

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Kroese, of Maple Lane, a daughter whose weight is nine pounds. The baby, born April 21, at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. August Splinter, of Maple Lane, is honored with the name of Alvina Elizabeth in honor of her two grandmothers, Mrs. Kroese and Mrs. Splinter. This is the first grandchild in the Splinter family. Mr. and Mrs. Kroese are residents of Portland, but the latter was formerly Miss May Splinter of Maple Lane.

John Hellberg, well known farmer of the Pete's Mountain district, is confined to his room, suffering from a dislocated shoulder. Mr. Hellberg accidentally slipped and fell while performing his chores at his home about a week ago, and believing that his injuries were of a minor nature, failed to summon a physician until Friday morning, when Dr. H. S. Mount was called to the family home finding the injured man to be suffering the dislocation.

Mrs. Rosetta Olmstead, after visiting in this city at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Bucholz, left Wednesday for her home at Whittier, Iowa. While enroute she will visit in Montana. So favorably impressed with Oregon, was she, that Mrs. Olmstead is looking forward to a similar trip to Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. James Holloway, of Portland, are to make their home in Oregon City, where the former is connected with the office of the Crown Willamette Paper company. Mr. Holloway has been connected with the offices of the company in Portland for some time, and also in San Francisco, and Floriston, Calif.

Carl Stromgren, prominent farmer of Colton, was among the Oregon City visitors Friday. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Pearl, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural college, but owing to poor health, has returned for the present. Miss Stromgren is a graduate of the Oregon City high school.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Junor, at the Deaconess hospital in Salem, a son, whose weight is nine pounds, and who has been given the name of Hugh James. Mrs. Junor was formerly Miss Clara Fullam, of Redland. Mr. Junor is golf instructor of the Illabe Country club at Salem.

J. K. Kraus, of Aurora, prominent resident of that place, was in Oregon City Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Kraus' wife underwent a critical operation in the Oregon City hospital Wednesday. He returned to his home Thursday, as his wife is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinnott were in Portland Wednesday, where they attended the marriage of their son, Thomas J. Sinnott, and Miss Loretta Anne Quinn, of Portland, a social event of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Edwards are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son, born in the Oregon City hospital Thursday, April 21. Mrs. Edwards was formerly Miss Clara Webber, of this city.

Dr. McLean, prominent physician of Los Angeles, Calif., has arrived in Oregon City where he is a guest of his son, Dr. Edward McLean, and family, making his first visit to the city.

Frank Sullivan, of Portland, was in Oregon City on business Thursday, also visiting his friends. Mr. Sullivan was a former resident of Oregon City.

James Nelson, of Multno, was among the Oregon City visitors on Thursday. He was formerly county assessor.

James Ekberg and family, of Beaver Hill, were in Oregon City Thursday. While here they were registered at the Electric.

Delbert Husbands, of Molalla, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday and Thursday. He returned to his home Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Helm, of Oak Grove, are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter, born Saturday morning, April 23.

Mrs. Lillian McCormack, accompanied by her daughter, Avis, left on Saturday afternoon for Molalla, where they are spending Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Conrad.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kroll, of 1417 Madison street, a daughter, whose name is Anna Mary.

E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas county, ex-recorder, was in Oregon City on business Saturday.

Mrs. Cora Caster, of The Dalles, Oregon, is in Oregon City for a few days.

H. Klang, of Colton, was among those to visit in Oregon City Thursday.

Judge Robert Beattie, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City on business Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. John Fuller, of Canby, were in this city on business Thursday.

Among those to visit Oregon City Wednesday and Thursday was F. W. Day, whose home is at El Paso.

Arthur Borland, of Tualatin Meadows, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

O. R. Nichols, of Corvallis, was among those to visit Oregon City Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Winnifred McKinney, book keeper for the Molalla bank, and her brother, Wilford McKinney, of Portland, recently arriving here from Medford, where he has been employed, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Cannon, their uncle and aunt Sunday Mr. McKinney left Monday for Portland to accept a position. Their home is in Iowa, and are spending the year in Oregon, and are delighted with the climate. They accompanied their mother to Oregon last fall, the latter returning to her home, but will probably come to Oregon next summer for a visit.

