

RURAL LINES TO OPPOSE PHONE RATE ADVANCE

Representatives from practically every rural telephone organization in Clackamas county met in the county agent's office in this city Wednesday to discuss and perfect concerted action against the advance in rural telephone rates as allowed by the public service commission of the state.

O. R. Dougherty, president of the Clackamas County Farm Bureau, presided at the gathering, and delegates from the following rural telephone companies of the county were present: Beaver Creek Mutual Telephone Co., Clear Creek Mutual Telephone Co., Molalla Mutual Telephone Co., Canby Cooperative Telephone Association, Central Point Telephone Co., Tigardville Rural Co., and Colton Rural Telephone Co.

The meeting went on record opposing the advanced rates on rural lines and a committee consisting of Geo. Hall, Mr. Teyner and W. Harris was appointed to cooperate with the district attorney in securing a rate expert to be presented to the all-counties protest meeting before the state commission, to be held at Salem in a few weeks.

At this meeting the rural lines of the state will be represented at a rehearing of the rate question, and the local rural companies will be represented at the meeting by Geo. Hall, W. Teyner, W. Harris and District Attorney Stipp, when the data gathered by the coming expert will be produced to show the commission why the rural telephone rates should not be advanced.

T. V. Yanney, local manager of the Pacific Telephone company, appeared before the delegation and presented data purporting to justify the increased rates allowed. The committee, which will attend the all-counties meeting before the commission, will represent every rural telephone organization in Clackamas county and will go to the rehearing amply prepared to show why the rural rates should remain on the old schedule.

One City Shy of Water on Account of Stills Operated

MARTINS FERRY, O.—The pumping station can't keep the reservoir full at night. Officials say that it is because private distillers let water run over coils of stills from 10 to 12 hours at night.

"Here Comes The Bride!"

Everybody wishes her well! Happy and radiant she starts out on life's adventure. She should have health to begin with. Good looks in woman do not depend upon age, but upon health. You never see a good-looking woman who is weak, run-down, irritable, out of sorts, fidgety and nervous. Headaches, backaches, dragging-down pains, irregularities and troubles of that sort are all destroyers of beauty. Men do not admire sickness.

It is within the reach of every woman to be well, healthy and strong if she will take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Roseburg, Oreg.—"I suffered something terrible from an organic trouble. Could scarcely stand on my feet. My head and back ached so hard and I was weak and nervous. I had a severe pain in my side and my limbs and feet ached. I was also troubled with constipation. I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Golden Medical Discovery and the Pleasant Pellets, and these medicines relieved me of all my ailments and I was well and strong."—Miss W. D. Moore, 1246 N. Jackson Street.

Send 10c. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial package of any of his medicines.

Gladstone News

Mr. J. G. Nash is planning to open a residential studio in Gladstone in the near future. Mrs. Nash has recently completed a course of the Dunning system of music under Mrs. Laura Jones-Rawlinson, of Portland.

Saturday afternoon at 3:30 Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Laura Jones-Rawlinson will give a free analytical demonstration and afternoon tea at the Gladstone Christian church. All ladies interested are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Rawlinson will give an interesting talk and demonstrate the Dunning method with some of her pupils. She has charge of the Dunning school in Portland and is very well known throughout the northwest in musical circles.

The Parent-Teachers' association, of Gladstone, will hold a regular evening meeting at the school house Friday evening. Through the efforts of Mrs. R. G. Scott, the Parent-Teachers were organized the latter part of January and have held only seven meetings and have purchased three large framed standard pictures, and secured nearly enough money to place a much needed electric gong in the building; supplied the school cupboard with dishes for serving at least 100 persons.

Mrs. Wm. Hammond has arranged a musical program for Friday evening. The program: Violin solo, Miss Mildred Hull; special music by the school; vocal solo, Fred Tooez, Jr.; solo, Garland Hollowell; "The Early School of Gladstone," E. C. Hackett, who taught in the first school which still stands in Gladstone park. Judge H. E. Cross and others will speak on the early history of Gladstone and vicinity.

