cleared up like a genuine spring day and robins and meadow larks hopped about almost as fast as the farmers around here!

The Sandy City council met last Monday night and the following was handed in for publication: "it is required of all persons who have purchased license tags for their dogs that a collar be placed around the dog's neck and that said tag be attached thereto."

MR. AND MRS. ALBON MEINIG.

CARD OF THANKS We wish to express our sincere gratitude to all who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved daughter and for the floral offerings and music.

SCHOOL NEWS.

The Sandy schools opened Monday again after one week's vacation on account of diphtheria contagion, which now seems to be dying out, and with conscientious care on the part of everyone it is hoped the disease will not be stamped out entirely. There was not much above one half the normal attendance, however, but by next week if no new cases develop the schools will probably be going full swing again.

The Orient Girl's Reserve played the Gresham girls last week, the score standing 10 to 9 for Gresham. The Lincoln Legion basket ball boys played Orient and the game was a tie, but when the tie game was played the Legion boys won by one point.

Rev. Earl Cotton's Boy Scouts played the Gresham grade boys, the score standing 10 to 9 for Gresham. The Lincoln Legion basket ball boys played Orient and the game was a tie, but when the tie game was played the Legion boys won by one point.

Miss Mary Junker had to give up her school work at the O. A. C. for the present as she is miserably from over work, her ambition to succeed being greater than her strength. Mary is at home and will remain quiet for a time.

Miss Bess Barton went to her home in Puyallup, Wash., for a few days during the enforced school vacation last week.

A number of children did not return to school this week. Some took the anti-toxin, and some parents wanted to "wait a little" to be sure the danger was over.

Miss Hazel Beers, a Sandy senior went to Gresham for the week end to visit her friend Miss Lucile McCarter. The girls went to Portland, and also attended a dance at Gresham and had a "perfectly wonderful time."

Think of it! The Deep Creek boys and girl's Pic Club is "probably one of the best in the whole U. S. and Sandy hasn't a Pig club of any kind. What is the matter with the Sandy school boys?

Mrs. Allen and Miss Myers entertained Miss Mixer, Miss Vera Mixer, Miss Barton and Mrs. Ten Eyck at dinner one evening last week while Mrs. Buckley, County School supervisor was their house guest.

Doctors Botkins of Gresham and Dr. Williams took the school children's throat cultures last Friday. There have been twenty or more persons who took anti-toxin the past ten days as a precaution against diphtheria.

Fenton Dunn took anti-toxin last Sunday so the folks keep him out of school a few days as the inoculation makes folks feel "dumpy."

Miss Mixer and Miss Crum spent a few days in Portland last week with relatives and friends. Mrs. Ten Eyck went home for her vacation. Miss Myers remained until after the throat tests were taken in the various grades, then went to the city with Mrs. Buckley, supervisor, on Friday A. M. remaining till Sunday.