Mrs. E. R. Gregory and son Edward, who have been visiting relatives in Portland, were in Oregon City Sunday on their way to their home at Greenwood. They were accompanied to Oregon City by Mrs. Gregory's sister, Mrs. George Weller, of San Francisco, who is visiting her sisters, the Misses Shriver, of Portland, also by Charles Gregory, Kathryn and Albert Argo, of Portland, making the trip by automobile.

Dr. and Mrs. Underdahl, and son, Harold, of Portland, who have been spending the past three weeks in Oregon City as guests of Mrs. Underdahl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Freese, returned to their home Monday morning. While here Dr. Underdahl enjoyed several fishing trips. He had excellent luck in getting both trout and salmon.

G. M. Anderson was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Taylor Sunday. Mr. Anderson and Mr. Taylor were former schoolmates while residing in Pennsylvania. He has been visiting in Milwaukie and left Monday for Hood River, where he is to visit his daughter.

Miss Allie Morrell and Fred Dahlheim, of Portland, were in Oregon City Sunday, and also were guests of Miss Gertrude Willson, of Willamette. Mr. Dahlheim came here to attend a meeting of the Mooseheart Legion at the Moose hall.

A party composed of Edward Miller, Ken and Len Thompson, Mr. Burdick left here Saturday afternoon. Their destination was Trout Creek, where they were successful in getting their limit of good sized trout.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Cannon, of Portland, were in Oregon City Sunday. While here they were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Cannon.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Shively and daughters, Elizabeth and Margaret, were in Oregon City Sunday, where they were the guests of the former's sister, Miss Lillian Shively.

G. A. Kohl, of Logan, was in Oregon City on legal business Monday, coming here to settle up the estate of his father, the late Phillip Kohl.

M. Hattian, of Carver, was in this city on Monday. While here he visited among some of his old time friends.

Frank Whitten, of Hazelia, was among the Oregon City visitors on Monday.

T. W. Hampton, E. J. Bishop and W. R. Hampton, of Portland, are spending the week in Oregon City.

A. Dietz, of St. Louis, Mo., arrived in Oregon City Monday for a few days' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Brown, of Albany, were in this city Sunday and Monday.

Among the Oregon City visitors on Sunday was Henning Klang, of Colton.

L. J. Macklin, of Minneapolis, Minn., was in Oregon City Monday. While here he registered at the Electric.

Rev. W. Boyd Moore, pastor of the Methodist church at Canby, was in Oregon City on business Monday.

County Recorder J. G. Noe was called to Woodburn by the illness of his mother Monday afternoon.

Miss Geneva Young visited friends in Portland Monday.

C. P. Lafferty, of Colton, was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

F. Davenport, of Salem, was in Oregon City Saturday and Sunday.

Among the Oregon City visitors from Estacada Saturday was W. A. Bard.

Forrest Mills, prominent resident of Aurora, was among the Oregon City visitors Saturday.

A. J. Zimmerman, of Aurora, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

Among the Oregon City visitors on Tuesday was Aden Miller, whose home is at Aurora.

Frank Willey and wife, of Portland, were in this city Monday and Tuesday.

E. J. Bishop, of Portland, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Tuesday.

Grant Robbins, employed in a logging camp near Clarks, is spending a few days in Oregon City.

