

MILWAUKIE AND NORTHERN CLACKAMAS

Prize Is Offered For 1925 Fair Essay

OSWEGO, April 7.—Quite a number of people from Oswego motored up to Hazella Literary Society meeting Saturday evening, April 2. Those going were Mr. and Mrs. William Boyed, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wanker and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Bickner, Edith Bickner, Lillian Bickner, Mr. and Mrs. John Cox and family. After the business session a program of both literary and musical followed and after which refreshments were served. All reported a splendid time. Games were played after which all departed for home. Dena Rebekah Lodge No. 11 will give a five hundred card party Friday April 8. A short program will be given. Admission 35 cents including refreshments. All cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dickson, brother-in-law and sister of W. H. Chapin of Glenmorrie, arrived in Oswego this week from Los Angeles on their way to their home at Buffalo, New York.

Mrs. Charles Bickner has been ill for several days from an attack of grip. She is convalescing.

Mrs. O. C. Merrick sketched out an idea for an essay contest on the subject of Oswego Lake advantages as a site for the 1925 highway Electric Exposition and President Sydney P. Vincent of the Oswego Lake 1925 organization clinched the scheme with the offer of a five dollar prize for the best essay. The naming of the organization, which was to have taken place at last Friday night's meeting was deferred again because the names committee had not made its report. There is a $5 prize hangs on this decision.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pettinger were hosts at their home to a number of college friends who were home for the Easter vacation.

Miss Bertha Worthington and Mrs. Pete Emmott went to Camas, Wash., the latter part of the week to visit their sister, Mrs. William Lorenze, who has been ill but is better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Hyskell former residents of Oswego who for several years have been living at Warren, have resuscitated their home Rock Lawn in South Oswego, where they will spend the summer.

A large crowd was present at the Congregation church on Thursday night to the community sing, which has been under preparation several weeks. A collection was taken during the evening with which additional music for the subsequent sings will be purchased.

Pete Emmott and brother Walter, went to Redland Sunday to see his little nephew who was kicked in the face by a horse and had to have several stitches taken. The little fellow was getting along nicely.

Mrs. Rose Reeses was accidentally hurt while getting on the train on her way to Portland last Friday.

The Oswego Women's club which was held at the home of Mrs. L. L. Woodward on Wednesday was enjoyed by all as the speaker of the day, Miss Emma Heilman, director of Physical Education at Reed college, gave a talk.

Work will be resumed within the coming week on the Oswego-Multnomah county highway just a few more good days is needed to put the road bed in condition to receive the cement coating.

Mrs. Grant White was in Oswego Monday visiting relatives.

Miss Louis Pettinger and Miss Mar-Wilson were entertained last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Newlands. Dancing and music followed a dinner at which covers were laid for 12.

Miss Elta Beckman of Victoria, is visiting at the Fred Money home of Glenmorrie on Thursday of last week. She was taken for a trip over the Columbia river highway and Friday evening was the guest of honor at a reception at the Morey home.

I. A. Lord gave a dancing party at the Grange hall last Monday night in honor of his wife.

Mrs. H. H. Eccles, of Canby, visited her brother in Oswego Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Baxter and son, Melville visited relatives in Oswego on Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Waldorf of Multnomah was in Oswego Sunday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Shipley of Gresham was in Oswego on Tuesday.

Welcome Party Held At Jennings Lodge

JENNINGS LODGE, April 7.—The welcome party given in honor of Mrs. Frank Covert, at her home on Wednesday, was attended by twenty-five women. It was the regular social meeting of the Grace Guild. Mrs. A. E. Snider led the devotional meeting, taking as her subject, Friendship, and in a sweet way spoke of the meeting of the newcomers and the joy of old friends in returning to our community and quoted gems of friendship from many authors. At the social hour we were delighted with a reading by Mrs. Painton giving "The Inventors Wife," which was much enjoyed. With songs and charades made a very pleasant afternoon. At the business hour the president appointed Mrs. Bertha Hart, Mrs. A. B. Snider and Mrs. Edith Blinestone to meet with other organizations of Community to plan a meeting of entire district for the purpose of putting the proposition of a nice church before the people. It was voted to adopt a calendar plan for the Guilds part of the finances if the church is built. Almost all present being in sympathy with the movement. A cup of tea with delicious refreshments were enjoyed by Mesdames Hobkins, Kelly, Hooker, A. B. Snider, L. Allen, W. I. Blinestone, T. Finch, Mary Tillman A. Nelson, A. B. Smith, R. F. Deter, H. C. Painton, Meade Kennedy, W. Ross, George Pooler, C. Waterhouse, Claire Maple, Henry Babler, Kitchen, Den Losey, Hugh Roberts, George Gardner, Frank Covert, William Cook, and Mr. Snider.