Refreshments will be served by the committee of which Mrs. Fred Hayward is chairman, and a social hour will be enjoyed.

The Gladstone library is steadily increasing in usefulness and popularity. New books are being donated. Mr. F. A. Burdon has given the library a neat sign for the building, which will be hung in the near future, in an appropriate place. Mrs. Frank Oswald, has as her assistant librarians, Miss Alice Freytag, Mrs. Ed. Rauch and Mrs. Harvey Wilson.

W. W. Leele is slightly improved and is confined to his home with lumbago.

Patterson Brothers have started work on the building to be used as a confectionery store at the corner of Cornell avenue and Clackamas boulevard. They recently purchased six very desirable lots there of Mr. Cohen. They also plan a modern home facing Cornell avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Blain Hansell of Lewiston, Idaho, arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Holmes, in Parkplace, Sunday. They came from Athena, Oregon, where funeral services were held for their two-month-old son, who died suddenly of heart failure at their Lewiston home, April 14.

Miss Mary Lucas, of Parkplace, cousin of Mrs. Hansell, is staying at the latter's home during their absence, caring for little Reta May Hansell.

Friends of Mrs. H. S. Rankin will be pleased to hear of her improved condition. Mrs. Rankin was formerly Miss Anna Rinearson, of Gladstone, and is at the Oregon City hospital recovering after a serious surgical operation.

Miss Edna Rouan is confined to her home with a severe cold. Miss Rouan recently returned to her home after spending the week with Miss Vivian Etters.

The Ladies' Aid of the Gladstone Christian church will serve a baked Chinook salmon supper at the church Wednesday evening. The ladies of the Ways and Means committee are Mrs. Kyler, Mrs. E. O. Alexander and Mrs. C. Frost.

The Christian church is holding a series of several revival meetings which commenced Monday evening. Rev. and Mrs. F. F. Clay are temporarily making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Frost.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Getchell have rented their home on East Arlington street to Mr. and Mrs. Garland Hollowell for the summer. Mr. Getchell is treating his house to a new coat of paint.

Mrs. Hilda Parker left Tuesday for Silvertown, where she will visit with friends for a few days.

Harold Freytag, of Caldwell, Idaho, is visiting relatives in Gladstone and Oregon City this week. Mr. Freytag expects to make his home in Portland.

Guy La Salle is completing a modern home in East Gladstone.

J. W. Eby, of Molalla, who is serving on the grand jury in Oregon City was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards W. Eby Monday. Mr. Eby spent Tuesday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Eby at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Rose Eby-Taylor, in Portland.

One of the most enjoyable dancing parties was given by Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Saturday evening at Outlook, in honor of their daughter, Miss Sylvia. About forty couples enjoyed the evening. Delicious refreshments were served at 12 o'clock.

PUBLICITY BLDG. TO BE MOVED OR SOLD BY CLUB

The Clackamas County Farm Bureau and the Oregon City Commercial club are facing a problem involving the disposition of the building used as headquarters of the offices for the farm bureau and the county agent, but owned by the Commercial club. The structure was erected about 19 years ago and was intended as offices for the publicity department of the club and was so used until the department ceased to function. The ground was owned, until recently by the Weinhard estate, which made no charge for ground rent, but the land has been transferred to William Felton, and he has asked the club to pay a ground rental of $35 a month to move the building off. Unless the building is sold where it stands, it will be necessary to move it to another location, as the club derives no revenue from its use by the farm bureau.

The two organizations will confer for the purpose of finding a solution to the question, and it has been suggested that permission be secured from the county court to place the building near the southwest corner of the courthouse square where it would not injure the appearance of the lawn or the county building. If this should be done, the county would acquire possession of the structure without cost, it is understood.

One of Kelso's good school programs was given last Saturday night which was largely attended and much enjoyed. The following program was given: Song, "Oregon, My Oregon," school recitation, "Welcome," Dolly Rathke; pantomime, "When Mammy Goes to Market," by the darkey dramatic club.