W. R. Mann, of Roseburg, was among those to transact business in this city Tuesday.

Mrs. Wilson, of Woodburn, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Albert Wolfhagen, of Boring, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

O. Van Enam, of Milwaukie, was an Oregon City visitor Tuesday.

S. N. Kilgore, of Estacada, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Miss Ada Bedwell, who has been spending the past two months in California, returned to Oregon City Monday evening, after having a most delightful time. While in Los Angeles, Miss Bedwell visited her aunt, Mrs. Don Orrell, and was also the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Feaster, former residents of Canephah, who are making their home for the present in Los Angeles. While in San Francisco Miss Bedwell made a number of sightseeing trips. Among these were through Chinatown, to the Twin Peaks on a motoring trip and along the beach at the Cliff House and through Golden Gate park. During her stay in Los Angeles the weather was ideal, and she was delighted with the climate and beauty of the city. While enroute home Miss Bedwell visited Oakland and Berkeley. Miss Bedwell resumed her position as night operator for the Pacific Telephone company, being one of the company's most efficient and obliging operators.

The many friends of Thomas W. Pope, who has been in Portland for some time at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith, will be pleased to hear that he is now able to be out after being confined to his room for a number of months. Mr. Pope underwent a critical operation in a Portland hospital. He and his wife are now making their home in Portland. Their apartment is being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Pope.

Mrs. W. Kays, of Eugene, accompanied by her daughter, Myrtle, who has been in this city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Goldsmith, have gone to Portland for a few days' visit with friends. Mrs. Kays is the mother of Mrs. Leona Jacobs, the well known artist of New York, whose drawings are appearing on many magazines, among these being the Delineator and People's Pictorial Monthly, the latter having just arrived in Oregon City.

Marian Pope, six-year-old daughter of Charles Pope, of this city, is to take an active part in an entertainment to be held in Portland in the near future, when she will appear in a fancy dance, known as the "Moth" dance. The little girl has been taking special instruction in Portland and is a most graceful little dancer.

Mrs. Maggie Johnson, of Milwaukie, prominent real estate dealer of that place, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. Mrs. Johnson says a large number of houses of modern structure are now under construction at Milwaukie, and during the past few months a number of important real estate transfers have been made.

Miss May Waldron, of this city, has accepted a position as stenographer for the office of the county agent. Mrs. Don James, formerly connected with this office, has taken up newspaper work in this city, having accepted a position with the Gladstone Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Dallas and daughter, Greta, of Clarkes, were in Oregon City Tuesday, returning to their home after spending the weekend at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Holcomb, of Carver.

Mrs. E. Northrup, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, were over Sunday visitors in this city with the former's daughter, Mrs. James B. Johnson.

Mrs. Charles Noblitt, of Needy, formerly of Oregon City, was visiting in this city Tuesday. She was accompanied by Miss Carothers.

W. W. Everhart, of Molalla, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. "Billy" visited among his many friends while here.

C. W. Carothers, of Needy, prominent resident of that section of the county, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday.

Y. E. Carey, of Estacada, was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. Mr. Carey is one of the realty dealers of that place.

P. E. Bonney, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Friday and Saturday.

P. E. Larson, of Seattle, was in this city Thursday.

WILLAMETTE FORGER SENTENCED TO ONE YEAR

Charles F. Schrek, of Willamette, found guilty of forgery, was Monday morning sentenced to one year in the penitentiary by Judge Campbell.

Advertisement for Dr. Freeze Eye Specialist, located at 505 1/2 Main Street, Oregon City. The ad features illustrations of various types of eyeglasses, including 'The Original Idea', 'The Next Improvement', and 'The Final Perfection'. The text describes the benefits of different lens types like double spectacles, bifocals, and kryptok glasses, and offers a free eye examination.

Society

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was a silver tea given at the hospitable home of Mrs. Charles D. Latourette Wednesday afternoon under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church for the benefit of the church was a most enjoyable and successful event.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Julia Haskell, Mrs. O. E. Freytag and Mrs. Beecroft.

During the afternoon a musical program was highly appreciated, when a quartette composed of Mrs. L. L. Porter, Mrs. Walter Wentworth, Mrs. John Crawford and Miss Maude Lageson, sang "Last Night" and "Kentucky Babe," responding to an encore. Miss Maude Lageson and Mrs. Walter Wentworth sang solos, and were thoroughly enjoyed. The accompanist of the afternoon was Miss Frances Bowland.