We are pleased to hear of the high credits which the pupils of the Jennings Lodge school have received during the past month. It not only reflects credit on our efficient corps of instructors, but on the children as well. A list of those with highest per cents are as follows: 8th grade, Barbara Portz, 96.7 per cent; 7th grade, Florence Wilson, 93.6 per cent; 6th grade, George Card, 95.7 per cent; 5th grade, Mary Rush, 95.3 per cent; 4th grade, Audrey Tillman, 95 per cent; 3rd grade, Helen Rosche, Newell Ford and Robert Chapman tied with 99 per cent.

Mrs. Lascy Allen leaves on Friday for the Dalles, where she will attend the home coming of the Rebekah Lodge.

The regular meeting of P. T. Association will be held at the schoolhouse on Friday P. M., April 8.

A little daughter has come to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prior on Addie street. The little miss arrived on April 1st.

Rev. A. B. Snider has returned from Grants Pass, going down on a business trip.

Mr. Wilfred Ross spent Easter Sunday at Woodland, Wash.

W. R. Guy has purchased the Pettys home and is soon to take up his residence here.

Mrs. George Gardner gave an April Fool frolic for the little folks in her Sunday school class on Saturday afternoon. The favors and caps were of burnt orange and black and the little folks prized these very much. Games and contests were enjoyed. During the afternoon their attendance cards were given and stickers for every Sunday they were present with stickers for the Christmas, Valentine and Easter Sundays made pretty souvenirs for the fourteen little folks. Ice cream and delicious home made animal cookies were served. The class enrollment is composed of John Holloway, William Tillman, Betty Bretcher, Arthur Boetger, Victoria Boetger, Omar Bethel, Lorraine Ford, Billy Booth, Lee Burns, Geraldine Harlowe, Bonita Prior, Ruth Alice Lawrence, Bobby Thompson, Winnifred Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Theron Finch had the pleasure of entertaining friends from their old home town, Alpha, Iowa. Their guests over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Rueben Finch and Mrs. Will Patterson. The visitors enjoyed a 20 pound Chinook salmon which was caught by the host. Collins Finch who is a Freshman at the Portland dental college also spent Sunday at this home.

Mrs. C. R. Holloway returns from California on April 10th, after a six weeks' visit at Long Beach with her mother.

Mr. Vyvyan Dent, who has recently returned from China, was a business caller during the week. They are planning on returning to their summer home on the river front.

Jesse Miller of Portland caught two 25 pound salmon on Saturday.

Ray Foley, a wireless radio operator on the steamer Herin, visited at the Bruchert home on Friday evening. Mr. Foley has recently returned from a trip around the world and is a cartoonist of some note.

While the proprietor of the Shady Nook grocery was using the telephone a stranger helped himself to a $7.00 fishing reel. The little folks who saw the man take it reported to Mr. Clarke to late to identify the stranger.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Scripture of Oregon City were callers at the Roberts home on Wednesday evening.

Marcus Allen of Spokane and a student at the University of Washington, was a dinner guest of Mr. Dan Jones on Thursday.

Mr. Walter Pettys disposed of his property interest here and has decided to return to Tillamook, where he will engage in business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Painton and son Morse autoed up from Rockaway and will spend a week with their daughter Mrs. Alden Kelly. Mr. Painton is purchasing material for his four new cottages which are well under way and will be ready at the opening of the beach season. A nine room house has been completed which the Painton family will occupy.

The Heathman Construction company has been awarded the contract to build the new fire hall at Bolton. At present this company is completing the new store at Oak Grove. The firm are well known people of the Mel drum district.

Mrs. H. W. Smith of California has been entertained at the home of Mrs. Edward Boyd.

The Harry Howland home is completed at the family tract possession. This is a very pretty little bungalow and is on the River road.

H. M. Hayles, a public accountant of Airle is spending a few days at Jennings Lodge. Mr. Hayles has a small poultry ranch "Kozynook" at Airle and has orders for 13,000 baby chicks of his white leghorn strain.

News of interest here of the week was the marriage of Helene Seelye to Earl Mac Donough of Salem. The wedding taking place at the home of the bride at Salem. The J. E. Seelye family were former residents of the Mel drum district.

Miss Smith, student of the Willamette University at Salem, is enjoying part of her vacation at the home of her brother A. B. Smith.

About 30 couples attended the dancing party given at the Blue front hall on Saturday evening.

Mr. McElroy is to begin his new home on his acreage on Addie street.

Many social affairs have been given for Mr. and Mrs. Painton during their week's stay at the Lodge. The Painton family formerly resided here and old friends are pleased to see them.

A business meeting of the Christian Endeavor was held on Wednesday eve at the church. A taffy pull followed. Mrs. Pooler and Rev. and Mrs. Snider chaperoned the affair.

