attended the Sunday school conven tion at Cottrell and also came to church in Sandy in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Russell who came in from Hood River Saturday evening where Mr. Russell has been with an engineering crew attended the big dance and carried off the prize honors for the most graceful couple on the floor. The prize was two fifty each but Mrs. Russell kept the five! The Russels went to McMinnville from Sandy.

The report of the Rebekah convention here will appear in next week's issue A special meeting was held Tuesday night by the Sandy lodge.

Jimmie Wofle has gone to Eastern Oregon where he expects employment on a ranch.

Mrs. John Sladke gave a neighbor hood dancing party last Saturda, night at her Brightwood home.

Jack Greenwood was down again Saturday night from Rhododendren. Mr. Greenwood is always so cheery folks are glad to see him drop down from the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ruppreth of Portland have rented the Barber place and took posession the first of last week. Mr. Barber was out from the city to initiate his tennants and hoped to do some work himself but the rain prevented so he returned to Poptland

Saturday, April 23, there was a mixture of snow and rain most of the day at Firwood and in the evening the same composition was distributed heer but the merry dancers didn't mind, they came anyway. A certain "wag" wondered how many would turn out to a village "prayer meeting" on such a night from the country round! After all it's the desire that makes the effort easy whether 'tis December or July weather.

George Beers flitted to Portland in his ilivver and then to Cherryville and back in the storm one day last werk, but that was nothing for George The Shelleys made a business trip to Greshem the other day. Min Ellen Stone whose home in years gone by was on Sandy-ridge was at the Cotterll convention Sunday. Miss Stone works in Portland but comes to Pleasant Home week ends to help with the S. S. work there. F. W. Tipton of Oregon City passed through town Saturday on his way up to his summer home at Rhododendren. S. J. Allen who was out for the week end reports R. S. Shepherd's wrist as getting along very well. A week ago Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd were at their country place on the Bluff road and Mr. Shepherd broke his wrist trying to crank his auto. Alfre-l Hovt who happened to be a "week ender" also, lent first aid. George Malar has returned to Canada where he hopes to sell his wheat farm and come back to Portland to live.

Anton Malar Sr., is still taking long automobile rides around the scenic parts of Portland and is happy and feeling well according to his daughter. Mrs. Marie Farnham proprietor of the Clyde hotel and is enjoying her father's visit greatly.

W. S. Strack made a business trip to Hillsboro during the past week.

Mr. Sneed, the mountain passenger and truck man passed through town Saturday headed for "up above." And now "Zeke" Beers has "Fords

Sandy was the cause. Mrs. E. J. Strack and little John went to Portland Monday remaining till Wednesday evening. They went to shows, visited the Hensley family attended to errands and had a good country better than the city life. Joe Lilly has fixed up a bachelo camp over at Deep Creek since the new rock crushed is ready for action. Joe says he can stand his own cooking which speaks well for him. "Too expensive to drive so far over roads like this weather makes."

William Fisher of Firwood is lucky farmer for he has all of his grain crop in and his potatoes planted. Fred Wencell was in town from Linnton a few days ago and said tho the planing crew would be kept at work for awhile.

It has been so rainy the past week that the county caterpillar could not crawl, so Zeke Beers and Carl Loundree came home to stir up acquaintance with the home folks again!

More leases are being signed up from time to time for lots by persons desiring summer homes in the vicinity of Rhododendren.

SANDY SCHOOL NOTES.

SANDY, April 26 .- Miss Bess Barton was an all day guest of the A. E Collier home last Sunday.

Mrs. Lillian Ten Evck went to Portland again last Saturday, she had to go, stormy as it was Little Catherine Allen went to the city with her Aunt Lizzie, remaining over night to visit with her father, and returning Saturday.

The six weeks tests were on last week and this which is always a "trying" time for teachers and pupils. Sweet graduates cannot help feel :

little anxiety over the weather and wonder if flannels will be in order for cement instead of dainty, fluffy things!

Attilio Cereghino finds walking so far to school through the mud a little hard as two continuous years in the trenches gave him a touch of rheuma tism in his legs, but he is delighted with the progress he is making in learning English and with the continued respectful treatment of the Sandy pupils.

Five dollars and five hours were alloted to Cora Ten Eyck, U. of O. freshman with which to prepare five luncheons in the home economics class one day last week, and Cora met all the requirements, but of course she would! Mrs. Lillian Tingle was one of the luncheon guests. Cora is also on the honor list for grades. Marguerite, Mildred and Ruth Barnett have been housed up with a light attack of mumps for the past two weeks and they have all been missed at school and Sunday school.