An appetizing repast was served by the hostesses. The proceeds of the affair amounted to $35, of which $14 was from the silver offering, while the remainder was turned into the treasury by members who had earned their dollar and told of the manner in which the money was raised, causing much amusement.

The decorations were artistically arranged, when deroicums and dogwood blossoms were used, the color scheme being white and yellow.

Attending were Mrs. Walter Wentworth, Mrs. Samuel Stevens, Mrs. Mary R. Caulfield, Mrs. H. Coffey, Mrs. Charles H. Canfield, Mrs. Thomas Keith, Mrs. L. Adams, Mrs. J. R. Mark, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Mrs. H. Leisman, Mrs. James Roake, Mrs. J. H. Snover, Miss Gertrude Humphrey, Mrs. J. Surber, Mrs. Ada Pearl, Mrs. George Debock, Mrs. Beecroft, Mrs. A. B. Chappelle, Mrs. H. C. Stevens, Mrs. Maxie O'Hill, Mrs. Nellie P. Shaw, Mrs. Rosina Fouts Evans, Mrs. F. A. Reams, Mrs. Lena Charman, Mrs. Sophia Charman, Mrs. William R. Money, Mrs. E. L. Shaw, Mrs. A. McDonald, Mrs. Fred J. McCausland, Miss Muriel Stevens, Mrs. L. L. Porter, Mrs. F. J. Meyer, Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Mrs. O. E. Freytag.

The wedding of Miss Loretta Anne Quinn, of Portland, and Thomas John Sinnott, of this city, taking place at the Pro-Cathedral, Portland, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock was one of the social events of that city, the ceremony being performed by Rev. George Campbell, pastor.

As the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March pealed forth with Professor W. Goodrich, presiding at the organ, the bridal party entered the church. The bride, accompanied by her matron of honor, Mrs. Robert MacDonald, preceded by the bride's maids, Miss Madeline Quinn, sister of the bride, and her cousin, Miss Loretta Chapman, were met at the lower altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Clarence Brazel, of Portland. Father Campbell celebrated the nuptial mass, uniting in marriage the young couple.

During the impressive marriage ceremony, Miss Esther Hogan sang "Ave Maria" by Goodrich, followed by "Oh Perfect Love," by Miss Mina Dressel. Miss Elizabeth Levy, an accomplished violinist of Salem, rendered "Salut D'Amour" by Edgar, and "To A Wild Rose" by MacDowell, adding to the impressiveness of the ceremony.

As the bridal party was leaving the church, Professor Goodrich played "Mendelssohn's Wedding March." Several hundred people, many from Oregon City attended.

A wedding breakfast served to the bridal party and relatives of the contracting parties took place at the home of Mrs. Samuel J. Mooney, aunt of the bride. The rooms were beautifully decorated in delicately shaded roses and ferns. The table centered with card table, the cardles being shaded in pink.

The bride was a picture of loveliness in her handsome gown of ivory colored satin, made entrain. The long panel of bodice and skirt was of accordion platted chiffon, and at each side were folds of satin finished with tiny clusters of orange blossoms. Her long tulle veil worn by her mother, the late Mrs. M. P. Quinn, was held in place by a coronet of real lace. Her shower bouquet was of Ophelia roses, lilies of the valley and orchids.

The matron of honor was becomingly gowned in apricot organdie, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas to match.

Miss Madeline Quinn wore pretty pink organdie, and Miss Loretta Chapman was attired in an attractive gown of orchid colored organdie, carrying sweet peas to match.

The matron of honor and the bride's maids wore large picture hats to match their gowns. The ushers were Robert and James Sheehy of Portland.

The church was beautifully decorated by friends of the young couple. The high altar was beautified with callas and St. Joseph's lilies and evergreens. The decorations of the lower altar were of white lilies and evergreens, while palms were used in setting off the sanctuary.