The Junior Endeavor has twenty members and Mrs. Snider is the superintendent. It includes the children between the ages of seven and twelve years.

An elderly lady who makes her home with the J. Hampton family fainted while ironing on Wednesday, when found by Mr. Heath was badly burned about the face.

The Community Club met in regular session at the school house on Wednesday evening. A large number were present. Mr. Madison reported on telephone case and a petition is being further circulated for the recall. Howard Truscott gave a splendid report on water question and matter will be laid over until the next meeting.

Mr. Meldrum, Mr. Necombe and Mrs. Kruschey were appointed a committee on the church plans.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Grievie of South Oregon have located at the Ullabrand cottage. Mrs. Grievie is a niece of Mrs. Ullabrand and has come to receive medical treatment. Mr. Grievie is an author of some note.

SANDY DEPARTMENT

MRS. J. M. C. MILLER Correspondent

Frank Jadinett of Sandy Takes Bride

SANDY, April 5.—Frank Jadinett has taken unto himself a fine looking bride all the way from Bohemia! Writing his sister some time ago to find him a nice wife "over there," the sister proceeded to select a desirable sister-in-law, a correspondence began. Cupid got very busy and the result was Mr. Jadinett sent his fair lady love her expenses to come to the best country on earth and she left her home-land March 2, arriving at Portland the 30th. Henry Kamp and R. Ditter went to Portland with the groom and then to Vancouver as witnesses for the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Jadinett are very nearly the same age, and seem very happy together. Mrs. Jadinett cannot speak a word of English but then she will soon learn. They have gone to the rental owned by Jadinett. He was working the Sandy Lumber Co. mill when it closed down.

17th of this month will be especially fine. Mr. Sam Jordon of Portland, a professional singer will be present and sing two solos. Mrs. Purcell, will also appear as a soloist, Miss Ruth Crum will sing and there will be a "surprise" everyone will want to hear if plans do not fall but it is a little early to announce the entire program. Perhaps by next week it can be given in full.

There was a small collection asked for Sunday night for the Albertine Kerr day nursery in Portland and the "small change" asked for amounted to four dollars. That is the first collection that has been asked at the song programs.

Sandy and Cottrell Hold P. T. Meetings

SANDY, April 5.—Friday night there was a Sandy Parent Teacher meeting in the Odd Fellow's hall which was presided over by Mrs. H. E. Esson, who as vice-president is finishing the year's work in place of Mrs. Ernest Bonett who resigned from illness. The meeting was favored by the presence of Mrs. Buckley, supervisor, who gave a strong talk for teachers and parents to co-operate for the welfare of the children; and urging every parent to visit the school often.

Farm Bureau Meet At Sandy Helpful

SANDY, April 4.—There was only a "porch" meeting at the farm bureau session Friday, so busy were the farmers making the work fly while the sun shone, that hardly a "corporal's guard" came. However, county agent W. A. Holt came out from Oregon City and talked over farm bureau interests advising on various points of procedure and after all it is the farmer who really do most of the work in the organizations, so these folks went ahead as ardently as though there were a hundred present. The following committees were appointed by the local leader, Ed. Hart; Canadian thistles, James De Shazer; Marketing, Ed Hart, (at request of others); Poultry improvement, Mrs. F. C. Lohman; rodent control, Charles Krebs.

News of interest here of the week was the marriage of Helene Seelye to Earl Mac Donough of Salem. The wedding taking place at the home of the bride at Salem. The J. E. Seelye family were former residents of the Mel drum district.

Miss Smith, student of the Willamette University at Salem, is enjoying part of her vacation at the home of her brother A. B. Smith.

About 30 couples attended the dancing party given at the Blue front hall on Saturday evening.

Mr. McElroy is to begin his new home on his acreage on Addie street.

Many social affairs have been given for Mr. and Mrs. Painton during their week's stay at the Lodge. The Painton family formerly resided here and old friends are pleased to see them.

A business meeting of the Christian Endeavor was held on Wednesday eve at the church. A taffy pull followed. Mrs. Pooler and Rev. and Mrs. Snider chaperoned the affair.

The Junior Endeavor has twenty members and Mrs. Snider is the superintendent. It includes the children between the ages of seven and twelve years.

An elderly lady who makes her home with the J. Hampton family fainted while ironing on Wednesday, when found by Mr. Heath was badly burned about the face.

The Community Club met in regular session at the school house on Wednesday evening. A large number were present. Mr. Madison reported on telephone case and a petition is being further circulated for the recall. Howard Truscott gave a splendid report on water question and matter will be laid over until the next meeting.

Mr. Meldrum, Mr. Necombe and Mrs. Kruschey were appointed a committee on the church plans.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Grievie of South Oregon have located at the Ullabrand cottage. Mrs. Grievie is a niece of Mrs. Ullabrand and has come to receive medical treatment. Mr. Grievie is an author of some note.

Interest Grows In Community Singing

SANDY, April 4.—More and more interest is developing in the community song program, and if the audience continues to grow, as fast as it has of late the church will be running over before long. One interesting feature is the varied crowd that attends. It all came at once the church recitations of stately spruce blossoms and greens Sunday night were especially pretty. Mrs. J. C. Duke being the "decorative artist," Marguerite Barnett getting the "first fruits" of the spring time flowers.

The program was changed somewhat at the last moment because it was impossible for Dr. Sture to be present but Mr. Shelley consented to sing tenor in his stead. The numbers were as follows: Voluntary, Mrs. George Perret; Hymn, "Come Almighty King," by audience led by quartette and violin. Responsive reading; recitation, "Little Orphan Annie," by little Bennett Miller; violin and organ, "Traumseriri," by George Beers and Mrs. George Perret; quartet, "There is a Green Hill Far Away," Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Esson, P. T. Shelley and R. S. Smith; Hymn by audience; reading "The last Hymn," Mrs. Fred Perret; solo, "Saved by Grace," Mr. P. T. Shelly; Quartette, "He Knows"; Violin and organ, "American Hymn"; Hymn, "Holy Night"; audience; duet, "The Gates of Gold," Mrs. Esson and Mrs. Miller; announcements; "Will There be Any Stars," quartette and violin with chorus by audience. Mrs. George Perret was the organist of the evening.

The next song program will be the SIX EXTRA FINE young grade cows for sale. Have been tuberculin tested by the government and are being tested by Wm. Butler of the Cow Testing association for the past 10 months. This is your chance to buy a few real good cows at the right price. Wm. Jocelyn, R. 2, box 33, Boring, located between Kelso and Sandy.

Mr. A. Aschoff was over from Mar-mot the first of the week to see his son Carl who came home from Troutdale Saturday.

Mr. J. S. Allen came out from the city on Friday remaining until Monday morning.

Charley Suckow has been moving over to Sandy on the installation plan the past week, and will soon be "all" here.

Mayor Junker went to Portland two or three days last week, and Paul Meising and L. E. Hoffman also went in to attend the meeting of the Highway Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe left Monday for their home in The Dalles after finally getting business affairs here untangled. Mr. Wolfe is gaining in health and looks fine. When he called the doctor at The Dalles he told him the same as Dr. Williams, that he had to stay in a different climate and that he did not change a day too soon!

Mr. Murray and son Ray Murray went to the head works on Monday to begin work up there.

Miss Essmer and Miss Vera Mixer entertained with cards on Saturday evening and time sped away on swift wings while the games went merrily on according to the guests who enjoyed the free-from-care evening very much indeed, and Mr. Jordon favored them with his fine singing. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell, and Miss Bess Barton.

Mrs. Ungertson, sister of Mrs. Junker has returned from a few weeks' visiting at Portland, Astoria and Seaside. Mrs. Ungertson will return to her home in Skagway in a couple of weeks because of being unable to get reservations later. There are not so many boats on the Alaska run now and traffic is heavy.

Mrs. E. Dodd attended the dance at Brightwood Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Spradlin of Kelso. They did not attempt to leave till daybreak so missed trouble in the sudden snow storm that caught the younger generation.

There was a large birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wendland last Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Wendland's birthday. There were forty-five present and the happy crowd stayed till almost three in the morning! Gus Dahrens played the accordion and Monroe Weist the violin for the pleasure of the crowd and their feet got to swinging around in a number of dances during the evening. Refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches, coffee and all kinds of cake were enjoyed. News of the party was received too late to write out names of the guests.

A party attended by a hundred guests was a recent event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Malar, which news also came too late to report in full.

Mrs. Dora Dahrens is out visiting here for a few days from Portland. Her daughter Miss Johanna Dahrens came out Sunday for the day, which was spent with her brothers Gus and Adolph.

P. T. Shelley came over from Hood River to spend a few days with his family the past week, which was his first trip home for six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and little grand-son Bennett Miller were Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke, which is "enough said" for every one to know the dinner was fine and the occasion a most "homey" and enjoyable one.

Miss Hilda Steffason, sister of Mrs. Sture spent Monday at the home of the Stures; the trained nurse arriving in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor "stood up a long time" at the spelling bee, demonstrating that they are good spellers.

Mrs. M. E. Church of Oregon City came out Friday with Mr. Holt, the county agent and Miss Snedeker. Mrs. Church knows a good many nice things about our community.