Many handsome and useful gifts were received by the young couple, showing their popularity among their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinnott left on the afternoon train for Vancouver, B. C., and after spending a week on their honeymoon, will return to Portland, where they will be at home to their friends at the Fordham Apartments.

Previous to her departure, the bride threw her bouquet, which was caught by her cousin, Miss Loretta Chapman.

The bride is one of the most popular girls of Portland, having been the guest of honor of many social affairs previous to her marriage, and is a general favorite among her circle of friends. She is an active member of the Cathedral parish, and a graduate of the St. Mary's Academy, and daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Quinn, of Portland. On several occasions the bride has visited in this city.

Mr. Sinnott, a well known young newspaper man, is the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sinnott, well known residents of Oregon City. Having been connected with publications of this city, Southern Oregon, and later taking up his newspaper work in Portland, he has made good in his undertaking. He is connected with the W. S. Kirkgatrick Advertising Service in Portland, and is also a member of the faculty at the school of Journalism of the Extension of the University of Oregon in Portland.

The "Minna" Club met at the Moose banquet hall Wednesday, where the day was devoted to needlework. At 12 o'clock a hot dinner was enjoyed. Places were laid for Mrs. Paul Burns, Mrs. Paul Praeger, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wenger, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Frost, Mrs. Al Cox, Mr. and Mrs. C. McDonald, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mrs. Decker, Miss Ethel Frost, Bernice Lavier, Beverly Cox and Lela Cox.

Mrs. William Stover was taken unaware at her home on Twelfth and Monroe streets Wednesday afternoon, when a number of her friends called in a body to remind her they had not forgotten her birthday anniversary, by bringing beautiful flowers that were used in decorating the rooms and table.

During the afternoon a dinner was served, each guest bringing some delicacy to add to the menu, and this was thoroughly enjoyed.

The afternoon was devoted to a social time. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. William Stover, Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Kraxberger, Mrs. Gus Schnoor, Mrs. P. J. Winkel and daughter, Miss Clara Winkel, Mrs. George Dambach, and daughter, Amelia, Mrs. C. Priebe, Mrs. Hopp, Mrs. Stall, Mrs. Schaudt, Mrs. Chris Hartman and daughter, Helen, Mrs. Theodore Strohmeyer and Mrs. John Vigilius.

Mrs. William Rakel entertained in a charming manner at a family reunion in Canemah Thursday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband. This was the first gathering of the Rakel family that has been held at the old home for some time, and proved a most enjoyable occasion. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. August Rakel.

The rooms were artistically decorated with carnations. Dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock, and seated around the prettily decorated table were Mr. and Mrs. August Rakel and children, Dorothy and Bernice, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stevens and children, Dorothy and Samuel, Mr. and Mrs. George Rakel and children, Yelma Edna, Verma and George, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Winkel and children, Miss Clara, Fred, Charles and Harold, Miss Lena Schroder Mr. and Mrs. William Rakel and children, Margaret and Ruth.

The evening was devoted to cards and music.

Mrs. M. D. Latourette was a charming hostess of members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club and a few of her other friends at her home Thursday afternoon, when cards were enjoyed for several hours. The club prizes went to Mrs. J. R. Humphrys and Mrs. C. H. Meissner, and the guest prize to Mrs. William Folger.

Refreshments were served during the afternoon. The rooms of the Latourette home were artistically decorated with dogwood and apple blossoms, arranged in baskets and bowls.

Attending were Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. Lena Charman, Mrs. H. L. Clark, Mrs. H. E. Hendry, Mrs. J. R. Humphrys, Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, Mrs. C. H. Meissner, Mrs. L. A. Morris, Mrs. L. P. Porter, Mrs. A. A. Price, Mrs. E. P. Rands, Mrs. William Wright, Mrs. L. A. Henderson, Mrs. Clyde Mount, Mrs. Clyde Huntley, Mrs. Thomas Keith, Mrs. Charles Caulfield, Mrs. Lily Stipp, Mrs. L. E. Jones, Mrs. E. T. Avison, Mrs. Frank Mount, Mrs. Frank T. Young, Mrs. Thomas W. Sullivan, Mrs. E. L. Shaw, Mrs. Hattie Daulton, Mrs. William Folger, Mrs. Earl Latourette, of Portland; Mrs. Nellie Shaw, of West Lake, Idaho.