R. Netzel has moved on the Jerger place. The Netzels are thrifty folks and will do well on this well kept place.

Dr. Julius Sture was in Portland all day Saturday on a business trip.

Miss Fay Young went home to spend the day. Her folks live on the Maroney farm.

Chas. F. Barber was out on his acreage again this week transplanting shrubs and flowers. Mr. Barber expects to transplant ten thousand delphiniums during the season, some of which will be set out on his Portland lots.

Jess Dixon drove up to Brightwood to deliver a piano at the Beechel home the other day and stopped to call on the Dunn family as he returned.

Miss Barbara Zog is home again from Stafford where she was staying at her uncle's home.

Mrs. Mary I. Wilson, mother of Mrs. Blanch Shelley returned to Sandy Saturday noon and in four hours had bought a home, got a job and gone to work! Mrs. Wilson is sixty-two years young, perhaps that is why she can really do things without a lot of fuss and furry! She is nursing at the O'Neil home.

Mrs. Wilson bought the August Senske place and will take possession in about a week, or as soon as the Senske's finish moving to Portland.

Charles Cleveland of Gresham was in Sandy a few days ago.

Mrs. Dora Daniels and son of Portland has been out visiting her home folks Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haselwander and family.

A large card party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Yerne Maulding of Boring a few nights ago which was a perfectly enjoyable time for all present. Mrs. Metzger gave several piano selections during the evening and the host, Vernon Maulding played violin selections. There was also a "big feed," which was also an interesting number on the program! Those present, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCullinger, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morand, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Telford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Menjenhall, Mrs. Lundy, Mrs. Potter, Miss F. B. Anderson, W. E. Child, W. A. Vail, Clarence Anderson, Russell Potter, Frisby Maulding and the Vernon Mauldings.

Mr. A. Aschoff was over from Mar-mot the first of the week to see his son Carl who came home from Troutdale Saturday.

Mr. J. S. Allen came out from the city on Friday remaining until Monday morning.

Charley Suckow has been moving over to Sandy on the installation plan the past week, and will soon be "all" here.

Mayor Junker went to Portland two or three days last week, and Paul Meising and L. E. Hoffman also went in to attend the meeting of the Highway Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe left Monday for their home in The Dalles after finally getting business affairs here untangled. Mr. Wolfe is gaining in health and looks fine. When he called the doctor at The Dalles he told him the same as Dr. Williams, that he had to stay in a different climate and that he did not change a day too soon!

Mr. Murray and son Ray Murray went to the head works on Monday to begin work up there.

Miss Essmer and Miss Vera Mixer entertained with cards on Saturday evening and time sped away on swift wings while the games went merrily on according to the guests who enjoyed the free-from-care evening very much indeed, and Mr. Jordon favored them with his fine singing. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell, and Miss Bess Barton.

Mrs. Ungertson, sister of Mrs. Junker has returned from a few weeks' visiting at Portland, Astoria and Seaside. Mrs. Ungertson will return to her home in Skagway in a couple of weeks because of being unable to get reservations later. There are not so many boats on the Alaska run now and traffic is heavy.

Mrs. E. Dodd attended the dance at Brightwood Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Spradlin of Kelso. They did not attempt to leave till daybreak so missed trouble in the sudden snow storm that caught the younger generation.

There was a large birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wendland last Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Wendland's birthday. There were forty-five present and the happy crowd stayed till almost three in the morning! Gus Dahrens played the accordion and Monroe Weist the violin for the pleasure of the crowd and their feet got to swinging around in a number of dances during the evening. Refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches, coffee and all kinds of cake were enjoyed. News of the party was received too late to write out names of the guests.

A party attended by a hundred guests was a recent event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Malar, which news also came too late to report in full.

Mrs. Dora Dahrens is out visiting here for a few days from Portland. Her daughter Miss Johanna Dahrens came out Sunday for the day, which was spent with her brothers Gus and Adolph.

P. T. Shelley came over from Hood River to spend a few days with his family the past week, which was his first trip home for six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and little grand-son Bennett Miller were Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke, which is "enough said" for every one to know the dinner was fine and the occasion a most "homey" and enjoyable one.

Miss Hilda Steffason, sister of Mrs. Sture spent Monday at the home of the Stures; the trained nurse arriving in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor "stood up a long time" at the spelling bee, demonstrating that they are good spellers.

Mrs. M. E. Church of Oregon City came out Friday with Mr. Holt, the county agent and Miss Snedeker. Mrs. Church knows a good many nice things about our community.

R. Netzel has moved on the Jerger place. The Netzels are thrifty folks and will do well on this well kept place.

Dr. Julius Sture was in Portland all day Saturday on a business trip.

Miss Fay Young went home to spend the day. Her folks live on the Maroney farm.

Chas. F. Barber was out on his acreage again this week transplanting shrubs and flowers. Mr. Barber expects to transplant ten thousand delphiniums during the season, some of which will be set out on his Portland lots.

Jess Dixon drove up to Brightwood to deliver a piano at the Beechel home the other day and stopped to call on the Dunn family as he returned.

Miss Barbara Zog is home again from Stafford where she was staying at her uncle's home.

Mrs. Mary I. Wilson, mother of Mrs. Blanch Shelley returned to Sandy Saturday noon and in four hours had bought a home, got a job and gone to work! Mrs. Wilson is sixty-two years young, perhaps that is why she can really do things without a lot of fuss and furry! She is nursing at the O'Neil home.

Mrs. Wilson bought the August Senske place and will take possession in about a week, or as soon as the Senske's finish moving to Portland.

Charles Cleveland of Gresham was in Sandy a few days ago.

Mrs. Dora Daniels and son of Portland has been out visiting her home folks Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haselwander and family.

A large card party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Yerne Maulding of Boring a few nights ago which was a perfectly enjoyable time for all present. Mrs. Metzger gave several piano selections during the evening and the host, Vernon Maulding played violin selections. There was also a "big feed," which was also an interesting number on the program! Those present, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCullinger, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morand, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Telford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Menjenhall, Mrs. Lundy, Mrs. Potter, Miss F. B. Anderson, W. E. Child, W. A. Vail, Clarence Anderson, Russell Potter, Frisby Maulding and the Vernon Mauldings.

Mr. A. Aschoff was over from Mar-mot the first of the week to see his son Carl who came home from Troutdale Saturday.

Mr. J. S. Allen came out from the city on Friday remaining until Monday morning.

Charley Suckow has been moving over to Sandy on the installation plan the past week, and will soon be "all" here.

Mayor Junker went to Portland two or three days last week, and Paul Meising and L. E. Hoffman also went in to attend the meeting of the Highway Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe left Monday for their home in The Dalles after finally getting business affairs here untangled. Mr. Wolfe is gaining in health and looks fine. When he called the doctor at The Dalles he told him the same as Dr. Williams, that he had to stay in a different climate and that he did not change a day too soon!

Mr. Murray and son Ray Murray went to the head works on Monday to begin work up there.

Miss Essmer and Miss Vera Mixer entertained with cards on Saturday evening and time sped away on swift wings while the games went merrily on according to the guests who enjoyed the free-from-care evening very much indeed, and Mr. Jordon favored them with his fine singing. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell, and Miss Bess Barton.

Mrs. Ungertson, sister of Mrs. Junker has returned from a few weeks' visiting at Portland, Astoria and Seaside. Mrs. Ungertson will return to her home in Skagway in a couple of weeks because of being unable to get reservations later. There are not so many boats on the Alaska run now and traffic is heavy.

Mrs. E. Dodd attended the dance at Brightwood Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Spradlin of Kelso. They did not attempt to leave till daybreak so missed trouble in the sudden snow storm that caught the younger generation.

There was a large birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wendland last Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Wendland's birthday. There were forty-five present and the happy crowd stayed till almost three in the morning! Gus Dahrens played the accordion and Monroe Weist the violin for the pleasure of the crowd and their feet got to swinging around in a number of dances during the evening. Refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches, coffee and all kinds of cake were enjoyed. News of the party was received too late to write out names of the guests.

A party attended by a hundred guests was a recent event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Malar, which news also came too late to report in full.

Mrs. Dora Dahrens is out visiting here for a few days from Portland. Her daughter Miss Johanna Dahrens came out Sunday for the day, which was spent with her brothers Gus and Adolph.

P. T. Shelley came over from Hood River to spend a few days with his family the past week, which was his first trip home for six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and little grand-son Bennett Miller were Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke, which is "enough said" for every one to know the dinner was fine and the occasion a most "homey" and enjoyable one.

Miss Hilda Steffason, sister of Mrs. Sture spent Monday at the home of the Stures; the trained nurse arriving in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor "stood up a long time" at the spelling bee, demonstrating that they are good spellers.

Mrs. M. E. Church of Oregon City came out Friday with Mr. Holt, the county agent and Miss Snedeker. Mrs. Church knows a good many nice things about our community.

R. Netzel has moved on the Jerger place. The Netzels are thrifty folks and will do well on this well kept place.

Dr. Julius Sture was in Portland all day Saturday on a business trip.

Miss Fay Young went home to spend the day. Her folks live on the Maroney farm.

Chas. F. Barber was out on his acreage again this week transplanting shrubs and flowers. Mr. Barber expects to transplant ten thousand delphiniums during the season, some of which will be set out on his Portland lots.

Jess Dixon drove up to Brightwood to deliver a piano at the Beechel home the other day and stopped to call on the Dunn family as he returned.