A family reunion was held at the home of George Randall Monday evening, April 18th, the occasion being in honor of his 80th birthday anniversary, and proved a most enjoyable affair.

The rooms of the Randall home were beautifully decorated in red carnations and ferns. The table was correspondingly decorated. An attractive birthday cake bearing the birth date of Mr. Randall added to the decorative scheme of the table.

Mr. Randall was remembered by his children and their families with a number of pretty and useful gifts. The hostess is one of the well known residents of Clackamas county. He was born at North Bradley, England, in 1841, and came to the United States when a lad of 16 years, first settling at Rockville, Conn. He came to Oregon by way of Isthmus of Panama in 1867, settling in Oregon City, where he secured employment with the Oregon City Woolen Mills. After remaining here for about three months, he bought a farm east of New Era, known as Central Point, consisting of 200 acres. This he tilled and improved, until it is now one of the finest farms in the county, which is operated by his son, George Randall, Jr.

Since coming to Clackamas county Mr. Randall has taken an active part in the welfare of the county and city, and is a member of the Live Wires and Oregon City Commercial Club, also active member of the Methodist church for many years.

Attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. George Randall and son, Gilbert, of Central Point; Mrs. W. W. Brown, of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. A. Pollard and children, Ruth and Jewell, of Springfield, Oregon; Mrs. Lottie Crawford and children, Dorothy and Randall, Mr. Randall.

The dancing party given in the Elk's temple by the Elk's Lodge Wednesday evening was one of the most successful and enjoyable events held by the order. This was largely attended, many from out of town attending. The merry dancers enjoyed the excellent music furnished by a Portland orchestra.

Among the dances enjoyed was the old fashioned quadrille, when Fred Curran called for the dance, while the Paul Jones was being danced Milton Price called forth the dances, both of which caused much amusement by those taking part.

Punch was served during the evening.

Miss Gladys Davis gave several fancy dances, responding to a hearty encore. The committee in charge of this event was composed of M. A. MacDonald, Milton Price and Elmer E. Davis. So successful was this affair that a similar one will be given by request, and will be in the form of a May ball.

The ball was the first to be given since the new officers took their place in office.

One of the events that is being looked forward to with pleasure by the members of the Elk's Lodge, is the big salmon feast to take place at the Elk's temple Friday evening, when some of the largest salmon that swim the Willamette river will grace the long tables.

John J. Tobin, who has had much experience planning barbecues, is to be assisted in serving the royal Chinook by Charles Bollinger and Herman Rakel.

The affair is for members of the Elk's lodge, and is to be in the form of a stag party.

One of the largest social events of the season was the big ball at West Linn last Saturday evening, given for the benefit of the Crown Willamette baseball team. Several hundred people gathered at the beautiful hostelry to either dance to the excellent music furnished by the Kewpie Olson orchestra of Portland or to watch the merry dancers and listen to the latest musical selections.

Many out of town people including those from Lebanon, Portland, and Canamas were among those attending. The lobby, club and dining rooms were opened for the dancers, and were prettily decorated with Oregon grape, ferns and dogwood blossoms. These were artistically arranged in Indian baskets, while sprays of dogwood blossoms were used in banking the mantels. Adding to the beauty of the interior of the handsome hostelry were pretty gowns worn by the women, making it a sight long to be remembered by those attending.

Punch was served during the evening, many partaking of the refreshing drink.

At 12 o'clock "Home Sweet Home" was rendered by the orchestra, closing the first big ball held in the Crown Willamette Inn.