Miss Barbara Zog is home again from Stafford where she was staying at her uncle's home.

Mrs. Mary I. Wilson, mother of Mrs. Blanch Shelley returned to Sandy Saturday noon and in four hours had bought a home, got a job and gone to work! Mrs. Wilson is sixty-two years young, perhaps that is why she can really do things without a lot of fuss and furry! She is nursing at the O'Neil home.

Mrs. Wilson bought the August Senske place and will take possession in about a week, or as soon as the Senske's finish moving to Portland.

Charles Cleveland of Gresham was in Sandy a few days ago.

Mrs. Dora Daniels and son of Portland has been out visiting her home folks Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haselwander and family.

A large card party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Yerne Maulding of Boring a few nights ago which was a perfectly enjoyable time for all present. Mrs. Metzger gave several piano selections during the evening and the host, Vernon Maulding played violin selections. There was also a "big feed," which was also an interesting number on the program! Those present, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCullinger, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morand, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Telford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Menjenhall, Mrs. Lundy, Mrs. Potter, Miss F. B. Anderson, W. E. Child, W. A. Vail, Clarence Anderson, Russell Potter, Frisby Maulding and the Vernon Mauldings.

Mr. A. Aschoff was over from Mar-mot the first of the week to see his son Carl who came home from Troutdale Saturday.

Mr. J. S. Allen came out from the city on Friday remaining until Monday morning.

Charley Suckow has been moving over to Sandy on the installation plan the past week, and will soon be "all" here.

Mayor Junker went to Portland two or three days last week, and Paul Meising and L. E. Hoffman also went in to attend the meeting of the Highway Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe left Monday for their home in The Dalles after finally getting business affairs here untangled. Mr. Wolfe is gaining in health and looks fine. When he called the doctor at The Dalles he told him the same as Dr. Williams, that he had to stay in a different climate and that he did not change a day too soon!

Mr. Murray and son Ray Murray went to the head works on Monday to begin work up there.

Miss Essmer and Miss Vera Mixer entertained with cards on Saturday evening and time sped away on swift wings while the games went merrily on according to the guests who enjoyed the free-from-care evening very much indeed, and Mr. Jordon favored them with his fine singing. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell, and Miss Bess Barton.

Mrs. Ungertson, sister of Mrs. Junker has returned from a few weeks' visiting at Portland, Astoria and Seaside. Mrs. Ungertson will return to her home in Skagway in a couple of weeks because of being unable to get reservations later. There are not so many boats on the Alaska run now and traffic is heavy.

Mrs. E. Dodd attended the dance at Brightwood Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Spradlin of Kelso. They did not attempt to leave till daybreak so missed trouble in the sudden snow storm that caught the younger generation.

There was a large birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wendland last Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Wendland's birthday. There were forty-five present and the happy crowd stayed till almost three in the morning! Gus Dahrens played the accordion and Monroe Weist the violin for the pleasure of the crowd and their feet got to swinging around in a number of dances during the evening. Refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches, coffee and all kinds of cake were enjoyed. News of the party was received too late to write out names of the guests.

A party attended by a hundred guests was a recent event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Malar, which news also came too late to report in full.

Mrs. Dora Dahrens is out visiting here for a few days from Portland. Her daughter Miss Johanna Dahrens came out Sunday for the day, which was spent with her brothers Gus and Adolph.

P. T. Shelley came over from Hood River to spend a few days with his family the past week, which was his first trip home for six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and little grand-son Bennett Miller were Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke, which is "enough said" for every one to know the dinner was fine and the occasion a most "homey" and enjoyable one.

Miss Hilda Steffason, sister of Mrs. Sture spent Monday at the home of the Stures; the trained nurse arriving in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor "stood up a long time" at the spelling bee, demonstrating that they are good spellers.

Mrs. M. E. Church of Oregon City came out Friday with Mr. Holt, the county agent and Miss Snedeker. Mrs. Church knows a good many nice things about our community.

R. Netzel has moved on the Jerger place. The Netzels are thrifty folks and will do well on this well kept place.

Dr. Julius Sture was in Portland all day Saturday on a business trip.

Miss Fay Young went home to spend the day. Her folks live on the Maroney farm.

Chas. F. Barber was out on his acreage again this week transplanting shrubs and flowers. Mr. Barber expects to transplant ten thousand delphiniums during the season, some of which will be set out on his Portland lots.

Jess Dixon drove up to Brightwood to deliver a piano at the Beechel home the other day and stopped to call on the Dunn family as he returned.

Miss Barbara Zog is home again from Stafford where she was staying at her uncle's home.

Mrs. Mary I. Wilson, mother of Mrs. Blanch Shelley returned to Sandy Saturday noon and in four hours had bought a home, got a job and gone to work! Mrs. Wilson is sixty-two years young, perhaps that is why she can really do things without a lot of fuss and furry! She is nursing at the O'Neil home.

Mrs. Wilson bought the August Senske place and will take possession in about a week, or as soon as the Senske's finish moving to Portland.

Charles Cleveland of Gresham was in Sandy a few days ago.

Mrs. Dora Daniels and son of Portland has been out visiting her home folks Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haselwander and family.

A large card party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Yerne Maulding of Boring a few nights ago which was a perfectly enjoyable time for all present. Mrs. Metzger gave several piano selections during the evening and the host, Vernon Maulding played violin selections. There was also a "big feed," which was also an interesting number on the program! Those present, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCullinger, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morand, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Telford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Menjenhall, Mrs. Lundy, Mrs. Potter, Miss F. B. Anderson, W. E. Child, W. A. Vail, Clarence Anderson, Russell Potter, Frisby Maulding and the Vernon Mauldings.

Mr. A. Aschoff was over from Mar-mot the first of the week to see his son Carl who came home from Troutdale Saturday.

Mr. J. S. Allen came out from the city on Friday remaining until Monday morning.

Charley Suckow has been moving over to Sandy on the installation plan the past week, and will soon be "all" here.

Mayor Junker went to Portland two or three days last week, and Paul Meising and L. E. Hoffman also went in to attend the meeting of the Highway Commission.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe left Monday for their home in The Dalles after finally getting business affairs here untangled. Mr. Wolfe is gaining in health and looks fine. When he called the doctor at The Dalles he told him the same as Dr. Williams, that he had to stay in a different climate and that he did not change a day too soon!

Mr. Murray and son Ray Murray went to the head works on Monday to begin work up there.

Miss Essmer and Miss Vera Mixer entertained with cards on Saturday evening and time sped away on swift wings while the games went merrily on according to the guests who enjoyed the free-from-care evening very much indeed, and Mr. Jordon favored them with his fine singing. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purcell, and Miss Bess Barton.

Mrs. Ungertson, sister of Mrs. Junker has returned from a few weeks' visiting at Portland, Astoria and Seaside. Mrs. Ungertson will return to her home in Skagway in a couple of weeks because of being unable to get reservations later. There are not so many boats on the Alaska run now and traffic is heavy.

Mrs. E. Dodd attended the dance at Brightwood Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Spradlin of Kelso. They did not attempt to leave till daybreak so missed trouble in the sudden snow storm that caught the younger generation.

There was a large birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wendland last Saturday night in honor of Mrs. Wendland's birthday. There were forty-five present and the happy crowd stayed till almost three in the morning! Gus Dahrens played the accordion and Monroe Weist the violin for the pleasure of the crowd and their feet got to swinging around in a number of dances during the evening. Refreshments consisting of salad, sandwiches, coffee and all kinds of cake were enjoyed. News of the party was received too late to write out names of the guests.

A party attended by a hundred guests was a recent event at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Malar, which news also came too late to report in full.

Mrs. Dora Dahrens is out visiting here for a few days from Portland. Her daughter Miss Johanna Dahrens came out Sunday for the day, which was spent with her brothers Gus and Adolph.

P. T. Shelley came over from Hood River to spend a few days with his family the past week, which was his first trip home for six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and little grand-son Bennett Miller were Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke, which is "enough said" for every one to know the dinner was fine and the occasion a most "homey" and enjoyable one.

Miss Hilda Steffason, sister of Mrs. Sture spent Monday at the home of the Stures; the trained nurse arriving in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Proctor "stood up a long time" at the spelling bee, demonstrating that they are good spellers.

Mrs. M. E. Church of Oregon City came out Friday with Mr. Holt, the county agent and Miss Snedeker. Mrs. Church knows a good many nice things about our community.

R. Netzel has moved on the Jerger place. The Netzels are thrifty folks and will do well on this well kept place.

Dr. Julius Sture was in Portland all day Saturday on a business trip.

Miss Fay Young went home to spend the day. Her folks live on the Maroney farm.

Chas. F. Barber was out on his acreage again this week transplanting shrubs and flowers. Mr. Barber expects to transplant ten thousand delphiniums during the season, some of which will be set out on his Portland lots.

Jess Dixon drove up to Brightwood to deliver a piano at the Beechel home the other day and stopped to call on the Dunn family as he returned.

Miss Barbara Zog is home again from Stafford where she was staying at her uncle's home.

Mrs. Mary I. Wilson, mother of Mrs. Blanch Shelley returned to Sandy Saturday noon and in four hours had bought a home, got a job and gone to work! Mrs. Wilson is sixty-two years young, perhaps that is why she can really do things