The proceeds of the ball amounted to several hundred dollars, this to be used as a fund to purchase nobby suits for the ball players and for incidentals during the ball game season.

The committee in charge of the event, and deserving of much credit for its success was composed of T. F. Middlebrook, W. T. Newman and Frank Cramer, who were assisted by other employees of the Crown Willamette Paper Company, who are taking an interest in the baseball team.

The engagement of Miss Veta E. Lynch, of this city, and Merritt A. Willson, of Willamette, is announced, the marriage to be an event of the early part of May.

Miss Lynch, who is one of Oregon City popular girls, is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynch, of this city, and graduate of the Oregon City high school. She is connected with the office of the Crown Willamette Paper Company.

Mr. Willson, who is also connected with a department in the office of the Crown Willamette Paper Company, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willson, of Willamette, and a well known young man.

The Girls' Friendly Society enjoyed the meeting Wednesday evening, which was in the form of a party at the Parish house. This was largely attended, and dancing and music were the features of the evening.

Refreshments were served by a committee.

At the meeting on Wednesday evening the members will spend the time in needlework.

The "Come If You Can" Club of the Willamette Rebekah Lodge held one of its enjoyable dinners and social afternoons at the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday, and was well attended. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. S. S. Walker and Mrs. E. M. Scouton.

The merry dancers enjoyed the excellent music furnished by a Portland orchestra.

Among the dances enjoyed was the old fashioned quadrille, when Fred Curran called for the dance, while the Paul Jones was being danced Milton Price called forth the dances, both of which caused much amusement by those taking part.

Punch was served during the evening.

Miss Gladys Davis gave several fancy dances, responding to a hearty encore. The committee in charge of this event was composed of M. A. MacDonald, Milton Price and Elmer E. Davis. So successful was this affair that a similar one will be given by request, and will be in the form of a May ball.

The ball was the first to be given since the new officers took their place in office.

One of the events that is being looked forward to with pleasure by the members of the Elk's Lodge, is the big salmon feast to take place at the Elk's temple Friday evening, when some of the largest salmon that swim the Willamette river will grace the long tables.

John J. Tobin, who has had much experience planning barbecues, is to be assisted in serving the royal Chinook by Charles Bollinger and Herman Rakel.

The affair is for members of the Elk's lodge, and is to be in the form of a stag party.

One of the largest social events of the season was the big ball at West Linn last Saturday evening, given for the benefit of the Crown Willamette baseball team. Several hundred people gathered at the beautiful hostelry to either dance to the excellent music furnished by the Kewpie Olson orchestra of Portland or to watch the merry dancers and listen to the latest musical selections.

Many out of town people including those from Lebanon, Portland, and Canamas were among those attending. The lobby, club and dining rooms were opened for the dancers, and were prettily decorated with Oregon grape, ferns and dogwood blossoms. These were artistically arranged in Indian baskets, while sprays of dogwood blossoms were used in banking the mantels. Adding to the beauty of the interior of the handsome hostelry were pretty gowns worn by the women, making it a sight long to be remembered by those attending.

Punch was served during the evening, many partaking of the refreshing drink.

At 12 o'clock "Home Sweet Home" was rendered by the orchestra, closing the first big ball held in the Crown Willamette Inn.

The proceeds of the ball amounted to several hundred dollars, this to be used as a fund to purchase nobby suits for the ball players and for incidentals during the ball game season.

The committee in charge of the event, and deserving of much credit for its success was composed of T. F. Middlebrook, W. T. Newman and Frank Cramer, who were assisted by other employees of the Crown Willamette Paper Company, who are taking an interest in the baseball team.

The engagement of Miss Veta E. Lynch, of this city, and Merritt A. Willson, of Willamette, is announced, the marriage to be an event of the early part of May.

Miss Lynch, who is one of Oregon City popular girls, is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynch, of this city, and graduate of the Oregon City high school. She is connected with the office of the Crown Willamette Paper Company.

Mr.